

MEETING OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF BOARD OF REGENTS OF STATE UNIVERSITY
Friday, October 15, 1920, at the office of A. A. Sedillo.

Present: Messrs. Reidy, Sedillo, and Hill.

Settlement of Bill with Albuquerque Gas & Electric Company. Concerning the bill of $405.00 for the laying of electric conduits, the offer of compromise upon payment of $252.89 secured by President Hill from Mr. Prager, Manager, was accepted and President Hill was authorized to close the matter by payment of the amount. (See letter of Arthur Prager of October 13, 1920.)

Regulations Concerning Women Students. The following Regulations were presented by President Hill with the indorsement of the Advisory Council of the Faculty and of the General Supervisor of Women, Dr. Edna Mosher. The Regulations (A) (B) (C) (D) (E) were approved by the Executive Committee of the Board of Regents.

Regulations Concerning Women Enrolled in the State University of New Mexico.

(A)---General Regulations

- (1) The Students Code for Womens Residentials Halls, adopted on October 11, 1919, by the Women of the Residential Halls and afterwards adopted officially by every Sorority in the University is hereby confirmed, approved, and continued. It is also the judgment of the Board that the spirit of this Code shall apply to women students living in private homes.
- (2) Any University woman regularly employed by the University or by some person outside, who is giving part of her time to remunerative employment should notify the General Supervisor, together with the hours which she is employed.
- (3) Women students must not loiter in front of fraternity houses or other residences of the men students, or enter them unless to a function whose chaperon is approved by the General Supervisor.
- (4) No women student may use the University Swimming Pool after such hours as are posted by the University authorities. From the beginning of the first semester until otherwise noted the hour is 6:00 P. M.
- (5) Students are asked to report any need of repairs or necessary conveniences for the comfort of women's rest rooms, to the General Supervisor of Women.
- (6) All University Women are required to attend meetings called by the Supervisor.

(B)---Residence.

- (1) No University woman may live in a private house or rooming house which is not approved by the General Supervisor. This regulation applies to all girls not living in their own homes.
- (2) No woman registered in the University may change her rooming place without permission from the General Supervisor.
- (3) No person other than a registered student in the University may be permitted to live at a sorority or other house understood to be occupied exclusively by University women and their chaperon, unless permission is obtained from the Supervisor, who will refer the matter to the proper University authorities.
- (4) Women registered in the University wishing to leave the city while the University is in session must secure permission from the General Supervisor.

(C)---Chaperons.

- (1) Any organization or group of women living together in houses or apartments must make arrangements for a suitable chaperon with the General Supervisor. All persons selected to act as chaperon for a group must first be approved by the Supervisor, and are responsible to her for the enforcement of the house rules. They shall, thru interviews and reports, keep the Supervisor constantly in touch with these groups. The contract of any chaperon with a group may be terminated at any time by the General Supervisor if unsatisfactory conditions make it necessary.
- (2) Undergraduate girls must not go down town to dinner at night or to public entertainments or any social function during the week unless accompanied by the chaperon of the group or other escort or person approved by her. Chaperons of groups are asked to satisfy themselves that the younger girls have suitable companions when going down-town week-end nights.

(D)---Social Functions.

- (1) High School students from Albuquerque or elsewhere must not be invited to University functions which are not open to the public unless permission is secured from the General Supervisor.
- (2) Chaperons for any social function given by University students and to which University women are invited must be approved by the General Supervisor.

(3) Any group wishing to have a small social function of any kind which particularly concerns University students, are asked to register the date with the Chairman of the Committee on Student Affairs and secure the General Supervisor's approval of the chaperon or person in charge. Such functions not of general interest need not be announced on the Weekly Program, but functions are to be held at no time without approval of the Committee on Student Affairs.

(4) The opening and closing hour of any social function must be distinctly stated, and closed promptly at the hour agreed upon. The hour printed upon the University Program furnishes the chaperon with the time at which the students under their charge must leave any gathering and sufficient time shall then be allowed for their immediate return to their places of residence.

(5) No one shall act as coach for any dramatic, athletic, or other performance in which University women take part unless approved by the General Supervisor and by the President of the University.

(E)---Sororities.

(1) All matters regarding sororities must be referred in the first instance to the General Supervisor of Women.

(2) All Pan-Hellenic rules must be approved by the General Supervisor before they go into effect.

(3) Violations of Pan-Hellenic rules must be reported to the General Supervisor and she will take up the matter with the proper authorities.

(4) All invitations to sororities shall pass thru the hands of the General Supervisor on a day appointed by her in accordance with the Pan-Hellenic ruling.

(5) No student may become a member of any sorority until the end of the first semester, and then not until she has secured a written statement from the General Supervisor that she has successfully completed twelve hours of the University work for which she was registered.

(6) Each sorority must furnish the Supervisor, at the beginning of the school year, with a list of the active members of their chapter. After pledge day she should be furnished with a list of the pledges, and after each initiation with a list of the new members. These lists should be handed in within six days after the pledging or initiation, and any other change in the membership of the chapter should be reported within the same time.

(7) Each sorority must also furnish the Supervisor with the name of the person authorized to act for their chapter and with whom the Supervisor can confer on matters relating to the sorority.
