LA CHARLA SEMANAL CON EL CENTRO

Quick thoughts:

ONE WEEK UNTIL SPRING BREAK! This week, we understand that many of you are taking midterms and would like to wish you best of luck and good skill. Study hard, and feel free to come in and let us know how we can help you in what is one of the more stressful weeks of the semester.

This Week at El Centro:

Are you or someone you know an outstanding Lobo? The Raza Excellence Outstanding Student Award is now open for nominations which are due by TODAY, March 6th, so please act fast! See the attached flyer for more information or visit <https://elcentro.unm.edu> for eligibility requirements.

Study sessions for the semester are in full swing! Join us on Wednesdays from 5:00 pm to 9:00 pm for an evening of studying and snacks!

Join us on Thursday, March 9th for the second installment of El Centro's Immigration Series. This week, the topic will be on Health and wellness. The workshop will be held from 12:30 pm to 1:30 pm in the El Centro Conference room.

Join El Centro on March 29th, 2017 for our annual mentoring dinner. It be held from 6:00 pm to 8:00 pm in the SUB ballroom C. This dinner will serve to network with successful professionals in your field and learn ways to be successful. Please RSVP for this event on our website at elcentro.unm.edu or at <https://tinyurl.com/unm2017md>

For any questions please contact Alejandro Mendiaz at 505-277-5020.

This week at UNM:

Sign up for Cine Chicano y Mundial, an 8-week course in Spanish. In this course, you will be viewing and analyzing different films from various parts of the world. Movies will range from: Spain, Israel, Russia, Germany, China, and others. Please see the flyer for more information.

Undergraduate students with at least 60 credits by Fall 2017 and a 3.0 cumulative GPA are encouraged to apply for the 2017-2018 McNair and ROP cohort! Quote of the week:

“Success isn't always about greatness. It's about consistency. Consistent hard work leads to success. Greatness will come” -Dwayne “The Rock” Johnson

“Control what you can control. Don't lose sleep worrying about things that you don't have control over because, at the end of the day, you still won't have any control over them.” - Cameron Newton
