1. TODAY IS THE LAST DAY to turn in the form circulated by the Associated Students of UNM (ASUNM) requesting information from organizations and departments planning an event commemorating Sept. 11, 2001. The form can be accessed from ASUNM's website at <http://www.unm.edu/~asunm/> . Organizations planning an event are asked to return the form to the UNM Student Activities Center, sac@unm.edu, or send to room 280 in the Student Services Center. Information from the forms will be shared with the UNM community. <http://www.unm.edu/news/02-09-03/commemorates.htm>

2. UNM COLLEGE OF NURSING Dean Sandra L. Ferketich, convened recently served on a national panel at the National Institutes of Health State-of-the-Art conference. The panel concluded that cancer patients receive inadequate treatment for various symptoms including pain, depression and fatigue. The panel's work is relevant given the increasing number of people affected by cancer. <http://hscapp.unm.edu/calendar/output/index.cfm?fuseaction=main.release&EntryID=544>

3. TINA C. McNULTY, a lecturer in the UNM Occupational Therapy Graduate Program, received the Cordelia Meyers Writers Award from the American Occupational Therapy Association. The award recognizes the best article by a first time author in the American Journal of Occupational Therapy. The association confers only one award nationally each year. <http://hscapp.unm.edu/calendar/output/index.cfm?fuseaction=main.release&EntryID=536>
