2. UNM HAS A VARIETY of ongoing support services including activities, resources and organizations providing assistance to the campus community in response to last Tuesday's terrorist attacks in New York and Washington, D.C. Please contact the Public Affairs Department at 277-5813 to provide any additional information for support services. <http://www.unm.edu/news/Releases/Sep13services.htm>

3. A UNM FACULTY FORUM on the "Attack on America," will be held today from 3 to 5 p.m., in Anthropology 163. The events raise issues of ethics, politics, history, religion, psychology, law, medicine, economics, and others. This forum is a chance for the UNM community to draw on its own expertise and experience in response to the national and international crisis which these attacks have precipitated.

4. THE ANDERSON SCHOOLS OF MANAGEMENT have extended the deadline for nominations for the Second Annual Up-and-Comers Awards to Friday, Sept. 28. The Up-and-Comers Awards are designed to recognize 40 individuals from across the state who demonstrate excellence in their professional lives and through community service. Nominations are open to UNM faculty and staff and employees throughout the state. <http://www.unm.edu/news/Releases/Sep19asm.htm>

5. DUE TO A COMPUTER GLITCH at the UNM Science and Technology Park, any individual or group who has scheduled meetings in the coming year in the park's executive conference room, rotunda or MTTC auditorium, must call 272-7313 to confirm and/or reschedule.

UNM News Minute highlights items of interest to the campus community. UNM News Minute is published weekly during the fall and spring semesters and twice monthly during the summer by UNM's Public Affairs Department. News Minute postings are also available from the Internet at:
