Grants

Department Anthropology

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalrepository.unm.edu/nm_anthropologist

Recommended Citation

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Anthropology at UNM Digital Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in New Mexico Anthropologist by an authorized editor of UNM Digital Repository. For more information, please contact disc@unm.edu.
at the University of Wisconsin, will return to Portland. Dr. Morris Opler, who has been taking care of Goldenweiser's classes, will go to Claremont Colleges at Claremont, California. Dr. Wendel C. Bennett has been appointed to the University of Wisconsin.

Miss Elizabeth Hambleton has been appointed Associate in Southwestern Ethnology at Field Museum.

Dr. Frank Wissler was elected president of the American Association of Museums on May 18.

The United States Department of Agriculture has renewed the permit of the Department of Anthropology, University of New Mexico, for further archaeological work at Sandia Cave until December 31, 1938.

Dr. A. E. Jenks, head of the Department of Anthropology at the University of Minnesota, is retiring this year.

Dr. T. Wingate Todd, professor of anatomy at Western Reserve has been elected President of the American Association of Physical Anthropologists.

E. W. Gifford, curator of the Museum of Anthropology, University of California, has been promoted to rank of associate professor in anthropology.

Dr. Wilton M. Krogman, formerly with the department of Anatomy, Western Reserve, has been appointed associate professor of Physical Anthropology and Anatomy at the University of Chicago.

Dr. H. Turney High, anthropologist from the University of Montana, has just completed a year as visiting professor in the Department of Sociology at Tulane University, where he taught courses in anthropology.

*****

GRANTS

The following research grants have been made by the American Philosophical Society, Philadelphia:

$1,000 has been granted to Wesley Bliss, University of New Mexico, for study of evidence of early man on the eastern flank of the Canadian Rockies.

$600 has been granted to F. Martin Brown, Colorado College, for the study of various furs used by the aborigines of the Southwestern states.

$750 has been granted to Leslie Spier, Yale University, for the completion of an extended ethnography of the Modoc Indians of Oregon.

$1,000 has been granted to Harold S. Colton, Museum of Northern Arizona, to carry on archaeological excavations in Northwestern Arizona.