Global Warming Song

The sky seems normal, but it
The sun is shining, but there's not much snow.
So water's scare, and many crops won't grow.
The wind keeps blowing, and tornados rise.

Glaciers are melting, while the jungles burning can observe.

Gla - ciers are mel - ting, while the

The spring came early.

and the fall was late.

And many animals move.
north to mate.

The sky seems normal but it isn't so.
The sun is shining but there's not much snow, while the glaciers are melting.

And coastlines

corals die.

shrink within a sea that's high.
A child could be lost now.
if we fall...

The change that's coming's hard to...
