Quick thoughts:
¡Saludos! We hope that your week has started off on a good note! Here at El Centro de la Raza, we want our students to succeed and have an enjoyable college experience. Part of this process will be starting a weekly informative email called “La Charla Semanal con El Centro”. We hope that this new trend helps you by keeping you informed of events going on at El Centro and UNM, as well as friendly reminders throughout the semester. We would also like to help get your week started on a good note, therefore each week we will have one of our Student Programs Specialists or Student Success Leaders contribute a positive and uplifting quote. Our hope is that you find these emails helpful and take advantage of the wonderful opportunities. If you would like something posted on our Charla, please email us the wording and any flyers by Wednesday of the week before you want it posted.

This Week at El Centro:

- Our annual etiquette dinner is being held this Thursday, November 10th from 5:30-8:30 pm. Come learn the do’s and don’ts of professional dining. There is limited space available, so please RSVP by Wednesday, November 8th. To do so, follow this link: http://bit.ly/2fOPdlR

- El Centro will be partnering with the UNM Dream Team to provide the 4th session of Dream Zone training on November 10th and 11th. Please keep a lookout for more Dream Zone trainings in the Spring 2017 semester to learn how to better serve the undocumented student population at UNM. For more information about the undocumented movement go to: http://unitedwedream.org

- Cafecitos con Rosa will be held a little differently this week. Because of the #WeAreTheCore forum, we will be gathering in the conference room at 11:00am on Wednesday, having a quick conversation over some coffee, and then we will take our Cafecito to Ballroom A in the SUB to join the forum.

- Weekly study sessions are held every Wednesday from 5:00pm to 9:00pm in the Conference room. Please join us for snacks, coffee, and lots of studying.

This Week at UNM:

- UNM is holding a student forum titled #WEARETHECORE, where students can learn about the “proposed model for a new General Education Core curriculum”. Come voice your opinion and learn how this proposed model may affect Ethnic, Interdisciplinary, and Women Studies. The forum will be held on Wednesday, November 9th from 11:30am to 1:30pm in Sub Ballroom A.
• The Mexican American Law Student Association (MALSA) and Native American Law Students Association (NALSA) will be holding a FREE practice LSAT on Saturday November 12 at 10:30am. For more info, email MALSA’s Mentorship Chair at beniteli@law.unm.edu

Reminders:
• FAFSA season came earlier this year. The priority date for UNM is January 6, 2017 so please make an appointment with a Student Programs Specialist to do your FAFSA or attend our FAFSA workshop on Saturday, November 19, 2016 1:00 – 5:00pm @ Unser and Central Library. FAFSA can be found at http://fafsa.ed.gov

• Registration for classes is coming up soon. Make sure you take care of any holds you may have so that you are eligible to register!

• Friday is the last day to drop a class without Dean’s Permission on LoboWEB.

Quote of the week:
“You must be the change you wish to see in the world.” – Mahatma Gandhi

Have a great week!
