3. ECONOMICS PROFESSORS David Brookshire, Janie Chermak and Kate Krause are collaborating with professors from several institutions on SAHRA (Center for the Sustainability of semi-Arid Hydrology and Riparian Areas). SAHRA is a science and technology center addressing interdisciplinary water management issues in semi-arid environments. It was established in 2000 through a five-year grant from the National Science Foundation. <http://www.unm.edu/news/Releases/04-01-15sahra.htm>

4. UNM WILL HOST three international Fulbright Scholars during the 2003-04 academic year including Dieter Schulz, professor of Modern Languages at the University of Heidelberg. He will combine teaching and research at UNM on 19th Century American Literature and Southwestern Writing. Schulz is at UNM in an exchange with Gary Scharnhorst, UNM professor of English, who will present lectures on American Realism and Naturalism, Mark Twain and 19th Century Women's Writing at Heidelberg and other German institutions. <http://www.unm.edu/news/Releases/04-01-21fulbright.htm>
