UNM News Minute #636 – January 11, 2010

THE FEDERAL RACE and Ethnicity Codes Compliance Project will help bring UNM into compliance with the new Federal standards for maintaining, collecting, and presenting data on race and ethnicity. Data collection using new codes began last fall. Now it's time to update the data using the new values. The change will take place effective Jan. 19, 2010, when individuals log into LoboWeb to conduct business such as checking grades, class schedules or pay stubs. The survey will be presented automatically upon accessing LoboWeb to everyone who has not had an opportunity to respond using the new categories. <http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/004649.html#more>

THE UNM PARKING and Transportation Services Department is encouraging students, staff and faculty to participate in an online survey about metropolitan transportation. The survey, administered by the Mid-Region Council of Governments, will be used to help develop the 2035 Metropolitan Transportation Plan. <http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/004667.html#more>

THE UNM PREVENTION Research Center will present a lecture titled, 'Focus On Food: Youth Photography Project,' as part of its Brown Bag Series on Wednesday, Jan. 13 from 12 to 1 p.m. The presentation is a photography project by 40 middle school students at Wilson and Grant Middle Schools to document the role of food as a reflection of kids' personal and cultural identities. The Brown Bag lunch will be held at the Research Incubator Building (RIB) Commons located at 2703 Frontier N.E. <http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/004662.html#more>

THE PROVOST'S COMMITTEE for Staff is seeking scholarship applicants for its Staff Academic Support Scholarship for the Spring 2010 semester. The scholarship is designed to help support staff who utilize their tuition remission benefit. This is an opportunity for UNM staff to apply for limited financial support to be used to help cover the cost of academic books, course fees and supplies. The deadline is Wednesday, Jan. 13 at 5 p.m. <http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/004659.html#more>

THE FINE ARTS and Design Library is hosting an exhibit of artwork by UNM student David Rogers. "Internal Landscapes" will be on exhibit in the Fine Arts and Design Library from Jan. 19 – March 12, 2010. A reception will be held on Jan. 29 from 6:30 - 8 p.m. in the Fine Arts and Design Library. <http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/004660.html#more>

THE UNM FOUNDATION is sponsoring a grant-writing workshop Feb. 8-12, 2010 conducted by The Grantsmanship Center. Held in the Rotunda at UNM's Science and Technology Park, the workshop is limited to a total of 30 participants per session, and a limited number of seats have been reserved for UNM employees. Early enrollment is encouraged as TGCI workshops often fill to capacity. UNM faculty and staff are eligible to use UNM's tuition remission benefit to attend. <http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/004642.html#more>
