DISASTROUS FLOODS IN MEXICO

Swollen Rio Grande Causes Loss of Life

SAN MIGUEL UNDER WATER

Camargo Suffers Serious Damage to Buildings and Ranches.

Washington, Sept. 3.—The state department is in receipt of a telegram from C. A. Miller, U. S. consul at Matamoras, Mexico, saying that the Rio Grande floods are higher than usual, that a telegram from Camargo states that serious damage was caused building in the city and ranches near the river, that no lives were lost in the city but that fifteen bodies were recovered in the surrounding country, and that there are probably many more, but the exact number is unknown. Miller says also that a telegram from San Miguel states that the water is a foot deep in the main plaza, that there is considerable damage to buildings, but that no lives were lost. There also has been no damage at Matamoras and Reynosa and that the river is still high but is reported to be falling.

LARGEST CITY WITHOUT RAILROAD.

Fredericksburg, Texas, is Collecting a Bonus of $50,000 for Line to San Antonio.

San Antonio, Texas, Sept. 3.—Direct railroad connection between this city and Fredericksburg in the near future is an assured thing. The $50,000 bonus now being collected here has passed the $45,000 mark and the remainder has also been promised. According to the terms of the bonus agreement construction on the proposed road ought to commence in a few weeks.

The road will bring "the largest city in the United States without a railroad," as the Fredericksburgers are proud and justified to boast, in contact with the steel ways. The territory through which the road will run is noted even in southwest Texas for its great fertility and general advantages. Some of the best German stock in all Texas is settled there and prosperity has always its lot. J. P. Nelson of this city is the promoter of the road.

WAS ITALIAN CRUISER AT FAULT?

Official Circles Regret Published Criticisms

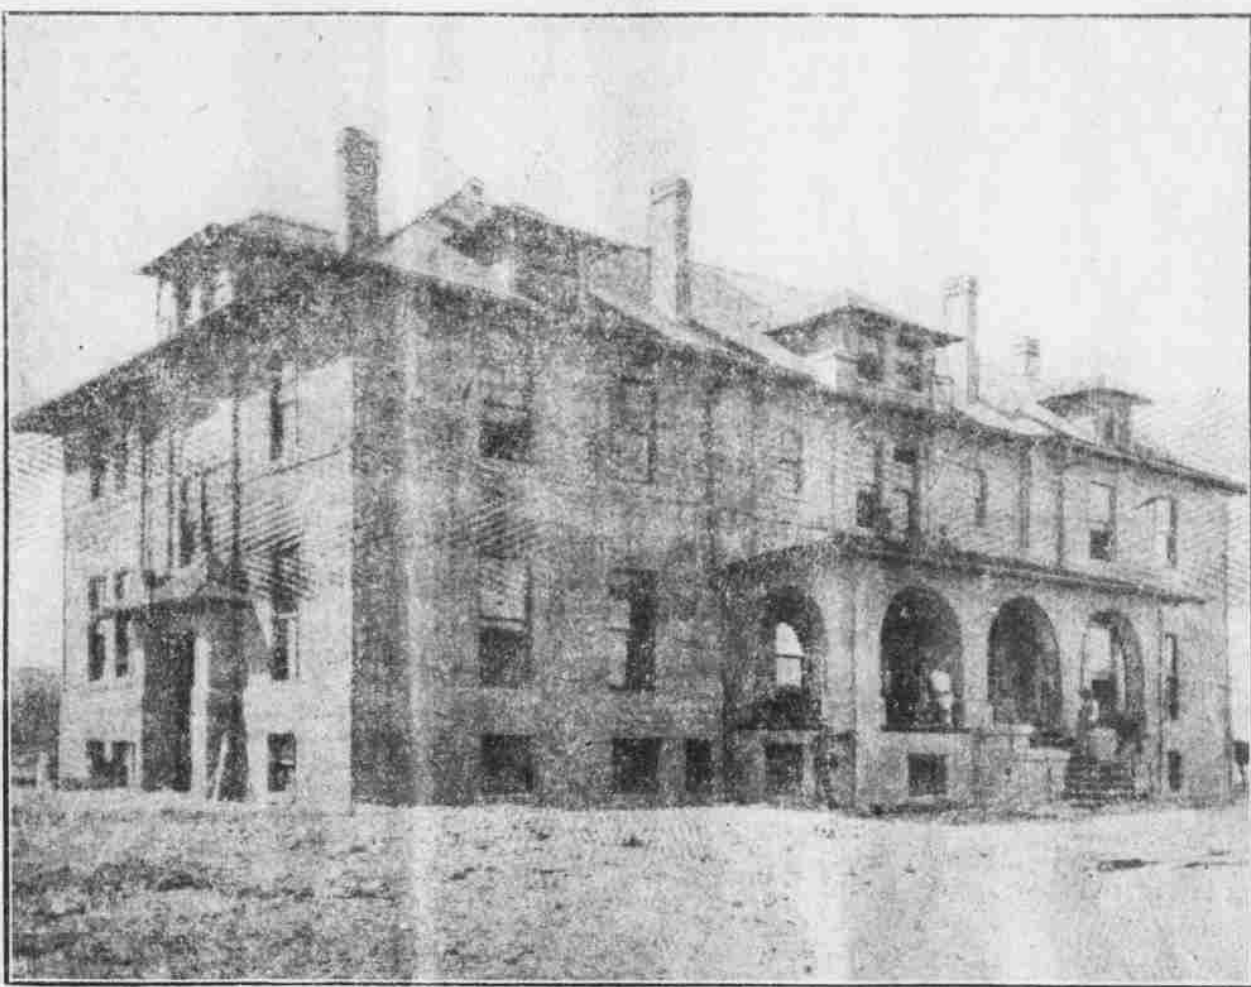

VISITOR AT TARGET PRACTICE

Alleged Cruiser Aetna Violated International Propriety.

Washington, Sept. 3.—General regret is expressed in administration circles over the publication ascribing improper motives to the commander of the Italian cruiser Aetna, which on Saturday last is reported to have steamed between the ships of the Atlantic battleship fleet, engaged in target practice off Virginia Capes. They feel that criticism should be withheld until substantial evidence that he in any way violated international propriety in the effort to observe operations and results of the gunners work aboard the vessels.

Commander is Chagrined.

Captain Filippo Baggio, Marquis of Ducarris, commander of the Aetna, the Italian warship, who is said to have passed close to the American battleship fleet while the latter was at practice, pronounced as untrue the story of the alleged impropriety. He is much chagrined over the report. He declared he only steamed near in order to properly salute the American vessels and when this was done he steamed away.

ENERGETIC BUSINESS MEN TAKE HOLD OF LARGE MINING PROPERTIES

Backed By a Splendid Organization Development Work Will Commence at The Mines at Once

CONSIDERED THE BEST GOLD PRODUCERS IN TERRITORY

An Enormous Quantity of Valuable Ore is in Sight And Will be Handled at a Rate to Exceed Two Hundred Tons a Day.

Last Monday witnessed the sale and transfer of ownership of what are considered by many experts to be the best and largest gold producing properties in the Territory of New Mexico. The mines are located near Parson City, Lincoln county, New Mexico, and were formerly owned by the Eagle Mining and Improvement Company. Gross mismanagement, however, crept into the affairs of the company, the valuable properties being handled in a manner not conducive to profit and the company from time to time failed to meet obligations. Jacob H. Fulmer of Mishawaka, Ind., who became identified with the company had at various times loaned large sums in lieu of which he held several mortgages and judgments.

The moment Mr. Fulmer became connected with the company the affairs of the company took on a different aspect and the various obligations were met. With large sums of money loaned by him, extensive improvements were made. But still the management of the company was not satisfactory and it became plain to him that matters were too complicated and that the success of the company was endangered.

Seeing the manner in which the company's affairs were being conducted and being well aware of the rut into which the corporation was drifting, he determined that the best possible move would be to foreclose his mortgages and have the properties sold at public auction.

This was done on August 30th, Dr. M. G. Paden of Carrizozo, being appointed special commissioner by the court to sell the mines which are known as the Parson group of gold mines. The mortgages and judgments held by Fulmer amounted to $250,000. When the sale took place Mr. Fulmer bid in the properties and since, the entire assets of the former Eagle Mining and Improvement Company have been turned over.

Mr. Fulmer at once set to work and a new organization has been formed which will take in charge the properties. The company is capitalized at five million dollars and is called the Parsons Mining Company. The new company succeeds the old in the ownership of all of the properties and assets and is practically free from debt. J. H. Fulmer has been elected president of the company and A. B. Graham, secretary and treasurer. The following gentlemen will serve as the board of directors: J. H. Fulmer, A. B. Graham, A. G. Graham, P. G. Peters, Holden Rissiter, G. W. Prichard and M. A. Otero.

Mr. Fulmer and the Messrs. Graham are Indiana business men each of whom has had splendid business training and is well fitted to serve a large corporation. Messrs. Prichard and Otero, the two local men who have become connected with the company are too well known in this community to need introduction. Their standing as valued and honored citizens is unquestioned. P. G. Peters is a well known merchant of Carrizozo, Lincoln county, having been a life long resident of the county. He has earned a reputation as a man of keen business perception and honest and fair dealing. His connection with the company is a guarantee to those who know him that he can be counted upon in every way to promote the interests of the company. Mr. Holden Rissiter is from Lee, Illinois, where he has large interests in farm lands and other valuable property. A man of great business acumen, his services as a director will mean much to the company.

The old stockholders of the company are to be congratulated upon the success gained by Mr. Fulmer in pulling the company out of the rut in which it found itself and which meant certain ruin entailing great loss to all concerned. The task of rescuing the affairs of the stockholders from mismanagement and utter failure was a herculean one and needed just such a man as J. H. Fulmer to accomplish it. The new management consists of men who are of high standing in the business community and who have progressive ideas. Now that a reorganization of the company has been effected the mines will unquestionably be operated with unbounded success.

Mr. Fulmer the new president of the company, when approached by a representative of the New Mexican was very optimistic and was much enthused over the brilliant prospects that lie before the new company. He believes that as soon as the work is commenced at the mines success will at once manifest itself. This confidence is well founded, as the mines are looked upon as being unexcelled if not unequaled by any other mines in the entire Territory. They are recognized as being among the best gold producers in the great southwest. All that is needed is able and competent management and this is now assured. The new officers and directors of the company are men who can command great confidence and who have established the successful development of the properties is an assured fact.

Located in Lincoln county near the city of Parsons, the properties number 100 mines and lode claims covering an acreage of 2,000 acres. That ore is present in great abundance is evident from the fact that from forty to one hundred millions tons of ore are exposed and in sight and the mine is ready for treatment. This is the result of the great amount of development work already done. The properties are well equipped with an amalgamation and cyanide plant with a capacity of two hundred tons a day. This capacity will from time to time be increased as it is anticipated that before long fully one thousand tons of ore a day will be handled. The ore is of a low grade quality running from $3 to $5 a ton on the average. In reality the properties might well be regarded as manufacturing properties instead of mining ones as the rocks containing the ore are quarried rather than mined.

The new management expects to have work started within the next sixty days when a full force of men will be engaged. All development work will receive careful attention and the quantity of ore handled will be increased as rapidly as possible. That the work to be commenced will resolve itself into a most profitable enterprise appears to be a foregone conclusion.

GREATEST EVENT OF THE DAY

Doctor Cook Will Be Received Like Conqueror

EXPEDITION WELL PLANNED

Fame That Will Endure for Centuries and Princely Income Assured.

New York, Sept. 3.—It is expected that the arrival of Dr. Frederick A. Cook at Copenhagen from the epoch-making trip to the North Pole, which probably will be chronicled tomorrow is the most important news item on the horizon. It is confidently expected by friends and supporters that he will then produce incontrovertible proofs that he reached the pole, thus allaying the wave of skepticism manifested in the opinions of many of his fellow scientists both here and abroad. That Dr. Cook will be fully able to substantiate the claims indicated by the brief official statement of United States Minister Egan at Copenhagen, to the state department, that the reported discovery of the North Pole has been corroborated by Dergward Jensen, the Danish inspector of North Greenland. It is assumed that the Danish official investigated Cook's claims after the latter left Greenland en route to Denmark and that he is able to confirm them. The Danish government has dispatched a torpedo boat to meet the steamer on which Cook is a passenger on the high seas and act as a convoy of honor into Copenhagen. The Danish minister of commerce has chartered a vessel on which he has taken the newspaper correspondents of the world out to meet the Brooklyn explorer and the Danish Geographical Society will meet Dr. Cook on another vessel. From these unusual arrangements it is evident that Cook will have quick opportunity to submit his proofs.

John H. Bradley, the wealthy New Yorker, who financed Cook's expedition, says it is untrue that the dash to the Pole is an outcome of a fishing expedition. It is now stated that the expedition was perhaps the most carefully planned of any previous Polar attempt. Secrecy was maintained to avoid unpleasant controversy in case he failed.

That the journey was well planned is shown by the quantity and nature of supplies of Bradley's schooner yacht deposited in Greenland for Cook. These included ten thousand cans of provisions, ten thousand boxes of matches, five thousand gallons of gasoline, one thousand gallons of alcohol, two barrels of gum drops, which is currency with the Eskimaux instead of money, guns and knives for trading, hickory lumber for building sleds and sheds, and great quantities of staple groceries. In all there were sufficient provisions to last the party three years. As an indication of the care with which the expedition was planned, aluminum stoves instead of heavy iron ones, usually used by explorers were taken along.

Besides the fame that will endure for centuries, which comes to Dr. Cook for his achievement, he is destined also to reap a fortune through his writings and lectures. A well known vaudeville manager already cabled Copenhagen offering Cook $4,000 a week for ten weeks' lecture in his houses. European agents of three other vaudeville managers cabled princely offers. Another result of Cook's success may be that the land which he reports he discovered he called Cookland.

Lived Like an Eskimo.

Shaken, Denmark, Sept. 3.—A newspaper correspondent who went aboard the Hans Egede which passed here at two o'clock this afternoon was able to obtain a few words from Dr. Frederick A. Cook. The explorer ascribed his success to the fact that he made use of old methods namely Eskimos and dogs and that he lived like an Eskimo himself.

The doctor then gave a vivid sketch of his expedition in which he said: "Going northward I struck a westerly course from Greenland and then moved northward."

"I arrived at the north pole on April 21, 1908, as already announced, accompanied by Eskimos."

"We reached the pole at seven o'clock in the morning."

"I took daily observations for a whole fortnight before arriving at the pole."

"Returning we were forced to take a northwesterly route and the first ten days I took observations daily and recorded them. I was unable to meas-

Cough Caution

Never, positively never poison your lungs. If you cough—even from a simple cold—you should always heal, soothe, and ease the irritated bronchial tubes. Don't blindly suppress it with a stupefying poison. It's strange how some things finally come about. For twenty years Dr. Shoop has constantly warned people not to take cough mixtures or prescriptions containing Opium, Chloroform, or similar poisons. And now—a little late though—Congress says: "Put it on the label."
If poisons are in your Cough Mixture. Good!
Very good!! Hereafter for this very reason mothers, and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison marks on Dr. Shoop's labels—and none in the medicine, also it must by law be on the label. And it's not only safe, but it is said to be by those that know it best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take no chance then, particularly with your children. Insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and note the difference. No poison marks there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding

GOOD NEWS.

Many Santa Fe Readers Have Heard It and Profited Thereby.

"Good news travels fast," and the thousands of bad back sufferers in Santa Fe are glad to learn that prompt relief is within their reach. Many a lame, weak and aching back is bad no more, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills. Our citizens are telling the good news of their experience with the Old Quaker Remedy. Here is an example worth reading:

Locario Lopez, Agua Fria street, Santa Fe, N. M., says: "I have had no severe return of kidney trouble since using Doan's Kidney Pills several years ago. Now and then I have noticed a slight attack of backache, but at such times Doan's Kidney Pills have given quick and positive relief. For a long time I was made miserable by spells of kidney complaint and my back often so lame and painful that I could scarcely do anything. I did not sleep well and no matter whether I were lying down or standing up, the trouble was in evidence. The kidney secretions annoyed me both day and night by their irregularity in passage and there was a heavy sediment in them. After several remedies I tried had failed to help me, I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Stripling, Burrows & Co.'s drug store and they lived up to all the claims made for them. I have never hesitated to say a good word for Doan's Kidney Pills when the opportunity has occurred."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

MILITARY INSTITUTE. READY FOR WORK

Destruction of Lea Hall Will Not Hamper School

PLANS FOR NEW BUILDING

Provisions for Eight Large Class Rooms Adjoining Gymnasium.

Roswell, N. M., Sept. 3.—Although the loss of Lea Hall means a great deal to the institute at the present time, it will eventually result in good. This building was the first erected on the institute grounds and was never suited for the use for which it was intended. During the present summer, it had been thoroughly remodeled at a cost of more than $3,000 and made into an academic building. It had just been completed and was ready to be occupied by the officers in arranging their class work.

School will open on time, September 8th.
Within one hour's time after the destruction of Lea Hall, the following regents of the New Mexico Military Institute, E. A. Caboon, president, and W. G. Hamilton and W. M. Atchinson, met in Colonel Willson's office at the institute and arranged for temporary quarters to be provided for the opening of school. They also wired Mr. I. H. Rapp of Santa Fe, who is the architect in charge of the general plans for the Greater New Mexico Military Institute, to bring detailed drawings for the academic building.

The superintendent was given authority by the board to go ahead and construct eight large class rooms on the south side of the gymnasium, abutting the gymnasium building. This building is almost 100 feet in length and is surrounded by a wide veranda. This veranda will be widened to 17 1/2 feet and partitioned for class rooms. These rooms are to be heated by steam, and in every way made comfortable. Fortunately, new furniture had been ordered for Lea Hall and not yet delivered. This furniture will be placed in the new class rooms.

A force of men are at work cleaning away the rubbish around Lea Hall and expect to have everything cleaned up by next week. A large number of carpenters will be kept at work arranging the academic building.

The regents and officers at the institute are determined to make the school bigger and better than ever before. All of the officers are on the grounds and have expressed their determination to see that the school work, the military exercises, and the general school life is not interfered with by the loss of Lea Hall. Of course, the cadets' living quarters are already for occupancy. Hagerman barracks is finished throughout and will accommodate 120 cadets. Long barracks has been remodeled and nicely furnished. The office building and hospital are in perfect condition and the mess hall, which is one of the most important buildings at the post, is ready to be opened. With the barracks, the hospital, the mess hall and the office all intact, and a splendid corps of teachers on the ground, there is no reason to believe that the institute will lose a single one of its prospective cadets on account of the disaster. The school will open up next week with not less than 170 cadets.

PECULIARITIES OF AUGUST WEATHER.

Although it Rained on All Except Nine Days, Precipitation Was Below Average.

Although it rained every day except nine during August, the sunshine percentage, according to the weather bureau last month, was 62 per cent, nevertheless and there was not a day with less than 14 per cent of sunshine. The highest temperature last month was only 85 degrees, August 17, while the lowest was 53 degrees, on August 1. The greatest daily range was only 26 degrees on August 1, while the least range was 11 degrees, August 29, which is going some as far as establishing an equable climate is concerned. Since New Year there has been a deficiency in temperature from the normal of 169 degrees. The precipitation for the month although it rained on 22 days was only 2.02 inches. The greatest precipitation during any 24 consecutive hours was only 4.4 of an inch on August 9 and 10. Since New Year there has been a deficiency in precipitation as compared with the normal of 2.87 inches. The prevailing direction of the wind has been from the northeast; the total movement 3059 miles, the average hourly velocity 6.8 miles and the maximum velocity 33 miles per hour from the east on August 28. There were only four cloudy days, while 23 days were classified as partly cloudy and 4 days as clear. The mean relative humidity was 52 per cent at 6 p. m., unusually high. The mean maximum temperature was 76.9 degrees, the mean minimum 56.8 degrees and the mean 66.8 degrees.

The normal sunshine percentage of Santa Fe is 74.2 per cent, and an average of 62 per cent like that of last month, is therefore much below the normal.

TWENTY DESERT IN ONE NIGHT.

Men of the Twenty-first Infantry Have No Particular Longing for Life in the Philippines.

Denver, Colo., Sept. 3.—A considerable number of the members of the Twenty-first regular infantry, which leaves Fort Logan to go to the Philippines today, have no desire for service in the islands. According to a non-commissioned officer, there were twenty desertions from the regiment at the fort last night and more are expected before time for departure.

As a result of the large number of desertions, special guards were mounted at Fort Logan last night and all possible precautions taken to stop the runaways.

For the past forty-eight hours the fort has been the center of hustle and bustle in anticipation of the departure and in the confusion it has been comparatively easy for some of the men to get away.

The regiment has been reduced to 750 officers and men as a result of the defections from the ranks.

Although the animals will be sent to the Philippines later, via Seattle, officers will not transport their mounts with them.

One company of the Twenty-first is stationed at Prescott, Ariz., and will depart from there tonight in time to join the Fort Logan companies at San Francisco.

Following the departure of the Twenty-first regiment, the fort will be used by the government as a recruiting station. Visitors will now have an opportunity of seeing "green" men developed into machine-like regulars.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF SANTA FE COUNTY.

The New Mexican is the oldest newspaper in New Mexico. It is sent to every postoffice in the Territory, and has a large and growing circulation among the intelligent and progressive people of the Southwest.

A COMMENDABLE AMBITION.

Every community wants to grow. It holds out inducements to new enterprises just because it wants to gain in population and wealth. It has been established that several cities were so keen in their rivalry to show a large population that they bribed census supervisors and enumerators to pad the census returns. Almost anything will be sacrificed by cities like Los Angeles, Denver, Omaha and even Chicago, to make the best possible showing in the census to be taken next April. Yet, they are large cities already, the number of people in them, surely, is not of as great importance to them relatively, as are population figures to Albuquerque, Las Vegas or Santa Fe. It will be of more consequence to Santa Fe during the next ten years whether it has 12,500 population and thus stand at the head of New Mexico cities, than it would be to Chicago to show a greater population than New York and be proclaimed the first city of the land. Yet, how many million dollars, do you think, Chicago business men would plunk down for that honor?

Santa Fe tomorrow has the opportunity to make itself the greatest city of New Mexico. The opportunity may never come again. It is likely that it not taken advantage of tomorrow, it will mean eventually the loss of all prestige and with it of the capital, it may mean stunting the growth which has set in so auspiciously the past two years; it may mean the permanent eclipse of this ancient city just now feeling again the fires of youth and progress. The inclusion within the city limits of the penitentiary, the Indian schools and the Deaf and Dumb school alone, will add twenty per cent to the population credited to Santa Fe in 1900. This in itself would be an advertising feature worth a good deal, for comparatively few will be the towns that will show so great a growth in population in ten years. But the rate will exceed a hundred per cent, it will approach almost two hundred per cent, if the suburbs are voted in and Santa Fe will be advertised far and wide as one of the few cities of the land that has more than doubled its population in the last ten years. It will make people sit up and take notice.

Many popular publications enumerate the largest city in each state and territory. Wouldn't it be worth while for Santa Fe to be one of those forty-eight cities and towns? In arranging them alphabetically by states, Santa Fe would come before New York and Philadelphia and relatively speaking, would be in the same class.

There are other advantages, for the inclusion of eight miles of railroad will mean a substantial increase in assessment and income; the inclusion of the city's grant lands under municipal authority would add to their value and would eventually help to make them revenue producing. In turn, the people of suburbs would receive nine instead of three months schooling and graded schools up to high school instead of merely primary or secondary training. Eventually, they would have extended to them street lights, police protection, better streets and all the advantages that come to suburbs included in large cities. To vote for Greater Santa Fe tomorrow will be an advantage therefore to the present city and to the suburbs, but best of all, it will give Santa Fe its rightful place at the head of New Mexico towns.

The New Mexican is convinced that the great majority of citizens favor the expansion but there is danger because no campaign fund has been gathered, because no offices are at stake, that the vote will not come out as it should. In Roswell, this week, just because of such lethargy, it seems a proposed bond issue of $125,000 by Chaves county for a new court house has been defeated. Chaves county needs a new court house; Roswell is enthusiastically for it and only 33 votes were cast against the proposition, but because no one worked to bring out the vote in its favor, the election for the bonds probably was lost through mere laziness of the voters.

Let it not be said of Greater Santa Fe as it is said of the main line of the Santa Fe, that it was lost through the fault of our own people; let it not be said at a later day that Santa Fe lost its only opportunity to regain its place at the head of New Mexico towns and lost the capital because its voters were too lazy to go to the polls on Saturday, September 4, 1909.

boys deserve the outing. There are no funds available to pay their railroad fare and it is up to the business men of the community to provide these funds. It is not much that will be asked of each individual, but that little should be given cheerfully for it does not begin to repay the value of the services of the volunteer fire department without which Santa Fe would be in a sad plight and insurance rates paid would soon make up ten times as much as the department costs the Territory and the city.

Cities and town all over the country are watchful that they may get full credit in the census next April of every person within their bounds. It is of as much importance to Pumpkintown as it is to Chicago, that it be given full credit for its population. In this connection the Las Vegas Optic says:

"The suggestion made by the north Texas Commercial Clubs to the effect that committees of prominent citizens having the welfare of their town and community at heart, be appointed in each section to assist the enumerators, is an excellent one.

"Federal enumerators are usually persons with no experience, and while they are paid by the number they count as an incentive to completeness, they lack the method, which comes only by training.

"Local committees that will give their attention to the subject, can devise plans whereby the enumerators will be greatly assisted. Voluntary organization by wards and blocks can be affected, and the entire citizenship can be so aroused by agitation that every man, woman and child will see to it that he is counted.

"It is not a mere matter of pride to secure a complete count. It is business. Congressional and legislative apportionments are based upon the federal census, and it behooves each city, every county and the whole territory to get their due in representation. Not only that, but the federal census is accepted as the standard the world over. Communities are judged by the progress exhibited in ten years, and population is properly taken as an index to business.

"For the last mentioned reason this paper urges the consolidation of the two towns, that Las Vegas might assume its rightful place as one of the foremost cities in the Territory. It is not too late yet to consolidate, if for no other purpose than the one just mentioned. Here's hoping."

Las Vegas is bound to make its land grant of value to its people. The grant board has just closed a contract with a Colorado irrigation promoter, by which he agrees to construct a reservoir for the reclamation of 30,000 acres in return for a grant of 12,000 acres to be included in the area to be reclaimed. The Santa Fe grant is not near as extensive as the Las Vegas grant, but a good many farms could be cut out of it and there are some irrigation possibilities that might make these lands ten times as valuable as they are today. Several thousand acres under cultivation in the immediate vicinity of Santa Fe would add mightily to its growth and prosperity.

While a calamity in some respects, the destruction of Lea Hall of the New Mexico Military Institute at Roswell may in other respects be considered a blessing in disguise. Its loss does not cripple the institute materially for temporary quarters have been provided in place of those lost. At the same time, plans were perfected and work begun on a modern building that will fit into the perfected plans for the "Greater New Mexico Military Institute."

It is remarkable how the wool market has maintained without fluctuation a healthy tone all year thus far, with no break in prices and a continued, steady demand. This state of affairs is already full of promise for next year for the sheep and wool growers of New Mexico, many of whom dispose of their clip a year ahead.

Rochester is going after the insurance trust, it does not believe in paying fire insurance rates twice as high as they would need to be. Rochester's fight will be watched with interest for there are other cities where there is no competition in insurance rates and on which the insurance trust has its clutches.

The Raton Range complains that the young ladies employed in the offices of Raton professional men are not being taken to baseball games often enough. Evidently the wives of the professional men of the Gate City are on to their jobs.

Yesterday began the survey of the Scenic Highway from Santa Fe to Albuquerque. Here's hoping that the work will not drag along as has the Scenic Highway to Las Vegas and that both will be finished within another year.

The fact that the Dominion Life Underwriters' Association convened in Toronto, Canada, Wednesday, and that the parliament buildings burned down the same time, looks rather suspicious. It is to be hoped that the buildings were well insured.

Fate reserved it for an American to reach the north pole first. America is to the front in polar explorations as it is in everything else, even flying machines.

Forty-eight hours have elapsed since the first issue of the Daily Tribune and although two later issues of the Morning Journal have reached Santa Fe in the mails since then, no copies of the Tribune have come by mail to Santa Fe thus far, and when they do arrive will be something like fifty hours late. This is rather an inauspicious omen and will awaken doubts at the start as to the "get there" qualities of the Democratic organ.

MAKING FEED OUT OF THE PRICKLY PEAR.

Plant That Will Crush the Small Spines and Mix Chemicals With Plant.

San Antonio, Texas, Sept. 3.—That much abused plant, the prickly pear or cactus in general, has at last found its field of usefulness. While cactus has long been known to possess excellent food properties for cattle and has been eaten by them during seasons when grass was scarce on the ranch, its spines have always stood in the way of its general use. Eating the prickly pear in the raw state has generally resulted in the loss of cattle because the spines would lodge in the mouth and alimentary system of the animal and cause it to become either sick or die.

To extract the small spines from the plant has been tried but has not been successful. J. H. Glazier and Company, of Kansas City, Mo., for this reason decided some time ago to construct a mill, which, while leaving the spines in the feed would reduce them to a state in which they could not possibly injure the animal. Their process also calls for the addition of certain elements missing in the plant but needed to make it a staple food.

C. L. Young, a representative of the firm, is now in this city making arrangements for the erection of a plant manufacturing cactus feed. The plan is to get stockmen interested in the enterprise and locate the mill in the vicinity of this city. The raw material is to be shipped in principally from the territory southwest of here where the plant grows in greater profusion and size than perhaps elsewhere.

Spineless cactus is already cultivated in these parts and the establishment of the mill would mean that land fit for little else will be cultivated with the wild cactus in order to insure a steady supply. The company intends to pay on an average of $1.50 per ton for the raw material, and since prickly pear is exceedingly heavy, this would mean that a fine opportunity is presented to the farmer. The cultivation of the plant is simple enough. After ploughing, young plants are set out and after that crops can be harvested every two or three months. Since only the upper part of the plant is cropped it is not necessary to replant for several years. The machinery and process of adding other food values to the prickly pear feed are patented.

S.S.S. HEALS SORES AND ULCERS

S. S. S. heals Sores and Ulcers in the very simplest way. It just goes right down into the blood and removes the cause, and the place is bound to heal because the impurities and morbid matters which have been the means of keeping the ulcer open are no longer absorbed from the blood. External applications of salves, lotions, plasters, etc., can never produce a cure because they do not reach the source of the trouble. At best they can only allay pain or reduce inflammation; such treatment is working on symptoms and not reaching the cause. Every nutritive corpuscle in the blood is weakened or infected, they cannot nourish the fibrous tissue around the place, but instead they constantly discharge into the flesh around the sore a quantity of impure, germ-laden matter which gradually eats into the surrounding healthy tissue and causes the ulcer to enlarge. Since impure blood is responsible for Sores and Ulcers, a medicine that can purify the blood is the only hope of a cure. S. S. S. has long been recognized as the greatest of all blood purifiers, possessing the qualities necessary to remove every impurity from the blood. While curing the sore or ulcer S. S. S. brings about a healthy condition of the flesh by supplying it with rich, healthy blood, and thus makes the cure permanent and lasting. Book on Sores and Ulcers and any medical advice free to all who write.

A Traveling Man's Experience.
"I must tell you my experience on an east-bound O. R. & N. R. train from Pendleton to Le Grande, Ore." writes Sam A. Garber, a well known traveling man. "I was in the smoking department with some other traveling men when one of them went out into the coach and came back and said, 'There is a woman sick unto death in the car.' I at once got up and went out, found her very ill with cramp colic, her hands and arms were drawn up so you could not straighten them, and with a death like look on her face. Two or three ladies were working with her and giving her whisky. I went to my suit case and got my bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy (I never travel without it), ran to the water tank, put a double dose of the medicine in the glass, poured some water into it and stirred it with a pencil; then I had quite a time to get the ladies to let me give it to her, but I succeeded. I could at once see the effect and I worked with her, hugging her hands, and in twenty minutes I gave her another dose. By this time we were almost into Le Grande, where I was to leave the train. I gave the bottle to the husband to be used in case another dose should be needed, but by the time the train ran into Le Grande she was all right, and I received

The very first question a stranger asks on entering a city, is: "Can you tell me a good place in which I can stop?" To the readers of this paper, visiting Denver, we can conscientiously suggest the Albany—because it is right in the center of the business district, all car lines are in close proximity to it, and the greatest reason of all is that you get more for your money at THE ALBANY than at any other hotel.

DAILY WEATHER REPORT.

Santa Fe, Sept. 2, 1909.
Maximum temperature 80 degrees at 1:20 p. m. Minimum temperature 54 degrees at 5:50 a. m. Mean temperature 67 degrees. Departure from normal plus 3 degrees. Relative humidity at 6 a. m. 69 per cent. Unscientific Street Repairs—The heavy rains shortly after noon demonstrated the utter waste of the money spent in fixing up streets in Santa Fe as has been the custom since Espejo founded the city. Each year labor and money in the aggregate of many hundred dollars is expended on this farce and the first heavy rains washes the ruts into the street again like it did on Palace avenue this afternoon. There is only one way to fix streets and that is to take one block or so each year as the means permit and macadamize it.

Postmaster General Will Come.

As was announced by the New Mexican last month, Postmaster General Frank H. Hitchcock will visit New Mexico with President Taft next month. The postmaster general confirms this news in a letter to Delegate to Congress W. H. Andrews, as follows:

Washington, D. C., Aug. 28, 1909.
Hon. W. H. Andrews,
Albuquerque, N. M.

My Dear Mr. Andrews: Reverting again to your letter of June 20th, in which you extend to me on behalf of the Territory of New Mexico a most courteous invitation to be present at the twenty-ninth annual fair and resources exposition to be held at Albuquerque October 11th to 16th, inclusive, I am now in a position to say that I shall have the pleasure of accompanying the President to Albuquerque on October 15th and I assume that will give me an opportunity to visit the fair.

Thanking you again for the invitation, Yours very truly,

FRANK H. HITCHCOCK.

Santa Fe-Albuquerque Survey.

The survey of the Santa Fe-Albuquerque Scenic Highway, under C. H. Neal, had by last evening reached a point one mile out of the city limits. Progress is slow as the survey includes the 34 ditches to be crossed between here and Agua Fria. Territorial Engineer Vernon L. Sullivan on his way to Silver City last evening consulted with members of the board of county commissioners to reduce the above number of ditches to six, all that is necessary for the purposes now attained.

Arrests By Mounted Police.

Captain Fred Fornoff received word today from Mounted Policeman W. E. Dudley at Carrizozo that Dudley has arrested a notorious sheep thief of Lincoln county and also took possession of the stolen sheep.

Complaint has been made to the Mounted Police of the annoying tactics of some young men or a young man of town who throws letters, ranging from love missives to communications of an insulting nature into the garden and on the porch of J. W. Akers on lower San Francisco street. Two postoffice inspectors are in town working on a similar case and arrests will follow shortly.

LIGHT ON THE TROUBLES IN MEXICO.

General Bernardo Reyes is Surrounded by a Cordon of Loyal Troops at Gallina.

San Antonio, Tex., Sept. 3.—Dispatches from Mexico City and other parts of the Mexican republic appearing in Mexican and American publications continue to be contradictory in the extreme. The secret of this seems to be that the news sources amenable to the influence of the Mexican government disseminate information favorable to the government while other not under the same spell pursue an independent course, marked, no doubt, with exaggeration here and there.

However, unrest and trouble are as evident as ever, and mildly put the situation in northern Mexico is not assuring as some would have it. According to a report in the Monterey News, a reliable and well informed newspaper appearing in English and Spanish, the developments which have recently taken place in the state of Nuevo Leon are somewhat disconcerting, although at the present time absolute quiet prevails at Monterey, the capital of the state.

Further movements of troops have taken place to the vicinity of Galeana where General Bernardo Reyes has taken refuge. The base of the garrison at San Luis Potosi has been moved to Doctor Arroyo, a small place where sympathizers of the Reyes party have threatened to make trouble. Another measure adopted a few days ago is the doubling of the customs guards on the trains. This was done to prevent the smuggling in from the American border of arms and ammunition said to have been carried on extensively through the aid of Mexican revolutionists in the United States.

The headquarters of General Geronimo Trevino, chief of the third military zone, are said to present a very business-like appearance, and though no statements have been made by either him or General Roblos the place seems to be a great source of rumors. Among the many not substantiated there is one, however, that seems to rest on actual facts. There is little doubt that General Bernardo Reyes is surrounded at Galeana with a cordon of troops and that he is held under strict surveillance by the federal authorities. What the motive of this it seems to be clear enough. The course is drastic enough to forbode no good to General Reyes. The troops are reported to be gradually closing in on his retreat and the apparent object seems to be the detention of the governor of Nuevo Leon. Under present conditions every movement of General Reyes would be known to the authorities and the belief is expressed here that he will not return to Monterey, although he is still the executive of the state government.

It is claimed that General Reyes recently requested an interview with President Diaz but was refused, the subject matter of the interview being afterwards consigned to the care of General Trevino. There is also an unauthenticated report to the effect that General Reyes had left Galeana after having succeeded in getting possession of a large sum of money he had in a Monterey bank. Another report has it that the governor is still at Galeana, but that through fear of assassination he was changing his abode from day to day.

For the benefit of those unfamiliar with the cause of the trouble it may be stated that General Reyes incurred the displeasure of the federal government by refusing to withdraw his candidacy for the vice presidential seat for the coming election. Bernardo Reyes is a very popular man in northern Mexico and has every chance of being elected should he remain a candidate. The government opposes him because his election would put the plans to perpetuate the Diaz policies in peril. It is charged that the Diaz party has gone to the extreme of committing wholesale election frauds recently with a view of preventing the election of men not partisans.

FLOOD DAMAGE THIS AFTERNOON.

Railroad Bridges and Tracks of Denver and Rio Grande Carried Away By High Water.

Although the rain lasted only an hour this afternoon, it did considerable damage. The arroyo just north of town was running bankfull and flooded cellars and streets. It tore out the bridge of the Denver and Rio Grande railroad and took almost two miles of track with it, twisting up the rails. As the butcher wagon of Ortiz y Baca was crossing the Santa Fe river at Cathedral street, a flood came down the river taking horse, wagon and driver with it. The boy who was driving succeeded in saving himself and horse as they neared Don Gaspar avenue bridge but the wagon was wrecked. Many of the streets were impassable for the time being and the northwest corner of the Plaza was a big pond while the water came rushing down Palace avenue like a river. At the corner of Galisteo street and Manhattan avenue the water main burst and residents in that vicinity will have to depend on wells for the next few days. It is feared that considerable damage was done in the immediate vicinity.

Some hail came with the rain which amounted to 1.16 inches.

The arroyo north of the Federal building which is running very high caused great damage to the residences of William Vaughn, J. N. Zook, E. F. Wittman and Harry Schneider.

FAILED TO CROSS LAKE ONTARIO.

C. Foster Willard Made the Attempt in His Aeroplane, the Golden Flyer.

Toronto, Ont., Sept. 3.—C. Foster Willard in his aeroplane the Golden Flyer, made the first attempt to cross Lake Ontario last night, but a sudden increase in the wind and trouble with the ballast caused the machine to dip and hitch and he fell to the water about three-quarters of a mile from shore. He was picked up by a launch.
