According to the census of 1920 years of age in the state and of this there are 60,430 children 7 to 13 number 52,829 or 87.4 per cent were reported as attending school. In 1910 the percentage attending school was 77.1 thus indicating a decided improvement as regards school attendance between 1910 and 1920. Of the children 14 and 15 years of age in 1920, 80,4 per cent were attending school and of those 16 to 17 years of age 50.6 per cent.

The census says there are 41,637 illiterate persons 10 years of age and over in the state "illiterate" meaning unable to write. Of this number 23,757 are native whites of native parentage, 1,762 are of foreign or mixed parentage ,and 7,250 are of foreign birth and 8,553 Indians. The number of illiterate Negros is 228. In the total population 10 years of age and over the percentage of illiteracy is 15.6, which, it is grati fying to note shows a diminution since 1910, when it was 20.2.

There is considerable more illiteracy in the rural districts of the state than in the cities, the percentage being 17.6 for the rural population and 7.1 for the urban.

By counties the percentage of illit eracy ranges from 39.8 in McKinley to 4.2 in Chavez county.

BENEFIT HALF Proceedinss A MILLION SAYS Special Session Of The Board Of FRITZ MULLER $500,000 In Escrow Will Be Turned

Over Under Terms of the Carter Oil Leasing Bill

Santa Fe, N. M.,-The state land office will shortly turn over to the state treasurer's office nearly $500,-000 derived from oil leases and held in escrow heretofore because of the pendency of suits attacking the leases, Assistant Land Commissioner Fritz Muller stated.

This decision followed Attorney General Harry S. Bowman's opinion that the sum could be turned over and made available for immediate use by the common schools and state institutions, the beneficiaries from the lands on which the leases were granted. He gave this opinion at the request of the land office.

Bowman said the money was for the most part already earned because the greater part came from first year's rentals and the leasees already had received all the advantages they could expect even should the supreme court hold the leases invalid in that they had possession of the lands for drilling for the period covered by the rentals.

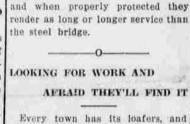

The attorney general added, in his opinion, the money not "earned" but held up peding the supreme court's decision also should be turned over.

This huge sum is in addition to nearly $300,000 already turned over to the school and road funds collected under the provisions of the Carter Bill.

SYNOD PRAISES PEACE

MEETING SET BY HARDING A resolution expressing the deepest gratitude to President Harding for his sincere efforts in advancing the cause in calling a disarmament conference for November 11, 1921, was adopted at the Presbyterian synod's meeting here yesterday. The resolution urged that the delogates to the conference use every possible effort to achieve the purpose aimed at and pledged the heartlest support and prayer to Almighty God that wisdom and guidance be given them in their deliberations.

Yesterday's program was filled with business meetings of the visiting Presbyterian ministers and speech es by Dr. G. P. Horst, of Chicago, nat" ional secretary of men's work. The annual synodical meeting of the women's home and foreign missionary societies was also held yesterday at the Lutheran church. The women will hold a final session this morning.

Senate consideration of the German peace treaty was renewed while democratic senators arranged to meet in conference for discussion of minority action.

The treaty was taken up again when debate on the tax bill lapsed. Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, republican leader, made a brief statement in support of the treaties.

Senator King, democrat, Utah, reiterated his contention that the treaties did not go far enough toward securing American chaims.

WHO FILLS THE PAY ENVELOPE

No doubt 99 per cent of employed in industry think their wages are paid by the man or firm that employs them, which is not unnatural in Germany, however, is only a single view of the fact that they draw mon ey at the cashier's window. But in truth the boss doesn't fill the pay envelope, and wages come through the firm but not from it.

A woman in a small town asked her husband, Colonel Blank, to call in at the dairy when passing to order some new-laid eggs. After making a brief demur the colonel yielded, A little later he called at the shop in question, quite a small and unimportant establishment on a back street.

'Two or three minutes passed; then, as no one came to serve him, the colonel gave a gentle knock on the counter. This had no effect; so a smart double rap was given. Then a curlyheaded youngster put his head around the door and announced, "Father's a-comin'?

Do you discriminate at the dining table-or are you thoughtless?

In thousands of homes, a "line" is drawn at the breakfast table. Tea or coffee is served for 'grown-ups" and Postum for children. But some parents do not discriminate. Caffeine and tannin, the injurious contents of coffee and tea, seriously retard the development of the delicate nerve tissues in children.

Consequently, instead of rich, satisfying Postum, children are over stimulated by the drugs in tea and coffee; and so may grow up irritable and nervous. Any doctor can tell you that this is a great evil and should be corrected.

Although some parents feel a certain justification for the personal indulgence in coffee, yet the harm to them may be equally serious. It may take a little while longer for the drugs in coffee and tea to affect an older person, but in many cases the nervous system and allied bodily functions will become weakened. The surest way to avoid such possibilities is to quit coffee entirely and drink Postum instead. The change permits you to get sound, restful sleep.

Postum is the wellknown, meal-time beverage. Like thousands of others you will like it because, in flavor, it is much like a high-grade coffee.

Do away with the distinction at the table. Serve delicious Postum, piping hot, to all the family. One week's trial and it is likely that you'll never return to tea and coffee, Postum' comes in two forms: Instant Postum (in tins) made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages of larger bulk, for those vho pre-fer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared) made by boiling for 20 minutes.

Strange White Tribe in Northern Africa Literally Weigh Themselves Down With Silver.

A strange white people, with a craze for jewelry that surpasses that of even the orientals, has been discovered in the depths of Algeria, deep in the heart of the mountains in northern Africa. These people are called "White Arabs," and are known as "Shawai Berbers" by neighboring tribes. European scientists believe they are descendants of an ancient white people who fled to these hills

During a certain ceremony which marks the end of the winter season all the young women and girls borrow from old relatives every bit of jewelry they can obtain, and appear literally weighted down with silver. The native jewelers cast silver as well as beat out bars, and make some charming pieces. Their silver chains are the envy of the Arabs. Suspicious customers often bring their own silver to the jeweler and watch him make pleces they order.

One of the most astonishing bits of jewelry they wear is a set of earrings so heavy that they cannot be held by the ears alone. Silver chains are attached to them and fastened to the headgear to help carry the weight. Another favorite bit of jewelry is a silver case in which is carried a written charm to keep away sickness and sorrow.

Astronomers Have Found That the Older a Star Is the Faster It Can Travel.

One of the most interesting of recent discoveries in connection with astron-omy is that the older a star grows, the faster does it move. A star, like an express train, takes time to get up speed. In the case of the train, however, It is a matter of a few minutes only; with a star it is millions of years The speed of the fastest star is about three hundred miles per second. This celestial racer is invisible with the naked eye, but has a number of other means of identification for the convenience of astronomers. It has been found that the average velocity of faint stars is much greater than that of brighter ones. Twentyeight faint ones have been found to have an average velocity of 138 miles per second, whiist the speed of nine very bright ones averaged only eighty miles per second.

Judged from the standard of speed. our own sun-which would appear as a star if it was far enough away from us-is a comparative infant. Its speed is only about twelve miles per second Tempered or elastic copper is produced in the process patented by S. O. Warrington loved Myra Evans-he, poor and ambitious. So did Rolfe Daniels-rich, selfish and an idler. Myra's father had borrowed all the money he could to fit out an expedition to Australia to import a new breed of sheep. The Lovely Lass was purchased, sailed away with her young brother in charge, was wrecked in a terrible storm at sea, and Lisle Evans came home crippled, a pauper and his health broken.

The worst of it was that when all hands were forced to abandon the Lovely Lass 350 miles west of the South American coast, in the rush and peril of the occasion Lisle had left in a certain box in a certain part of its cabin over $20,000 in money to buy the ship with, and papers representing as much more. An abandoned derelict, the captain and crew gave her up for The' blow crushed the proud spirit of old Colonel Evans. He had mortgaged his home to fit out the venture. In some way Rolfe Daniels had secured the notes. He pressed payment. Ruin stared the Evans family in the face. It was then that Daniels proposed to cancel the obligation if Myra would become his wife. One day Lisle Evans called upon Melvin. There were tears in his eyes as he spoke of Myra.

"Listen, Melvin," he said, "this marringe must never take place. I can do nothing in my condition, but you-If I show you a possible chance to save Myra, what would you say?"

"You know without asking," responded Melvin, with deep emotion. 'I would give my life for her, for any member of her family.

"Then listen, my friend. I am sat isfied that Lovely Lass is still affoat," declared Lisle. "I feel certain that somewhere on the bosom of the broad Pacific she is knocking about, with that treasure, which means the salvation of our family, aboard. Lloyd's Register has listed her 'foundered.' but this marine obit was later changed 'abandoned at sea." A tramp schooner sighted her 600 miles west of

For two days Melvin Warrington reflected over this interview. Two months later, the devoted lover found himself the inmate of a hotel at Valparaiso. He chartered a small yacht. From close investigation Melvin had decided that the Lovely Lass, if afloat, was grounded in some of the numer ous inlets of the Djaimi islands.

The day before the yacht salled, a brisk, business appearing young man named Hudson sought out Melvin. "I learn you are going on a cruise

CAUSE FOR UNTHRIFTY PIGS

Dr. Evvard of Iowa Station Suggests That Round Worms May Be at Bottom of Trouble.

When young pigs are not sloing well, it may be that round worms are the cause of their unthriftiness. A 100-pound shote at the Iowa experiment station was very unthrifty. It was killed and examined. John M. Evvard, in charge of swine feeding work, says that in one-half foot of that hog's intestine there were 63 worms that weighed two-fifths of a pound.

To prevent such conditions, keep the pigs growing. Feed well, Keep the lots clean and free from rubbish, Drain the pastures and lots. For emergency cases use sanronin and calomel, about five to ten grains each for a 100-pound plg, or 71% to 15 grains each for a 200 to 300 pound pig. It may also be well to allow free access to such condiments as air-slaked lime, charcoal, dack coal, powdered sulphur, glauber's salts and common salt, these being allowed free choice style, each being placed in a separate compartment of a self feeder.

When Pastures Begin to Dry Up Young Animals Must Have Feed for Best Development.

As the pastures commence to dry up the proper development of the foul calls for the feeding of a little grain in order to maintain the milk fat and keep the foal developing to the best advantage. Colts that belong to working mares should have a separate feed box and receive a little grain each time the mother is fed. Those on paswhere grain can be kept available for the foal at all times. If these methods are followed the colt will continue to gain and will not shrink when weaning time comes.

EDISON QUESTIONS

THOMAS A. EDISON, who has a very low opinion of the intellectuality of the average college student, has come out with a new set of questions, historical, political, geographical and scientific.

The Wizard is much too honest a man for anybody to suggest that he deliberately got up these posers for the purpose of humiliating his fellow citizens.

So it' may be admitted that the wide ground covered by the queries represents his own interest in all sorts of subjects having to do with human activities.

But it is doubtful whether or not ability to answer correctly all or most of these questions could be any test of the intelligence of anybody, in college or out of it. For intelligence and knowledge are very different things. It was once said of a distinguished man that he had a larger store of useless knowledge than anybody of his time. Mr. Edison would not admit that any knowledge could be useless.

In fact he seems to take the attitude of the late Lord Macaulay who was in the habit of qualifying a state-ment as to something that nobody knew anything about but himself, by saying "as every schoolboy knows." As a result "Macaulay's Schoolboy" became the proper definition of an infant prodigy.

Lord Kelvin was one of the most distinguished men of science of his Addressing his students at time. Glasgow University on one occasion he said that the great thing about the higher mathematics was that it

THE GIRL ON THE JOB . How to Succeed-How to Get Ahead-How to Make Good By JESSIE ROBERTS Samerannananananananananan NEED FOR NURSES

HERE are not enough trained nurses to meet the demand, On the other hand nurses are saying that they cannot make both ends meet unless their pay is increased. Many women who might take up the work are deterred because of this faci.

To meet this, the alumni societies of the training schools are combining with a view to settle on a proper advance. The new rate of pay would be $6 a day for 12-hour periods, and $50 a week for contagious cases.

Nurses are going to be asked for by communities to do public work. Dis trict visiting and prenatal care at the xpense of the community, where reumstances domand, will be put ino the hands of trained nurses. It fill be worth doing, and sure to apeal to certain types of women who ke nursing, but who do not care for ivate or hospital work, A girl who wants to study for this could be of no possible use to anybody. Yet the fact that Kelvin and a couple of his friends, one in America and another in Europe, used to amuse themselves with these useless investigations, Is, in a way, an argument in favor of Mr. Edison. It goes to show that certain things are worth while even if no direct advantage is to be derived from them. Old-fashioned schoolmasters were great believers in the importance of facts, and a great part of their time was passed in getting them into the minds of the young,

But the modern schoolmaster goes about his business in a different way

He does not try to teach facts. He does try to teach general principles. It is like the difference between the old geography and the new.

The old dealt with the names of places, rivers, mountains and so on. The new deals with the effect of the physical shape of the earth's surface on the races scattered over it.

A well-trained lawyer is not one who carries all the cases around with him in his head. But he does know how to put his hand on anything he wants. In the same way it is more important to be able to get at your facts than to know them. (Copyright.)

HE little valleys lie so far Γ From where the busy cities are That men may live and men may

And never find them where they lie, The fittle valleys near the sky,

Shut in by plain and sturdy hters That feed the grasses with their rills, The little valleys do not seem A part of all life's roaring stream-But just a landscape and a dream.

A few green acres, that is all, The mountains like a garden wall In quiet peace to shut them in, To shut away the dirt, the din,

And all the world of noisy sin. And, oh. I wish that weary feet Could find the little valleys sweet!-And, oh, 1 wish the weary beart That feels the bruises of the mart Could find this little world apart!

"God's gardens," so I call the vales Up yonder by the mountain trails; And you who cry for heaven's aid You will not find it, I'm afraid. Where man his busy world has made.

You must come tramping over hills, Come follow singing whip-poor-wills, Must journey long and clamber high To where God's hidden gardens lle---The little valleys near the sky.

Some More Truths.

WOULD you use a steam shovel to move a pebble? Certainly not. Implements are built according to the work they have to do.

Would you use a grown-up's remedy for your baby's ills? Certainly not. Remedies are prepared according to the work THEY have to do.

All this is preliminary to reminding you that Fletcher's Castoria was sought out, found and is prepared solely as a remedy for Infants and Children. And let this be a warning against Substitutes, Counterfeits and the Just-as-good stuff that may be all right for you in all your strength, but dangerous for the little babe.

All the mother-love that lies within your heart cries out to you: Be true to Baby. And being true to Baby you will keep in the house remedies specially prepared for babies as you would a baby's food, hairbrush, toothbrush or sponge.

Children Cry For Are You Prepared? A doctor in the house all the time would be a good idea. Yet you can't afford to keep a doctor it. the family to keep baby well or prevent sickness. But you can do almost the same thing by having at hand a bottle of Fletcher's Castoria, because it is a wonderful remedy for indigestion, colic, feverishness, fretfulness and all the other disorders that result from common ailments that babies have.

Fletcher's Castoria is perfectly safe to use. It is a harmless sub-stitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. Children cry for Fletcher's Castoria, and mothers recommend it because they have found it a comfort to children and a mother's friend.

If you love your baby, you know how sweet it is to be able to help baby when trouble comes. You cannot always call upon a doctor. But doctors have nothing but good to say of Fletcher's Castoria, because they know that it can only do good - that it can't do any harm and they wouldn't want you to use for baby a remedy that you would use for yourself.

EUNICE

E UNICE, like Evangeline, is one of the "glad" names in the lexicon of feminine cognomens. Like Evangeline also, it comes from the Greek word meaning well, or happy, Eunice is translated to mean "happy victory.'

Because of its significance, the Greek word from which Eunice was derived, was taken over in early times by the Christians, who adored names of happy augury. The names coming from this favorite word are almost be yond enumeration, but curiously, only a few of them have survived to mod ern times

Eunice is one of these latter. It made its appearance as Eunike one of the fifty Nerelds. Her name straightway became popular among Greek women, but it remained for Eunice, the Jewish mother of Timothy to give it vogue in the days of early Chris-English lovers of Bible tianity. names have favored it for centuries. and it is still popular in all the countries of Europe, though particularly adapted to English and American usage.

The topaz is the talismanic gem as signed to Eunice. "The chrysolite of sunrise," Shelly calls it. It is said to preserve its wearer from all dangers and to warn of approaching evil by paling in color, but it will be rendered impotent unless it is set in gold.
