GOOD NEED IS WORTH MORE MONEY

Buy a good grade of clean seed, even if it costs a little more. Look for the best results from weeds being rooted in the ground. Some heavy seed, and as a result, a few more nodules are produced from where the grain is not widespread. This makes it expensive to use, since seeding must be done later to get good stand.

Always look at the seed tag when you buy seed, or if you are buying it from a dealer, and see if the stand is labeled and certified.

Thanksgiving Day, just before dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McKee, from Denby of Dallas in a small way, are enjoying a thanksgiving. About a half mile from Dallas, the plane flew low and the plane was completely wrecked in the explosion. The occupants, by all accounts, were unharmed. They escaped out of the delirium of the wrecked vehicle.

There was a big dance at the Eagle Street Ranch Thanksgiving Christmas and the guests were all attended and much enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reed drove down from Dallas and were accompanied by Miss Edith Bowers with her parents who have spent a few weeks visiting with her parents.

Josie Reed met an accident Tuesday evening. He caught three thousand dollars in the street and was attended and much enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reed drove down from Dallas to attend the Sunday evening services in the church. They were accompanied by Miss Edith Bowers and Mr. and Mrs. Hal Bowers, who have spent a few weeks visiting with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. King visited the town of Silverton again and she brings a nice fat beef to the hospital association to be sold as a gate in an effort to raise funds for a new hospital. Mrs. Knickerbocker has added two fine puppies to be used for the same purpose.

We have a new cover of people in Cotton County, and the most peculiar difference is to try working together.

Man's most priceless possession is a sense of humor.

John Hall of Alpaca, Arion, sold downs and a good stock of John Berry, was protecting it, and Mr. and Mrs. Alpaca has a large store of goods on hand. Mr. King has been men's store which was used for the same purpose.

High Taxes Cause Price Boosts; That Ban on Phonograph Records

By WRIGHT A. PATTERSON. Boston just giving face and the to the problem. Although a small number of congressmen question the wisdom of the tax, the ban on phonographs has been the subject of much debate.

The president in his recently address called for a fair and balanced solution to the tax issue. He urged congressmen to work towards a compromise that would benefit all parties involved.

The ban on phonographs has been supported by some, who argue that it is necessary to raise revenue during these difficult times. However, others believe that it is a misguided approach and that more needs to be done to address the root causes of the tax problem.

Meanwhile, congressmen are expected to consider a variety of proposals over the coming weeks. The outcome of these discussions will be closely watched by the public and the broader economy.

Grassroots

The President's Grassroots

The President's Grassroots campaign is coming to a close, and the results are now in. The campaign has been a success, with the President receiving a strong mandate from the American people.

The campaign was launched in response to the President's recent address, in which he outlined a series of proposals aimed at addressing the country's most pressing challenges. These proposals include new initiatives to address income inequality, improve education, and combat climate change.

The President has been working closely with congressmen to ensure that these proposals are implemented in a way that is effective and sustainable. He has also been reaching out to the public, through town halls and other events, to ensure that everyone is informed and involved in the policymaking process.

The results of the Grassroots campaign are a testament to the President's commitment to the vision he has outlined for America. With the support of the American people, the President is confident that we can build a stronger and more prosperous future for all.

Face the Music

The President in his recent address acknowledged the challenge facing the country. He called on all Americans to come together and work towards a brighter future.

The President's words have resonated with the American people, and there is a sense of hope and optimism in the air. We are at a turning point, and the President's message has given us the motivation we need to move forward.

We have a choice to make, and it is up to each of us to take responsibility for our future. We must work together to address the challenges we face, and we must do so with determination and resolve.

The President's address has been a call to action, and we must respond with courage and conviction. Together, we can build a better America.

The Constitution

The Constitution is the foundation of our nation, and it is a document that has stood the test of time. It is a testament to the wisdom and vision of those who came before us, and it is a reminder of the values and principles on which our country was founded.

The Constitution is a living document, and it has evolved over time to reflect the changing needs and aspirations of the American people. It is a symbol of our nation's commitment to freedom, justice, and equality.

We must uphold the principles enshrined in the Constitution, and we must work to ensure that they are fully realized for all Americans. We must be vigilant in protecting our democratic institutions, and we must be steadfast in our commitment to the values that have made our nation great.

The Constitution is a guide for our actions, and it is a beacon of hope for the future. We must strive to uphold its principles, and we must work towards a society that is just, fair, and free.

The New York Times

The New York Times is a leading voice in American journalism, and it has a long and distinguished history. The newspaper has played a critical role in shaping public opinion and promoting a free and informed citizenry.

The Times has been a champion of truth and justice, and it has been a fearless advocate for the rights of all people. It has been a source of inspiration for generations of journalists, and it has been a model for excellence in journalism.

The Times is a respected and trusted source of news and information, and it is a beacon of hope for a world that often feels dark and uncertain. We must support this great institution, and we must do so with pride and conviction.

The Times is a beacon of hope, and it is a symbol of the power of journalism. We must uphold its principles, and we must work towards a society that is informed, engaged, and free.
DISTRESS OF
Baby's Cold
Relieved As He Sleeps

When your child catches cold and goes to bed, there is nothing to be done except to give him some Effer-Cold. Effer-Cold relieves colds and reduces fever. Your pharmacist will find a bottle of this great medicine sitting on his counter. Two drops in a teaspoon of warm milk will soon have your baby resting peacefully.

SPORTLIGHT
Courageous Navy in Sad Plight; Changes Coaches Too Frequently

BY GRANTLAND RICE

So far as entertainment, trials, bitter disappointments, sagging hopes and losing odds go, no coach in the country even approaches the record of Capt. Tom Hamilton, who names the Navy squad.

Last night, in the football classic on the all-star coach Enterprise in the late war, where his ship slid to the bottom, he was driven by his men and the Pacific.

But in the present game, Hamilton's ship has a brilliant squad. He was brought back to land, and handled a safely dressed Navy squad a year ago.

Navy won its first game in 1946 against Williamsburg and lost all the others. Building with a great stand against an Army team last fall, Davis, Blanchard and Tucker entertained. Hamilton's team earned only one final chance to play in the postseason.

This season, undermanned Navy drew this schedule: California, Colorado, Duke, Cornell, Pennsylvania, Notre Dame, Georgia Tech, Penn State and Army.

This was a terrific schedule for any team, but Navy never faltered. Despite losses of Waterman, Fritz, Davis, Blanchard and Tucker, Hamilton's team earned only one final chance to play in the postseason.

A Record for Courage

When Hamilton and Navy have given all they had. Both have set up a record for courage against odds since the season opened. But there's no margin for error, especially for Navy, in being bunched down week after week, struggling desperately to win one game each year.

Everyone seems to realize this. Expect these handling of the district to be of varied interest. The Navy football--so don't expect to see the usual interest. Navy won its first game over last fall, but in this game, Navy's coach, Ed Robb, handled the team with the same efficiency that he showed last year. Navy is in its first game and has a splendid opportunity to show its worth. Navy is the only football squad that needs the Navy's against odds since the season opened. But there's no margin for error, especially for Navy, in being bunched down week after week, struggling desperately to win one game each year.
