1. A FRESH, NEW LOOK will be featured on the UNM home page beginning tomorrow morning. Special attention has been given to the University's major constituencies and to the most popular links and activities. Be sure to check out "Looking for..." where many of the links previously listed on the current page can be found. Hot-button links to the latest news and major events are also included and detailed campus news can be found on "Inside UNM."

2. UNM VOLUNTEERS, including students, staff, faculty, alumni, prospective students and their families, will participate in a local community service event dubbed the "Spring Storm" on Saturday, April 6. Projects ranging from painting and landscaping to elderly visitation and youth education are slated as part of the volunteer effort.
