MEXICAN INDEPENDENCE.

Mexicans from our sister republic and descendants of Mexicans celebrated the ninety-eighth anniversary of Mexican Independence, in Carrizozo Wednesday. In the early hours of the morning the people of the town were awakened by the discharge of guns, the firing of anvils, the playing of the band, the march to the rub-a-dub-dub of the drum and the shouts of the populace. The cause for the commotion was at first an enigma to Americans, but finally Memory got busy and the 16th of September was recalled as the anniversary of Mexican Independence, and then no one wondered at the din and noise; for it reminded Americans of their own natal day, which is celebrated in all climes and under every flag.

CAPITAN, N. M.

The event, just commemorated, had its beginning at the little village of Dolores, where, September 16, 1810, Miguel Hidalgo, a curate, proclaimed a revolt, raised an army, marched towards Mexico, and with his raw troops, defeated Truxillo October 30, 1810; was later defeated by the Spaniards under Calleja, fell back to Guadalajara and recruited his army to 100,000. He was routed by Calleja at the bridge of Calderon January 17, 1811. Hidalgo fled towards the United States, but was captured and shot. The seed sown by this obscure curate, however, bore fruit; the war for freedom continued, and the last Spanish viceroy was driven from Mexico in 1821. September 16th is to the Mexicans what the 4th of July is to Americans; hence the celebration Wednesday.

KILLED A BEAR AND A LION.

Roy Jacobs met with his usual success in the Capitan mountains one day last week. He took his dogs out for a run, and succeeded in running a big bear up a tree, and finally despatched him in the latest approved style. Later, Roy made another raid, in company James Goodall, and, of course, his ever-faithful dogs, and rounded up a mountain lion that, our informant tells us, was a most vicious fighter, and it was quite an entertaining affair until the combatants reached Jim's neighborhood, and Jim, while attempting to make his get-away, slipped and roolled down a rock-slide. If skin is valuable, Jim feels that he is considerable loser as a result of the hunt; for he was skinned from hat to boot heel. The lion was a monster, measuring nine feet from tip to tip.

ALTITUDE AND CLIMATE.

A stranger put in an appearance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Baird Tuesday morning, via the stork route. P. C. says that, notwithstanding, he has become suspicious of strangers and that he has not entertained one at his home for many years, the helpless condition of this little girl causes him to revise his preconceived ideas, and will see that the little one wants for nothing while under his roof. This altitude and climate have a wonderful effect on the human family, and Ponce de Leon's fabled fountain is doubtless somewhere near this place.

BRANCH LINE CHANGES TIME.

The trains on the Capitan line that have in the past left here at 8:30 a. m., Mondays and Thursdays of each week, will in future leave here, on the same days, at 7:00 a. m. This will give passengers returning on the branch line, or coming from the other side, an opportunity to catch No. 3 on the main line, which passes here going west at 1 p. m. This change will make travel over the branch line much more convenient and comfortable.

SCHOOL NOTICE.

The Carrizozo public schools will begin south of the railroad track October 5th, but, owing to the delay on the new building, schools on the north side will not commence till Monday, Oct. 12.

THE PICNIC LUNCH

REALLY THE STAR FEATURE OF DAY'S OUTING.

Proper Arrangement and Packing of Food Necessary if One Would Have the Feast Tempting and Palatable.

Too much luggage spoils the picnic, and yet the little feast is the star feature of the day. How, then, to carry enough to eat, and at the same time have it look tempting?

There is a hamper made of light-weight wicker and yet strong enough to stand the wear of many outings in the woods.

A telescope shape is easy to handle and its size can be regulated to fit the contents so readily that the woman who thinks ahead and of the party's return is sure to choose this style instead of the square or oblong hamper made after the fashion of the English tea basket.

Straw cases for bottles, cups and glasses are superior in many ways to leather ones. The lighter covering may not wear so well as the others, but it looks much cooler. Hamper fittings can be bought separately and tucked away in a plain basket, and if well packed no danger of breakage need be feared.

Wooden plates are really much more picnicy than china. If sandwiches and cakes are placed on plates when the basket is being arranged and each one is wrapped first in a napkin wrung out in ice water, then in baker's or paraffine paper the food will be kept perfectly fresh, and it can be placed at once on the picnic table when the time for luncheon has arrived. Lettuce leaves that have been packed loosely in a linen bag thoroughly dampened with ice water will help to give the luncheon table a fresh, cool and inviting air and they can be used to garnish the plates of cold meats and salads. This is an excellent way to carry green salads, and if the dressing is made just before starting and carried in a bottle, or the ingredients packed so that the dressing can be mixed by the salad expert while the luncheon is being spread out, the salad will be fresh and crisp.

Tiny cones of salt and pepper, one packet for each member of the party, are easier to carry and much less trouble than to take along a set of shakers.

There are such perfect ways now of carrying hot or cold liquids and keeping them at their original temperature that few picnic parties bother with making tea or coffee at the grounds. A basket that is well packed with edibles which have been properly chilled before starting seldom gets warm and mussy if it is handled carefully and kept out of the sun. Plates and cups can be kept on the ice for a while before they are tucked away in the hamper and they will stay cold for some time.

Tinned and bottled foods are best taken in small lots so that they can be opened as needed and the empty boxes or bottles thrown away at once. Having a number of things in this way does away with passing the food from one end of the table or luncheon cloth to the other. Paper napkins are good enough for the average outdoor function of this kind. They should, however, be supplied in quantities so that they may be used for covering the plates, for wiping off dust and for cleaning the dishes after the meal is over.

Egg Salad.

Boil eight eggs 15 minutes, chop, pepper and salt, then make dressing of one teaspoon flour, one teaspoon sugar, one teaspoon butter, one of ground mustard half a cup of good vinegar. Cook five minutes and pour over eggs, add nuts if you like.

The Sort of Thing He Liked.

In an early day in Stone county, Missouri, a farmer's boy rushed into the office of Dr. T. J. McCord of Gaiena and urged the doctor to come quickly to see his father, who seemed to be dying. Said the doctor, "What ails him, and what has he eaten?"

The boy said: "Oh, nothing much but 14 roastin' ears for supper."

"Well," said the doctor, "just go back and throw him a couple of bundles of oats and tell him I will be up there in about 30 minutes."—From Judge's Library.

WONDERED WHY Found the Answer Was "Coffee."

Many pale, sickly persons wonder for years why they have to suffer so, and eventually discover that the drug—caffeine—in coffee is the main cause of the trouble.

"I was always very fond of coffee and drank it every day. I never had much flesh and often wondered why I was always so pale, thin and weak. About five years ago my health completely broke down and I was confined to my bed. My stomach was in such condition that I could hardly take sufficient nourishment to sustain life.

"During this time I was drinking coffee, didn't think I could do without it.

"After awhile I came to the conclusion that coffee was hurting me, and decided to give it up and try Postum. I didn't like the taste of it at first, but when it was made right—bottled until dark and rich—I soon became very fond of it.

"In one week I began to feel better. I could eat more and sleep better. My sick headaches were less frequent, and within five months I looked and felt like a new being, headache spells entirely gone.

"My health continued to improve and today I am well and strong, weigh 148 lbs. I attribute my present health to the life-giving qualities of Postum."

"There's a Reason." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

THE INTERSTATE FAIR.

Rapid Progress Being Made in Preparation for the Opening.

Practically every building is completed, and by August 20th everything will be in readiness at Overland Park, Denver, for the first annual Colorado Interstate Fair and Exposition to be held September 7th-12th.

HORSE EXHIBIT BUILDING.

This is to be a pure bred live stock show, and G. C. Fuller, acting secretary, says that the entries, for the horse and cattle departments which close on August 15th, are coming rapidly, and that there is every indication that this will be by far the greatest pure bred stock show ever seen west of the Missouri river.

Some of the finest bred horses and cattle in the United States have already been entered, and word has been received by Mr. Fuller from other breeders that they will enter. Two buildings, each 78x285 feet in size and provided with every modern convenience, have been built for the cattle and horse exhibit, and of the $25,000 in cash premiums offered, more than $6,000 is put up for cattle, and nearly $4,000 for horses, with other department premiums correspondingly high.

Mr. Fuller says that requests for the premium list are coming in by every mail, and that entries are rapidly filling in the various departments.

Resents Good Advice.

That there is a startling difference between the temper of the rising generation and that of the youth whose young ideas shot up according to the teachings of Mrs. Hannah More and "Sanford and Merton," has recently been proven by a little seven-year-old girl, who was laboriously spelling her way through a reading lesson.

"Al-ways speak the truth," she said, "and o-bey your par-ents."

"Be gen-tle and qui-et. Nev-er slam the door and shout and scream a-bout the house."

"At the table eat slowly; not in a greedy man-ner like a pig."

Suddenly the little girl shut the book with a portentous bang and announced with firmness and decision: "I'm not going to let any old third reader boss me like that!"—Rochester Herald.

Died in Infancy.

There is a section of North Carolina, said to be remarkable by reason of the longevity of its inhabitants, which has been the inspiration of many good stories.

Perhaps the best of the lot is one told by a Representative in Congress from that state. It is to the effect that a native of the region mentioned, who had attained the age of ninety-two, was returning, with his wife, aged ninety, from the funeral of their eldest child—deceased at the age of sixty-nine.

As they mournfully discussed the subject of their grief, the wife said with a sigh:

"Ezekiel, I allers tote you we'd never raise that chile."

HOW COST. OF LIVING HAS INCREASED

THE COST OF LIVING

HAS INCREASED 44 PER CENT. IN LAST TEN YEARS.

Meat Has Gone Up 50 Per Cent. in Those Years—Farm Products Higher—Drugs as a Rule Lower.

Chicago.—It costs more to live, anywhere in the United States, than it did ten years ago. But comparisons of Chicago price increases with those discovered by the national government show that the law of compensation has not been altogether off the job here.

For instance, coal here is higher—a full 100 per cent. higher than ten years ago. But if you have no coal, and catch cold through lack of it, you can buy quinine to cure your cold much cheaper than you could in 1898.

On the other hand, coffee is cheaper on the Chicago retail market than it was a decade ago, but the drugs most in favor for curing indigestion, which coffee sometimes causes, are costlier than they were then.

Meat has gone up scandalously—in fact, 50 per cent. in three years. Oh, very well. Vegetables and canned goods are about as cheap as ever, and the logic of the household expense account is making more vegetarians than appeals to sentiment ever did.

The government figures show a higher price on the whole in 258 commodities that enter largely into the living of all the people. In 1907 the percentage over 1906 was 5.7 per cent., and 44.4 per cent. higher than 1897, the year of lowest prices during the 18 year period, and 29.5 per cent. higher than the average for the ten years, 1890 to 1900.

For farm products, taken as a whole, the increase was greatest—namely, 10.9 per cent.; for food, 4.6 per cent.; for cloths and clothing, 5.6 per cent.; for fuel and lighting, 2.4 per cent.; for metals and implements, 6.1 per cent.; for lumber and building materials, 4.9 per cent.; for drugs and chemicals, 8.3 per cent.; for housefurnishing goods, 6.8 per cent., and miscellaneous, 5 per cent.

Chicago lumbermen say the government's estimate is about right for the increase in Chicago market prices for their wares. Increasing depletion of the forest, they say, has kept the price ascending gradually, and the average increase in cost which enters into ordinary living expenses is around 5 per cent.

Furniture and house furnishings have soared, and experts on the Chicago market say the government's 6.8 per cent. is too low to serve locally. Not less than 15 per cent., they say, has been the increase here. This is due to scarcity of material, especially oak, to higher cost of the materials for iron and brass furniture, and to higher prices of labor.

Drugs and chemicals, of such sort as to affect the cost of living, were higher, say by 5 per cent., in Chicago last year than in 1898; but they have fallen until they are about where they were, and in some instances, such as quinine, lower than ever. The higher prices were caused by the scarcity of root and herb diggers, the lower prices by the financial panic.

As to canned goods, peaches sold in 1897 for the same as they did in 1907, while some canned products were much cheaper ten years ago. The cause for this was that fruits and vegetables were plentiful last year, while the production was much larger. Last year beans were scarce and higher. Up to the time of the panic buying did not drop off, but since then prices have been dropping until they are about as low as they were in 1896.

The cost of preparing food products is much higher now on account of the increased cost of labor, also the increase in the farm products that go into them. Sugar is higher this year than in 1907, while coffee is cheaper. Tea is as cheap as it has been in several years. Staple commodities are not high this year in the grocery line. In many commodities the prices are 10 per cent. lower than they were in 1907.

A leading clothier says that clothes are higher than in the last two years and that this should not be. This is partly due to the scarcity of wool, but is in part due to existence of clothing combinations to keep prices up.

Cotton is no higher, yet the manufacturers are in combination to maintain high prices. Ten years ago wool suits were 10 per cent. lower than they are now, and were made of as good material and as well made, but without the same degree of care as to style. Higher labor cost, higher wool, prosperity, and combinations among manufacturers are the reasons he gives for the higher prices of clothing.

Shoes are cheaper on the average than ever they have been, but are only five per cent. cheaper than at their highest point, in 1907. They have, however, gone up in price 15 per cent. in the last 18 years, but to compensate for that they are better made. The increase in cost of shoes is due to the high price of hides, which have increased in 18 years 150 per cent. Shoes are relatively cheaper than the hides from which they are made, this seeming paradox being due to improved methods of manufacture.

The price of meat has been soaring for the last 18 years, and it is generally conceded that this has been due to the going out of the range cattle and the consequent scarcity of beef cattle, and the combinations among the packers, who have virtually a monopoly of the business, having driven the small country and town butchers out of business. This spring, during a period of ten days, pork and beef stock took an upward flight of 30 to 50 per cent., and the average for the year is fully 25 per cent. higher than last year, which was 25 per cent. more than the year before.

Prosperity and high wages, as well as the scarcity of cattle, are given by the packers as being responsible for the rise in prices in the last ten years.

LET PASTOR WASH IN CREEKS.

Two Congregations Can't Afford Bathroom for Parsonage.

Pennburg, Pa.—By a decisive vote the congregations of the Sunnyside Lutheran charge have decided that cleanliness and godliness are not correlated to such an extent that a bathroom should be provided for the parsonage.

The pastor, Rev. Charles L. Dapp, is spending the summer in Germany, and some of the members proposed to equip the parsonage in Sunnyside with a bathroom prior to his return. Special meetings were held by the two congregations at Sunnyside and Keeler's church, which comprise the charge, and determined opposition to the bathroom project developed among the older members. They and their pastors had managed to get along for generations without bathrooms, they argued, and they saw no reason for introducing such new-fangled notions.

Three creeks in the neighborhood, it was intimated, afforded abundant opportunity for bathing.

When the vote was taken the result in the Sunnyside congregation was 24 in favor of the improvement and 74 against, while the majority against the bathroom in Keeler's congregation was almost as large.

GIFT OF MUMMY HORRIFIES.

Letter of Explanation Is Delayed in Reaching Recipient.

Waterloo, Ia.—Jack Stace of this city was the recipient of a strange, uncanny gift from his uncle, J. P. Martin, a government surveyor in Panama.

The box was delivered by an expressman. After receipting for it Mr. Stace opened his gift. His family clustered about him to see the contents and were horrified when the grinning face of a petrified mummy gazed into their eyes. The little shriveled thing was about three feet long and joined to one body were two well developed heads, four complete arms and four well developed legs. The strange freak was unearthed by Mr. Martin in the Panama district.

A letter of explanation was delayed several hours and the terrifying creature was seen before the family was prepared for the shock.

ALL RUN DOWN.

Miss Della Stroebe, who had Completely Lost Her Health, Found Relief from Pe-ru-na at Once.

Read What She Says:

MISS DELLA STROEBE, 710 Richmond St., Appleton, Wis., writes: "For several years I was in a run-down condition, and I could find no relief from doctors and medicines. I could not enjoy my meals, and could not sleep at night. I had heavy, dark circles about the eyes.

"My friends were much alarmed. I was advised to give Peruna a trial, and to my joy I began to improve with the first bottle. After taking six bottles I felt completely cured. I cannot say too much for Peruna as a medicine for women in a run-down condition."

Pe-ru-na Did Wonders.

Mrs. Judge J. F. Boyer, 1421 Sherman Ave., Evanston, Ill., says that she became run down, could neither eat nor sleep well, and lost flesh and spirit. Peruna did wonders for her, and she thanks Peruna for new life and strength.

Sam's Idea.

During one of the big political conventions a train load of delegates were stalled at a water tank. As the day was sultry the windows were raised and the delegates leaned out. Every head that appeared was bald.

"Boss," said an old colored man who was selling sandwiches, "what train do you call dat dar?"

"Why, Sam, that is the 'cannon-ball' express," responded the conductor.

The old man watched the bald heads protruding from the windows for a long while and then said, seriously:

"Cannon-ball express? Lands, boss, looks to me more like de billiard-ball express."

IT SEEMED INCURABLE

Body Raw with Eczema—Discharged from Hospitals as Hopeless—Cuticura Remedies Cured Him.

"From the age of three months until fifteen years old, my son Owen's life was made intolerable by eczema in its worst form. In spite of treatments the disease gradually spread until nearly every part of his body was quite raw. He used to tear himself dreadfully in his sleep and the agony he went through is quite beyond words. The regimental doctor pronounced the case hopeless. We had him in hospitals four times and he was pronounced one of the worst cases ever admitted. From each he was discharged as incurable. We kept trying remedy after remedy, but had gotten almost past hoping for a cure. Six months ago we purchased a set of Cuticura Remedies. The result was truly marvelous and to-day he is perfectly cured. Mrs. Lily Hodge, Camblewell Green, England, Jan. 12, 1907."

A GUESS AT NATIONAL RESULTS.

Everybody is figuring on the probable results of the national election, and few agree as to the actual outcome, further than to claim a victory for one candidate or the other, and in most instances the prediction is governed by the sentiment of the speaker or writer. On one point, however, many are agreed, and that is that in this year's fight there is a larger list of apparently doubtful states than ever before. It is not difficult to name the states that are reasonably for Bryan or Taft, but it is another matter when the doubtful list is mentioned, and it would require the services of a divinely inspired prophet to straighten the tangled web.

Therefore, as we are not a prophet nor the son of one no attempt will be made to change the doubtful states to Bryan or Taft.

In the following table will be shown three columns, viz: Bryan, Taft and doubtful; and while, as we have said, we do not expect all to agree on the doubtful list, we feel that there will be little difference of opinion on the sure states. Here's our guess:

SCHOOL NOTES FROM CORONA.

School opened at Corona September 7, 1908, under the care of Prof. J. H. Crawford and Miss Donnie Franks, with an enrollment of eighty pupils. Many of the patrons of the district were present at the opening. The interest which has been manifested by the pupils in the last week is pleasant to the teachers and parents. The prospect is that Corona will have one of the best schools in the history of the place.

The interest that the teachers, parents and pupils are taking in the school assures its success. I believe there is no town or community in New Mexico that is more liberal and willing in the upbuilding of the school than this district. The people of Corona are now preparing to build a ten thousand dollar school building, which will add much to the upbuilding of the town.

The list of pupils has been increasing daily, and by the end of the month it is thought that the enrollment will reach a hundred and twenty-five or thirty. The prospects are that Corona will have to secure the third teacher. This is why the good people of the place are looking forward to a ten thousand dollar building. Within a short time Corona will have one among the best schools in the territory.

There is already a plan under way to secure a library for the school, and part of the books has been ordered. And within a short time we will have one of the best libraries of any town of this size in the territory.

If anyone is contemplating attending school this winter, we think there is no town in the west that will afford cheaper board, rates and better training than at this place.

We have Sunday school and church every Sunday. Three denominations are represented, viz: Primitive Baptist, Missionary Baptist and Christian church. The W. O. W. have quite an interesting lodge here, and the prospect is that there will be an I. O. O. F. lodge organized soon.

Under such influences, anyone will be safe in trusting their children in the hands of this school.

Anyone desiring information concerning the school, write the Principal, J. H. Crawford.

CORRESPONDENT.

During my absence in California, my real estate and insurance business will be in charge of W. F. A. Gierke, who is authorized to receive all collections and receipt for the same.

DOES THIS INTEREST YOU?

DEAR FRIENDS:—

God, in His wisdom, has laid on the hearts of myself and wife the establishing of an Orphans' Home.

This work was started in San Marcial, New Mexico, by the death of a member of our church, who left in my charge her two girls. For about four years we refused to accept others, though often solicited. Last year we felt free in accepting three other children.

We then began to pray for a "Home" for the precious ones given us. After carefully looking over the country, we have decided to locate the "Home" in Lincoln county, about ten miles east of White Oaks, New Mexico, where we will have a large place, some good farming land, plenty of wood. As soon as we can arrange for suitable buildings and other things necessary we expect to throw open our doors to receive as many children as can be accommodated.

Many a precious child brought from a sick room, a poor climate, a crowded rooming house or from the street to the pure, fresh air that Lincoln county represents will have a chance for making a strong, healthful man or woman in soul and body. We intend, by God's grace, to train and educate the children to be useful men and women. Our number shall be limited to our capacity to care for and educate. We take the children for life, by the adoption plan.

Does this interest you? It should.

My wife and I and the necessary help in school and "Home" are going to give our time, strength and ability to this work. Do you want a part in giving? If so, listen.

First—We want you who appreciate an effort to help care for this class of neglected ones, who would appreciate some loving hands administering to your children should they be left homeless, friendless, many times hopeless in this world, to make a free offering for this work. "Blessed is he that considereth the poor; the Lord shall deliver him in time of trouble."

It takes considerable expense to start a work of this kind as it should. This is no experiment with us; it comes after six years of conviction and tests.

Second—We will accept any donation of provisions or clothing for the children or any volunteer help in work of any kind. Anything you feel free to do in this matter let me hear from you.

Yours sincerely,

M. T. DYE,

White Oaks, N. M.

A. H. Hudspeth spent Sunday night in Carrizozo, on his way to Capitan and Roswell, to which latter place he went to look after a land lease.

H. Marx, who travels for the Casey-Swasey Co., Fort Worth, Texas, and who owns some valuable property in this town, was here one day this week.

legal matters. Mr. Barber is a old time citizen over his convalescence, and expresses the hope that he may soon recover his wonted vigor and activity.

Geo. A. Hunt and Charles Spence were down from White Oaks last Saturday. Mr. Hunt has recently moved his family from Analla to White Oaks to place his children in school, while he visits all portions of the county, attending to his duties as sheep inspector.

E. J. Gumm was up from Three Rivers Monday, and while here contracted to assist on the finishing work on the school building. Little did Pete think fifteen or twenty years ago, when he chased antelope over this flat, that he would be called upon to help build a $10,000 school house here.

Rev. M. T. Dye, of San Marcial, was in town the early part of the week. Mr. Dye will move to this county at once, and begin preparations for the establishment of an Orphans' Home. An outline of the plans and purposes of the institution, from the pen of Mr. Dye, may be found on another page.

TEDDY'S HUNT TRIP

PERILS AND PLEASURES OF THE GAME QUEST IN EAST AFRICA.

Death from Fever, Poison and Animals, or Captivity in the Jungle Lurk, But in the End the Finest Hunting in the World.

Oyster Bay, N. Y.—President Roosevelt's hunting trip to East Africa which is planned for next year, will decrease the presidential savings some $20,000 to $25,000 at a low estimate, but, inasmuch as Mr. Roosevelt already has been offered more than ten times that amount for his story of the trip, to be written upon his return, it isn't worrying the family banker.

What is concerning all the Roosevelt family and the close friends of the president may be summed up as "things that might happen on that trip." It is no small matter, this 20,000 miles' journey to the wildest section of the world, where big game is as populous as it has come to be scarce in the "won west." It isn't so much the lions, elephants, and their associates that are being feared, although the element of danger they always present contains the essential zest of hunting with any true sportsman.

The journey to the east coast of Africa will be one of the most wonderful pilgrimages a man of the western world might take. The president will pass through seas and straits which alone could have washed away the tomes of history they have seen written. He will come into contact with customs and people by far the most interesting in the world, and finally, as a sort of guerdon for his wandering, the traveler will reach Zanzibar (a place which merits its name, Paradise).

It has been called the most interesting 15 square miles in the world, and appears to merit the description. In its scant area the flotsam and jetsam of the eastern world has gathered. It contains, shoulder to shoulder, in its heterogeneous people and life, the elements of the finest culture, the deepest ignorance, morality, degeneracy, vice and virtue, more fantastically interwoven into the life of the place than anywhere else in all the world.

Here the president will get his supplies, guides, servants, porters and other blacks who will be his companions on the hunt. From Zanzibar he goes to the chief city of English East Africa and from there plunges into the vast, silent, disease-breeding jungle, where a white man goes with the assurance that death, multiform, pestilent and horrible, lurks in every thicket and stream and tree; a place where the chances of living are reduced to the ultimate natural minimum.

Preceded by his blacks, and followed by more of the same, bearing the rather imposing luggage of the expedition, and, in bad weather, the head of the expedition in a hammock, the president will enter a world vastly different from anything he has ever seen.

The president will not have proceeded far before rebellion will break out in his train. This kind, however, is more easily settled than miners' strikes, and all may be well.

Then he may be overtaken and captured by a native prince, who will require beads, wire, brass and the like to keep him from devoting his distinguished guest to glutting his appetite.

In the end, all these perils having been safely passed, Mr. Roosevelt will reach the happiest hunting grounds in all the world, where he may shoot lions, hippopotami, specimens of the buffalo, rhinoceros, bok, etc.

LEADING GERMAN SUFFRAGIST.

Dr. Anita Augspurg Has Served Many Prison Terms for Her Cause.

Berlin.—Fraulein Dr. Anita Augspurg, leader of the German claimants of votes for women in Germany, has served 70 terms in prison for her insistence in behalf of her cause, and probably holds the record.

"The Anita," as her followers call her, recently attracted attention again by her repudiation of the social democrats in the name of the woman suffrage movement. The socialists have long been looked upon as the especial friends of the advocates of "votes for women."

The movements of no other woman in Germany outside of the members of the royal family are followed more closely by the public than those of Dr. Augspurg. She is a familiar figure in almost every part of the German empire, her mass of short, curly hair, and close-fitting reform garb making her an easy mark for the curious.

It is Dr. Augspurg's tongue which has landed her so often behind prison bars. She is a fearless speaker, and in a country like Germany her opinions on the equality of the sexes are regarded as little short of revolutionary.

Her latest sojourn in prison was the consequence of a few remarks on the Hamburg police, after witnessing an attempt to quell a street riot.

She was a born orator and politician. She has that greatest of all gifts for speaking, personal magnetism.

This German woman is a lawyer. She is practically the mother of the women's movement in Germany.

The career of Dr. Augspurg is an example of the triumph of a strong-minded woman over the conventions that hedge about the sex in Germany. Practically her whole life has been a preparatory school for the unique position which she now holds. She was raised in a family of jurists.

PREPARING ROAST YOUNG PIG.

Dainty That Involves Much Work for the Cook.

Have a fat, six weeks' old pig carefully dressed, the inside of the ears mouth and tongue cut out. After washing inside and out, rub well with a mixture of salt, sage, black and red pepper. Stuff the pig with a dressing made of light bread, butter, salt, pepper, sage and thyme, well mixed, and moistened with milk or water until it is soft, for it will get firmer in cooking. Then sew up the pig carefully, put in a pan with a little water, and set in a moderately heated oven. Leave the doors open at first.

Mix butter and flour in a plate and have a larding mop ready. Mop the pig frequently. As it roasts close the doors gradually. Occasionally pour over it some of the gravy in the pan and turn it over frequently, so that it may brown evenly.

Boll until tender the liver and toes, and when the pig is done chop them up and add to the gravy. Roast from two to three hours, according to size. Serve with apple sauce and pickles. Place pig on platter, an apple in its mouth, parsley around it, and take to the table.

RICE SURPRISE, WITH SAUCE.

Excellent Dessert Dish for the Luncheon or Dinner.

Quarter of a pound of rice, half a pint of water, one pint of milk, one heaping tablespoonful of butter, two tablespoonfuls of sugar, one teaspoonful of vanilla extract, some jam.

Wash the rice in several waters and put it into a saucepan with the cold water. Let it boil quickly until the water is absorbed, then add the milk and butter. Simmer very slowly until the rice is thoroughly cooked and the mixture rather thick. Stir occasionally, as it will be inclined to stick to the foot of the saucepan. When ready, remove the saucepan from the fire and add the sugar and flavoring. Rinse out some small cups of timbale molds with cold water, three-quarters fill them with rice and make a little hollow in the center. Put a teaspoonful of any nice jam into each, cover and fill with more rice and set aside to cool. When firm, turn out on a glass dish and serve with custard sauce poured round.

Puff Paste.

Into one quart of sifted flour mix two teaspoons of baking powder and a teaspoon of salt, then sift again. Measure out one teacup of butter and one of lard, hard and cold. Take the lard and rub into the flour until a very fine, smooth paste, then put in just enough ice water, say half a cup, containing a beaten egg, the white of the egg to mix a very stiff dough. Roll it out into a thin sheet, spread with one-fourth of the butter, sprinkle over with a little flour, then roll up closely in a long roll like a scroll. Double the ends toward the center, flatten and reroll, then spread again with another quarter of the butter. Repeat this operation until the butter is used up, put it on an earthen dish, cover it with a cloth and set it in a cold place, in the ice box in summer. Let it remain until cold, an hour or more before making out the crust. You may roll this pastry in any direction, but you must have nice flour, ice water, and very little of it.

Cleaning Woodwork.

For natural finished woodwork that has become scratched or dented, like the lower part of doors, surbases and window sills, there is nothing better than a coat or two of shellac—the kind that you can prepare at home by adding the dry yellow flakes of 95 degree alcohol.

It will dissolve in a few hours if it is shaken occasionally, to allow the alcohol freedom in attacking the flakes. Shellac is always a convenient form of varnish to have in the house, as it is a simple "healer" for a scratch a dent, or mar on furniture and woodwork.

SAVED AT THE CRISIS.

Delay Meant Death from Kidney Troubles.

Mrs. Herman Smith, 901 Broad Street, Athens, Ga., says: "Kidney disease started with slight irregularity and weakness and developed into dangerous dropsy. I became weak and languid, and could do no housework. My back ached terribly. I had bearing down pains and my limbs bloated to twice their normal size. Doctors did not help, and I was fast drifting into the hopeless stages. I used Doan's Kidney Pills at the critical moment and they really saved my life."

How It Was Done.

Three-year-old May had a penchant for cutting everything in sight, when she could get a pair of scissors. One day, being left alone with her curly headed baby brother, she promptly cut every curl from the back of his head.

When the nurse discovered the damage, she said:

"Oh! May, how dare you cut baby's curls off?"

"He cut them himself."

"How did he reach the back of his head?"

"He stood on the stool."

Speaking of cherry pies we are reminded of that Biblical saying, which goes something like this: "It is hard to bite against the stones."

GOOD YARN SPINNER

JOHN W. KERN IS LIKED FOR HIS STORIES.

Democratic Vice-Presidential Candidate Once a School-Teacher—Many Insist on Spelling Name "Curran."

Indianapolis, Ind.—There is no better story-teller to be found than John W. Kern, the Democratic nominee for vice-president, although when he indulges in the humorous for the benefit of his friends it is always of the cleanest sort.

Mr. Kern has a keen taste for the satire in life. His friends recall one of his sarcastic utterances indulged in on an occasion when he was dining with W. J. Bryan not long ago. At the time Mr. Kern was being discussed as a vice-presidential possibility.

Some one jocularly remarked that a few years in Washington as the vice-president of the country ought to please Kern greatly. The question arose as to the expense of living in Washington.

"Yes," said Kern. "I understand that it is costing Vice-President Fairbanks about $50,000 a year. Now, at that rate, considering the state of my physical fortune, I could live in Washington about one day."

Mr. Bryan was greatly amused at the utterance, it is said, and often alludes to Mr. Kern's remark.

As long as somebody doesn't organize a Curran club, J. W. Kern can go happily through the campaign. Curran is a good enough name and all that, but it does not happen to be his name. And many people, since he has been one of the big guns in Indiana politics and his name has been often spoken, have used it Curran.

Not long ago Judge Pritchard of the criminal court received a letter from a man concerning the trial of Harry P. Brunaugh, then in progress, and the man spoke of "Mr. Curran," meaning Mr. Kern.

"Such is fame," suggested the judge, "through two campaigns for governor and still Mr. Curran!"

"Yes, such is fame!" sighed Mr. Kern.

John W. Kern has always been proud that he was once a school-teacher. Before he was 16 years of age he taught district school in Howard county. He was a slender youngster at the time, weighing little more than 100 pounds.

Many of Kern's pupils were more than 20 years of age and in size were grown men. He taught one school for two terms with much success and gave up the occupation of "school-master" to become a lawyer.

While getting his earlier education Mr. Kern attended what was called the Indiana Normal School of Kokomo.

He rode to school each morning on horseback and carried his luncheon. He has often admitted that he recited his lessons to his horse during the noon hour and that frequently on the way to and from school he indulged in flights of oratory that made the old horse prick up his ears.

Affability has always been one of Mr. Kern's prominent characteristics. He is keenly satirical, but his satire never wounds.

In appearance Mr. Kern is not a rugged man. He is of slender build, but possesses strong vitality. Two or three years ago his health failed, and he and his friends believed that he was rapidly going into a decline. His physician sounded the warning, "consumption," in his ears, and he started in to make a fight for his life. He sought a moderate climate in the south, and after six months' stay came home a new man. Since then his health has been good.

John W. Kern has for years worn chin whiskers. It is his habit softly to caress his beard when he is at work. Often his political friends have made jokes about "John Kern's whiskers."

THE OLD MAIDS MAKE GOOD.

The Old Maids' Association gave an entertainment at Wetmore hall Wednesday evening, as per announcement. The hall was crowded, the receipts beyond expectation and the appreciation shown pleasing.

Besides the transformation of thirteen old maids into gay, giggling, fascinating young girls of sixteen, made possible by the occult knowledge of Prof. Gierke, and wonder-working machine, each of the rejuvenated ones did something which showed their joy at putting off the crow's feet and the tinge of gray. The characters were:

Jerusha Elias Bangs, President... Mrs. Ed. Lion
Rebecca Betts, Sec.-Treas... Miss Mollie Kahler
Minty Clovertop... Miss Gertrude Kelley
Marion Malissa Plack... Miss Lorena Sager
Dorrie A. Mann... Mrs. C. L. Davis
Hephzibah Odella Olds... Miss Grace Spence
Ann Ellen Patterby... Miss Lou Johnson
May Haverman... Mrs. J. Allen Ray
Petunia Pickles... Miss Abbie Meek
Beruna Hasben... Miss Nettie Lee
Charity Hopsgood... Mrs. J. H. Humphrey
Rachel Ketcham... Mrs. P. E. Lacey
Belinda Bliss... Miss Mary Meek
Prof. Makermoux... Wm. F. A. Gierke

Two quartettes, at the beginning and closing, by Mr. and Mrs. Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Ray, were well received, as two comic recitations by Prof. Collins. It was an enjoyable affair and well merited the labor and time necessary produce it.
