JAUREZ CAPTURED BY REBELS AFTER BLOODY BATTLE

El Paso, Texas, May 3.—A general engagement between revolutionary forces and defenders of the city which ended in the capture of the city occurred today. During the engagement, the city yielded to the rebels and the city was taken.

The battle of El Paso, which began in the early morning, lasted for several hours, ending with the capture of the city by the rebels.

General Madero, the revolutionary commander, announced that El Paso had been taken without bloodshed.

It is understood that the battle was fought to gain control of the city, which is strategically located at the junction of the Texas and Mexican boundaries.

The taking of El Paso is a sigificant victory for Madero and his forces, who are fighting to establish a revolutionary government in Mexico.

Bail Denied in N’Lmara Case

Los Angeles, May 4.—The appearance of Juan J. Marama for bail in the Superior Court today resulted in the refusal of bail by Judge Smith. Marama was arrested for the murder of a man in Los Angeles.

The prosecution of Marama for murder was due to the discovery of a body in a vacant lot near the scene of the crime. Marama was arrested at his home and charged with the murder.

The case is being handled by Sergeant John Jones of the Los Angeles police force.

CIMARRON CITIZEN

AND CUMARRON NEWS

VOL. III

CIMARRON COUNTY, NEW MEXICO, SATURDAY, MAY 13, 1916
It was a sad and beautiful evening for Fort Smith Wagons. In the last days of June, at the path where we tend to go, under the shadow of a large oak tree, was where all the wagons had gathered. This event, known as the "Livery Wagons Meeting," brings together people from all walks of life to celebrate the history and culture of the region.

Legend: The history of this event is steeped in tradition, with wagon owners coming from miles around to share in the festivities. The wagons are decorated with flags and banners, and the evening ends with a grand parade through the town. The event is not just about the wagons, however; it's also a celebration of the people who have come together to honor their heritage.

A Dying Request

"You are sitting," said the fat man in the corner, "we've been through a lot together, but we've come to a point where we must part."

And then he died, and the column was filled with tributes to his memory.

THE Block in CIMARRON

A man walked into the store, looking tired.

"Do you have any leather straps for my boots?" he asked.

"Yes, sir," replied the clerk. "How many would you like?"

"I need four," the man said. "I'm going on a trip and I want to make sure my boots are ready."
