AFFIDAVIT

I, Kenneth Goldblum, MD, hereby swear upon oath as follows:

1. I reside at 26 Tierra Monte, N.E., Albuquerque, New Mexico 87122, in Tierra Monte subdivision which is within the area shown as Exhibit A in the Complaint filed in this lawsuit.

2. I moved to Tierra Monte because its open access to land in the Cibola National Forest and Sandia National Wilderness is of major importance to my lifestyle, which includes long distance running and enjoyment of the unspoiled wilderness areas.

Exhibit #7
Motion to Intervene
Pueblo of Sandia v. Babbitt
No. 1:94CV02624HHG
U.S.D.C. for the District of Columbia

3. I run the trails in the area claimed by the Pueblo of Sandia, including the Tramway Trail, La Luz Trail and the Piedra Lisa Trail every day, and enjoy their natural beauty.

4. I have run the La Luz Trail Run, a nationally sanctioned long distance event, many times.

5. It is of the utmost importance to me and other athletes that access to the Cibola National Forest and Sandia National Wilderness continue to remain open to all citizens. I am concerned that if the Pueblo of Sandia's claim is successful, these areas will eventually be closed to members of the public.

Further Affiant sayeth naught.
