

4-28-2004

2004-04-28 UNM NEWS MINUTE

University of New Mexico Communication and Marketing Department

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalrepository.unm.edu/news_minute_2004

Recommended Citation

University of New Mexico Communication and Marketing Department. "2004-04-28 UNM NEWS MINUTE." (2004).
https://digitalrepository.unm.edu/news_minute_2004/19

This Newsletter is brought to you for free and open access by the UNM News Minute at UNM Digital Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in UNM News Minute 2004 by an authorized administrator of UNM Digital Repository. For more information, please contact disc@unm.edu.

CHARLES CRESPIY has been appointed Dean of the UNM's Anderson Schools of Management (ASM) as announced by Provost Brian L. Foster today. Crespy, a four-time alumnus of UNM, currently serves as J.P. Morgan Chase Professor and Dean of the College of Business at the University of Texas at El Paso. He is slated to begin his duties at the Anderson Schools on August 1, 2004. <http://www.unm.edu/news/Releases/04-04-28crespy.htm>

KUNM, 89.9 FM, took top honors, including "Station of the Year," from the New Mexico Associated Press Broadcasters for radio news based on New Mexico radio station entries. Stations are grouped into two divisions based on market size. KUNM has won the prestigious "Station of the Year" award for the past three years. <http://www.unm.edu/news/Releases/04-04-27kunm.htm>

SCHOOL OF LAW Professor Christine Zuni Cruz has been selected as one of 20 recipients of the 2004 Governor's Award for Outstanding New Mexico Women. She will be honored at a banquet Friday, May 7, at the Hyatt Regency in Albuquerque. Started in 1986 during Bruce King's second term in office, the prestigious governor's award honors selected women from statewide nominations for their exceptional contributions and achievements. <http://www.unm.edu/news/Releases/04-04-28zuni.htm>

PSCHOLOGY PROFESSOR Robert Meyers will be the guest at the UNM Bookstore, Friday, April 30 from 2 to 4 p.m. to promote and sign copies of his new book, "Get Your Loved One Sober: Alternatives to Nagging, Pleading and Threatening." Based on the scientifically validated CRAFT (Community Reinforcement and Family Training) model created by Meyers, "Get Your Loved One Sober" provides the guidance and tools to recognize how you and your loved one interact and to change those patterns to achieve healthier and happier results. <http://www.unm.edu/news/Releases/04-04-28meyers.htm>

UNM'S ARTS OF THE AMERICAS INSTITUTE (AAI), the National Hispanic Cultural Center (NHCC) and the City of Albuquerque's KiMo Theatre will host an international conference, free and open to the public, to explore "Religion as Art" at the NHCC May 12-14. The three-day conference features 32 scholars on eight panels in an interdisciplinary framework incorporating experts from the arts as well as the social sciences, humanities, physical sciences, medicine and law. <http://www.unm.edu/news/Releases/04-04-15conference.htm>

ARE YOU AN ALBUQUERQUE homeowner? Have you been paying a water bill for five years? Are you interested in water issues facing Albuquerque? If so, you may qualify to participate in a two-hour study conducted by the UNM Economics Department on Sat., May 8. Participants will be compensated. For more information call 277-5304.