

4-7-2011

2011-04-07 UNM NEWS MINUTE

University of New Mexico Communication and Marketing Department

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalrepository.unm.edu/news_minute_2011

Recommended Citation

University of New Mexico Communication and Marketing Department. "2011-04-07 UNM NEWS MINUTE." (2011).
https://digitalrepository.unm.edu/news_minute_2011/21

This Newsletter is brought to you for free and open access by the UNM News Minute at UNM Digital Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in UNM News Minute 2011 by an authorized administrator of UNM Digital Repository. For more information, please contact disc@unm.edu.

UNM News Minute #741 – April 7, 2011

RESEARCHERS AT THE UNIVERSITY of New Mexico, Brown University and House Ear Institute, with support from the National Institutes of Health, have developed a new technique to observe herpes simplex virus type 1 (HSV1) infections growing inside cells. HSV1, the cause of the common cold sore, persists in a latent form inside nerve cells.

<http://hscapp.unm.edu/calendar/output/index.cfm?fuseaction=main.release&EntryID=9622>

SANJAY KRISHNA, UNM professor of Electrical and Computer Engineering and Associate director of the Center for High Technology Materials has been appointed a fellow of the International Society for Optics and Photonics. Fellows are members of distinction who have made significant scientific and technical contributions in the multidisciplinary fields of optics, photonics and imaging.

<http://news.unm.edu/?p=13022>

UNM PHYSICS STUDENT CRISTHIAN Carrillo has been selected to present a poster on his research work at the annual "Posters on the Hill" event sponsored by the Council on Undergraduate Research. Carrillo's research is titled, "Development of Radiation Hard Silicon Sensors for Use at the Large Hadron Collider and Beyond." Carrillo, a physics major, was one of 74 selected to present his research in the national competition that attracted nearly 700 students. He will participate in the event at the Rayburn House Building in Washington D.C. on April 13. <http://news.unm.edu/?p=11745>

THE BOYS OF SUMMER are back and the Albuquerque Isotopes, New Mexico's professional baseball team, opens another season on Thursday, April 7. In honor of the new season, New Mexico In Focus will air an encore performance of "Making It," a special program bringing together diverse groups of passionate young players from across New Mexico with seasoned local pros and former MLB players for a candid discussion on baseball. KNME's one hour public affairs show New Mexico in Focus airs Fridays at 7 p.m. and Sundays at 6:30a.m. on KNME, Channel 5.1. <http://news.unm.edu/?p=13255>

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEW MEXICO BOARD of Regents Audit Committee will hold a special meeting on Monday, April 11, from 8:30 a.m. until completed in the Cherry/Silver Room (third floor) of the Student Union Building. <http://news.unm.edu/?p=13230>

LOBOS FOR CURE, the UNM team taking part in Walk MS: Albuquerque 2011, is led by UNM Title V Director Jennifer Gomez-Chavez, who has multiple sclerosis. The walk is one of 600 walk events taking place this year to raise awareness and find a cure for multiple sclerosis. The Walk MS: Albuquerque 2011 event is set for Saturday, April 16 at Tiguex Park, Old Town. Registration and check-in is at 8 a.m., while the walk begins at 9 a.m. For more information, donations or to register, visit:

http://main.nationalmssociety.org/site/TR/Walk/NMXWalkEvents?pg=team&fr_id=16524&team_id=228793

CORRECTION: THE SMALL VENDOR BUSINESS Trade Fair, hosted by UNM Purchasing Department, will be held Tuesday, April 26, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the Student Union Building Ballrooms. The fair allows participants networking opportunities to create new business relationships and strengthen existing business relationships within the UNM and UNMH community. Vendors wishing to participate may sign up through Tuesday, April 19. <http://news.unm.edu/?p=12868>