Montreal-based Metis writer discusses law, language, and issues in Indian Country, and does so in a way that is articulate and intelligent.

Native Appropriations  nativeappropriations.com
Native Appropriations is a forum for discussing representations of Native peoples, including stereotypes, cultural appropriation, news, activism, and more.

Project 562  www.project562.com
Project 562 is a multi-year national photography project dedicated to photographing over 562 federally recognized tribes in The United States in an effort to create an unprecedented repository of imagery and oral histories that accurately portrays contemporary Native Americans.

Here is a sample of blogs to select from.

Thank you very much for taking the time to read our newsletter. If you have any questions please contact:

Kevin Brown, Program Specialist. azkato7@unm.edu