

4-16-2009

2009-04-16 UNM NEWS MINUTE

University of New Mexico Communication and Marketing Department

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalrepository.unm.edu/news_minute_2009

Recommended Citation

University of New Mexico Communication and Marketing Department. "2009-04-16 UNM NEWS MINUTE." (2009).
https://digitalrepository.unm.edu/news_minute_2009/26

This Newsletter is brought to you for free and open access by the UNM News Minute at UNM Digital Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in UNM News Minute 2009 by an authorized administrator of UNM Digital Repository. For more information, please contact disc@unm.edu.

UNM News Minute #573 – April 16, 2009

UNM STUDENTS Jessica Martin and Anna Vestling snared the coveted Barry M. Goldwater Scholarship. They are among 278 students selected from a pool of 1,097 applicants. In addition, UNM student Abdullah Feroze received an honorable mention.
<http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/003860.html#more>

THE OFFICE OF THE Dean of Students has announced the winners of the Clauve Outstanding Senior Awards. The winners are Desbah Ahtsoaq Bill Benally, Michaela Brown, Chris Chaves, Joseph M. Dworak, Ashley C. Fate, Molly Maguire-Marshall and Alex D. Riebli. Clauve Awards are given to UNM seniors who have at least a 3.0 cumulative grade point average and exemplify good leadership skills, community involvement and academic excellence.
<http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/003857.html#more>

BIOLOGY UNDERGRADUATE Dianne Pater has been awarded grant funding from the American Society of Plant Biologists 2009 Summer Undergraduate Research Fellowship program. The goal of the SURF program is to provide opportunities for students to pursue meaningful research in plant biology early in their college years.
<http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/003866.html#more>

PAM HURD-KNIEF, senior director of development for the School of Engineering, is among the 2009 Women of Influence, as named by the New Mexico Business Weekly. The 31 women represented the spectrum of business and industry – trades, law, banking, real estate, banking, arts and education. Hurd-Knief stood out as UNM's sole recipient.
<http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/003872.html#more>

EUGENE ROONEY and Kaye Summerhays are the recipients of the 2009 Charter Bank Staff Excellence Award. The annual award honors staff members who have provided extraordinary service to the UNM Anderson School of Management. It is sponsored by Robert Wertheim, an Anderson alum, Chairman of the Board of Charter Companies, Anderson National Advisory Board member, and a respected community leader.
<http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/003843.html#more>

TWO NEW PROPOSED policies on identity theft and policy development and proposed changes to existing policies on computer use, emergency control, and tuition and related fees are available for a 30-day campus review and comment period ending May 16, 2009. They can be viewed at: <http://www.unm.edu/~ubppm/>. Comments should be sent to: ubppm@unm.edu.

ALL STUDENTS ARE cordially invited to participate in the University of New Mexico Student Job Fair 2009, brought to you by The Graduation Task Force Student Engagement Committee. The Student Job Fair 2009 will take place on Monday, April 27 from 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m., at the UNM Student Union Building Ballroom B. The deadline for employers / departments to register for the job fair is Friday, April 17.
<http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/003868.html#more>

NO LOUIE AWARD is complete without Lobo Louie himself – in this case, both in person and miniaturized in “gold.” The annual Student Affairs “Louie” Awards were held recently in a packed SUB ballroom. UNM President David Schmidly, Vice President for Student Affairs Cheo Torres and Student Affairs Fellows hosted the annual recognition reception in honor of employees who exemplify the very best in providing great service to UNM students. <http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/003875.html#more>

THIS WEEK THE Landscape Architecture Program hosted an accrediting team of the national Landscape Architecture Accreditation Board. In their exit report to faculty, staff and students, the team reported that the program met all nine standards set out by the accreditation board, and have built an exemplary program that is poised to become a leading graduate program both regionally and nationally. <http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/003873.html#more>

UNM PARKING and Transportation Department recently announced that rental rates for the university’s Zipcars, a rent by the hour or day car-sharing service available at UNM’s main and north campuses, are dropping to $8 per hour or $66 per day for weekdays and $9 per hour or $72 a day for weekends. These new rates reflect a $1.25 decrease in weekday hourly rental rates. <http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/003849.html#more>

TRADITIONAL SPANISH Romance Ballads performed by Tomas Lozano will be featured Friday, April 17 at noon in Ortega Hall 153. Since 1993 when he toured the United States with the Spanish troubador troupe Crisol Bufons, Lozano has made a substantial contribution to the cultural life of Nuevo Mexico, both as a performer and scholar. <http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/003851.html#more>

EVERYONE IS WELCOME to join the Health Sciences Library for the opening reception of the "Changing the Face of Medicine: Celebrating America's Women Physicians," traveling exhibit, Thursday, April 16, 6-7:30 p.m., at Domenici Center for Health Sciences Education main lobby. <http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/003867.html#more>

THE ARTS OF AZTLAN 2009 Spring Show, "La Tierra y el Agua" is set for Friday, April 17 at 6 p.m. at the South Valley Economic Development Center, 318 Isleta Blvd SW. Moises Gonzales, temporary faculty at the UNM School of Architecture and Planning, will be showing a constructed piece describing his urban planning work. See his video presentation: <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FX0mhPMZ5nI&feature=channel>

THE MECHANICAL ENGINEERING Department at UNM’s School of Engineering is sponsoring a seminar on Friday, April 17, from 3:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. in the auditorium of the Centennial Engineering Building, Room 1041. George “Bud” Homsy, professor from the Department of Mechanical Engineering, University of California-Santa Barbara, will speak on “Interfacial Fluid Mechanics: New Twists on an Old Subject.”

<http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/003862.html#more>

THE UNM BASEBALL team takes on San Diego State Friday, April 17 at 6 p.m. to open a three-game series at Isotopes Park. All are invited to “Pack the Stadium” to show support for the Lobos. UNM students, staff and faculty get in free with a Lobo ID. All others pay only $2 for this special event.

<http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/003865.html#more>

THE UNM ROBB Musical Trust presents music by John Donald Robb in celebration of the trust’s 20th anniversary on Sunday, April 19, at 3 p.m. in the recital hall of the Robertson & Sons Violin Shop, 3201 Carlisle Blvd. NE. Admission is free, and a reception will follow the performances.

<http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/003858.html#more>

THE DEPARTMENT of Marketing, Information, and Decision Sciences at UNM’s Anderson School of Management is hosting an information session on April 20, from 3 to 4 p.m. in the Student Marketing Center at the Anderson School of Management. The event is open to anyone interested in one or more of the four undergraduate and graduate management concentrations offered by the department including: information assurance, management information systems, marketing management and operations management.

<http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/003863.html#more>

ON ‘NEW MEXICO IN FOCUS,’ KNME Channel 5 profiles the emergence of renewable energy technologies and practices here in New Mexico. The program airs Friday, April 17 at 7 p.m. on KNME Channel 5/5.1 and repeats on Sunday, April 19 at 6:30 a.m.

<http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/003874.html#more>