

4-20-2009

2009-04-20 UNM NEWS MINUTE

University of New Mexico Communication and Marketing Department

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalrepository.unm.edu/news_minute_2009

Recommended Citation

University of New Mexico Communication and Marketing Department. "2009-04-20 UNM NEWS MINUTE." (2009).
https://digitalrepository.unm.edu/news_minute_2009/27

This Newsletter is brought to you for free and open access by the UNM News Minute at UNM Digital Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in UNM News Minute 2009 by an authorized administrator of UNM Digital Repository. For more information, please contact disc@unm.edu.

UNM News Minute #574 – April 20, 2009

AFTER SERVING NINE years as Dean of UNM's School of Engineering, Joseph L. Cecchi has announced that his current term ending July 23, 2009, will be his last. Cecchi will continue his work with STC.UNM, the wholly owned non-profit corporation that licenses and markets intellectual property for the university. He currently serves as chair of the STC Board of Directors.

<http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/003882.html#more>

ON APRIL 22, Earth Day, UNM will host its First Annual Sustainability Expo. The event will be held on Cornell Mall from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. and will feature Parking and Transportation Services' Alternative Transportation Fair, Sustainability Studies' Lobo Grower's Market, and displays from other forward thinking campus organizations like Lobo Energy and the Physical Plant Division.

<http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/003861.html#more>

MORE THAN 50 fourth-graders from Navajo Elementary School and Monte Vista Elementary School will visit UNM on Wednesday, April 22 as part of UNM's premier Sustainability Expo. The expo is being held in honor of Earth Day, and the UNM Parking and Transportation Services has arranged a special program for the students, called SustainABILITY, to enhance the educational value of their visit.

<http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/003881.html#more>

POETRY MONTH CONTINUES at the UNM Bookstore on Wednesday, April 22, with Jason Yurcic, who will present a poetry reading and book signing. Yurcic, the son of a murdered father and addict mother, fights through the pain and disappointment of his life through his poetry. The event begins at noon at the UNM Bookstore.

<http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/003815.html#more>

THE UNM OFFICE of Career Services, under the direction of Jenna Crabb, presents Educator's Job Fair 2009 on April 22 from 2-6 p.m. in the UNM Student Union Building ballrooms. The Educator's Job Fair offers an opportunity for students, alumni and community members interested in education related jobs and careers to connect with multiple recruiters in one day. Recruiters from New Mexico and many other areas of the nation will be in attendance.

<http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/003859.html#more>

THE AMERICAN INDIAN Language Policy Research and Teacher Training Center in the College of Education at the University of New Mexico will host an International Indigenous Language Policy Research Symposium, Thursday and Friday, April 23-24. A series of panel presentations and focus sessions sharing insights, observations and research will highlight the Center's first-ever international symposium.

<http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/003844.html#more>

DUE TO WIRELESS SYSTEM upgrades and maintenance, UNM's wireless network will be unavailable on Thursday, Apr. 23 from 5 a.m. to 7 a.m. The upgrade is part of campus-wide network strengthening and wireless backup systems, and will affect all ITS-supported wireless access points. Visit the ITS Alerts Board at: <http://itsalerts.unm.edu> for additional information, or contact the ITS Support Center at 277-4848.
<http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/003879.html#more>

UNIVERSITY LIBRARIES Indigenous Nations Library Program is hosting Ryan Singer for a brown bag discussion and lecture on Thursday, April 23. The brown bag discussion will be from 12 p.m. – 1 p.m. in the Herzstein Room and the lecture will be from 4 to 5 p.m. in the Willard Reading Room. Singer is a member of the Dine Nation and is originally from Tuba City, Arizona.
<http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/003856.html#more>

'THE LADY IN BLUE: Sor Maria de Jesus de Agreda: A University of New Mexico Homage,' is set for Friday, April 24 from 8:45 a.m. to 6 p.m. All presentations are set in the Santa Ana Room of the Student Union Building and the reception and Puppet's Revenge will take place in Ortega Hall and the Student Union Building on the UNM campus. <http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/003854.html#more>

ALICIA SCHMIDT CAMACHO, the Sara Ribicoff Associate Professor of American Studies and Ethnicity, Race at Migration, at Yale University, presents, "Migrant Raids and the Legal Imaginary of State Violence," Friday, April 24 at 11 a.m. in the History Commons Room in Mesa Vista Hall.
<http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/003870.html#more>

NICHOLAS ROE, University of St. Andrews in Scotland, presents, "Rhinoceros among Giraffes: Keats and the Elgin Marbles," on Friday, April 24, 2 - 3:15 p.m. in Humanities 108. Roe is an internationally renowned expert on Keats and on Romantic poetry, culture and politics more broadly. The subject of his talk engages issues of imperialism and cultural patrimony that have recently generated a great deal of scholarly and public interest. The event is free and open to the public.
<http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/003825.html#more>

THE SPRING VENDOR Fair, hosted by the UNM purchasing department, is scheduled for Wednesday, April 29, in the Student Union Building Ballroom from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. The fair allows participants networking opportunities to create new business opportunities and strengthen existing business relationships within the UNM community. The registration deadline for vendors is Friday, April 24.
<http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/003836.html#more>

'FOOTSTEPS TO FOREVER,' by R. Samuel Baty, adjunct faculty at Embry-Riddle Aeronautical Center in Albuquerque, is a riveting World War II historical thriller. Like Hemingway's For Whom the Bell Tolls and Wouk's The Winds of War, Footsteps is filled with suspense, romance and adventure. Baty will read from and sign copies of his book at the UNM Bookstore, Cornell and Central NE, on Saturday, April 25 at 2 p.m.

<http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/003824.html#more>

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEW MEXICO'S Institute for Medieval Studies hosts its 24th Spring Lecture Series, April 27-30. This year's series includes six lectures and a concert around the theme "Vision and Visionaries in the Middle Ages." The final lecture incorporates a performance with actors and a choir. All sessions will take place in Woodward Hall Room 101 on the UNM main campus. The lecture series, supported by a grant from the New Mexico Humanities Council, is free and open to the public.
<http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/003837.html#more>

THE OFFICE OF THE Vice President for Research at UNM is sponsoring a symposium on "Fostering Integrity in Research" on Tuesday, April 28, from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. in the auditorium of Centennial Engineering Center (CEC 1041). William Gannon, the developer of the UNM Research Ethics and Integrity Program along with a faculty advisory group, organized the symposium.
<http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/003855.html#more>

AS PART OF SIGNIFICANT upgrades and improvements to UNM's reporting tool Hyperion, Banner reporting services utilizing Hyperion will not be available beginning Friday, May 8 at 5 p.m. through Sunday, May 10 at 5 p.m. All users need to download a new plug-in, available at: <http://its.unm.edu/download> in order to use the new version.
<http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/003878.html#more>