Local Rustlings.
F. H. Strong is East on business.
C. G. Storey is in from the Bonanza turquois mines.
G. W. North has been spending the week at Santa Fe.

Monday night following pay-day was a very noisy one.

Sol. Spigelberg will put up a new store building at Santa Fe.

The 15th was general pay-day and a large amount of additional coin is jingling.

Albuquerque dime savings bank stamps can be had at the Cerrillos Supply Co's. store.

The new proclamation for incorporation and election of officers for Cerrillos will be published next week.

Mrs. Plowman, Cash Entry camp, and Mrs. E. H. Strong, Dolores, are guests of the Cerrillos House.

The bear hunters, Sugar and Burkhardt, started for the mountains at the head waters of the Pecos, Tuesday morning.

Miss Frank Horey, niece of Judge Giblin, San Pedro, is at the Cerrillos House, on her way to attend the Sisters' commencement, at Albuquerque.

Messrs. J. W. Cook, Earl Turner and Thos. M. Bartlett, all good men of the Cash Entry, added their names to the RUSTLER's subscription list this week.

There are many things going to happen for the benefit of this part of the country, says rumor. What we want is that they should happen. The country can stand it.

Mrs. Hodgson, of Albuquerque, is a guest of the Cerrillos House. Mr. Hodgson is now employed as one of the chief engineers at the Cash Entry. He was formerly at the A. & P. shops, Albuquerque.

A Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul train went through a bridge of Coon river near Boone, Iowa, killing and wounding a number of people. Boone is the home of the parents of John Maddux and Mrs. Scranton.

Captain McMahon, who has been along the Texas border and in old Mexico, returned last Saturday and on Thursday of this week went back to San Pedro. He had been with Mr. Conger in the St. Lazarus mine previously.

This office has just received an 1890 census pamphlet giving the population of cities having over $10,000 people. New Mexico "isn't in it." New Mexico has no cities. Why should not Cerrillos start out and furnish her with one?

The indictment cases against S. F. Loughborough, two of which were set for trial at this term of court with the balance pending, will likely go over until next term of court, on account of a crowded docket, in which case he will remain under bonds.

G. S. Myers, Cash Entry; Central Ore Sampling Co., Pueblo; Lincoln-Lucky Mining Co., San Pedro; Lowenthal & Meyers and Will Bros., Albuquerque; W. L. Phillips, Ottawa, Ill.; and Geo. W. Middleton, Denver, Colorado, are new subscribers to the RUSTLER this week.

Frank M. Cody, the partner of Lee White, who with him was sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary for the holding up of people at Lamy, escaped last Saturday. He was employed at the brickyard, and in some manner got in a successful sneak for liberty. Careful search is being made for him.

The Paris Inventor's Academy at Paris, without solicitation, has conferred upon Mr. Flavel Simonson, of the Mining Exchange, the title of Corresponding Honorary Member, (Member d'Honneur correspondent) with attribution of the first class Diploma and gilded medal. This honor was conferred after examination of his last invention, his patent shaft collar, the only one in the United States.

While in Albuquerque last Saturday the editor of this paper visited the new Albuquerque Foundry. The building is now almost completed and is pretty nearly fire-proof, being constructed almost entirely of brick and iron. In a few hours after the old buildings were in ashes, men were at work clearing away the debris and telegrams were on the way for new machinery, and in a few days new work was being turned out, the firm never taking its advertisements from the papers.

At the Cash Entry residence of Mr. and Mrs. Huhn, the artistic taste of the lady is becoming apparent in the arrangement of flower beds, arbors and grottos, which though to a certain extent are yet in embryo, surround the handsome new brick cottage. The sight of the building is very pretty, and in the yard are a number of cedars in their natural state. To the circling beds of plants and flowers water can be admitted from hydrants, around which crosses will be planted, and with creeping vines covering snag and shady nooks, one can form an idea of how quickly a little paradise of a home can spring up on the mountain side.

Report says—and Gen. Melley is quoted as authority—that the Denver & Rio Grande has at last purchased the Santa Fe Southern narrow gauge into Santa Fe, and that the road will be pushed through to Cerrillos and San Pedro, and most likely Albuquerque, at once. The fact that the Atchison has surveys over the same route, even including Tijeras canon on its Pan Handle survey; and the further fact that the building of roads over these surveys by any company means the development of ponderous mining interests such as only the Ortiz, the San Pedro and the Sandia mountains can furnish, clothes the matter of even prospective construction with the greatest interest. No doubt both companies want to build and that there will be a spirited fight between them. Much may now depend upon the one which gets the earliest start.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Lincoln-Lucky mine is called at Albuquerque for next Friday, June 26th.

Personal Rustlings.

C. W. Uptegrove made a trip to Santa Fe Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradbury moved to San Pedro Tuesday.

Richard Giblin and niece, of San Pedro, were in Albuquerque Monday.

Father Defouri was down from Santa Fe Tuesday on a visit to his charge.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Collingwood have returned to Santa Fe from Denver.

Col. R. M. Johnson will return to New Mexico permanently in a few months.

Wednesday's Optic noted the presence of S. C. White, of San Pedro, in that city.

Geo. R. Bailey left for San Pedro Tuesday. He will work on the Lincoln-Lucky.

Mr. Brady and family have moved into R. Green's property vacated by Geo. R. Bailey.

Joyce Board, a former popular Cerrillos citizen, still subscribes for three copies of the RUSTLER.

Mr. J. G. Allen, of the Cash Entry mine, spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in Albuquerque.

Mr. and Mrs. Gresham have moved into Charley Hammond's house vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Bradbury.

Attorney Edwin B. and Mrs. Seward were in town from Santa Fe Sunday, the guests of Judge and Mrs. Kendall.

S. C. White and Wm Kemp drove over from San Pedro Tuesday. Mr. Kemp proceeded to Santa Fe to attend court.

Commissioner Mayo passed through Wednesday, on his way from Golden to Santa Fe, to attend a meeting of the board. He is now quite busy at Golden, developing several gold properties.

W. Sanborn, the former Grand Central cook, has returned to the old reliable town—Cerrillos. He went to Clifton, Arizona, but the Smelters closing down, he left there and is now at the Cerrillos House.

Captain J. L. Jenks is in receipt of a copy of the Ottawa, Ill., Daily Journal containing an account of the commencement exercises of the class of 1891, of which his niece, Miss Emma Phillips, was a member. After the close of the regular exercises, says the Journal, "Miss Phillips gave a violin solo—"Seventh Air," from De Berlioz, in a most remarkable manner. The music is of a difficult character but the young lady had mastered it, and entertained even electrified the audience with her skill. It was given in a manner which was a revelation to even the young ladies most intimate friends." Ottawa, Ill., was the old home of the editor of the RUSTLER, whose school days to the age of 17, are recalled by the above.

The home talent comedy at Hart's hall last night had a good full house and rendered the best of satisfaction, affording two good hours of solid enjoyment. In Early Vows, everybody did his or her part to perfection, or more nearly so than was expected. Miss Harkness and the Judge were lustily applauded, while the pretty and natural acting of Miss Phania Uptegrove and Messrs. Whited, Murralt and Brady fairly captured the audience. But "That Rascal Pat," was the cause of the most merriment. The farce was well played and most of the audience had pains in their sides when the curtain dropped. Pat was a typical Irish "monkey," in the person of F. C. Keys, and the balance of the characters, Mrs. G. W. North, Mrs. Davis; Messrs. Griswold and Whited, were natural and did good acting. The receipts were $38.50.

Mine Rustlings.

Joe Blonger also goes to San Pedro to the Lincoln-Lucky.

Lawyer Baker was home from court at Santa Fe over Sunday.

The starting up of the Lincoln Lucky will soon put forty to 50 more men at work in southern Santa Fe county.

A forty-eight hour run of the San Lazarus mill yielded a gold brick weighing sixty ounces last week. It was weighed on Uptegrove's scales at Cerrillos and shipped to Milwaukee—New Mexican.

J. P. O'Brien visited home at Santa Fe over Sunday. He states that the lead carbonate ore which made the Lincoln-Lucky mines famous, has been struck in the Catron group of mines at a depth of 250 feet.

A fifty-pound sample of ore shipped to E. E. Burlingame, Denver, by Miller & Larock, from the Eureka mine in the Cerrillos mining district, gave a return of 25.60 silver and 72 per cent. lead. The mine promises to develop quite a body of this excellent grade ore.

All the machinery at the Cash Entry is now running nicely and the ore in the old dumps is rapidly going through the concentrator. Manager Huhn is having hoisting machinery put up at a third shaft, which an engine has been placed to operate, and which O. W. Alexander has charge of. There is practically no limit to the resources of this great plant, and under the able management of Mr. Huhn it is likely to become one of the greatest of American Mining industries.

The eight new jiggs recently purchased by the Cash Entry company at Cerrillos will be used as an annex to the present concentrating plant, in treating the zinc product from the present jiggs, they not being able to entirely separate the lead from the zinc. This product is to be treated over by running it through finer rollers, when the additional jiggs will reduce it to marketable condition. The machinery of the mill is now running nicely and new men are being added to the working force.—Albuquerque Democrat.

The attention of the editor of this paper has been called to the following among a number of similar press extracts, clipped and lain upon the sanctum table, doubtless by the prominent gentlemen who claim to have been damaged in character:

"Col. Welch and Hon. W. W. Miller, who were so vilely slandered through the columns of the RUSTLER, have sued the proprietor of that sheet for $50,000 each. It is hoped that this action will prove a lesson to evil-minded and designing publishers of third-rate weekly newspapers."—Heel-Fly Gazette.

Other jealous newspapers have taken the matter up and unite in praising the gall of the two gentlemen who endeavored to "muzzle" the press instead of their "Waterburys," and who hope to be enabled to live, in opulence by flogging a competence from a great and wealthy newspaper. But let them all unite. The shoulders of the RUSTLER are broad and enterprise, coupled with justice, must win.

Johnny Elder has been quite seriously ill the past week, but is at present better.

Hon. C. F. Easley was admitted to practice in the courts of the Territory after a highly satisfactory examination held at Santa Fe, the first of this week.

Important Mining Sale.

The Lincoln-Lucky mines at San Pedro have been purchased by Geo. W. Middleton and S. A. Josephi, Denver capitalists. The deal was consummated by Mr. R. Y. Anderson, a mining man well known through the west. Work of development of the property will begin at once under the management of Mr. Anderson; good machinery erected and the mines thoroughly and systematically developed with a view to putting the property on a paying basis. The purchase was not made for speculative purposes, but as a legitimate investment. It is generally known that these mines are the largest carbonate mines in New Mexico. The ore is of superior fluxing quality, averaging 40 to 50 per cent. in lead and especially well in silver, with a small per cent. of gold, and has always commanded the highest market price. Some $200,000 have been extracted while developing so far, and there are large bodies of fine ore now exposed which can be utilized as soon as a new shaft is sunk through which to raise it. The new shaft will be finished within 60 to 90 days, when the mine will easily produce 40 to 50 tons ore per day. There is an unlimited quantity of low grade ore in the mine which can be handled at a handsome profit when better transportation can be had, or when a local smelter is erected at Cerrillos, which is now being arranged for. It is a reasonable prediction that in six months time this property will be one of the largest producers and best dividend payers in the west, and the Colorado mines will be likely to lose their laurels. It is understood the purchase price is $150,000, and the purchasers are to be congratulated on their good fortune in securing so valuable a property. The inauguration of work on the property under such favorable auspices will be of incalculable benefit to San Pedro, in stimulating work on the many fine and valuable prospects in that region, and our own town of Cerrillos will soon feel the effects in the revival of business produced by the large ore shipments of the Copper Company and the Lincoln-Lucky. With two such properties on one side and the Cash Entry, which will soon be shipping at least 200 tons of ore daily on the other, nothing can prevent it from becoming in a very short time a most important business center.

With these large mines, our unlimited coal fields, and vast deposits of iron ore, fire clay etc., etc., it will be but a short time until we will be an important smelting center, and our predictions so often made when the clouds of adversity were dark and looming, and zeal brought down upon our devoted head the sneers and ridicule of those whose vision was obscured by prejudice or lack of a spinal column, will be realized. Time will demonstrate who is right and we are able and willing to await results. Certainly the outlook for lively times in the near future is flattering.

TEXAS FLOODS.

Serious Damage and Loss of Life Reported.

PERSONS DROWNED IN GREER COUNTY

Also in the Indian Territory—Cattle Swept Away to Death—Many Acres of Fine Crops Ruined—Repairing Bridges.

GAINESVILLE, Tex., June 12.—News was received here to-day from Frazier, Greer county, of destruction to life and property caused by a terrible water-spout, accompanied by a windstorm, which visited that town and vicinity Tuesday night. The rain had been falling several days, and Tuesday night at 11 o'clock a waterspout burst, and in a few minutes the streets were four feet deep in water, presenting the appearance of a raging, angry river. All the business houses were flooded. Men secured buggies, and with great difficulty succeeded in hauling the women and children to places of safety. Turkey and Salt creeks, two streams in that locality, overflowed their banks and carried death and destruction in the wake of the flood. Three persons were drowned in Turkey creek—Pomp Poindexter, a young farmer, his sister and a young man named Albright. The family of Capt. Phillips were in their dwelling, a very large house, when it was struck by a large wave, which lifted it from its foundation. It was carried onward by the waters nearly a mile, when it was hurled against a tree and wrecked. Phillips and one of his daughters caught on to some floating debris and were washed ashore half a mile from where the house was demolished. Mrs. Phillips and her babe caught on to a plank and were washed into the branches of a large tree, where they caught and remained till the next day, when they were rescued by parties reaching them in a boat. A large number of houses were blown down and many others washed away. Dug-outs were filled with water and hundreds of people rendered homeless, and all their live stock, crops and other property swept away. The damage done by the overflow of Red river in the bottoms along the north line of this (Cooke) county is much greater than first supposed. In Warren's and Sivel's Bends 10,000 acres of fine crops, cultivated by some fifty families, were destroyed, houses swept away, work stock, cattle, hogs and chickens drowned, and the families barely escaped with their lives. A young farmer named Burdome, while trying to reach the shore in a ferryboat, took fright at an approaching high wave, leaped from the boat and was drowned. It is related that a horse was standing hitched to a small grocery store in Sivil's Bend, when the water struck the house and the pressure was so great it broke the hitch rein. In a few minutes the animal gained the crests of the wave, and an old sow was balanced on the saddle, having been washed there by the wave. The horse swam ashore and the sow dismounted and lost no time in getting out of danger.

The Santa Fe bridge over Red river, seven miles north of Gainesville, has been repaired, and trains passed over it yesterday for the first time since last Saturday. All the washouts on the road in the Indian territory have been repaired, and trains are now running through to Kansas City.

A FAMILY OF THREE. GAINESVILLE, Tex., June 12.—Parties in the city from Leon, I. T., near Red river, thirty miles northwest, report the finding of the dead bodies of a man, woman and babe in the bottoms, all of whom had been drowned. The baby's body was embraced in the arms of its dead mother when found. The bodies have not been identified, and are supposed to have been washed down several miles from above during the high water in Red river last Saturday and Sunday.

W. W. Lynn, a farmer residing twenty miles north of here, while endeavoring to cross Hickory creek was drowned. The creek was very high, owing to heavy rains, and Lynn undertook to ford the stream on the back of a mule, but lost his life in the attempt. The animal swam to the shore.

THE RED RIVER DELUGE. BONHAM, Tex., June 12.—Red river in the northern part of this county is higher than it has been known to be since 1876. The plantation of Col. Oliphant, comprising 1,300 acres, is under six feet of water. Large numbers of cattle and other animals have been drowned. So far as known no human lives have been sacrificed to the flood, all dwellers on the lowlands having escaped to the hills. Untold damage has resulted to crops.

Boys' Fatal Debauch. HURLINGTON, N. J., June 12.—Charlie Reed, Dan Francis and two brothers named John and Will Alexander, all about 12 years of age, broke into a store room of Edward Toy, a hotel keeper of this city, and stole a large quantity of wine. They carried the liquor out in the suburbs and engaged in a wild debauch. Two of the boys, Reed and Alexander, were found lying on the river bank in a semi-conscious condition and brought to their homes. Medical aid was summoned, but the physicians' efforts proved unavailing, and their lives are despaired of. The other two boys cannot be found, and it is thought that while intoxicated they tumbled into the river.

DEED OF A FIEND.

A Mexican Tramp Deliberately Cuts the Throat of a Small Boy and Steals His Horse—The Wretch Captured.

GARDEN CITY, Kan., June 11.—The nine-year-old son of Louis Garnet, a ranchman living eleven miles west of here, was herding cattle on his father's ranch when he was suddenly seized by a Mexican tramp, who stole up behind him. The fiend cut the boy's throat from ear to ear and then threw him into an irrigating canal, thinking him dead.

The wretch then took the horse the boy was riding and started for the mountains, going past the home of the boy whose father saw and recognized the horse but did not think anything of it at the time.

The boy had only fainted from loss of blood and soon came to and dragged himself over a half mile to his home.

A posse of farmers immediately started in pursuit of the tramp and after an all night chase captured him near the Colorado line. He was taken without much resistance and turned over to the sheriff of this county, who was only a short distance behind.

When caught the man was riding the stolen horse and had a razor in his pocket which was covered with blood and also had blood on his shirt and coat. He is a full blood Mexican, is about five feet high, weighs 140 pounds and is about 25 years old. He claims not to understand English.

The fiend was taken to Lakin, en route to Garden City, and while there conversed with a Mexican and confessed the crime, but said he did it in self defense. Great excitement prevails and the chances are that if the boy dies he will be lynched.

BENSON GUILTY.

The Jury Easily Reaches a Verdict—The Case Against Mrs. Rautzahn.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., June 11.—Charles A. Benson, who has been on trial for the murder of Mrs. Mettman, is a condemned man. Immediately upon the convening of court yesterday morning the foreman of the jury announced that a verdict had been agreed upon. The verdict was that of guilty of murder in the first degree.

Benson seemed to care not at all. The shadow of a great trouble was in his eyes, and deepening lines attested the consuming anxiety of days, but the careworn look had marked his face for days and this fateful culmination of his trouble did not move him.

There was no disagreement whatever among the jurors. Five minutes after they retired Tuesday they were prepared to return the verdict which they rendered yesterday. The remotest possibility of a disagreement was utterly destroyed by the cross-examination of Benson. The man of many names and deeds of blood himself placed the loop about his neck. Having been tried in the United States court instead of the state court the penalty in Benson's case is hanging and not life imprisonment.

What the disposition of the case against Mrs. Mary Rautzahn will be is not positively known, but to hear of a dismissal in the case would neither be surprising nor startling. There is practically no evidence in existence outside of the statement made by herself connecting her in any way with the crime.

FIVE MINISTERS FIRED.

The Reformed Presbyterian Church Has No Use For Embryo Briggses.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 11.—The sensational trials of the six young ministers of the Reformed Presbyterian church ended to-day, and the synod, by a vote of 95 to 57, expelled five of them from the church. The charges against them were scandalous and following divisive courses in declaring in favor of the right of franchise at a meeting in the east end of this city. They are E. M. Miligan, W. H. Reed, W. L. C. Samson and J. C. K. Miligan. Rev. A. W. McClurkin's appeal was sustained, and R. B. Burnot, a student, also charged with heresy, has not yet been tried.

Immediately after the announcement of the vote all the suspended ministers left the church. They were met outside by several ministers of the United Presbyterian church, who extended to them, in an informal way, the right hand of fellowship.

The scene during the voting was very exciting. The verdict was not unexpected, and several ministers notified the synod of their intention to follow the young men.

HIS DOUBLE LIFE.

A Farmer in Trouble With Two Families on Hand.

WICHITA, Kan., June 11.—Twenty years ago William B. Lingow, now one of the leading farmers of this county, married Mary Henry in Kansas City, Mo. The couple took up a claim near Maize, where they have lived ever since and have had eleven children. For three years the husband has made a practice of visiting Arkansas periodically, ostensibly for his health, and that is where he is now.

Yesterday the sheriff received a letter from the sheriff of Crawford county, Ark., making inquiry about Lingow and stating that he was living in Van Buren with a wife he had deserted twenty-five years ago and whom he had visited periodically for three years.

Neither wife seems to have had the faintest idea of the existence of the other. Lingow has been arrested for bigamy.

Very conspicuous is this quality when it is used for malaria. The poison of that miasma in the system it entirely expels. WHEN WRITING TO ADVERTISERS PLEASE state that you saw the Advertisement in this paper.

Editorial and Local.

Regardless of times, race or previous condition of servitude, this paper has never spoken with anything but encouragement for the outlook. The future star has always been bright with hope.

The coal—anthracite, bituminous, coking—the silver, the gold, the copper, the iron, the lead, the zinc, the turquoise, the fire-clay, the building stone, the natural gas and the oil, are all resources of southern Santa Fe county that invite capital.

"The Banner is the official organ of the Farmers' Alliance of New Mexico. Send in your subscriptions."

"Remember that this is now the official paper of the Farmers' Alliance of N. M., and that it will now pay you to advertise in it."—Springer Banner.

It will be seen from the above leading editorials clipped from Mr. Hosmer's paper at Springer, that the country is saved.

Cerrillos has the best of talent. In music she is great. In the drama or comedy she can hardly be surpassed when properly rehearsed—and in fact, there is scarcely anything in the line of social, literary or art entertainments which her people cannot go boldly to work and make a success. Now just as soon as the town gets large enough so that each individual resident won't have local talent enough to know all about the affairs of each other individual resident, then will it be as a city whose fame shall rival Boston's.

The press of the Territory appears to be down on the Farmer's Alliance organs, though just why we can hardly tell. The following is the latest from the Raton Range: "The Santa Fe Sun artistically and effectually squelches the Liberty Banner's antiquated and un-epoch efforts to run things political and social in New Mexico. It now remains to be seen whether the Banner fellow has gumption enough to know when he is skinned and his hide on the fence for inspection."

The Rustler is a local newspaper and devotes itself mostly to reporting local matters, trying to pick up all items of mining progress and development in its section, note the coming and going of people, tell of all improvements present and prospective, and suggest ideas of benefit to people and property. Along with this it has a good clean batch of general news and miscellany, gathered as fresh as can be done by the city weeklies, and much more readable than the old plate matter contained in those country papers who boast that they are printed "all at home."

The Albuquerque papers are kind:

"A. M. Anderson the able editor of the Cerrillos Rustler was in the city yesterday and made the Democrat a pleasant call. He is a loyal citizen of Cerrillos and believes his town to be the best in the territory."—Democrat.

"A. M. Anderson, publisher and editor of the CERRILLOS RUSTLER, one of the best weeklies on our exchange list, is in the city. He reports the outlook promising for prosperous times at Cerrillos in the fall; says that a number of mines are increasing their machinery, and that the new concentrator in the copper mine has been partially tested and worked nicely."—Citizen.

Totling—"It's the same old European war-cloud, isn't it?"
Dimling—"Yes; with the silver lining a trifle the worse for wear."
"So she rejected you, did she?
Your proposal didn't please her?"
"Well, I can hardly say it didn't please her. I thought she'd never stop laughing."

Barber Brown—"Bay rum, sir?"
Arizona Charley—his first metropolitan experience—"No, sree, old Kentucky whi-key for me ev'ry time; an' make it straight, pardner."

"I've made money on Wall street."

"How?"

"On tips from friends."

"Really?"

"Yep. Always speculated the other way."

Parson Longneck (in Eastern Kentucky).—Do you take this woman to be your wedded wife?
Backwoods Bridegroom.—Sartinly, sartinly,—don't want her without she is spliced to me.

Cumso—"I want a hat; size fourteen."

Clerk—"A hat size fourteen!
Perhaps you mean a collar?"

Cumso—"I think I know what I want. The hat is for a college-graduate."

Teacher—"Where did the devils go when they were cast out of the man?" Small Boy—"Into the swine." Teacher—"Correct. And where did the swine go?" Small Boy—"To Chicago."

Miss Wazer—a summer boarder
—"How savagely that cow looks at me." Farmer Hayseed—"It's your red parasol, mum." Miss Wazer—
"Dear me, I knew it was a little out of fashion, but I didn't suppose a country cow would notice it."

Manager Stetson (in a towering rage, appearing before a new drop-curtain for the Globe theatre).—
"Who painted that drop-curtain?"
Assistant (facetiously).—"Michael Angelo." Stetson—"Discharge him at once."

Her Sister's Steady (playing the ugreable).—I am told that your cat has added her quota to the felix race, Mabel. How is it?

Little Mabel.—No; she hasn't, either; but she's got kittens. She hasn't put eyes in them yet, but she will as soon as she gets well.

He—entering his bachelor's apartment—"These are my household gods."

She: "But isn't there something missing?"

He: "What?"

She—modestly—"A household goddess."

Kind Father.—My dear, if you want a good husband, marry Mr.
Goodheart. He really and truly loves you.

Daughter.—Are you sure of that,
Pa?

Kind Father.—Yes, indeed. I've been borrowing money of him for six months, and still he keeps coming.

Young lady (out yachting).—
"What is the matter, Captain Quarterdeck?" Captain—"The fact is, my dear young lady, we've broken our rudder." Young lady
—"I wouldn't worry about that.
The rudder is mostly under water anyhow, you know, and it isn't likely people will notice it."

"If any here present," said the officiating clergyman, "can show just cause why this man and this woman may not lawfully be joined together, let them speak or forever hold their peace." The groom, Mr.
Lariat, of Arizona, casually laid a pair of large revolvers on the railing in front of him, and the ceremony proceeded.

She was a sweet bit of a girl, with a sweet, earnest pair of eyes and—a very black kitten. Questioned as to the name of her pet she answered simply, "Wosebud." Asked further if she was not a "dear little child," she drew herself up with a display of small hauteur that was quite enchanting and said severely, "I'm not a child at all. I'm a person—a girl person."

Mr. Wm White has been appointed county surveyor.

Simon Filger, the pioneer cabinet maker of Santa Fe, died Wednesday.

No man can attend properly to business and attempt to run the town or the country.

Albuquerque and Las Vegas ball clubs play at the fair grounds in the former city, to-morrow.

The RUSTLER is proudly confident of the fact that it has at least a hundred friends to one enemy.

The land court judges having been appointed, the commission should soon get to work. Much of its labor will be in New Mexico.

The prices of school books under the contract made by the Territorial Board of Education with the great publishing houses direct, is only about half the usual price which has been paid.

Secret political societies, should they gain a foothold in American politics, may seriously impair the very foundation of the best government on earth. Yet to control such matters is not an easy task.

W. T. McCright, of the Albuquerque Citizen, one of the best newspaper men of the Territory and secretary of the Territorial Press Association, will represent New Mexico at the National Editorial Association to be held at St. Paul July 14th.

Mr. H. J. Palen, Territorial Treasurer, sends to this office a copy of his June report of the Territorial finances which shows on hand June 30th, 1891, $215,192.74. The Territory can boast of being in a good financial condition and of having a good, capable treasurer, at last.

The board of county commissioners held an important meeting Wednesday. A large lot of business was transacted and a number of resolutions passed, among which was one ordering the election for officers of Cerrillos, one ordering a report of the application for liquor licenses and one declaring all acts of the Greener board null.

There is no use in oversizing the situation. Two years ago San Pedro had a boom for which there was not then the shadow of a foundation. Every since her people have been suffering the reaction. At the same time Cerrillos started ahead, agitated by the impetus, and with the hope that developments would go right along, and she too has suffered in consequence. When things looked brightest the bottom dropped, and since that time, like a floundering ship, the section of country in which these camps are located, has been striving to recover its equilibrium and build up on a more solid basis. A certain amount of work will only sustain a certain amount of business, and parties locating in such a section, should weigh the matter carefully and see if to engage in business means success or failure with the chances offered. The time seems to have come when southern Santa Fe county will build gradually up to a great producing mineral section, yet it must be gradual, and until more development comes and more men are employed in the mines, the field is well supplied—in fact practically overdone—in mercantile trade. We hope to see it justify a city as big as Chicago, but at present no store in the camps is making more than a living. Hence there is little room at present for more.

Notice.

Certain parties well known to me, who have been trespassing on my fish ponds, are requested to call and put up, or they will be dealt with according to law. And I desire to notify all others that if hereafter caught committing such depredations, they will not be excused, but will certainly be punished.
