Need to unwind during finals week? Join us at Zines and Za Wednesday, May 10th, at noon! We'll have pizza and all the supplies you'll need to work on a zine of your own.

Not sure what a zine is? Zines are short-form self-publication models that allow people to share their experiences in a creative and low-stakes way. We'll be doing a short introduction, but the most important thing to know is that they are for you to express yourself. You can draw, paint, write, collage, etc. We'll have markers, washi tape, stickers, magazines to cut up, and more! So come get creative without having to take a trip to Michaels and have some free food.

This event will take place in room 428 of the Health Sciences Library. While we do ask that you register so we can estimate supplies and pizza needed, you can drop in any time, and we encourage you to bring friends!

Register for the event here: <https://libcal.health.unm.edu/event/10346063>.
