VOLUME 9.

CARRIZOZO, LINCOLN COUNTY, NEW MEXICO, JANUARY 8, 1909.

NUMBER 45

MONDAY'S ELECTION.

Next Monday justices of the peace and constables are to be elected in all precincts, to serve the ensuing two years. The election of town or precinct officers is much more important than many people think, as good officers produce peaceable and satisfactory conditions, and bad officers the reverse—turmoil and unrest.

The office of justice of the peace is not particularly a desirable one, and it is often difficult to get suitable men to fill the position. Remembering the mistake made in this precinct two years ago, a number of our best citizens got together and asked S. W. Perry to make the race. While not anxious for the office, Mr. Perry realized that the office would have to be filled, and to show his appreciation to his friends, decided to become a candidate. He is a man of sound judgment and a well-balanced mind—qualifications for a justice—and his friends are urging his election, and feel confident of his ability to transact the affairs of the precinct with credit to himself and with justice to all.

Two names will be found at the head of these columns for the office of constable—Walker Hyde and P. C. Baird. Both of these men have their friends, who believe the office will be conducted properly if either is elected. The constable is the peace officer of the town, and much depends upon his judgment, discretion and official conduct. A faithful performance of duty is what the people require, and it is up to them to say who will best carry out their wishes.

TO ABOLISH THE MESCALERO RESERVATION.

According to late Washington dispatches it has been determined to abolish the Mescalero Indian Reservation in Otero and Lincoln counties, and first turn it over to the Forestry Bureau, and thereafter create a national park. The country consists of 460,000 acres of the most beautiful, finely-timbered land in the territory with spots of splendid agricultural possibilities, and many indications of valuable mineral. There are about 400 Mescaleros in existence now, but they are dying off rapidly, and in a few years the name "Mescalero," once feared in southern New Mexico, will be but a spectre. The Red Man is doomed to go out of existence. Today the few thousand of them still existing occupy great reservations which should be thrown open to settlement and improvement to the hardy white settlers and home-builders who are now coming to the Southwest.

THE DRAMATIC CLUB.

Owing to repeated requests the local dramatic club has consented to give a performance on Friday evening, the 15th inst. Practically all the expense of the last performance will be eliminated on this occasion, as the fixtures, costumes and stage paraphernalia have been purchased, and the club expects to give a performance well worth the small admission, and with a good attendance hope to realize a goodly sum. The entertainment will commence at eight o'clock and the admission will be 25 cents.

Work on a new play, to be produced about the middle of February, will soon be begun.

Professor Collins, on behalf of the club, desires to thank the public for the interest and appreciation manifested at the last entertainment and promises better ones in the future.

THE HORSE RACE.

Last Friday a horse race, on the result of which there was considerable speculation, was pulled off on the race track, and though the purse was small, considerable money changed hands among those who knew the horses and thought they could pick the winner. Harvey Dicken's horse was fancied by many, and W. M. Rieley's two-year-old colt (by S. T. Gray's "Capitan") was picked to win by the knowing ones. The distance was a quarter of a mile, and the horses were sent away with an even start. It was a neck and neck race until about half the distance was covered when the two-year-old pulled away and won in an easy canter.

Another race in which considerable interest is being taken will be run on the 15th inst. It will be a match race between Walter Grumbell's horse and a horse belonging to Florencio Vega. The distance will be 440 yards for $50 a side. The horses are evenly matched in speed and should make a close race.

LINCOLN COUNTY TEACHERS ASSOCIATION.

The teachers of Lincoln County held their association at Capitan, on Tuesday, Dec. 29.

There was a good attendance of teachers, and also a number of persons who were not teachers.

The program was carried out almost as had previously been published. The numbers on the program which created especial interest and led to wider discussion were:—"What should be taught in the First Grade," Mrs. Olive Smithson. "Desirable Changes to be made in the School Law," Judge Kenedy. "How to teach Music in the Primary Grades," Mrs. I. Booth.

Among those present who were not teachers was Mr. J. M. Lindly who gave some very interesting points on irrigation and dry farming.

By unanimous vote all officers retained their positions.

Meeting adjourned at 4 P. M. to meet again at the call of the committee.

SCARLET FEVER IN THE EAST END OF THE COUNTY.

Scarlet fever still prevails in Lincoln and many cases have developed and a number of children have died. Recently eight deaths have occurred in the town; viz: Three in Mr. and Mrs. Miguel Luna's family; two of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Fritz, one of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Norman and two of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Aragon. With the exception of the Aragon children, whose deaths occurred the last of the year, all the other fatalities were some time earlier in December. The contagion is said to be still more violent in the lower Ruidoso country, and many deaths are reported to have resulted from the ravages of the disease there. It is believed the epidemic has exhausted itself.

DISHES THAT ARE DIFFERENT.

Pleasant Surprises a Hostess May Set Before Her Guests.

There are many times when the housekeeper who expects company wants to set before her guests something that is a little different, but which she can make herself without the apparatus of a professional caterer. The recipes given below are easy to make for a person of average knowledge of cookery, and do not require so much effort that the hostess need tire herself. They are not too elaborate, but depart from those of the cook books:

Pineapple Eggs.—Soak the contents of half a box of gelatine in water and when dissolved add a cupful of grated pineapple (canned or otherwise), and the juice of one lemon, a cupful of boiling water, and a cupful of sugar; strain and set away to harden. As soon as the hardening process begins, whip quickly with an eggbeater and fold in the whites of five eggs. Mold in eggshells and serve in any fanciful way.

Ice Cream Cake.—Cream two cups of sugar with one of butter, add a cupful of sweet milk, $3\frac{1}{2}$ cupfuls of flour, and the whites of nine eggs; stir in two scant teaspoonfuls of baking powder, and bake in jellyroll pans. Spread each layer with a boiled icing, seasoned with the juice and rind of one orange.

English Tart.—Line a deep pie plate with a rich crust and fill with gooseberry preserves, sprinkling a little flour over the top. When baked cover with a meringue or with whipped cream, sweeten to taste, and set on ice.

German Dumplings.

Remove the crust from two or three small stale rolls and cut the crumbs into small pieces. Lay the crumbs aside. Put the crumbs into a basin and pour over them enough boiling milk to nearly cover. Soak 10 or 15 minutes, and then press, to remove superfluous milk. Put over the fire and stir with a spoon until hot, but not scorched. Push back and season with salt and pepper. Cut a half pound of bacon into small pieces and fry with some of the crumbs cut into dice. When done, add to the soaked bread, with two tablespoonfuls of butter cut in small pieces and enough beaten egg to bind the mixture without making too soft. It must be stiff enough to hold its shape when rolled into dumplings. Flour the hands freely and make the dumplings of equal size. Plunge into a saucepan of boiling water, cover tightly, and cook ten minutes without uncovering. Drain; put on a hot dish until ready to serve.

Meat Pastry for Lunch.

Put one pound of steak into a saucepan with an ounce of suet, and just a little water, not enough to cover it; cover closely and gently cook for about an hour; let it get cold, then cut up into small dice and season rather highly with pepper and salt. Make some pastry with four ounces of butter, two ounces of lard, or cold bacon dripping, and eight ounces of flour; rub both butter and lard into the flour, add a teaspoonful of Borwick's baking powder, mix with cold water; roll out rather less than half an inch thick, cut into rounds about six inches across, on one half put some of the meat with a little gravy to moisten it; turn the other half over, press the edges. Bake in a brisk oven till the pastry is cooked.

Dry Curry.

Mince four onions; cut fowl or veal in small pieces, and fry in butter; add two tablespoonfuls of curry powder, and put all in a small stewpan. Rinse out the frying pan with a teaspoonful of boiling water, and pour amongst the curry. Season with salt, cover closely and stew till tender. Add a tablespoonful of lemon pickle and two of cream. Stir, and boil five minutes. Serve with boiled rice round the dish, the curry in the center.

PROVED BY TIME.

No Fear of Any Further Trouble.

David Price, Corydon, Ia., says: "I was in the last stage of kidney trouble—lame, weak, run down to a mere skeleton. My back was so bad I could hardly walk and the kidney secretions much disordered. A week after I began using Doan's Kidney Pills I could walk without a cane, and as I continued my health gradually returned. I was so grateful I made a public statement of my case, and now seven years have passed, I am still perfectly well."

TORTURED SIX MONTHS

By Terrible Itching Eczema—Baby's Suffering Was Terrible—Soon Entirely Cured by Cuticura.

"Eczema appeared on my son's face. We went to a doctor who treated him for three months. Then he was so bad that his face and head were nothing but one sore and his ears looked as if they were going to fall off, so we tried another doctor for four months, the baby never getting any better. His hand and legs had big sores on them and the poor little fellow suffered so terribly that he could not sleep. After he had suffered six months we tried a set of the Cuticura Remedies and the first treatment let him sleep and rest well; in one week the sores were gone and in two months he had a clear face. Now he is two years and has never had eczema again. Mrs. Louis Leck, R. F. D. 3, San Antonio, Tex., Apr. 15, 1907."

Noble Gentleman, This.

"No, I do not believe in indiscriminate charity-giving. Whenever a beggar tells me he is starving I put him to the test before believing him. I tell him to come back in two days."

"Well?"

"Well, if he comes back it's clear that he told a lie, so I refuse him. If it was the truth, he'd be dead."

An Opinion Confirmed.

"That's the toughest piece of steak I ever struck," said the man in the restaurant.

"I guess you're right, sir," replied the waiter: "the man who had it before said the same thing!"

"Yes; he has to run his train of thought in sections."—Kansas City Journal.

LAME BACK PRESCRIPTION

The increased use of "Toris" for lame back and rheumatism is causing considerable discussion among the medical fraternity. It is an almost infallible cure when mixed with certain other ingredients and taken properly. The following formula is effective: "To one-half pint of good whiskey add one ounce of Toris Compound and one ounce Syrup Sarsaparilla Compound. Take in tablespoonful doses before each meal and before retiring."

Toris compound is a product of the laboratories of the Globe Pharmaceutical Co., Chicago, but it as well as the other ingredients can be had from any good druggist.

The Changing Times.

Times have changed since 450 years ago, when Halley's comet, for whose reappearance astronomers are now looking, was in the heavens. Then the Christian world prayed to be delivered from "the devil, the Turk and the comet." Now it says the devil is not as black as he has been painted, the Turk is a negligible quantity and the comet would be rather welcome than otherwise.—Boston Transcript.

AMERICA'S GREATEST CATHEDRAL

MAGNIFICENT STRUCTURE PLANNED BY CATHOLICS OF ST. LOUIS

EAST FRONT OF NEW CATHEDRAL

THE OLD CATHEDRAL

St. Louis cathedral, with its countless columns in rare and beautifully colored marble, its spandrels, band courses, architraves and balustrades of rich mosaic, and its splendid mural decorations on canvas. Indeed, it is the purpose of the designers to make the interior a veritable palace of religious art. The historian in his comments on St. Sophia goes on to say that "the memory of past calamities inspired Justinian with wise resolution that no wood, except for doors, be admitted to the edifice." The structure was of brick, faced with marble, and the finishings of the interior were of marble, tile and mosaic. The St. Louis cathedral will be even more nearly fireproof, bronze taking the place of wood for the doors and solid stone for the walls, with massive foundations of concrete. The splendid dome will be covered with green mission tile and the heating, ventilation and artificial cooling of the sanctuary and chapels during the summer will be in accordance with the most modern methods. Everything for beauty, comfort and safety has been provided, making the building perfect in all its details. The marbles for the interior are to be of old convent Siena, Alpa green, rose Numidian and Pavannazzo, and the mosaics and mural decorations will be wrought by the best craftsmen and artists in the country. As far as possible the work will be of American, preferably St. Louis origin.

One of the loveliest features of the great central body of the church will be the altar, of exquisite white marble, overhung by a baldachin, not of silk or tapestry, of which this canopy is usually made, but of solid silver filagree, supported on four pillars of delicate tinted onyx. Another beautiful feature will be the entrance to the crypt, approached by a broad stairway of white marble.

For financing the great building an initial fund of $250,000 was left by the late Archbishop Kain, $71,000 has been subscribed by the clergy, and $430,000 more by individual contributors. The archdiocese is engaged in raising another half million for the completion of the superstructure.

With the finishing of the building, the archdiocese will have an official capitol. The old cathedral, at Second and Walnut streets, has been little more than a parish church since Archbishop Kain, ten years ago, planned a new cathedral at Jefferson avenue and Locust street, a site which he afterwards abandoned. The old cathedral was dedicated 74 years ago, and was regarded for decades as a notable structure.

The ceremony incident to the laying of the corner-stone for the old cathedral, for which Bishop Rosati toiled so long and against so many discouragements, was the greatest thing of its nature that the young St. Louis had experienced. It took place on the 1st of August, 1831, and in less than three years the church was completed and almost paid for. Even in its present grimy condition, lost among the time-eaten buildings of the river section of the city, it is still a wonderful structure, with its stately doric columns and its air of quiet grandeur. Long ago it was abandoned by the archbishop, for whom the small chapel at Newstead and Maryland avenues was erected, on the corner of the spacious lot purchased for the grand new cathedral; but the part it played in the early religious life of the city will never be forgotten, cannot be underestimated.

Long before even this early church was called into being there was a great Catholic church in St. Louis, great because of its importance in the community. It was the little structure built of upright posts which occupied the middle of the block between Main and Second streets and surrounded by the best of the early French families that settled St. Louis. Here Father Bernard de Limpoch, following the work of Father Valentin, began the struggle for the erection of a church compatible with the wealth and population of St. Louis. The result was the little wooden building that was dedicated in 1776 and remained standing until 1820. That same struggle was taken up by Bishop Rosati when the city had outgrown all its churches, and again by his grace Archbishop Glennon, when he realized that St. Louis ought to be the seat of a really magnificent cathedral. That the city will ever outgrow this superb building that is about to come into being it is difficult to believe. For centuries to come it will more than likely remain a unique and wonderful example of ecclesiastical architecture, of which any city might well be proud.

Pumps Better Than Dams.

A Mahamoras newspaper calls attention to a test of the pumping of water in the Rio Grande region for irrigation compared to the older method of constructing dams. A 36-inch pump with 36,000 gallons capacity on a 24-foot lift, was operated at a fuel cost of 62½ cents an hour. Whatever irrigation is being attempted on the Mexican side is being done through the pumping system, and there is every prospect that more and more of it will be attempted by the owners of land along the river.

Justice of Peace Election.

For Justice of the Peace.

We are authorized to announce the candidacy of S. W. Perry for Justice of the Peace for Precinct No. 14, Lincoln county, New Mexico, at the ensuing January election.

For Constable.

We are authorized to announce the candidacy of C. W. Hyde for Constable of precinct No. 14, Lincoln County, New Mexico, at the ensuing January election.

For Constable.

We are authorized to announce the name of P. C. Baird as a candidate for constable of Precinct No. 14, Lincoln county, N. M., at the ensuing January election.

The Chamber of Commerce had an interesting meeting Wednesday night. Matters in which our people are very much interested were discussed, and plans for a campaign to promote those things that would be of benefit to Carrizozo were outlined. Intelligent, concerted action brings success, the people of Carrizozo realize this, and all seem to be imbued with the same spirit.

The county commissioners met at Lincoln Monday, and effected an organization by the unanimous election of Robt. H. Taylor of White Oaks as chairman. The board is composed of men, each of whom have a fund of experience for the duties they will be called upon to perform, and little fear is anticipated by the people as to the course the board will pursue on every matter of public import. Few counties in the territory have a more painstaking board than has Lincoln county, all of which pleases the taxpayers.

It is important that all citizens go to the polls next Monday and cast their vote for Justice of the Peace and Constable. Every man should exercise the privilege guaranteed to all Americans; for in a government like ours the people are responsible for the character of government we have—let it be good or bad. Satisfy yourself, then, who will best execute the laws and come to the polls and register your choice.

It usually happens that there is a great falling off in railroad traffic after the holidays. But on this line there has been a noticeable increase in traffic since the end of the year. Three new crews were put on this week, and it is believed there will be a still further increase made in the running force within a week or two. Additions have been made to the force in other departments also.

Eat What

You want of the food you need
Kodol will digest it.

You need a sufficient amount of good wholesome food and more than this you need to fully digest it.

Else you can't gain strength, nor can you strengthen your stomach if it is weak.

You must eat in order to live and maintain strength.

You must not diet, because the body requires that you eat a sufficient amount of food regularly.

But this food must be digested, and it must be digested thoroughly.

When the stomach can't do it, you must take something that will help the stomach.

The proper way to do is to eat what you want, and let Kodol digest the food.

Nothing else can do this. When the stomach is weak it needs help; you must help it by giving it rest, and Kodol will do that.

Our Guarantee

Go to your druggist today, and purchase a dollar bottle, and if you can honestly say, that you did not receive any benefits from it, after using the entire bottle, the druggist will refund your money to you without question or delay.

We will pay the druggist the price of the bottle purchased by you.

This offer applies to the large bottle only and to but one in family.

We could not afford to make such an offer, unless we positively knew what Kodol will do for you.

It would bankrupt us.
The dollar bottle contains 2½ times as much as the fifty cent bottle.

THE NEW COUNTY OFFICERS TAKE CHARGE.

The new county officers were duly installed this week at the meeting of the county commissioners at Lincoln, and have assumed their duties in their respective offices. From our knowledge of the men and all that we have been able to learn, they will perform their duties faithfully. They are all good, straight men, capable of filling the respective offices to which they have been elected, and should finish their terms with satisfaction to the people and credit to themselves.

TEACHERS EXAMINATION.

All teachers holding permits, and all who are without certificates and who desire to teach, are required by the Superintendent of Public Instruction to pass an examination; and January 15 and 16 has been named as the date. The Rebekah lodge at Capitan, instituted several years ago, has been transferred to Carrizozo, where a majority of its members now reside. J. A. McLiney, of Kansas City, Missouri, and Milton Carrier, of Lone Elm, Kansas, took Saturday night's Limited for their respective homes, after having spent a week in this county. These gentlemen have invested considerable money in mining property in this county, and came out to look over their properties located near the Bonito. Development work is now in progress on their Bonito properties, and the results are quite satisfactory to the owners. Several local men are also interested in the same company.

Carrizozo News

CARRIZOZO, NEW MEXICO.

Worthy Versus Worthless Citizens.

A professor in the Andover Theological seminary once met a man going to the town meeting. Said the professor: "What are they going to bring up at the meeting to-day, Brown?" Brown replied, with a snarl: "I dunno what they're goin' to bring up, but whatever it is, I'm goin' to oppose it." The zeal of this particular citizen was of questionable advantage to his town. Some so-called reformers have a spirit unfortunately similar, says a writer in Appleton's Magazine. An Irish teamster in a certain New England town hires a man to drive for him whenever the license question is put to vote. He takes the whole day off. He votes no license himself. He gets as many others as he can to vote the same way. A gentleman asked him one day why he took so much trouble. He answered: "Me boy died of rum an' I do what I can to keep other folks' boys from dying the same way." This ignorant teamster is a citizen of the highest type. A gentleman of high standing in the same community boasted that he never voted at local elections. He said: "Why should I go through the farce of casting my ballot? This town is run by a lot of low and corrupt politicians. My vote doesn't count. I've no time for sentimental shams." This scholarly gentleman is a citizen of the lowest type. He is stupidly selfish. Were he intelligently selfish, he would protect his interests as a citizen just as he protects his professional interests.

According to an English newspaper Aldershot has been much excited over the death of a cat, and there will probably be much conversation between the Scots Guards and the North Staffshires. The colonel commanding the latter was riding down the lines of the Scots Guards with two fox terriers. There was a bit of a tiff between the dogs and the cat with three kittens, and the colonel threatened to kill the cat. The cat was caught, but escaped from the hands of three drummers of the Scots Guards, who were looking after their pets. The colonel dismounted, caught the cat in the fork of a tree and killed it with his riding whip. The case against the colonel was preferred by the S. P. C. A. The Aldershot magistrates who refused to convict the colonel said in effect: "Guilty, but don't do it again!" Now the question which agitates the royal long-named society is, what would have happened if a drummer had killed the colonel's fox terrier. Which was the aggressor?

A Philadelphia doctor sent in a bill of $21,000 to a Pittsburg captain of industry for services rendered, and the former patient rebels at the amount. The doctor, who is a specialist of some sort, says he considers $500 a visit a reasonable charge. The case is now in court and the horror of the defendant's lawyers, who will each ask a thousand dollars an hour for their services without batting an eye, may be imagined.

A Pittsburg physician, trying to show how disease germs are disseminated on money passed from hand to hand, says that on one bill he found 73,000 living bacteria. He doesn't say, though, that he refused it.

IN THE PUBLIC EYE

MAY HEAD BIG BANK

Mr. Vanderlip did not remain long with the Economist. Contrary to the advice of his partner and some of his friends, he became private secretary to Lyman J. Gage, who March 4, 1897, assumed the office of secretary of the treasury. Mr. Gage at the time of his own appointment was the president of the First National bank. He was the one banker in Chicago the newspapers were accustomed to seek for views on financial matters.

Although Mr. Vanderlip began as a private secretary, he was within three months made an assistant secretary of the treasury, and this position afforded him a wide range of opportunities.

After four years in the treasury department Mr. Vanderlip resigned on February 26, 1901, to become vice-president of the National City bank.

The National City Bank of New York is by far the largest banking institution in this country. It has a capital stock of $25,000,000 and surplus and undivided profits of $35,219,000. Its deposits are over $226,500,000.

AN UNPOPULAR ENVOY

Moreover, he is a newspaper man, owner and editor of the Troy (N. Y.) Daily Times, and might reasonably be expected to have all the tact, sangfroid, smoothness and nerve anybody would need even at the court of Vienna.

But Mr. Francis has apparently got in wrong with Francis Joseph and some of his friends. He came home to vote, of course, and now, on the eve of his return, some of the Vienna papers are editorially hoping the boat sinks before he gets back. "Never in diplomatic circles," says one Vienna journal with a name like a handful of pled type, "Never has a more unpopular man held the post of ambassador. He and his family, knowing no French nor German, have complained of Viennese ignorance of English, and have never concealed their contempt for Vienna houses, shops, climate and women. When he should have returned hospitably he subverted the embassy to the Japanese legation, sent the ladies to America and himself occupied a back room on the fifth floor of a hotel, paying $1 a day." And a few other bon mots of like tenor.

Of course, the editor may feel a little peevish about something.

MAY GET TREASURY POST

During the hard times which followed the dry years of 1894-5, when Nebraska was in the throes of bankruptcy and hundreds of settlers were compelled to go east to save their lives, the Millard bank and its minor connections were never in peril.

Born in Canada, the Omaha banker is still an American in that both of his parents were residents of this country who were temporarily domiciled across the border. His early years were spent on the farm. He has been president of the bank since January 1, 1887. He was mayor of Omaha for one term, and served one term in the senate.

TABLE DELICACIES

SOME APPROVED RECIPES OF VARIOUS KINDS.

To Cream Butter—Care Needed in Caramelizing Sugar—Delicious Rice Balls—Roasted Pork Tenderloin with Garnishment.

Put milk in the top of a double boiler, having water boiling in the under part. Cover and let stand on top of range until the milk has a bead-like appearance around the edge.

To Cream Butter—Put butter in a bowl and work with a wooden spoon until the butter is of a soft creamy consistency. Should buttermilk exude it should be poured off.

To Extract Juice from Onion—Cut a slice from the root end of the onion, remove the outer skin and press onion on a coarse grater, using a rotary motion.

Fried Oysters—Select large oysters. Clean and parboil slightly to draw out water. Drain and dry on towel. Roll in cracker crumbs, dip in mayonnaise dressing, then in crumbs. Let stand for five minutes, and if moist dip again in crumbs and cook in deep, hot fat for one minute.

To Caramelize Sugar—Put sugar in a smooth granite saucepan or omelet pan, place over the hot part of the range and stir constantly until melted and the color of maple sugar. Care must be taken to prevent sugar from adhering to the sides of the pan or spoon.

Rice Balls—Boil a cupful of rice in water and add salt. While warm mix in quarter pound of butter, two eggs well beaten, and tablespoonful of cinnamon. Make this into small balls and fry in deep fat. Drain and roll in currant jelly, then powdered sugar.

Roasted Pork Tenderloin—Clean a dozen pork tenderloins, season with salt and pepper. Put into baking pan. Make for this a dressing of bread crumbs, seasoned with salt, pepper, onion chopped fine. Moisten this with milk and put dressing between the loin. Add hot water for basting and bake for an hour and a half. Serve garnished with parsley and hard-boiled eggs.

Canned Chicken.

To can chicken prepare as for stewing, put on to cook in water to cover, with a rounding tablespoon (possibly more) of salt to each chicken. Cook till the meat will slip from bones, take out all bones, pack pieces of meat, as close as you can, in glass jars; fill with the broth, adding boiling water to it if there is not enough to fill all jars. Put on rubbers and covers, put up top wire, but do not snap down lower one. Put jars on rack in wash boiler, pour in warm water to shoulders of jars, cover boiler and let boil three-quarters to one hour after water begins to boil. Then lift boiler off out of drafts, let stand a few moments before uncovering boiler. The take off boiler cover, snap down lower jar wires, without lifting tops, lift jars out, wipe and set aside to cool, then put away.

To Use Up Cold Boiled Beef

Trim away any gristle from cold boiled beef; pass the beef through a mincer, mix with it a good sized piece of butter, and a little pepper, a grate of nutmeg, a very little cayenne; pound in a mortar or mix a plate well with a knife; press in small pots, run oiled butter over top. This makes a tasty relish with toast or bread and butter.

Successful Supper Menu.

Is not a successful duplex menu, which shows "tasty" dishes composed of unpromising left-overs, served as it were, and without the lavish of fresh materials?

SERVING LAST TERM

"UNCLE N. D." ANNOUNCES COMING RETIREMENT.

Veteran Congressman and Friend of Lincoln, 82 Years Old, Has Had Enough of Public Life—Staked Fortune on Monitor.

New Haven, Conn.—Uncle Nehemiah D. Sperry, dean of congress, has served notice on his constituents that he will never run for office again. At the close of the term to which he has just been elected he will retire from public life, he says. The passing of "N. D." as everybody knows him, will remove one of the few remaining close friends and one of a more handful of the New England advisers of Abraham Lincoln. Sperry was with Lincoln at the founding of the Republican party, and he has since always stood high in its councils.

When "Uncle N. D." takes his seat in congress he will be 82 years of age, several years older than any other congressman chosen at the last election. He will, therefore, be 84 years old at the expiration of his present term, but he feels that he has several years left of aggressive activity.

He is careful to sign his initials "N. D." His political rivals used to say that the letters stood for "Nothing Doing." He admits that such may be their meaning, but he amends the suggestion by adding: "for the other fellow who runs." His friends say that the letters mean "Never Defeated," and his record of 65 years in public life bears out his claim to the title. "Uncle Nehemiah" never lost an election.

Trudging into New Haven from Woodbridge, a barefooted farmer's boy, with his belongings tied up in a bandana handkerchief, he did chores for his board till he learned the trade of mason. He soon became one of the most extensive mason contractors in New Haven, and the firm of which he is the head has built many of the most expensive Yale buildings. From the time when, as a Yale man of 26, Sperry entered politics and was elected selectman, councilman and finally alderman of New Haven, he has been constantly in public life. In 1855 he was secretary of state for Connecticut. In that year he bolted the American party at its famous convention because he felt it was not right on the slavery question. In 1856 he was a delegate to the first Republican convention. In 1861 Lincoln appointed him postmaster of New Haven, and he retained that office till President Cleveland removed him in 1885. Four years later President Harrison reappointed him, but he was retired again in 1893 by Cleveland. He entered congress in 1895 from the Second Connecticut district, and he has been re-elected seven times.

For several sessions he has been chairman of the committee on the liquor traffic. The greatest sacrifice "Uncle N. D." made for his country was to pledge his entire personal fortune in the civil war to guarantee the building of the Monitor. The national naval board refused to authorize the boat's construction unless a bond of $300,000 was given, not only for the boat's construction as specified, but also for the guarantee that it would whip the Merrimac. Daniel Drew of New York said that he would sign a bond pledging that amount if Sperry would also do so. Sperry and Drew attached their signatures, and all day on the fateful Sunday while the battle in Hampton roads was raging Sperry, with his friend, Cornelius S. Bushnell of New Haven, who backed Ericsson in the building of the boat, waited in the telegraph office in New Haven to learn the outcome of the fight. Finally the news of the Merrimac's defeat came over the wire, and Bushnell's hand came down over Sperry's broad back with a hearty "Sperry, your bond is safe."

SCHOOL TO TEACH CHINESE.

Government of China Erecting Building in San Francisco.

San Francisco.—Lest the Chinese language might die out in the present generation of Chinese children in this country, the Chinese government is erecting a school building in this city for the teaching of the Oriental tongue. The work of construction is being carried on under the supervision of a commissioner of the Chinese government, who had come here from China for that purpose.

Funds for the new building are supplied from the home government, which has erected a similar building at Sacramento, and intends establishing more of them after the San Francisco building is constructed. The local school building is in course of construction on the west side of Stockton street, between Clay and Sacramento.

It has a frontage of 40 feet and a depth of 120 feet, leaving space for a large yard in the rear. According to the plans of the architects the facade of the building will be distinctively Chinese in its general design and detail of ornaments. The exterior wall facing the street will be in glazed brick of rich blue similar to the prevailing blue porcelain tiles of the pagodas in the Flowering Kingdom. The roof, with its quaint Oriental crown in Chinese figures and ornament, will be of red tile in imitation of the tile roofs of the Orient, and there will be red tile sections of roofs at each story or balcony. A deep recessed white stone platform will mark the first floor level, and the upper balconies will be finished in scagliola, with Chinese balustrades in front.

The first floor will be arranged for a large meeting hall of the Chinese Six Companies, with the secretary's office and committee rooms. The second and third floors will be laid out alike, with four large classrooms on each floor, together with a principal's office and rooms for the teachers. The classrooms will afford accommodation for 400 children, for whom every convenience will be provided.

Practically all of the leading Chinese merchants are taking a personal interest in the school and building, which embodies for them a patriotic meaning. The building will soon be finished, when its opening will be celebrated with elaborate ceremonies.

Historical Anydate.

Nero had just burned Rome. The common people had him down and were sitting on his head while the industry experts tickled his toes.

"Why did you do it?" they asked him.

"One of the moving-picture concerns made me a flattering offer," he answered.—Puck.

WHAT WOULD HE HAVE SAID?

"Get up, Jack. You mustn't cry like a baby! You're quite a man now. You know if I fell down I shouldn't cry, I should merely say—"

"Yes, I know, pa; but then—I go to Sunday school—and you don't."

Sniffles and Nerves.

Keep to yourself during warm, nerve-irritating weather. It is related that an Atchison man and wife dearly love each other. She is a perfect lady, and apologizes when she says "shucks." But one night, when they were sitting on the porch, presumably enjoying the tender twilight, she suddenly picked up a stool and threw it at his head. "I am not insane," she said, calmly, when he turned a frightened gaze on her; "I am simply worn out by the manner in which you sniffle at the end of every sentence!"—Atchison Globe.

Kicks.

Harry Payne Whitney the day his own and other noted horsemen's racers were shipped from London on the Minnehaha, said of the death of racing in New York:

"A good many jockeys have been hard hit. A jockey told me last week a very sad tale of misfortune. I listened sympathetically."

"Ah, Joe," said I, "when a man is down, few hands are extended to him."

"The jockey as he chewed a straw, smiled bitterly."

"Few hands—yes—that's right," he said, "but think of the feet."

CAUSE AND EFFECT

Good Digestion Follows Right Food.

Indigestion and the attendant discomforts of mind and body are certain to follow continued use of improper food.

Those who are still young and robust are likely to overlook the fact that, as dropping water will wear a stone away at last, so will the use of heavy, greasy, rich food, finally cause loss of appetite and indigestion.

Fortunately many are thoughtful enough to study themselves and note the principle of Cause and Effect in their daily food. A N. Y. young woman writes her experience thus:

"Sometime ago I had a lot of trouble from indigestion, caused by too rich food. I got so I was unable to digest scarcely anything, and medicines seemed useless."

"A friend advised me to try Grape-Nuts food, praising it highly, and as a last resort I tried it. I am thankful to say that Grape-Nuts not only relieved me of my trouble, but built me up and strengthened my digestive organs so that I can now eat anything I desire. But I stick to Grape-Nuts."

"There's a Reason."

In Memoriam.

"I suppose you carry a memento of some sort in that locket of yours?"

"Yes; it's a lock of my husband's hair."

"But your husband is still alive?"

"Yes, but his hair is all gone."—Pick Me Up.

A young doctor was uniquely complimented by the reporter of a western paper, in his account of a serious accident to a well known citizen. He stated that "Doc Hinton was hastily summoned to the scene of the unfortunate accident, and under his skillful treatment poor Billy died peacefully two hours afterward."—New York Weekly.

Little Wallace, dining with his grandparents, repeatedly called for rice. His grandmother said: "Patience, Wallace, do have patience." To which the little fellow quickly replied, "I don't want some patience, gwamma, I want some rice."

OSCURO NOTES

J. V. Edwards left for Maricopa Arizona, his old home, last Sunday, and will return in about two weeks. He has business interests there that required his attention.

E. G. Rafferty and Lee B. Chase are working on their respective mining properties in the Oscuros.

Mart Goodin was up from Three Rivers, New Year's. He is looking fine and appears to have entirely recovered from his recent serious illness. Mr. Goodin intends to move to the I-X ranch and live with his sister, Mrs. Calfee.

Joe Ashford, our worthy postmaster, has begun work on his new store building and postoffice.

Capt. D. W. Roberts was over from Estey Tuesday night. The Captain is in charge of the mining company at Estey.

Messrs. V. A. Lucier and Lewis C. Garver have organized a well drilling company, and have secured the services of William A. Pearce, an expert geologist, who has made a special study of water formation. The company is now ready to demonstrate its faith in scientific geology, and guarantees water for a contract price.

Clint Arnold and Art Haller have gone to the Oscuros to work in the mines for Lee Chase.

M. I. Jackson is in for a short stay from the Mocking Bird Gap where he has been employed by the Murray Slease Mining Co. He reports everything prospering, new machinery being installed and operations to begin in earnest soon.

Mr. Dunn has about completed his tile residence on his homestead, southwest of town.

A Masked Ball was given by the people of Oscuro, New Years Eve. The last number before the old year expired was appropriated by the ladies, and they choose their partners with whom to dance out the old year. All present had a delightful time.

The parties opening up a coal property, just north of Oscuro, have installed a whim, and better progress will now be made.

A. T. Roberts, who has been spoken of as a candidate for Constable and who has been asked by friends to make the race, has decided, that for business reasons, he should decline to become a candidate. He wishes, however, through the columns of the News to thank his friends for the confidence imposed and to assure them of his application of their offered support. He has many friends who believe he would have made a good officer, hence the request for him to become a candidate.
