1. U.S. NEWS AND WORLD REPORT ranks UNM's engineering program among the best programs at schools where the highest degree offered is a doctorate. The U.S. News ranking relies on quantitative measures education experts propose as reliable indicators of academic quality. <http://www.unm.edu/news/Releases/02-09-19usnews.htm>

2. THE 2001-2002 UNM FACT BOOK, a statistical book containing a wide range of information and data about UNM, is now available online. Published by the Office of Institutional Research, the UNM Fact Book is helpful in researching and discovering details about UNM, including data on students, faculty and staff. It also contains information about degrees, program accreditation, research, finances and UNM's organizational structure. <http://www.unm.edu/~oir/>

3. RENEE-CLAUDE MERCIER, assistant professor of Infectious Diseases in the UNM College of Pharmacy and the UNM School of Medicine, has been elected secretary/treasurer for the Infectious Diseases Practice and Research Network of the American College of Clinical Pharmacy.
