

10-26-2005

2005-10-26 UNM NEWS MINUTE

University of New Mexico Communication and Marketing Department

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalrepository.unm.edu/news_minute_2005

Recommended Citation

University of New Mexico Communication and Marketing Department. "2005-10-26 UNM NEWS MINUTE." (2005).
https://digitalrepository.unm.edu/news_minute_2005/35

This Newsletter is brought to you for free and open access by the UNM News Minute at UNM Digital Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in UNM News Minute 2005 by an authorized administrator of UNM Digital Repository. For more information, please contact disc@unm.edu.

1. THE NEW MEXICO DMAT was singled out last week in regard to the superb job it performed under adverse conditions. In testimony before the Senate Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs in Washington, FEMA Public Information Officer Marty J. Bahamonde reported on the conditions that existed inside the New Orleans Superdome after the passage of Hurricane Katrina and singled out the New Mexico DMAT for a job well done.

<http://hscapp.unm.edu/calendar/output/index.cfm?fuseaction=main.release&EntryID=4410>

2. DALE C. ALVERSON, medical director of the UNM Center for Telehealth, was recently elected to the Center for Telehealth and E-Health Law (CTeL) Board of Directors, a national organization that works to overcome barriers to the utilization of telehealth and related e-health services.

<http://hscapp.unm.edu/calendar/output/index.cfm?fuseaction=main.release&EntryID=4407>

3. BABS BAKER, department administrator in the College of Fine Arts Department of Art and Art History, was awarded the Work+Life Manager/Supervisor Award during a ceremony yesterday at the SUB ballroom. The awards committee received 75 nominations hailing the management practices of 30 of UNM's managers and supervisors. <http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/000897.html#more>

4. THE AMERICAN FOLKLORE Society recently presented Enrique Lamadrid, professor of Spanish and director of Chicano / Hispano / Mexicano Studies, with the Americo Paredes Prize, a national award given in recognition of his work as a cultural activist in research, community service and teaching.

<http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/000898.html#more>

5. THE UNM SCHOOL of Architecture and Planning recently hosted an event to honor students receiving scholarships and awards in architecture, planning and landscape architecture. The event culminated in honoring Van Gilbert as the year's distinguished alum. The Frontier/Golden Pride scholarships went to Tanya Johnson, architecture; Nathania Tsosie, planning; and Sasha Needham, landscape architecture.

<http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/000896.html#more>

6. JULIO DOMINGUEZ, a fourth year architecture design student in the UNM School of Architecture and Planning, has been selected as a finalist in the international self-sufficient housing competition by the Institute for Advanced Architecture of Catalonia, in Spain. Additionally, Assistant Professor Tim Castillo, entering under his firm Hybrid Environments, was also selected as a finalist.

<http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/000894.html#more>

7. ALL ROADS GOES SKYWARD is the final installment of the Tricentennial colloquium to be held at the Anderson Abruzzo Albuquerque International Balloon

Museum on Saturday, Oct. 29, from 9 a.m. to noon. The All Roads Lead to Albuquerque series started the journey with native trails, traveled Spanish and Mexican trails, traversed modern highways and byways, wandered on recreational trails and culminates with aviation. Those attending the colloquium will receive free admission to the new balloon museum. <http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/000839.html#more>

8. THE PHYSICAL PLANT DEPARTMENT'S Lock Shop "walk-up" window will be closed every Friday in November. In case of emergency, please call 277-1061.