STATE TAX RATE IS 13.6 MILLS

One-tenth Mill Higher than Last Year, is Fixed by Auditor

The state tax rate was fixed today by State Auditor W. G. Sargent. It is 13.60 mills on the dollar as compared with 13.50 last year. This is an increase over 1912 of one-tenth of one mill on each dollar of taxable valuation, and is found necessary because of the fact that although there is an increase of about $19,000,000 in the assessed valuation of the state, the interest and sinking fund charges have been greatly increased.

This is shown by the fact that the total appropriations for last year amounted to $737,000, while the appropriations this year, for the second fiscal year were $888,000.

This tax rate is figured on an assessed valuation of $91,734,601, and if every cent of it could be collected would bring in a total revenue for state purposes of $1,247,590. However, experience has shown that there is an appreciable percentage that is never collected and a margin must be allowed so that sufficient money to run the state is assured.

The total state rate of 13.60 mills is divided among the various state purposes as follows:

State purposes, 3.50 mills.
State institutions, 5.21 mills.
Charitable institutions, 0.31 mills.

State road fund, 1.00 mill.
Current school fund, 0.50 mills.
Interest and sinking fund, 3.01 mills.

This state levy was today certified to the boards of county commissioners in every one of the 26 counties in the state, who in turn will certify it the assessor, together with the county levy, in order that he may be prepared to go ahead with the work of carrying out on the tax rolls the various amounts due from each tax payer.

BOY TRAPPER GETS BIG BOBCAT

The young son of Tony Brick holds the record as champion trapper around Belen. For some time he has been setting traps along the Rio Grande, east of town, and on Tuesday of this week was rewarded by finding an immense bob-cat in one of them. The trap had caught the animal on the shin-bone of the hind leg. But due to the working of the animal in his attempts to free himself, the trap had slipped down over the ankle joint, catching in the toes, which the steel claws pierced holding the varmint. The hide is reported to be a beauty by those who have seen it, and the lad refused several tempting offers for it.

Bakery Improvements

The Purity Bakery has just completed installing more counters and shelving, and giving generally a touch of paint, getting in shape for the winter trade. They have increased their stock of groceries and are making a specialty of staples in this line along with bread and pastry of all kinds.

They also have the gasoline popcorn machine running and have freshly popped corn all the time. Another feature, new to Belenites, is freshly roasted coffee twice a week. By using different grades in blending, they have freshly roasted coffee at almost any price.

TROUBADOURS COMING NOVEMBER 8

Musical Aggregation will appear at Pastime Theater

Byron's Troubadours, a company including orchestra, saxophone quartet and quintet, trio of violin, cello and harp, and a large variety of other instruments, will be in Belen on Saturday, November 8th, giving one performance at the Pastime Theatre. The program to be presented is represented as instructive, entertaining, amusing, something to please everyone. The members of the troupe introduce songs in several languages during the program. The Denver Post, under date of September 24, 1912, says of them:

"Last night at the Auditorium there appeared seven young men who are known as Byron's Troubadours, having been brought here by the Rev. Thomas Hazell for the benefit of the People's Presbyterian church. The boys appear to be Hawaiian in nationality, and seem to possess all of the natural musical instincts of their race, singing with those always pleasing mellow voices and choosing the kind of music that appeals to the popular fancy—the serious kind with melody the keynote. It was a varied program, consisting of violin, cello and piano trios, duets and solos, with a goodly amount of singing. For the most part the numbers were short, surprisingly so, but the boys were generous with encores, which were unfailingly demanded each time. "The Tales of Hoffman," the sextet from "Lucia," the "Toreador Song," etc., will give one an idea of their most pleasing program."

PUBLIC SCHOOL

The enrollment is now more than 425.

Langdon Watson has been absent from the 9th grade.

Paul Simmons will be out of school a week hunting.

Herman G. Baca was absent Tuesday on account of a swollen eye.

The attendance of the 8th and 9th grades has been very good this week.

Several pupils in Miss Anderwerth's room have been absent this week.

Mrs. Trimble, teacher of the 2d and 3d grades, has ten new pupils this week.

The 8th grade has just finished a final examination in part of the U. S. History. Five of the seven made a grade of ninety or above.

Miss Anderwerth, teacher of the 6th and 7th grades will leave Friday night for Santa Fe, where she will spend Sunday, returning in time to take up her work in school Monday morning.

On Monday morning Shirley Davidson, Paul Simmons and Mr. Gunter gave the High School and Miss Anderwerth's room an entertainment, the first two playing the cornets and the latter the trombone. All enjoyed the music very much.

County Superintendent Baca has spent a busy week, visiting the various county schools now in session.

STATE GETS FUNDS FROM GOVERNMENT

Check for $40,000 to be Divided between Road and School Funds Santa Fe, N. M., Oct. 20. — The state treasurer has received from the forest service headquarters at Washington, a check for $40,604.80, which is 10 per cent of the proceeds from the national forest reserves in New Mexico. This money will be prorated among the counties of New Mexico in which forest reserves are located, in proportion to the forest acreage in each county. One-half of the amount due each county goes into the county road fund and the other half into the county school fund. The apportionment has not yet been made, but will be announced in detail as soon as made. The national forests in New Mexico comprise the following: Alamo, Carson, Chiricahua, Datil, Gila, Jemez, Lincoln, Manzano, Pecos and Zuni.

New Road About Completed.

George W. Singleton was in the city Tuesday, from the railroad camp at the front, and announced that the new railroad from Coleman to Clovis is completed within ten miles of Texico. He says that the laying of the steel will be completed by the first of the month, but that it will be necessary to go back and do some extra work and put in siding at the new town of Muleshoe. Mr. Singleton is in favor of holding a monster celebration at Clovis at the completion of the road and suggests the running of a special excursion train over the new line for a distance and if possible meet some of the R. R. officials and all celebrate together. Thus the last link in the connection of the Santa Fe's Gulf to Pacific line is about closed and there is cause for great rejoicing in Clovis which will be the division and shop center. — Clovis News.

Masons Elect Officers

Santa Fe, N. M., Oct. 22. — The Masonic grand lodge for the state of New Mexico which has been in session here this week, elected officers today as follows: Nathan Jaffa, Roswell, grand master; R. F. Hare, Las Cruces, deputy grand master; A. W. Pollard, Deming, grand senior warden; A. B. McMillin, Albuquerque, grand junior warden; A. J. Maloy, Albuquerque, grand treasurer, and A. A. Keen, of Albuquerque, grand secretary.

Ton and a Half of Bullion

Twenty-eight bars of gold and silver bullion arrived by express from Mogollon Sunday. This represents the output of the Socorro Mines Company's mills for two weeks in September. As each bar weighs approximately 100 pounds and has a value of at least $1,500, the source of the continued prosperity of the Mogollon camp can be readily figured out. — Silver City Independent.

Make the best of your life. You may never get another chance to be happy.

MRS. FENLEY SCARES BURGLAR

Mrs. Fenley, wife of Conductor Fenley, had quite an adventure with a would-be burglar Tuesday night. The culprit got into the attic in some way and was trying to find his way down stairs. Luckily the hatch had been closed, barring his progress. Mrs. Fenley became hysterical and leaped out of the window. Thinking of her child, which she had left within, she returned for it, and on coming out again, had the presence of mind to discharge a revolver, which called the neighbors. In the meantime, the would-be burglar made himself scarce, covering his trail pretty well.

BRIEF STATE NEWS

Julian Lucero was found guilty of horse stealing by a jury in district court in Albuquerque yesterday.

Jose Garcia, who was tried on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon in district court at Albuquerque on Tuesday, was found guilty.

The Santa Fe has made a reduction in freight rates, carload lots, from points in eastern New Mexico to Deming, Silver City, Santa Rita and Fierro. The new rate is 27 1-2 cents in place of 37 1-2, the old rate.

James O. Lynch, convicted of the murder of Marshal Roy Wooton of Roswell some years ago, last week at Clovis, has been landed in the penitentiary with the prospect of remaining there the balance of his life.

A. Julius Johnson, a motorcycleist, who was injured in the racing at the State Fair by being thrown from his wheel, has been adjudged insane by Judge Reynolds at Albuquerque and placed in the asylum at Las Vegas.

At the election on Monday of this week, Farmington decided by a larger vote than last year to remain dry. This settles the saloon question as far as Farmington is concerned for another four years, under the new law.

Benito Sanchez, who has been under arrest for the killing of Felix Villareal at Wagon Mound, has been held to await the action of the grand jury under bond in the sum of $1,000, on a charge of manslaughter. He waived examination on the charge of gambling.

The Rev. F. C. Howden, of Georgetown, D. C., has been elected Missionary Bishop of New Mexico by the house of bishops at the general convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church. This action must be ratified by the house of deputies before it will become effective, but this is expected at once. He succeeds the late Rev. J. M. Kendrick, who died some two years since.

It was Stewart Edward White who made the old plainsman say of our Empire of Sunshine: "Son in this country, there is more rivers and less water, more cows and less milk, and you can see farther and see less than anywhere else in the world." — Tucumcari Sun.

ANNUAL MEETING N. M. E. A.

At Albuquerque November 24-26. Good Program Planned

The twenty-eighth annual convention of the New Mexico Educational Association will meet at Albuquerque, November 24-26. Last year nearly one thousand persons attended this convention and it is expected that this attendance will be exceeded by a good margin. The principal speaker will be the chief educational officer of the United States, Hon. P. P. Claxton, who will visit New Mexico in an official capacity for the first time. Mrs. M. O. Bradford, State Superintendent of Public Instruction of Colorado, will give one of the main addresses. It is hoped, also, that Professor Holden, of the Kansas State Agricultural College, may be present. From the state, we will have, in addition to the leading educators, Governor W. C. McDonald, Secretary of State Antonio Lucero, Hon. Ralph E. Twitchell, president of the Board of Managers of the San Diego Exposition; Hon. Ralph Ely, president of the State Fair Association; Hon. Charles G. Ward, district attorney of the Fourth Judicial District, and Former Governor L. B. Prince, who will speak at the various general or section meetings of the Association.

As a special compliment to those attending the meetings the people of Albuquerque are furnishing a special entertainment at an expense of $500 or more. In every way possible, Albuquerque will give a welcome to the visitors. The Opera House will be used for the general meetings, the Armory for the School Exhibit and the High School building for section sessions.

Sunday, November 23rd, will be known as "Education Sunday," on which occasions the Ministers of the different churches in Albuquerque and, it is hoped, throughout the state, will speak on topics along educational lines.

General sessions of the Association will be held on Monday afternoon and evening, Tuesday morning and evening and Wednesday morning. Monday morning, Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday afternoon will be devoted to meetings of the following sections: High School and College, Peace League, Elementary schools, Indian Schools, Commercial teachers, Science and Mathematics Teachers, Industrial Teachers, Music and Drawing Teachers, School Patrons, School Boards, Librarians, and Institute Workers.

In connection with the meeting there will, also, be held a State Oratorical contest and State Spelling Match is also being arranged. The Schools' Exhibit will, it is believed, be the most noteworthy ever held in New Mexico.

Coming Nuptials

Vicente Chavez, of El Bosque, was in town this morning, making preparations for the coming marriage of his son, Antonio Chavez, who on November 5th will wed Miss Esquipula Chavez, of Tome. He left an order with the News for a nice lot of invitations for the nuptial ceremony and a grand ball which will follow at night.

The United States Supreme Court has reversed the findings of the U. S. District court in declaring the Indians in New Mexico citizens and liable to taxation under the state constitution. The decision was handed down in connection with the sale of liquor in or near Indian villages.

New Mexico's County High School plan is attracting attention in the eastern states, as is shown by the report of the United States Bureau of Education, and yet there are people right here in New Mexico who work against the plan and hinder its operation. Verily it takes all sorts of people to make a world.

Mrs. Pankhurst, who was detained at Ellis Isle and ordered deported by the immigration authorities, was allowed to enter the country, but with the stipulation that as soon as her lecture tour as planned has been completed, she must return to her British home, by order of President Wilson.
Evidently he doesn't want a repetition of those English stunts.

A great howl is being made by the bankers against the proposed Currency measure now being considered by congress. This was to be supposed. So long as the bankers controlled the currency of the country, they ruled supreme, but should their power be shorn, the important position they now occupy would be a thing of the past, and the common geezer might possibly get his inning. Sure thing, they're kicking, but that's about all it will amount to.

One thing about the joy ride is that the husband and wife are never together when the accident happens.—Santa Fe New Mexican.

And it might be added that were they together more when the accidents happened they wouldn't happen. The controlling cause in many automobile accidents may be traced directly to the fact that the husband and wife are not together. It is not so very difficult to find a reasonably certain cure to suggest for the joy ride accident.—Cloviss Journal.

Apparently Sulzer is not "down and out," although Tammany seemed to have won the victory by ousting him from the governorship. The deposed governor was nominated as candidate for the state legislature by the Progressive party after more than half the voters of his district had signed petitions asking that he be named for the place. His election is already conceded. Just what power he will be able to wield in that body is a question which is being discussed and the answer awaited with interest both by his followers and by Tammany.

New Mexico in Education.

Commendatory references to the progress of education in New Mexico are contained in the current report of the United States Bureau of Education. Particularly in the matter of educational legislation the work of New Mexico has attracted the interest of Bureau officials. After showing that "because of geographical conditions, educational progress is attended with unusual difficulties," the report declares that the financial provision made by the state in the form of a current school fund, is "more generous than any other State in the Union has seen fit to allow."

New Mexico's county high-school plan, with its prescribed course of manual training, domestic science, agriculture, and commercial branches, comes in for special praise. The establishment of a State directorship of industrial education is also considered an important item in educational progress, in view of the widespread movement for adequate vocational training.

Likewise in the highly important matter of improving rural schools New Mexico has taken promising steps toward equalizing educational conditions in city and country. In Bernalillo county and elsewhere considerable progress has been made in replacing inadequate rural school buildings by new structures more in keeping with present-day rural demands.

Citizens of New Mexico interested in the advancement of their schools may be interested to know that the various publications on rural schools, industrial training, and other phases of education issued by the government are for free distribution. A request to the Commissioner of Education, Washington, D. C., will bring a list of available publications from which to select.

The Youth's Companion in 1914.

Seven college presidents and a number of college instructors, including ex-President Taft, will contribute to The Youth's Companion during 1914.

Then there is Gene Stratton Porter, whose stories of Indiana woods and swamps have made her famous, and Kate Douglas Wiggin, who never wrote a dull line in her life, and Mrs. Burton Harrison, who remembers when conversation was really an art as practiced in Washington and in the manor houses of Virginia.
And this is just a beginning of the list.

If you know The Companion, you have a pretty clear idea of what is in store for next year's readers. If you do not know, ask us to send you sample copies—for instance, those containing the opening chapters of Arthur Stan-wood Pier's fine serial,—"His Father's Son." Full announcement for 1914 will be sent with the sample copies.

For the year's subscription of

A COLUMN FOR THE KITCHEN

Corn Muffins.

Sift together one and two-thirds cupfuls of flour, one cupful of cornmeal, two scant teaspoonfuls of baking powder. Beat to a cream two tablespoonfuls of butter, with three of sugar, and add to them three well beaten eggs.
Mix to a batter with a pint of milk. Beat hard for a few minutes and put into well-greased muffin tins.

Stuffed Onions.

Place eight large Bermuda onions, peeled and washed, in a baking dish. Cover with boiling water slightly salted. Bake them half an hour or till a wire will pierce them, then turn off the water, then with a sharp thinbladed knife take out the heart without breaking the outer walls, fill the cavity with minced cold chicken and fine bread crumbs seasoned with melted butter.
Sprinkle crumbs, buttered, over the dish until it almost touches the top of the onions. Cover them and bake half an hour.

Potato Sandwich.

In puzzling over a new way of cooking Irish potatoes, I discovered potato sandwich, which makes an attractive and delicious luncheon dish, writes a contributor to Good Housekeeping. Select smooth oval potatoes and boil with their skins on until nearly tender. Then peel and slice the long way in one-quarter-inch slices. Dust generously with salt and paprika and put a thin slice of cheese between each two slices of potato. Lay the sandwiches on a flat buttered pan, brush with melted butter and put in a hot oven to brown and melt the cheese. Garnish with parsley and serve hot. A slice of crisply fried breakfast bacon added to the cheese makes a nice variation.
New potatoes can be used, as they are always more waxy than mealy.

Chocolate Eggnog.

For a chocolate eggnog use a tablespoonful of grated chocolate, a tablespoonful of sugar and a large new egg to every half-pint of rich chilled milk. Melt the chocolate and sugar together to a paste, then add the egg yolk and stir the mixture into the milk, beating well so that the egg will not separate from it. When ready to serve add a big spoonful of whipped cream or ice cream to each glass. If preferred, the whipped cream may, for variety's sake, be partly frozen. This forms a very rich beverage, almost a meal in itself.

When a coffee eggnog is properly made it is delicious. It may be prepared like the chocolate drink, using in place of the chocolate enough strong coffee to give it a fine flavor. The same proportions may be used with other flavors.

FOR A COLD.

Take a teaspoonful of La Sanadora in warm water sweetened with sugar at bed time and rub La Sanadora wherever there is pain.

La Sanadora is sold by all druggists and general stores.

THE CORPORATION DIFFERENT

Every once in a while we run across a business man of strength and capability who is under a misapprehension regarding our company.

Because of a lack of knowledge he classes us with those who pay big dividends on watered stock.

He thinks our rates are too high because he doesn't know that we have no bonds, no preferred stock, and no water in the common stock.

A little straight talk, with figures back of it, is enough to set such a man right.

We have facts and figures to prove that we pay out in dividends a reasonable return, (7 per cent.), on the actual money invested in telephone plant.

Perhaps you are one of those who didn't know this.

You want to be fair, don't you?

You want to do everybody justice, don't you?

Well then, let us prove to you what we've proved to others.

Write us if you are in doubt.

Write us if you have any idea we are not "on the square."

We can prove ours to be the "corporation different."

SMILES

"Does your husband make a fuss over his new auto?"
"Yes, and under it too."

She—Am I the only girl you ever loved?

He—Darling, every splendid result such as my love for you, must have some practice.

"Para, is there really honor among thieves?"

"No," the father replied, "No, my son; thieves are just as bad as other people."

"Poverty may be a blessing in disguise."

"No doubt," replied Miss Cayenne, "but it is such a small blessing and such a big disguise."— Washington Star.

Tommy—Why do you always kiss mamma when you leave the house?

Papa—Oh, that's just a pretty habit I have.

Tommy—Isn't that strange?
The milkman has the same habit.

"Let us go into this department store until the shower is over."

"I prefer this harness shop," said her husband, "You won't see so many things you want."— Courier Journal.

"I want to find my daughter," said a man to the head waiter of the dining room of a large New York hotel. "I understand she is here."

"Yes, sir," answered the waiter. "Eighth hat to the left."

The Suffragette—And are you not in favor of equal rights for women?

Her Friend—I hardly think so.

The Suffragette—And why not?

Her Friend—Well, if women voted and had equal rights; they'd put women on all the beats as cops, and our husbands would never come home at nights at all.

The New Girl.

You've a very narrow skirt,
Little girl.

Are you sure it doesn't hurt,
Little girl.

That's a mincing little stride
Where the street is wild and wide

Are you sure there's room inside,
Little girl?

What will happen if you slip,
Little girl?

Aren't you fearful it will rip,
Little girl?

You better take a sack,
So if anything should crack,
It would serve you coming back,
Little girl.

Does your mama know you're out,
Little girl?

We're afraid to go about,
Little girl?

If we met you in the sun
With your skirt so thinly spun,
Why, we might all have to run,
Little girl.

Let the bottom out a bit,
Little girl.

It is much too tight a fit,
Little girl.

As the matter sadly stands,
You'll be walking on your hands,
And in that event—my lands!
Little girl.

—Smart Set.

Seen in the Cemetery.

The Pike County (Mo.) Post man is some observer—he sees things. He tells of a recent saunter through the cemetery—and this is what he says he saw:

Take a walk through the cemetery alone and you will pass the resting place of the man who blew into the muzzle of a gun to see if it was loaded.

A little further down the slope is a crank who tried to show how close he could stand to a moving train while it passed.

In strolling about you see the monument of the hired girl who tried to start the fire with kerosene, and a grass covered knoll that covers the boy who put a cob under the mule's tail.

The tall shaft over a man who blew out the gas, casts a shadow over the boy who tried to get on a moving train.

Side by side the pretty creature who always had her corset laced to the last hole and the intelligent idiot who rode a bicycle nine miles in ten minutes, sleep unmolested.

At repose is a doctor who took a dose of his own medicine.

There with a top of a shoe box driven over his head, is a rich old man who married a young wife.

Away over there reposes a boy who went fishing on Sunday, and the woman who kept strychnine powders in the cupboard.

The man who stood in front of the mowing machine to oil the sickle is quiet now and rests besides the careless brakeman who fed himself to the seventy-ton engine—and nearby may be seen the grave of the man who tried to whip the editor.

Judging by the way the chicken disappeared, one was led to believe that most of those present were Methodist preachers or at least aspirants for such position. There was a large crowd in attendance, everyone of whom was plentifully served with the good things provided by the ladies. The music of the Sunday school orchestra proved an interesting feature.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Catron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good. I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without its tiring me, and am doing my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of wonderful success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.
