UNM News Minute #584 – May 28, 2009

1. BRENDA J. CLAIBORNE, dean, College of Arts & Sciences, has announced the appointments of Professors Linda Hall, history; Zachary Sharp, Earth & Planetary Sciences, and Margaret Werner-Washburne, biology; as the college's Regents Professors for 2009-2012. <http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/004008.html#more>
2. SANTA FE ATTORNEY J.E. "Gene" Gallegos and undergraduate Emily "Cate" Wisdom have joined the UNM Board of Regents, following the recent resignation of John "Mel" Eaves and the graduation of former student regent Dahlia Dorman. <http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/004012.html>
3. SYLVIA RODRIGUEZ ANDREW has been named director of the University of New Mexico-Gallup campus, announced UNM Vice President Marc Nigliazzo. She assumes the role effective August 1. <http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/004005.html#more>
4. UNM DANCE AND THEATRE alumna Gabi Rojas will appear on "So You Think You Can Dance?" airing on Fox Thursdays at 7 p.m. Visit <http://unmlive.unm.edu/?p=932> to see her audition video.
5. FEDERAL STANDARDS for maintaining, collecting and presenting data on race and ethnicity have changed. Data collection using new codes begins in August 2009 for students; and in November 2009 for faculty and staff, which means that everywhere UNM collects, stores and uses race and ethnicity data must be brought into compliance with the new federal standards. <http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/004007.html#more>
6. MOST DEVELOPMENTAL DELAYS can be corrected if identified early. Yet 70 percent of children with delays or behavioral issues are not diagnosed until they start kindergarten. Envision New Mexico, in partnership with The University of New Mexico Center for Development and Disability, is empowering parents with the tools and information they need to work with their children's healthcare provider, track each child's development, and identify any delays. <http://hscapp.unm.edu/calendar/output/index.cfm?fuseaction=main.release&EntryID=7798>
7. THE SUMMER 2009 edition of Update, the Student Affairs newsletter, details spring accomplishments and sets sights on upcoming programs. Check it out at: <http://www.unm.edu/~ovpsa/Finalcolorsummer09.pdf>
8. THE STUDENT VETERANS of the University of New Mexico host "Laughs for Veterans," a comedy show and charity fundraiser, Monday, June 1 at 7 p.m. at the Sandia Resort and Casino. The event benefits the Student Veterans of UNM and the New Mexico Veterans Integration Centers and is made possible with donations by local businesses and the Seminole Tribe of Florida.
