

University of New Mexico

UNM Digital Repository

---

Theory and Practice Seminars 2001-2009

MPH

---

10-23-2008

MPH Theory & Practice Seminar Community Assessment Project Presentation Rubric

Jonathan Eldredge

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalrepository.unm.edu/hsc\_inst\_coph\_mph\_tps

---

UNM MPH Program
Theory & Practice Seminar I. Fall 2008
 October 23, 2008

Community Assessment Project Presentation Rubric

Names of Presenters: _____

Expectations (see legend below)	1	2	3	4	5		N/A
Introduces community assessment succinctly (background)
Provides a coherent overview of the presentation
States hypotheses to be considered
Focuses primarily upon the public health aspects of topic
Speaker captures audience attention without drama
Speaks directly with appropriate posture
Makes regular eye contact with audience; speaks audibly
Paces presentation so audience can understand it
Applies skills and knowledge acquired in seminar to topic
Makes coherent and reasoned statements
Conciseness: includes only necessary details/references
Sparingly cites relevant and authoritative resources
Accuracy: references any mentioned resources accurately
Provides key information such as data, tables or figures in slides or handouts
Summarizes key information that addresses the pending hypotheses/questions directly
Optional: Any anecdote is highly relevant, limited to 1 minute
Optional PowerPoint both supplements and reinforces talk
Optional PowerPoint has limited text; includes graphics
Optional PowerPoint has only relevant information;
Presenters finish within 15 minutes
Responds to any questions with a professional demeanor
Other:

Legend:

1 = not done; 2 = below expectations; 3 = meets expectations; 4 = above expectations; 5 = exceeds expectations

Constructive Suggestions for Improvement (Please use reverse side, as needed)

Name of Student Evaluator: _____