UNM News Minute #587 – June 8, 2009

EMPLOYEES INTERESTED in exploring the option of a Voluntary Furlough or Temporary Reduction in Appointment Percentage can review program guidelines and application forms on the UNM Budget Impact website at, <http://www.unm.edu/budgetimpact/>. Participation in the program is completely voluntary. Requests may be submitted now for the July 1, 2009 to June 30, 2010 fiscal year.

PRESIDENT DAVID J. SCHMIDLY recently approved proposed policy 1100 "Development and Approval of Institutional Policy" effective June 5, 2009. In addition, he approved revisions to Policy 3440 "Family and Medical Leave" and Policy 7710 "Property Management and Control." These policies can be viewed at <http://www.unm.edu/~ubppm/>.

STEVEN ADELSHEIM, a professor of Psychiatry with UNM's School of Medicine, is one of 41 doctors nationwide recently honored as "Exemplary Psychiatrists" by the National Alliance on Mental Illness at the 2009 annual conference of the American Psychiatric Association. Adelsheim was honored for his commitment to excellent care, his efforts at reducing stigma surrounding mental illness and his consistent close work with NAMI members in the community. <http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/004021.html#more>

FEDERAL STANDARDS for maintaining, collecting and presenting data on race and ethnicity have changed. Data collection using new codes begins in August 2009 for students; and in November 2009 for faculty and staff, which means that everywhere UNM collects, stores and uses race and ethnicity data must be brought into compliance with the new federal standards. <http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/004007.html#more>

MINDFULNESS MEDITATION is one way to help reduce the stresses of activities of daily living, including work, family, moods and eating habits. The UNM Center for Life is offering, Mindful Eating and Living (MEAL), a useful program for gaining a new perspective on eating, weight loss and improving other aspects of mood and life. The next MEAL class begins Tuesday, June 9, from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. The six-week course begins June 9 and continues through July 21, 2009. <http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/004017.html#more>
