	Subject	Notes	Follow-Up
1	Gerald May Award	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The R&R committee members received the results of the nominations and came up with the top 4 people who scored the highest numbers and who also happen to be in similar grade levels. The committee decided to vote on the top 3 of the top 4 people with the highest scores by a paper ballot. These names will be forwarded to the Executive Committee and then on to the president's office for final decision. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> The committee will submit the top 3 and forward 2 alternates on to the Executive Committee who will then forward their choices to the President for final determination of the winners. Please attend the Gerald May award ceremony on December 8 from 3-4:30 p.m.
2	PAWS Award	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> It was discussed that the R&R Committee should invite the PAWS winners to the December 8 ceremony and have them announced as the PAWS winners to date. Kathy McKinstry will be meeting with the most recent PAWS winner and give her award on November 9. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none">
3	Staff Picnic	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> It was discussed that we don't necessarily need a new venue for the picnic but that we should keep this open for discussion as a possibility. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Keep thinking about new ideas to keep discussion going.
