Dr. Bob Wood received a barrel of fine Jonathan apples shipped from the Missouri Fruit Experiment Station at Mount Vernon, Missouri, by his brother-in-law, C. B. Baker.

The citizens of the valley had G. B. Benefield to order cabbages from his father-in-law, Mr. Walker, in the fall, to be made and when the cabbage arrived at Greenville there were twenty-two hundred pounds.

Tallying no Charges
A fraction of the few remaining citizens of Greenville were on the voting rolls and had not been seen during the past week.

Mr. Paul Murphy, the new owner of the Greenville Drug Store, has decided to erect a new building at the front of the city to accommodate his large stock of merchandise.

The citizens of the valley have been given notice by Mr. Benefield to order cabbages from his father-in-law, Mr. Walker, to be made and when the cabbage arrived at Greenville there were twenty-two hundred pounds.

sional Man

Scientists are predicting that the expensive woman of the future is to be taller than the woman of today, plump and well-rounded, but not fat and her complexion will be red or brown. But the scientific writers are keeping silent about the expenses of man of the future. Why? In his to the comprehension of woman's future greatness is to be paid for the eradicable birds of creation; is the law of reproduction to be observed by taking from man to give to woman? In our minds' eye we can picture the future woman as slender, squadron-headed, pop-eyed bewhiskered, children, patient and limber, creature, running about behind his back, being a real woman, a person behind a chorus beauty from Warner Brothers. Occasionally he will be allowed to exercise his manhood by acting as a truck driver and casting home about a ton and a half of dress goods, hats and shoes from the bargain counters. But ordinariness will just let him stand around, waiting her errors. As his superior expert partner his life's work will contract until he becomes a mere robot, an servant of the body politic, a wart on the mole. But ordinariness will not a rap! He's been paying bills for women ever since settling Eva's first apple account. With a little coaxing for one last trip hill Bills for Women in any old picture, put the up to an end and out and for her.

Death of W. H. Godlove

Mr. W. H. Godlove, one of the pioneer residents, recently of his home seven miles north of Amulst, i.e. Saturday, September 11, 1915, at the age of 59 years, 11 months and 11 days

Mr. Godlove was born at Tonum, Illinois, October 11th, 1854. On February 2, 1885, he married Miss Margaret Godlove, near Win, Missouri. He was a member of the Baptist church, and a member of the Masonic Order since that time. Mr. Godlove was a traveling salesman for a number of years but living in poor health he came in off the road and has been under medical treatment for several weeks, but no better. He is expected to recover in a short time. Heart trouble was the immediate cause of his death. He leaves a wife and five children, L. E. Godlove of Beaverton, Mich., Will F. Godlove of Homestead, Oklahoma, Karl Godlove of Amulst, Mrs. Maude Magny of Hayd- den and Mrs. Dave Our Godlove of Amulst.

Rev. J. E. Taylor of the Baptist church conducted the funeral services Saturday morning. Mr. Godlove arrived from Oklahoma late Saturday night and was made in the Hayden cemetery. The Mountaineer-Telegram said Mr. Godlove was well known in Clayton as he had owned property in this territory for a number of years. The family have the sympathy of their many friends in Clayton.

Pennington Resum

It was pretty cold enough the first of the week for Mr. Jack Frost, but the north winds blew him over. Everyone is so busy threshing hay and pulling bison corn that they don't have any time to think. Cows are certainly fine in this locality. Cows and men are about ready to be gathered. Dick Hickman and wife of Ten- nessee are visiting their brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Copill, Sunday school teachers. There are to be in the future some. Everybody runs out and sees what is going on.
