Certificate of Apportionment of School Funds

For The County of Lincoln, New Mexico.

I, Jno. A. Haley, Superintendent of Schools for said County, do hereby certify that I have duly apportioned the school fund of said county on this 19th day of April, 1909. The amount of money in the general fund subject to such apportionment is Eighty-two and 35-100 ($82.35) dollars. The total number of persons of school age is 2111. The rate per scholar is 3c. An apportionment is also made of territorial funds, derived from rental of school lands which amounts to Two hundred sixty-eight and 65-100 ($268.65) Dollars, the rate per scholar on said apportionment being 12c; and such apportionments, including precinct fines, liquor licenses and poll taxes appear in the following list opposite the several districts:

JNO. A. HALLEY,
Supt. of Schools,

A letter was received this week from Postmaster W. M. Reilly, who, two weeks ago, went to Louisiana to visit his father, who was dangerously ill, stating that he found his father very low, but slowly improving, and no immediate danger of his illness terminating fatally. If the improvement continues, he intends to stay for Carrizozo in a few weeks; otherwise, he will remain in Louisiana until a change for the better in the condition of his father takes place.

It does one good to take a walk through the main thoroughfares and suburbs of Carrizozo in the early morning hours, and see the number of young trees that have been planted out this spring. Those that have been carefully tended, are already in leaf, while most of the others are commencing to bud. Few things add more beauty to a town, street or residence as does trees. Carrizozo will present a different appearance this summer to what it did a year or two ago.

Robt. Bourne is temporarily laid up with an injured foot. While at work in the American Mine, on which he and others have a lease, a heavy timber fell from above catching him on the heel. He is now able to limp around, but it will be several weeks yet before his left foot will be as strong as his right.

H. S. Campbell, L. O. Wetmore, and other stockholders of the Cliff Coal Mining Company, situated about seven miles south of this town, went out to look over the property yesterday, with a view to arrange for working the mines on a large scale. During the past year a considerable portion of the coal used in this town was shipped in. There should be no need to ship coal to Carrizozo, with countless thousands of tons of the article right at our doors. These mines properly handled, should do a large export business, as the coal is of a superior kind.

Reports from Lincoln, state that the fruit crop in the eastern end of the county promises to be a record-breaker. The peach crop, that was generally thought to have been blighted early in the year, will be almost a full one. The season has been favorable to the farmers also; alfalfa is ten inches high, grass is springing up, live stock putting on flesh, and everything points to a prosperous year all around. A drive down the Hondo is recommended as a remedy for sore eyes—everything looks so green.

The base ball boys donned their new uniforms last Saturday afternoon, and repaired to the diamond for a little practice game. The bunch certainly looked lively enough to tackle a League team. They propose to open the season next Sunday by going down to Alamogordo and having a joust with the Alamo boys. On the 1st and 2nd of May they will engage the White Sox at El Paso, after which they will be prepared to meet all comers.

Judge William Burns, of El Paso, was in town Thursday. He was on his way to White Oaks to look over some mining property belonging to El Paso parties, for the purpose of having it patented. There are a large number of good mining properties in the White Oaks district for which patents will be applied for this year.

The district has produced a large amount of gold in the past, and there are just as good opportunities there today for the man with money. Some of the old mines, including the Wild Cat Mining Company's properties, are being profitably worked with a small force, and it is among the probabilities that in the near future this district will again come to the front as one of the largest producers of the yellow metal in the territory. Then the old town of White Oaks will be White again.

A wedding, a little out of the usual, took place at Socorro last week. The bride, a sweet young thing of 81 summers, relinquished her heart and hand to the keeping of a young duck named John Flavell, aged 79. The bride was given away by her great grand daughter, Miss Loreno O'Gara. Four generations of the family were present to witness the ceremony. The happy couple will "settle down" at Socorro, and make a fresh start. It's never too late to mend, and some of the members of the Bachelor's Club of Carrizozo should take courage from the above, and go and do like wise.

The Vera Cruz gold mine, about seven miles east, is running a small force, and is reported, after many failures, to be extracting the yellow metal in quantities exceeding the expectations of those concerned. This is said to be due mainly to the new process employed—cyanide tanks. The gold, which is fine and of the leaf variety, occurs in seams in the talc and decomposed rock, and under the old process partly escaped in the tailings and slime. But the cyanide and zinc shavings is said to save 95 per cent of the values, which accounts for the company's success. Not first finding out by analysis the process best adapted for extracting the values from the ore, has been accountable for a large number of companies going to the wall in this county, when the ore was there in quantity and quality.

W. F. A. Gierke, will leave tonight on a trip to Albuquerque, from whence he will go to Santa Fe to be present at the first reunion of the Thirty-second Degree Scottish Rights Masons of the Territory, which will be held there on the 26th, 27th and 28th.

Twin Troubles.

The other woman's burden always looks lighter than her own to Mrs. Trouble-in-Hand and to Mrs. Ditto. They occupy different social positions, but their woes are similar. Mrs. Trouble has one maid, and can never "entertain" or give her husband his favorite pie, because "one pair of hands can't do everything." Mrs. Ditto has six servants, and declares herself distracted by their quarrels and wastefulness, and ashamed to invite a guest to one of her helter-skelter meals. Mrs. Trouble thinks herself a martyr because she must stay at home. Mrs. Ditto fretfully complains that her husband's health compels her to travel. Mrs. Ditto finds her church work far too heavy for her strength, and Mrs. Trouble is sure that her minister looks down on her, because he never asks her to do anything. Finally, even in the shadow of death, Mrs. Trouble has no time to indulge her grief, and Mrs. Ditto has no other interests to distract her mind from hers. So, says the Youth's Companion, if we observe this queer, varied world in which we live, we learn to appreciate Milton's profound truth:

The mind is its own place, and in itself

Can make a heaven of hell, a hell of heaven.

Perhaps we can go a step further, and wonder if we are not pretty well off, after all.

Dr. James B. Angell, president of the University of Michigan, may regard himself as a standing refutation of Oslerism. President Angell, who has held his present position for 38 years, subject only to such absences as have been necessary by temporary assumption of other duties, is still a very active man, though he is 80 years old. He celebrated his birthday by attending and taking part in the annual convention of the Association of American Universities at Ithaca, where he was the guest of Hon. Andrew D. White, another splendid veteran. Dr. Angell says of himself that he was never in better shape physically and is feeling in tip-top condition, and he has every appearance of ruddy health. To-day he leaves for the west and in a few days will be back at his desk ready for energetic work. Constant usefulness and a high order of living seem to be the best recipes for health and longevity.

The young king of Portugal has been warned of a deep-laid plot to depose him, which, after the terrible circumstances of his accession, he can take as no idle threat. Scarcely more than a boy, he is beginning soon to realize how uneasy lies the head that wears a crown.

"Why not make your own music?" asks the Washington Times. Because our neighbors prefer us to have our music made by some one who knows how. Silly question, that.

A rich young woman, impressed with the manly proportions of some statuary, hunted up the masculine model and married him. There is good reason to believe that hereafter the supply of men eager to pose will exceed the demand.

Medical science is interested in a girl in Philadelphia who has been sobbing for nearly a week. But from all accounts, there has been enough doing in that city to occupy a conscientious mourner even longer.

THE COST OF LIVING

IT HAS BEEN GREATLY INCREASED IN LAST DECADE.

Amount Spent Per Capita for Necessities of Life in United States is Greater Than It Was in 1891.

Washington.—The stress of high prices for the necessities of life is felt by every one, but there are few who realize in just what particulars it is most readily recognizable. Skilled housewives themselves, with whom the true domestic economy is as a second nature, rarely stop to consider in detail where the difference in the cost of household supplies of various sorts resides. The fact is that nearly everything that goes to make up the sum of material comfort for the common people, with the possible exception of clothing, costs a good deal more than it did two years ago, five years ago and even as far back as the closing days of the civil war, when money inflation prevailed.

To what is this enhancement of the cost of living due? Professional economists have exhausted their reasoning on the subject; but few persons appear to be convinced that any of their various conclusions is true in a general sense. Is the whole world still paying for the vast consumption of the products of labor in the wars of the far east, a consumption that was absolute waste, or is the whole world, under compulsion, giving inordinate surplus profit to the combined capitalists whose transparent masks are the monster trusts?

Well, the answer to that question, whatever it might be, would not alone make the family pot boil. It is a condition and not a theory that the brawny or the strong-minded breadwinner and the gentle or the shrewish fire-side economist is facing. It is well to take account of the condition as it is.

Forty-five years ago, when the whole mechanism of supply and demand in this country had been warped, distorted and thrown out of normal gear by the kind of senseless thing that Sherman denounced as hell itself—namely, the struggle of many thousands of armed men to kill many other thousands of armed men, to desolate their homes, bereave their wives, children, sweethearts, mothers, sisters, fathers and brothers—the cost of keeping soul and body together for those in civil occupations had more than doubled, as compared with the ante-bellum period of the 40's and 50's.

A chart has been published by the department of commerce and labor which shows by dotted lines, much after the manner in which geographers indicate the channels on maps and charts, the range of wholesale and retail prices between the years 1890 and 1907. A study of this chart discloses the fact that the increase in retail prices in recent years has been greater than that of wholesale prices. That is, in years when the wholesale price has dropped and remained at a low stage for a period of two or three years the retail prices have not been proportionate.

This government chart shows that in 1891 the retail prices of food were higher than in 1890. Both wholesale and retail prices were lower in 1892 than in the preceding year. But in 1897 both began to start upward and kept on, until to-day they are far higher than they have been for 20 years or more.

This government chart shows that in 1891 the retail prices of food were higher than in 1890. Both wholesale and retail prices were lower in 1892 than in the preceding year. But in 1897 both began to start upward and kept on, until to-day they are far higher than in 1897, far higher indeed than they have been for 20 years or more.

Many causes have been suggested for the great increase of the cost of living. One argument is that the price of foodstuffs has risen of late because the management and the productiveness of the farms have not kept pace with the tide which has swept into the big cities from the rural districts.

TO SAVE SOULS BY MAIL.

This Oklahoma Clergyman Would Make Missionary of Postman.

Kansas City, Mo.—Mail order gospel—Christianity carried broadcast by a two-cent stamp. Sounds odd, compared with the methods of the late Sam Jones, Dwight L. Moody and other great evangelists who relied largely upon personal magnetism as a means of securing converts. Yet this idea has been adopted seriously by Rev. Ward R. Clarke, pastor of the Unitarian church of Oklahoma City, Okla.

"Yes, I am very much in earnest," said Rev. Mr. Clarke, "and I see no reason why my innovation should not, if faithfully followed, be the means of great good. A sermon is a sermon, no matter whether delivered orally or in writing, and, moreover, it is a fact that the average man or woman remembers more clearly what they read than what they hear."

"Our idea of religion is plain. We do not depend upon working up an audience to a high pitch of fervor. We prefer to convert by the exercise of reasoning power. In short, we try to produce argument in support of our belief—argument which can be considered free from exciting environment, free from the magnetic spell which so many public speakers cast over an audience."

"According to my plan I will mail a copy of my sermon to each member, and, of course, it is my hope to make the organization state wide. Perhaps some will read my sermons more than once—I hope so, at least—and it is further hoped that a system of filing the sermons will be inaugurated."

"Vanity," said Dr. Clarke, "is one of the most baneful things in the world, and my idea of sermons by mail certainly strikes a blow at vanity, because it at once does away with the all too common habit which the women have of going to church merely for a display of sartorial peacockery. There need be no bonnet carnival nor silk skirt exposition under the terms of my plan, for the church member, sitting in the quiet of his or her home, will simply read and assimilate my sermon, and if there be anything of good in it, there is every opportunity for it to take effect. Whether the woman be in Worth gown or plain gingham wrapper, it makes no difference so far as her grasping a written sermon is concerned, and the man in overalls has an equal chance with the man in broadcloth and silk tie."

Rev. Mr. Clarke has a secretary who is busily engaged these days in mailing prospectuses of his novel plan to men and women in every part of Oklahoma. His office is equipped with typewriters, desks, mimeographs and other paraphernalia such as are used by the ordinary business house.

This preacher is a native of Iowa, a Yale graduate, also a graduate of the divinity department of Harvard.

Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Columbus, Ohio.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound during change of life. My doctor told me it was good, and since taking it I feel so much better that I can do all my work again. I think Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fine remedy for all woman's troubles, and I never forget to tell my friends what it has done for me."

Another Woman Helped.

—Mrs. CHARLES BARCLAY, R.F.D., Graniteville, Vt.

Women who are passing through this critical period or who are suffering from any of those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of the fact that for thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills. In almost every community you will find women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

A NURSE'S EXPERIENCE.

Backache, Pains in the Kidneys, Bloating, Etc., Overcome.

A nurse is expected to know what to do for common ailments, and women who suffer backache, constant languor, and other common symptoms of kidney complaint, should be grateful to Mrs. Minnie Turner, of E. B. St., Anadarko, Okla., for pointing out the way to find quick relief.

Mrs. Turner used Doan's Kidney Pills for a run-down condition, backache, pains in the sides and kidneys, bloated limbs, etc. "The way they have built me up is simply marvelous," says Mrs. Turner, who is a nurse. "My health improved rapidly. Five boxes did so much for me I am telling everybody about it."

BABY HORRIBLY BURNED

By Boiling Grease—Skin All Came Off One Side of Face and Head—Thought Her Disfigured for Life.

"My baby was sitting beside the fender and we were preparing the breakfast when the frying-pan full of boiling grease was upset and it went all over one side of her face and head. Some one wiped the scald with a towel, pulling the entire skin off. We took her to a doctor. He tended her a week and gave me some stuff to put on. But it all festered and I thought the baby was disfigured for life. I used about three boxes of Cuticura Ointment and it was wonderful how it healed. In about five weeks it was better and there wasn't a mark to tell where the scald had been. Her skin is just like velvet. Mrs. Hare, 1, Henry St., South Shields, Durham, England, March 29, 1908."

CURE

MERINGUE MUST BE RIGHT.

Directions for Making That Will Insure Successful Result.

First—Be sure the pudding or pie is cold before attempting to spread on a meringue. If you have store eggs, select those having dull, rough looking shells, as shiny shells are never fresh. The whites of two eggs will cover an ordinary pudding. Separate the white from the yolk by holding the small end down and breaking the egg through the middle. If a tiny bit of yolk falls into the white, remove with a piece of the shell. Beat stiff, then add one tablespoon of granulated sugar, a little at a time. Sprinkle over one-half teaspoon vanilla or lemon flavoring. The more you beat the better the meringue. Dip a teaspoon in cold water, then in the egg, and drop in little mounds on the pudding. If you have a coal stove, have the oven hot. Put in the pudding and leave the door part way open. If you use gas, heat up the broiler or the oven, set in the pudding, shut the door and turn out the gas. When it is a delicate brown, remove from the oven but leave it in the kitchen or in a warm room for one hour before setting it away. Meringue made this way never falls and is good the next day.

The Home.

By adding one tablespoonful of butter or a half-cup of cream to the batter pancakes can be baked without greasing the griddle.

Buy a coarse gray blanket if you do not have one and keep it to place on the floor when the baby is playing there. Put the toys on it and if it is necessary to quickly clean the room of toys pick up the blanket.

To remove ink from books, valuable papers and the like a solution of water and oxalic acid, citric, tartaric or any acid can be applied to the blemish and, while often the process must be repeated, it will finally remove the blemish.

The soiled linen will take much less room in the clothes hamper if the sheets, pillow cases, the table cloths and the napkins are folded before being put into it. It takes but a moment to do this. A small hamper does the work of a larger one if the plan is followed.

To make a lasting mop for the floor and give the small girls something to do, save all cord from parcels, winding into a ball and crocheting a strip about nine inches wide and about twenty-seven inches long. It fits through patent handles nicely and makes an inexpensive article.

A New Turnip Dish.

A nice way in which to combine meat and turnips is the following: Select small white turnips, pare them smoothly and cook them until nearly done in slightly salted boiling water. Take them out of the water, hollow out the centers, leaving a cup-shaped receptacle, dust lightly with seasoning, and fill them with chopped cooked meat of any kind mixed with just enough rich gravy to make slightly moist. Brush over the turnips with soft butter and dust them with fine crumbs, put them in a baking dish with two tablespoonfuls of butter, and bake them in a good oven until perfectly tender. Place them on a heated dish, and put a little of the melted butter in the pan of each. They should be baked two or three times with the butter while cooking.—The House-keeper.

Deimonico Mashed Potatoes.

Pare uncooked potatoes; cut them into very small dice; throw them into cold water and soak for 30 minutes. Drain, put them in a baking dish, cover with milk, dust with salt and pepper, add one tablespoonful of butter cut in bits, and bake in a moderate oven for 45 minutes. Serve with roasted beef or broiled steak.

Truthful Bessie.

There had been a lovers' quarrel and it was his first visit in two weeks. "I guess you know there was a difference between your sister and myself?" he ventured, trying to pump the little sister.

"Yes, indeed," responded the latter without hesitation.

"Well—er—do you think Clara will make up when she comes down?"

Little Bessie leaned over nearer and whispered:

"She ought to, Mr. Bilkins. She is upstairs making up now."

NEW PUBLICATION LAW.

The late legislature will be remembered not only for the foolish and ridiculous laws which it enacted but for its vicious acts as well. Among the latter is one that is known as the "Publication Law," which is double distilled viciousness, in that it attempts to build up a daily at the expense of a weekly newspaper, and may necessitate the publication of certain notices in as many as three papers at the same time. Besides using a daily, and, at times, a weekly, published in the English language, if there is a Spanish paper published in the county the notice must also appear in it; so that the individual, corporation or municipality must pay for the same notice three times. Now that has a little smell to it.

The law was evidently drawn at the behest of a few newspaper publishers who were very near the drippings of the sanctified (?) throne occupied by the majority in that body, and was extended in part payment of services rendered by said publishers whose support made possible the selection of such a mass of asininity. It is as vicious a piece of legislation as ever disgraced the statutes of New Mexico, and that is saying a great deal. It is clearly unconstitutional, as it favors a few to the detriment of many.

Eliminating the extra and outrageous feature of the cost, why should the little county weekly, which labors incessantly for the upbuilding of its community, be the target for the venomous shafts of that delectable crew at Santa Fe that made legislation a farce and New Mexico a by word? And why should the dailies, which are interesting because of the foreign news they contain, be given a monopoly in legal publications? We recognize the necessity of the daily, and appreciate them at their full worth, but insist that the weekly fulfills a higher mission, for it deals with affairs of a local nature, is first of all a home paper, and is an index of what the community is where it is published.

The city councils of Roswell and Albuquerque have passed resolutions condemning the law, as also has the Chaves County Bar Association, and memorialized congress to annul the act. If congress does annul the act it will not be the first vicious act it has squelched on behalf of the people of this territory, for which the peanut politicians of New Mexico are responsible, and which adds another clod to to the mound where Statehood Bill reposes.

Eleven years ago the total levy for all territorial purposes was a little less than 7 mills on the dollar. The territorial auditor has just issued an order to all boards of county commissioners directing them to make a levy of 14 and 45-100 mills on the dollar for territorial purposes for the current year. This is conclusive proof that government by and for the gang comes high—a little over one hundred per cent increase in a decade. Counties may conduct their own affairs as economically as they may, and yet the people will be taxed to death to meet this outrageous territorial levy.

EDITORIAL COMMENTS.

That little publication act, passed by the last legislature for the benefit of three territorial dailies, is a full grown peach.

The senate has confirmed the nomination of Ira Abbott, of Albuquerque, as associate justice of the supreme court of New Mexico.

Senator Tillman, of South Carolina, visited the White House the other day. This is of little moment in itself, but it was the first time in seven years that the senator had put his foot over the White House sill. When asked why he had not visited the White House in the past, the senator replied: "I waited until a gentleman got here."

By the time Nelson A. Aldrich gets through with the Payne tariff bill, in the senate, the most rabid protectionist will have little cause to complain at its provisions. The policy of the senate, of which Aldrich is chief, seems to cut out all articles from the free list and raise the duties on a majority. A bill of this character, it is true, will not be in accord with the promises of the republican platform, but who was silly enough to expect it.

The price of food stuffs is higher than in ten years, and is still soaring, notwithstanding the "strenuous" work of the tariff tinkers. The duty on hides has been reduced, but the price of shoe leather remains the same. The duty on tobacco leaf has also been reduced, but a package of the weed costs just the same as before. If the duty on certain articles, commonly used, is reduced, the consumer is benefited very little, if any; but if the duty be increased the consumer pays the increased duty, while the manufacturer loses nothing. The price of bread goes up, but the flour-manufacturer is not affected. He gets his price for his product. It's the same all the way through. As Dooly remarked to Hindissey: "Them that the tariff takes care of will take care of the tariff." And we believe Dooly is not far wrong.

The ancient town of Santa Fe has gone "dry," or, to be accurate, will after Dec. 31 of this year. Who would have ever thought the sombre old burg would have been struck by the prohibition wave? To hear of El Paso going "dry" would scarcely surprise an old-timer more, as Santa Fe, in the past, was to New Mexico what El Paso is to Texas—a rendezvous for those who got their money easily, and where fortunes have been squandered in drinking and gambling in a gleaming A.

BONITO FRUIT CROP SAFE.

We are in receipt of a communication this week from a friend at Angus, which conveys the welcome news that the prospects for a fine fruit crop are very flattering at this time. The communication appears as follows:

Angus, N. M., April 19, 1909.
Friend Haley:—As I look at it all the Persian narrow leaf peaches have gone glimmering. They bear only a few specimens any year; but our north China varieties bid fair to give us a full crop. The buds of the latter varieties seem to be as hardy as those of the apple.

The Japan plums usually bloom the middle of March, and never bear. This year they bloomed four weeks later, and we are banking on a full crop of Japs. Cherries are not in full bloom here yet. I notice that in Ohio the Jap plums do not bloom till after the cherries do, and they are fruitful there, while here the Jap plums are the first of all fruit to bloom.

It is quite likely that this will be our banner year for fruit.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Among the out-of-town visitors who attended the Masonic Lodge Saturday night, were:—H. H. Majors, A. J. Buck, John Bowman, and J. L. Lawson, of Alamogordo; E. F. Comrey and D. W. Glenn, of Ancho; Wayne Van-Schoyck and Jones Taliaferro, of White Oaks.

As the Capitan train was going into the town Monday, two or three cars quit the rails, smashing a number of ties and tearing up the track for about fifty feet. The train was moving slowly and was stopped before any of the passengers knew of the wreck. Freight and express were transferred and the wreck left for the section crew to clean up.

Last Saturday night the Carrizozo Lodge A. F. & A. M. conferred the "Entered Apprentice" degree on E. H. B. Chew of White Oaks. The goat was a magnificent specimen from the Taliaferro ranch, and Ed. handled the animal beautifully, it is said. A nice time was had after the meeting.

Ralph Van Valkenburg, mention of whose escape from the Lincoln jail in company with two other prisoners two weeks ago, has been recaptured. He and his companions went to Roswell, and made down the valley; Van-Valkenburg stopped to pilfer along the way and was caught. The other two are still going.

Scarlet fever, which caused a death in the Trainer family last week, has been successfully confined to the same family; another case, which is improving, still existing in that family. A strict quarantine has been maintained on the infected residence, watchmen having been stationed there night and day and only the proper authorities allowed to enter. These prompt measures prevented the spread of the disease, and there is little fear of it becoming epidemic.

With a "corner" on wheat in Chicago, and a "corner" on bread in Los Angeles, it begins to look blue for the common people.

Better Not Get Dyspepsia

If you can help it. Kodol prevents Dyspepsia, by effectually helping Nature to Relieve Indigestion. But don't trifle with Indigestion.

A great many people who have trifled with indigestion, have been sorry for it—when nervous or chronic dyspepsia resulted, and they have not been able to cure it. Use Kodol and prevent having Dyspepsia.

Everyone is subject to indigestion. Stomach derangement follows stomach abuse, just as naturally and just as surely as a sound and healthy stomach results upon the taking of Kodol.

When you experience sourness of stomach, belching of gas and nauseating fluid, bloated sensation, gnawing pain in the pit of the stomach, heart burn (so-called), diarrhoea, headaches, dullness or chronic tired feeling—you need Kodol. And then the quicker you take Kodol—the better. Eat what you want, let Kodol digest it.

Ordinary pepsin "dyspepsia tablets," physics, etc., are not likely to be of much benefit to you, in digestive ailments. Pepsin is only a partial digester—and physics are not digesters at all.

Kodol is a perfect digester. If you could see Kodol digesting every particle of food, of all kinds, in the glass test-tubes in our laboratories, you would know this just as well as we do.

Nature and Kodol will always cure a sick stomach—but in order to be cured, the stomach must rest. That is what Kodol does—rests the stomach, while the stomach gets well. Just as simple as A, B, C.

The local surveyors have been busy the last week, surveying land located by new comers.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Gschwind, were in Carrizozo Wednesday from Oscura.

Fred Gray, a Kansas stock dealer, was in this section this week, bargaining for cattle.

Mrs. W. M. Reilly and children returned yesterday from a week's visit to relatives at Capitan.

George Spence went out to his sheep camp Thursday to look over his flock.

Mrs. F. C. Nessel left yesterday for San Antonio, Texas, where she will visit for sometime with friends.

Fred Pfingsten, who has charge of the railroad company property on the Bonito, went to El Paso yesterday.

Attorney Geo. B. Barber, of Lincoln, spent several days here this week, attending to legal matters.

John O'Shea, formerly a passenger conductor on this end of the Southwestern, now has a freight run on the Sierra Madre.

Prof. C. L. Davis left Wednesday for the Mesilla valley, where he will locate, providing he finds conditions as he has pictured them in his mind's eye.

Engineer Fred Gilbert, of the east end, has taken a thirty-day lay-off, and left Wednesday for El Paso.

A. T. Stewart, for a number of years a resident of Jicarilla but now living at Ancho, was in Carrizozo yesterday.

The kid base ball team were to have played the White Oaks lads last Sunday, but the absence of the "star" pitcher of the former, caused a postponement.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. French and Miss French leave today for their ranch home near Ancho. They have spent the winter in Carrizozo.

Prof. H. S. Collins, principal of the school that closed here last week, has gone to Stanley, Santa Fe county, where he has a home-stand. He expects to return in a short time.

Mrs. W. R. Ellis, and children came in Sunday night from Carlsbad, and went over to Capitan Monday to visit parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Freidrich.

Miss Bennie McGill, who has been teaching in our public schools the past winter, left Wednesday evening for her home near Tucumcari. School closed in Carrizozo last Friday.

John Z. Kuhns, night foreman at the round house, is in El Paso this week attending a conclave of the Knights Templars of Texas. About 700 visiting Sir Knights were present.

Col. Sheppard, an old timer in Tularosa, died of heart disease last week in the Alamogordo hospital. The colonel was a brother of the celebrated "Boss" Sheppard, of Washington, D. C.

At the rate filings are being made on the Carrizozo flat, if they continue, soon there will be little of the public domain left. Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas are furnishing the greatest number of settlers.

John E. Griffith, of Socorro, who was for many years clerk of this district, was lately appointed a district attorney. Mr. Griffith will be remembered by many people in this county who had occasion to attend court at Lincoln, during his incumbency.

A social card party was given Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Dawson at their palatial home west of the Bank. A select number of young people were present, and an enjoyable evening spent. Chas. McMasters and Miss Nettie Lee won the prizes. A palatable repast was served at the close.

Hon. John Y. Hewitt, of White Oaks, made Carrizozo one of his rare visits Tuesday. Don't be shy, Judge, but come often; the people appreciate your work in the legislature, and will be glad to see you.

Mrs. W. H. McNew and children went to Alamogordo yesterday morning. They will reside in the cottonwood city in the future, and Mr. McNew will join them as soon as he can close out his stock interest in this county.

E. J. Shulda and wife returned this week from Tucumcari. Mr. Shulda ran an engine out of here until last fall, when he was transferred to Tucumcari, and now comes back on a transfer here, which will be his headquarters.

The Holzman Mercantile Co., of Corona, have just put in a lighting system in their establishment. W. J. Doering, of this place, furnished the lights. The town of Corona also sprung itself for a number of street lights, and it is now one of the best lighted little towns on the line.

The press dispatches state that President Taft will make a clean sweep of the New Mexico judiciary, with the exception of Judge Abbott, of Albuquerque, who has been reappointed. The dispatch further states that outside men will receive appointments.

TO VARY THE MENU

IDEAS HOUSEKEEPERS WILL FIND OF VALUE.

Hot Gingerbread with Whipped Cream Makes an Excellent Dessert—How to Serve Sauerkraut and its Accompaniment.

Have you ever tried hot gingerbread served as a dessert with plenty of whipped cream on top? If the gingerbread is spicy and has a few raisins added it is an improvement. Hot gingerbread is delicious for lunch, eaten with butter and maple sirup.

If you like stewed tomatoes over mashed potatoes, a more artistic way of serving your favorite combination is to put the potatoes in a baking dish, pour over tomatoes which have been previously stewed, cover with bread crumbs and brown in the oven.

The sauerkraut luncheon need not be dreaded if the kraut has an onion cooked with it. This seems to keep the odor from going through the house, probably on the homeopathic principle that one bad smell kills another.

Sauerkraut should have as accompaniments nothing but roast pork, mashed potatoes, thin bread and butter and a cup of weak tea. Never serve it with several courses. If there be a dessert, it should be something in keeping.

Baked apples and cream make a digestible dessert after sauerkraut. Too simple for company? The devotees of kraut don't care whether they eat a dessert at all, and guests who do not like the cabbage delicacy should never be invited to a sauerkraut feast.

Fruit cocktails may be served at breakfast, dinner and luncheon, as a first course at the first and last, and either as a first course or dessert at lunch.

The successful fruit cocktail must be icy cold; the fruit must be freed of all skin and pulp; it should have been sugared and allowed to stand in the ice box for several hours to draw a juice and assimilate the flavors, and soft fruit that blackens, like bananas, peaches or cubes of canteloupe, should not be added until just before serving.

Sweetbreads a la Supreme.

Put two sweetbreads into salt and water, bring them to a boil, and put them between two plates to flatten them; trim them and cut off all the gristle underneath, then cook them in some good stock (about half a pint), with some carrot and turnip cut small. Bring them to a boil, and simmer for 20 minutes; when done, drain and dish them up with the following sauce: Blend together 1½ ounces of butter and one ounce of flour; when cooked stir in a gill of good white stock and a pinch of mace, four drops of lemon juice, and a gill of cream; boil all well together, and add some white button mushrooms, already cooked in white sauce, and let all boil together for five to ten minutes.

Creamed Sweetbreads.

As soon as the sweetbreads are brought from the market put them in cold water. When ready to parboil free them from fat, cover with boiling water and let them simmer 20 minutes. Take from the fire, drain, throw into cold water and when cool enough to handle remove all the membrane and break into small pieces. Melt one tablespoonful of butter without browning; add one tablespoonful of flour, mix until smooth; add one cupful of cream and stir until it thickens. Add the sweetbreads and place over hot water until these are heated through, then season to taste with salt, pepper and one tablespoonful of chopped parsley.

ECZEMA PATIENT LOST HOPE

But Ordinary Oil of Wintergreen Quickly Cured This Woman.

After treating for Eczema with six different doctors, Mrs. J. A. Wheeler, of Wellington, Ohio, was completely cured by pure vegetable oil of wintergreen. This oil alone could not cure, but she used this oil as compounded with glycerine, etc., in D. D. D. Prescription.

"I feel it my duty to say what a wonderful cure D. D. D. Prescription has been for me," writes Mrs. Wheeler. "I was cured a year ago last fall, but did not dare write because I was not sure the cure would be permanent. I had doctored with six doctors and they all said it was seldom, if ever, a case like mine was cured. I think I used only four bottles of the prescription, and I am permanently cured. If I ever needed the D. D. D. Prescription again, I would be willing to pay $5.00 a bottle."

This remedy, and also D. D. D. Soap are sold and recommended by druggists everywhere, because they know the merits.

A Rural Telephone is an investment, not an expense. The telephone which enables you to sell ten bales of cotton at ½ cent per pound more than the traveling buyer offers you, has paid for its entire cost. If you have some hay down all ready to go in, it is worth

News From The Capital

Washington Will Miss the Fairbanks

WASHINGTON.—In the social life of the national capital Vice-President and Mrs. Fairbanks will be greatly missed when they leave Washington, which is expected to be soon, now that Mr. Fairbanks' term has expired.

The Fairbanks home has been a center for the dancers and diners ever since the tall Indian entered official life here. There is a popular notion that Fairbanks is cold and distant. Washingtonians often wonder how this report got such widespread circulation. Every day hundreds of visitors, most of them sightseers, drop in for a few minutes to see the office of the vice-president back of the senate chamber. The door is always open and Mr. Fairbanks is seldom too busy to greet his callers. As a host he has a reputation second to no other man in public life.

Mr. Fairbanks' plans for the future have not been announced. It is known among his intimate friends that he long has been collecting material for a history of the life and times of William McKinley. Doubtless the preparation of this work will consume much of his time in private life.

Next to Mark Hanna, Fairbanks was the counselor of the McKinley administration. He was temporary chairman of the first convention which nominated McKinley in 1896 and to him, therefore, fell the duty of making the "keynote" speech. McKinley advanced Senator Fairbanks in every possible way, and among other honors made him the American chairman of the joint high commission appointed in 1898 to consider commercial reciprocity and other important questions with the government of the Dominion of Canada. But for the opposition of stand pat interests in this country, this commission might have made an epoch-making record.

Storers to Return to Capital Society

MR. AND MRS. BELLAMY STORER are planning to return to Washington society. They are having their beautiful home on Rhode Island avenue renovated, where they will be ready to receive their friends soon. It is added that they will be persona grata with the new president despite the Roosevelt-Bellamy Storer incident. Since Mr. Bellamy Storer's recall from Austria, where he was ambassador before the quarrel with President Roosevelt, have been living in retirement in Cincinnati, because of their many friends here.

Mr. Roosevelt met Mr. and Mrs. Bellamy Storer when civil service commissioner here, and while Mr. Storer was a member of congress from Cincinnati. Mr. Roosevelt, as commissioner, and as assistant secretary of the navy, was frequently entertained at the Storer mansion and was befriended by them in many ways.

Dame Rumor Says Ethel Is Betrothed

MISS ETHEL ROOSEVELT, daughter of ex-President Roosevelt, who but recently made her debut, is about to become engaged to William Phillips, the young third assistant secretary of state, according to report. So definite is the information from Miss Roosevelt's friends concerning the state of her affections that guesses are now being made as to whether the ex-president's popular daughter will follow the dictates of her heart soon or will wait four years upon the chance of becoming a white house bride.

While no announcement has been made of the engagement, it is understood that there is a cordial understanding between the two young people and that Miss Roosevelt's age is the only interference to an early marriage.

Mr. Phillips, the lucky man, is persona grata with the family of his intended bride. He is one of the youngest men who ever held a position of such responsibility. He belongs to one of the oldest families of Massachusetts, a family which has figured in the history of the state and country since the earliest times. He was appointed third assistant secretary of state Dec. 8, 1906.

His First Visit.

The wide check of his suit and his monocle proclaimed his nationality from afar. His first American acquaintance, met on the steamer, had supplied him with an immense amount of strange and wonderful information about the United States.

"And since you are an Englishman," it was explained, "every store will at once charge you from five to ten times what they would ask an American."

"Eh! What?" said the Britisher, aghast, and then with a look of great cunning: "But, my word! I shaw'n't tell them, don't you know!"

No Temperament.

"One of your daughters married an artist, did she not?"

"Yes, and he beats her dreadfully."

"The artistic temperament. Who did her sister marry?"

"A coal heaver, and he loves her devotedly and never gives her a cross word."

"How uneventful life must seem with an unthinking clod like that."—Houston Post.

CONGENIAL WORK And Strength to Perform It.

A person in good health is likely to have a genial disposition, ambition, and enjoy work.

On the other hand, if the digestive organs have been upset by wrong food, work becomes drudgery.

"Until recently," writes a Washington girl, "I was a railroad stenographer, which means full work every day."

"Like many other girls alone in a large city, I lived at a boarding house. For breakfast it was mush, greasy meat, soggy cakes, black coffee, etc."

"After a few months of this diet I used to feel sleepy and heavy in the mornings. My work seemed a terrible effort, and I thought the work was to blame—too arduous."

"At home I had heard my father speak of a young fellow who went long distances in the cold on Grape-Nuts and cream and nothing more for breakfast."

"I concluded if it would tide him over a morning's heavy work, it might help me, so on my way home one night I bought a package and next morning I had Grape-Nuts and milk for breakfast."

"I stuck to Grape-Nuts, and in less than two weeks I noticed improvement. I can't just tell how well I felt, but I remember I used to walk the 12 blocks to business and knew how good it was simply to live."

"As to my work—well, did you ever feel the delight of having congenial work and the strength to perform it? That's how I felt. I truly believe there's life and vigor in every grain of Grape-Nuts."

CARPET BAGGERS FOR THE TERRITORIAL COURTS.

A dispatch from Washington, D. C., dated April 20, says that despite the protest of the territorial delegate to congress, president Taft will appoint non-resident candidates to the four places vacant on the supreme bench in New Mexico and Arizona. One of the appointees is to be special assistant U. S. attorney Alford W. Cooley who, however, has resided in Silver City the past year for health reasons, and is now at Las Cruces.

Southwestern Loses.

The celebrated damage suit against the El Paso and Southwestern Railroad, which has held the attention of the court in El Paso for the past thirty days, came to a close Tuesday evening, the jury returning a verdict in favor of Eichel and Weichel in the sum of $31,000.

This suit originated on a contract between the plaintiffs and the railroad company, wherein the plaintiffs were to furnish a specified amount of crushed rock at Tecolote, this county, to the company, for use as ballast along the line of road. Sometime ago the company abrogated the contract, and the crushing of rock ceased: hence the suit.

MUST LIVE ON LAND

Washington, April 6.— In a decision of the federal land office today it was held that in order to enable the heirs of a homestead entryman to submit commutation proof of his entry they must show both residence on and cultivation of the land for fourteen months by the entryman or his heirs, or partly both. The same rule, it was held, applies in a case where a commutation proof is submitted by the widow of the entryman. The decision is of interest because heretofore it has been only necessary for an entryman or an heir to show either residence on or cultivation of the land for fourteen months. In another decision it was held that when an entryman sells his improvements on the land and relinquishes his entry therewith, he is not entitled to make a second homestead entry under the act of Congress of February 8, 1908.
