

University of New Mexico

UNM Digital Repository

---

Events & News

VIVA Connects

---

4-7-2018

Fight the “Sitting Disease” – Walk with your Community

University of New Mexico Prevention Research Center

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalrepository.unm.edu/prc-viva-en>

---

Recommended Citation

University of New Mexico Prevention Research Center. "Fight the “Sitting Disease” – Walk with your Community." (2018). <https://digitalrepository.unm.edu/prc-viva-en/46>

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the VIVA Connects at UNM Digital Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in Events & News by an authorized administrator of UNM Digital Repository. For more information, please contact disc@unm.edu.

Fight the “Sitting Disease” – Walk with your Community

April 7, 2018 at 10:00 am

Join the Edgewood community and UNM medical student Shana Drake-Levelle for a walk near the Edgewood soccer fields. The Edgewood Animal Shelter will have rescued dogs that you can walk with. You can also bring your own pup.

EVENT LOCATION

Edgewood Soccer Fields