

8-24-2009

2009-08-24 UNM NEWS MINUTE

University of New Mexico Communication and Marketing Department

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalrepository.unm.edu/news_minute_2009

Recommended Citation

University of New Mexico Communication and Marketing Department. "2009-08-24 UNM NEWS MINUTE." (2009).
https://digitalrepository.unm.edu/news_minute_2009/50

This Newsletter is brought to you for free and open access by the UNM News Minute at UNM Digital Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in UNM News Minute 2009 by an authorized administrator of UNM Digital Repository. For more information, please contact disc@unm.edu.

UNM News Minute #600 – August 24, 2009

UNM IS PLANNING far in advance for what could be a very significant flu season. Not only is the UNM Health Sciences Center planning for the annual seasonal flu, but also the next anticipated wave of the H1N1 flu, sometimes called “swine flu.”

<http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/004187.html#more>

WELCOME BACK DAYS continues Tuesday with Safety, Health, Wellness & ROTC Day featuring free massages, a climbing wall, pinatas and watermelon at the Duck Pond. ROTC booths will be located on the SUB Mall. On Wednesday, it's Women's and Cultural Day with highlights including UNM's ethnic, cultural and women centers and departments, and free green chili stew.

<http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/004170.html#more>

THE UNM STAFF and faculty deadline to use the Popejoy Hall benefit is this Saturday, Aug. 29. Staff and faculty can save 50 percent on season tickets, with a minimum purchase of two shows. Brochures are available from Popejoy Hall by calling 277-8010 or by stopping at the UNM Bookstore Ticket Office. Complete information is available online at: <http://popejoypresents.com/tickets/unm-discounts/>

STUDENTS INTERESTED in working part-time on campus will have an opportunity to meet with UNM department and program representatives during the 3rd annual Student Job Fair Friday, Aug. 28, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Duck Pond. The fair is organized by the Graduation Task Force Student Engagement Committee and UNM's Career Services. For more visit: http://www.career.unm.edu/students/career_fairs.php

UNM SPORTING EVENTS and recreational activities offer an inexpensive way for parents to spend time with their students. Students are admitted to most athletic events free. Discounted group and individual tickets are available for parents and extended family. Athletics Marketing Manager Lisa Romero and Recreational Services Coordinator Eric Boeglin presented the topic at the last Parent Talk.

<http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/004189.html#more>

WITH A CONTINUED focus on efficiency and accurate communication, the Division of Human Resources has adopted process mapping to better serve the UNM community. A process map is a diagram that shows the tasks required to complete a procedure.

<http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/004188.html#more>

THE IT DEPARTMENT recently improved network security across campus. The UNM wireless network, Lobo WiFi, began a new process recently that requires users to login with their NetID and password to access the UNM network or the Internet. iPhone and SmartPhone users will need to open a browser. A one-time software download is required for all users to access Lobo WiFi.

<http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/004173.html#more>

THE JOAN GIBSON Health Care Ethics Certificate Program (Module II) will be offered this fall at the UNM Health Sciences Center - Institute for Ethics. The program covers topics such as conflicts of interest, research ethics, ethical issues with aging and more. The program will begin Tuesday, Sept. 8, 2009. For more information call 272-4566 or e-mail, jcabrera@salud.unm.edu.