

7-9-2007

2007-07-09 UNM NEWS MINUTE

University of New Mexico Communication and Marketing Department

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalrepository.unm.edu/news_minute_2007

Recommended Citation

University of New Mexico Communication and Marketing Department. "2007-07-09 UNM NEWS MINUTE." (2007).
https://digitalrepository.unm.edu/news_minute_2007/51

This Newsletter is brought to you for free and open access by the UNM News Minute at UNM Digital Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in UNM News Minute 2007 by an authorized administrator of UNM Digital Repository. For more information, please contact disc@unm.edu.

UNM News Minute #402 – July 9, 2007

THIS SUMMER, UNM is launching the “Great Campus Cleanup,” a program designed to help faculty and staff get rid of excess paper, supplies and equipment, as well as extra or unwanted furniture in your office and department. Beginning Friday, July 13, and continuing on Fridays thereafter, selected buildings across main campus will receive a visit by the Physical Plant, Surplus Property Department, Housing, Safety and Risk Services and the University Archivist to pickup unwanted items.

<http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/002055.html#more>

THE SKY IS no longer the limit. DomeFest, the international festival for immersive digital dome (fulldome) films, returns July 20-23. Produced by the UNM ARTS Lab, DomeFest is the preeminent program for fulldome production and experimentation, a rapidly growing global medium in which UNM has been a leader since 2000.

<http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/002022.html#more>

FOR THE SIXTH consecutive year, a popular two-week intensive course on curanderismo, or the art of Mexican folk healing, will be held on UNM’s Main Campus. The course is July 16-27 in the Anthropology Building, room 163, Monday-Friday, 8:10 a.m. to 12:40 p.m. <http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/002041.html#more>

UNM’S INTERNATIONAL Studies Institute and College of Arts and Sciences will be conducting the International Literature Conference from July 22 to Aug. 12. The theme of the three-week conference, which will be held at the Taos Ski Valley, is “With a Transatlantic View: Transformation and Changes of Literary Text.” The focus will be on poetry, theater-film, prose writing and scholarly viewpoints.

<http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/002053.html#more>

THE UNM HARWOOD Museum of Art in Taos will present “Tracking the Ghosts and Other Residency Stories,” an unconventional lecture by artist-in-residence Shelley Horton-Trippe, on Thursday, July 12, at 7 p.m. The artist will talk about her residencies world-wide, share new videos of recent projects, and lead attendees on a tour of her site-specific installation. <http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/002052.html#more>

FOR 27 YEARS, UNM-Los Alamos has helped educate the future leaders of Northern New Mexico. To further the campus’s goal of making college education available to every student regardless of income, a mantanza scholarship fundraiser will be held on Sunday, July 29, noon-4 p.m. at the Bernalillo Wine Festival Grounds.

<http://www.unm.edu/~market/cgi-bin/archives/002051.html#more>

PUBLIC TELEVISION station KNME is presenting internationally renowned violinist and conductor Andre Rieu and the Johann Strauss Orchestra in their New Mexico concert premiere Thursday, Dec. 11, at the Santa Ana Star Center in Rio Rancho. Exclusive tickets from KNME are available by calling (505) 277-2922 or at: www.knmtv.org. Partial proceeds to benefit KNME.