NEW MEXICO LAW REVIEW

University of New Mexico School of Law

Annual Report

For the Fiscal Year July 1, 1971 - June 30, 1972

At the close of its second year as an entity, during which the July 1971 and January 1972 issues were published under the capable direction of Mark McFeeley, the readership of the Review was 589. Another solicitation of U.S. Law Libraries is being prepared and will be mailed in September 1972, along with a solicitation of the El Paso Bar, and a re-solicitation of the New Mexico Bar.

Review of Publication Year

In addition to lead articles on such varied topics as bankruptcy; the equal rights amendment; commercial transactions; nonprofit corporations; legal assistance; N.M. Securities Act; and the physical facts rule, students notes and comments were published as follows:

Judicare as an Alternative to Legal Aid in Albuquerque	Rocco F. Meconi
Torts--Libel in New Mexico	Randolph B. Felker
Need for a Federal Policy in Indian Economic Development	Mark B. McFeeley
Indians--State Jurisdiction Over Real Estate Developments on Tribal Lands	Thomas W. Olson
Judgments: New Mexico and the Additur	Henry M. Rivera
Products Liability--Strict Liability in Torts	Melvin B. Yost
Torts--Action for Loss of Consortium in New Mexico	Kester L. Oman
N.M. Analogue to 28 U.S.C. 1292(b): Interlocutory Appeals Come to the State Courts	Nick Noeding

Plans For The Coming Year

To make better scheduling possible at the printing plant and to avoid competition with NRJ for press time, commencing with Volume 3 the issue dates will be moved forward from January and July to November and May. This also will enable billing to be done in the summer rather than the late fall, thereby further avoiding coincidence with NRJ routine.

The July 1972 issue will include the following articles, along with seven notes and comments by students:

Mr. Patrick Putzi Washington, D.C.	Indians and Federal Income Taxation
Prof. David Hamilton Ms. Melissa Patterson	The Economic Side of Wrongful Death in New Mexico
Prof. Albert E. Utton	The Law of Standing in New Mexico

Tentatively planned for Volume 3 issue 1 is a symposium on the impact of the proposed New Mexico equal rights amendment on New Mexico law, with the following content:

Prof. Leo Kanowitz	Introduction
Prof. Anne Bingaman	Property Law Aspects
Mr. Kendall Schlenker	Tax Implications
Ms. Jennie D. Behles Mr. Daniel J. Behles	Family Law Aspects: Divorce, Separation, Custody, and Support Payments
Mr. Willard Royer	Conditions of Employment
Prof. Joseph Goldberg Ms. Mariclaire Hale	Impact on Welfare Law
Prof. Charles Daniels	Criminal Law Considerations

Finances

Two issues were published during the year for a total billed cost of $5,614.43, plus reprints. The amount of $5,700. is budgeted for the two issues during 1972-73, and it is anticipated that this amount will prove adequate for two issues of 150 pages each.

Additional support in the form of paid subscriptions from members of the New Mexico Bar is imperative to the financial future of the Review.
