

University of New Mexico

UNM Digital Repository

Events & News

VIVA Connects

6-27-2018

Española Walkability Workshop

University of New Mexico Prevention Research Center

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalrepository.unm.edu/prc-viva-en>

Recommended Citation

University of New Mexico Prevention Research Center. "Española Walkability Workshop." (2018).
<https://digitalrepository.unm.edu/prc-viva-en/58>

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the VIVA Connects at UNM Digital Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in Events & News by an authorized administrator of UNM Digital Repository. For more information, please contact disc@unm.edu.

Espanola Walkability Workshop

June 27, 2018 at 2:00 pm

LET'S GO FOR A WALK

JOIN US FOR A WALKABILITY AUDIT

Identify pedestrian & bike safety concerns

Assist in prioritizing future projects

Help us find ways to keep Española beautiful!

JUNE 27 @ 2PM

MEET @ BEATRICE MARTINEZ SENIOR CENTER
735 VIETNAM VETERANS MEMORIAL HWY.

Questions? Call Alison @ City of Española: 747-6082

Brought to you by

NEW MEXICO
HEALTH

The City of Espanola and partners are conducting a Walkability Audit to identify and address accessibility concerns for pedestrians. Espanola is pursuing great change, and this seemingly minor exercise is an important step in its move forward. Community leaders have identified five key areas to assess. Anyone who is interested in contributing to a more walkable Espanola is welcome. Please wear comfortable walking shoes. Water and snacks will be provided.

EVENT LOCATION

Beatrice V. Q. Martinez Senior Center

Beatrice V. Q. Martinez Senior Center, Española, NM 87532