UNM News Minute #511 – August 18, 2008

FRESHMAN FAMILY DAY is a UNM tradition welcoming incoming students and their families to the college community and held the afternoon before the start of fall classes. The event is Sunday, Aug. 24, and is a three-fold. It kicks off at 4 p.m. with a Freshman Convocation in Popejoy Hall, followed by a social celebration and class crawl at the UNM Duck Pond, and a movie at sunset on Johnson Field.
