Indians Defeated

The Isleta Indians went down to defeat at the hands of the Belen team last Sunday afternoon by the score of 6 to 0, in a game which was marred by high winds that made good fielding difficult.

Gutierrez who was on the hurling hill for Belen, was at all times master of the situation and at no time was in trouble. Only two hits were gathered from his delivery, one a three bagger by Yazzi. He tightened up immediately, however, and held his opponents safe throughout, striking out ten men during the game.

Lucero, for the Indians, pitched a steady game, and had his teammates been able to bat well behind him they would have made a better showing. A total of six strikeouts is credited to him, while nine hits were made off his delivery.

A home run drive with the bases full by Linn and a three-bagger by Gilbert, of Belen, were features.

The score:
Isleta..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0
Belen..... 0 0 1 1 4 0 0 x—6
Batteries; Lucero and Gazzi; Gutierrez and Gilbert.

On Sunday, our boys will go to Carthage on autos and try and defeat the strong aggregation of players in that town.

Here's wishing you success, boys!

Disastrous Fire Last Night

Fire of an unknown origin completely destroyed the meat market and grocery store of Garcia Bros., well known merchants of this town.

The fire was discovered about 9 o'clock, last night, when a dense column of smoke was seen coming out through the crevices of the doors and windows. The fire cry was heard, and a few minutes after the flames began to be seen. By this time, the whole interior was a blaze of fire and it was understood that nothing could save the building and its contents from complete destruction.

In a room right above the store, was sleeping Mr. Estanislao Garcia, his wife and two children. They were awakened just in the nick of time by the night watchman of the Roller Mill adjoining the place, and they came out just in time to save their lives.

It is claimed there was not a single lamp burning nor fire of any kind in the premises. So how it started is a mystery, though some are inclined to believe the rats were the cause of it, as several of the big rodents were seen coming out of the building running at full speed.

The roller mill, belonging to Mr. John Becker, was threatened by the fire, and for a moment it was thought that said valuable building would be destroyed too, but thanks to the strenuous efforts of the employees of the said firm, was saved from sure destruction, by putting wet canvass upon the roof, and pouring a stream of water on said canvass, with grave danger of the clerks upon the roof, as the heat at that point was intense.

Another thing that saved the mill was the fact that there was no wind at all, the night being calm and without the slightest breeze.

The loss is estimated by Mr. Manuel Garcia, one of the owners of the meat market, at $7,000, with no insurance.

The oil tank and some merchandise was saved, as well as some of the books, which were found partially burned the day after under the debris.

At the time of the fire, the tent circus right in front, was about to start the performance. There were few in attendance, but the manager of the circus warned the people inside of the danger, and requested them to go out, promising he would give a free performance the next day, to remunerate them for their money. The tent was then put down and the circus people also helped to put out the fire.

Mr. Becker, followed by his entire force of employees, also Mr. Goebel and his clerks, the Bank employees, and numerous citizens worked hard to put out the blaze, even at great risk of their lives, and everybody seemed to be united by the same spirit of fraternity to help a brother in need.

The fire lasted about three hours, though the next morning there was still some smoke coming out from the debris.

A Prospective Candidate

Hon. Harry P. Owen, well known and respected citizen of Albuquerque, for several years, within a short time will establish his residence among us and become a permanent citizen of Valencia county. Mr. Owen is a popular and well-liked gentleman in this county. Besides that, he is a staunch Republican, and his friends, who can be counted by the hundreds, are getting ready to present his name as a candidate for district attorney, in the Republican convention, which will be held some time next September or October, with the satisfaction that if he is nominated will be a strong candidate hard to beat.

Storm at Paris

Paris, June 16.—The death toll from yesterday's tempest stands at eight tonight. Eight other persons have disappeared, so far as is known, and seventy were injured through the collapse of sections of Paris streets.

One of the finest quarters of Paris can hardly be recognized, so extensive was the wreckage. The wood pavement for yards around the great flood cavities undulates.

Police, firemen, soldiers and laborers are searching for bodies. The press is unanimous in its attacks on the authorities, who, it is charged, have permitted the capital to be honeycombed by subways, electric, water and gas mains, without supervision. Just what is responsible for the subsistence of trees it is impossible to establish at the present time.

Three additional cave-ins occurred today at the Rue Gluck, the Place de Roma, in front of the Saint Lazarre station, and at the Place de Iena. At one of these points a telephone junction box was destroyed, cutting off 3,000 subscribers.

Will Send Conway to St. Paul

Santa Fe, June 16.—The board of county commissioners has voted to pay the expenses of County Superintendent John V. Conway to attend the Educational Association meeting at St. Paul, Minn., next month, following the example of the Bernalillo county commissioners, who have voted a sum for the purpose of sending County Superintendent Atanacio Montoya to St. Paul.

The dance given by the band Wednesday night was well attended and everyone reports a good time. The fire attracted attention for a while but afterwards the dance was resumed.

The Depot Girls

(Contributed)

In every town where railroads run You'll find the "depot girls," Some who are frisky and full of fun.

And remind you of pet squirrels.

Some are old and some are young, And some are middle-aged;

Some know how to use their tongues

Like a parrot that is caged.

Some have "rats" upon the brain—"Rats" quite large and brains quite small—

Some go just to see the train

While others go to see it all.

Some go there to get their "mail," Others take their "male" along; Some go there for fear they fail To hear their sweetheart's latest song.

Some go there to meet their aunts, Knowing well they'll never come; But, you see, it gives a chance To go on a little "bum."

Some go there in broad daylight, To be seen and see,

Others prefer the shades o' night, When they feel more free.

Some advice I'd like to give These wayward "depot strollers," It's true as gospel, sure as you live,

That you'll end like all "high rollers."

The girl that seeks the love of man

Will find it not in such a place;

But, if she wishes, she surely can,

Easily find her own disgrace.

Some parents ought to take a pill

Of good old common "sense,"

And block the road that leads down hill,

Where troubles all commence.

And keep the girls that wear short skirts

Away from the tempter's snare,

And thus keep a lot of budding

flirts

From blooming as it were.

CARD OF THANKS

We herewith desire to express our thanks and appreciation to all who worked so faithfully to save our Mill and Warehouse from destruction by fire Wednesday night.

Chas. Ranken and family will leave Friday night for their new home in Plainview, Texas. They have been residents in Belen for many years and will be gratefully missed.

Italy Menaced by Revolution

Rome, June 15.—The press generally reviewing the risings which have occurred throughout Italy, concludes that these were not due merely to the circumstances of the moment, but constituted a planned political revolution, which succeeded for forty-eight hours in a somewhat grotesque manner, but was sufficiently grave to cause not only very considerable material damage, but enormous moral injury, as it resulted in overthrowing the authority of the state.

The Giornale D'Italia concludes an editorial on this subject by condemning the system tacitly accepted whereby the different workmen's unions, leagues, confederations, syndicates and labor exchanges have usurped the legislative power, and urging the necessity of restoring the principle of state authority. The political leaders, the paper declares, should strive to have proper respect paid to the law instead of seeking for artificial personal popularity.

Those responsible for the revolutionary movement in Rome, which includes the provinces of Bologna, Ferrara, Ravenna and Forl, now declare that the events of the past week have only been a general rehearsal and the first presentation of the revolutionary drama will be given soon and will "go" better.

Flag day passed on Monday without the slightest sign to remember it in this town. Not a flag was hoisted nor seen anywhere, and the fact that it was flag day was known to us only by the papers coming from outside with good articles about it or a description of the celebrations held in some other places. Wonder if Belen is located in some other nation but the United States?

However, the work of getting ready for the coming celebration of the Glorious Fourth is progressing nicely. The various committees named for that purpose have met and something has been done, so we are confident that we will have one of the biggest celebrations yet.

The baseball boys are wearing a happy smile, on account of their repeated triumphs over the various teams that have come here. It seems that we have here one of the best teams in the whole state, one that can not be defeated, judging by the way the boys are holding their own against other teams.

Good. We only wish that they keep that way for many seasons to come as just now; this is the only thing we have first class.

In regard to several questions that have been made to us, about whom we favor as candidate for member to congress in the Republican party, we will answer that we have not any choice as yet, but we will support the one who gets the majority of the party, either American or Spanish-American, but we should prefer an Spanish-American with the necessary requirements to do honor to our people and to the great satisfaction of those who put him in power.

That the mediation proceedings are progressing at Niagara Falls, is the latest news from the Canadian city. So far, the mediators have agreed on several technical points, such as the way Huerta is to be eliminated. But still there remains the problem of what to do with the Carranzistas, who seem to be gaining more points of advantage in the battlefield. Carranza, with his policy of delay, strictly Mexican, has been able to put a stone in the way, but it seems that the mediators and delegates do not want to wait any more, so the negotiations will go ahead Carranza or no Carranza.

Now the next question is. When will the United States evacuate Vera Cruz and leave the country to settle her own difficulties?

This question is of more importance than any other, in view of the declaration of the rebels that they will undertake to put out the invaders after they have finished with Huerta, which means a certain war unless the American troops are withdrawn in time to avoid trouble.

The only way out of this mess, is for the United States to recognize and support the actual government with the understanding that an election is to be held to select a president and congress, according to the Mexican constitution, and not to try and impose a party that will be opposed by the people on the ground that it has been put in power by a foreign nation, a violation of the sovereignty of all nations.

Young Chicken Fanciers to Exhibit at Fair

One of the unique and most interesting exhibit sections at the state fair in Albuquerque, October 5 to 10, will be that portion of the chicken show devoted to the young people's competition. Following last year's fair prizes were offered for the best essays on "Chicken growing in New Mexico." Several hundred boys and girls entered the essay contest and a large number of prizes were awarded, chiefly settings of eggs of fancy strains. These were delivered for the spring settings and the state fair commission has offered a special series of cash prizes, trophies and awards for the best showing made in the boys' and girls' sections of the show. This section will not be limited exclusively to those who won prizes in the essay contest, but will be open to any boy or girl who can show that the birds exhibited were hatched and cared for by themselves. The fair commission, like most other practical men in the state, believe that there is good money to be made in poultry and the commission is seeking to encourage interest everywhere in the industry. They feel the best way to start is with the boys and girls; and the fair prizes this year will be well worth competing for. This is true not only of the children's section, but of the poultry show as a whole. This section of the state fair has been growing more rapidly than any other exhibit division in recent years and last year occupied a whole building. This year's chicken show undoubtedly will be the biggest on record. A great many chicken fanciers, young and old, all over the state, are beginning to prepare their exhibit birds already for the big fall competition.

Madero Spent Millions

(F. J. Splitstone, in Leslie's)

The story of the weak and ruinous rule of Madero has never been adequately told. It is enough to say here that he was the most colossal failure as a president that Mexico has ever known. In 15 months his government dissipated the $69,000,000 left in the treasury by Diaz, and borrowed $150,000,000 of revenue, and left the treasury, when it went out of power, less than $100,000. Even this insignificant sum was scattered among the various departments and so was not available for immediate use or it would have been wasted too. And with all this vast expenditure not one promise for the betterment of the people had been fulfilled; no public improvements were made; no educational systems built up; no extensions of commerce or industry were fostered. Peace was not restored. Mexico was continuously involved in internal strife and her business was wrecked, her credit impaired and her hope turned to despair. Madero was too weak to deal with the situation. The politicians were at work.

GOOD THINGS WORTH TRYING.

When you don't know what to get for breakfast, try steamed bananas on toast. Steam the bananas, cut in halves, until well heated through; pour over a teaspoonful of lemon juice and serve on well buttered toast. Have the toast cut in long, narrow strips to hold the strip of banana.

Egg Croquettes.—Take eggs which have been carefully cooked until hard in the shell, remove the shell, roll in beaten egg and crumbs, then season well and fry in deep fat. Serve garnished with a little parsley.

When fresh rhubarb is plentiful in the market, make this delicious pie: Chop a cupful each of rhubarb and raisins, and the grated rind and juice of a lemon, two tablespoonfuls of butter, one cup of sugar, one egg well beaten. Turn the well blended mixture into a lined pie tin, dredge with a teaspoon of flour and a half teaspoon of salt. Bake with two crusts.

Ways of Using Stale Fruit Cake.—Steam the cake and serve with any kind of sauce which is liked. Either an egg sauce, a fruit sauce or a sauce made of vinegar with a flour and water foundation, adding sugar and butter.

Crumb the cake and stir a cup of crumbs soaked in a fruit juice into a plain ice cream and freeze.

Stir a cupful of cake crumbs into a cup of milk prepared with junket, or into a custard before baking.

Delicious Sandwiches.—This recipe has appeared many times in the course of three years, but it will appear again, for it is always new to some.

Grate sufficient cheese to spread the required number of sandwiches. Cut the slices of bread in rounds with a biscuit cutter, spread with butter and add enough cream, salt and red pepper to the cheese to make it of the consistency to spread; spread one and cover with the other round, and then saute in a little hot butter until beautifully brown. Serve with any crisp green salad.

Somerset Salad.—Mix one and a half cupfuls of white cooked meat of chicken with one cucumber, one-half cup of broken nut meats and the same of peas and one cut of finely cut celery. Serve on lettuce with a boiled or mayonnaise dressing.

COLLECTION OF CAKES.

Prune Cake.—Cream a tablespoonful of butter with four tablespoonfuls of sugar; add the grated rind of a lemon and one beaten egg all mixed well together. Add a cup of flour, a teaspoon of baking powder, a quarter of a cup of milk. Place the dough in a pan and place on top a layer of pitted and stewed prunes. Bake and serve, covered with sweetened and flavored whipped cream.

Crumb Cake.—Take two and a half cupfuls of flour, add one and a half cupfuls of sugar, one-half cup of butter, one-fourth of a teaspoon of salt, cloves, nutmeg and cinnamon, and mix well; when well mixed, take out a cupful and to the remainder add two well beaten eggs, one cup of sour milk, one small teaspoon of soda. Beat well and put into a deep square tin. Sprinkle the cupful of crumbs on top and bake slowly.

Hickory Nut Cake.—Take a pound of butter, soften by heat until creamy, add one and a half pounds of light brown sugar, ten whole eggs, one pound each of flour and raisins, one-fourth of a pound of citron and a pound of broken nut meats, one grated nutmeg, one-half glass of orange juice.

German Cherry Cake.—This is the cake recipe which was prepared at the St. Louis fair: Take three cupfuls of canned red cherries, one cupful of flour, six tablespoonfuls of sugar, the yolks of two eggs and a quarter of a cup of milk, one tablespoonful of butter, one-half a teaspoon of baking powder and a quarter of a teaspoon of salt. Sift the flour and dry ingredients, beat the yolks of the eggs and add to the flour; fold in the whites after mixing all the other ingredients and spread in a pan an inch thick; drain the cherries and spread over the dough, sprinkle with sugar and bake in a brick oven.

The Word "Gringo"

The story is that when the United States troops invaded Mexico in 1846, they used to sing a popular song of the day that began, "Green grow the leaves of the hawthorne tree." The Mexicans came to associate the song with the invading army, until they began to call the detested Americans "the green-grows," or "gringos." The name has stuck ever since, and Mexicans now apply it as a term of contempt to all Americans. — Youth's Companion.

Newspaper Don'ts.

Don't take your home paper. It is the most active and powerful factor in building up your town, and to support it would involve you in the work.

Don't pay for it if you take it. Newspapers are run on wind, and the editor wouldn't keep the money, anyway. He'd most likely pay it on his bills.

Don't fail to tell the editor how to run the paper. He has nothing to do but listen and keep his temper sweet.

Don't put your name on what you want published. It's the editor's business to espouse unpopular causes and take your chestnuts out of the fire. What hurts your business might hurt his—but that's different.

Don't notify the editor when you change your postoffice address. He may lose track of you and you will escape paying the last two or three years of your subscription.

Don't forget to write on both sides of the paper. The printers might forget how to swear.

Don't write your communication legibly. Deciphering them keeps the editor busy and he is able to make an occasional blunder, which promotes good feeling all around.

Don't imagine that the newspaper man has anything to do. Newspapers print themselves and ravens feed the printers. — Douglas Daily International.

The Intelligent Compositor

(Penasco Valley Press.)

Sometimes we get everything so mixed we can't unmix them. The "devils" in the office this week ran amuck. Mr. Frank Burrell was assigned an article to set up and Mr. Charley Evans was also assigned a task. It being very late in the week and through fear of the paper getting out late the foreman was cursing, the devils were both setting type on the same last galley, and after the issue of the paper it read like this:

"William Smith, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, and Miss Lucy Anderson, were made happy by being disposed of at public auction at my farm three miles east of town in the presence of quite a large number of guests, including two mules and 12 head of cattle.

"Rev. Johnson tied the nuptial knot for the happy couple, averaging 1250 lbs. on hoof. The beautiful home of the bride, profusely decorated with one sulky rake, one feed grinder, two sets of work harness nearly new, bought just before the ceremony was pronounced. Mendelsshons beautiful wedding march was rendered by one cow five years old, one Jersey and one sheep, who carried a bunch of bridal roses in her hand; she wore one light spring wagon, two barrels of apples, three ricks of hay and one grindstone of mouseline desole trimmed in about a hundred bushels of corn and some pea-vine hay.

"The bridal couple left yesterday for an extended wedding trip with the best wishes of a lot of household and kitchen furniture and other things too numerous to mention. Terms, spot cash.

Balanced.

A gentleman traveling in England was being shown over an estate by the owner, who was a crank on landscape gardening. They came to a small greenhouse with a young boy locked up in it. The visitor asked the reason and his host replied that he had caught the boy stealing flowers from the grounds and locked him up for punishment.

Going a little further they came to another greenhouse, the counterpart of the first and similarly situated on the outer side of the grounds, and this also contained a small boy.

"What!" exclaimed the visitor, "has this boy, too, been stealing flowers?"

"Oh, no," replied his host, "that is my little son."

"Then, why," asked the puzzled caller, "have you locked him in here?"

"Why, for the sake of symmetry," answered the host. — Everybody's Magazine.

THE KITCHEN CABINET

BE WISE, be cheerful, bright and gay, leave to the fool his folly.

And let your motto be "Cheer up," your rule of life, "Be jolly."

DISHES FOR AFTERNOON RECEPTIONS.

When planning any entertainment in which the food is a chief feature, the appearance as well as the tempting flavor is equally important.

Layer Sandwiches.—Have loaves of graham or whole wheat and white bread two days old. Trim off the crust and save for the countless dishes which call for bread crumbs. Cut a slice and spread the end of the loaf with softened butter; cut in water-like slices until all is prepared. Have ready some chopped and seasoned ham and a few finely chopped nuts or any two kinds of filling desired, but be sure that they harmonize. On a slice of the buttered brown bread put a layer of one filling and a layer of the other on the white bread, alternating with the white and brown until a half dozen slices are placed together. Press, to make firm, and cut in slices like layer cake, to serve.

Roasted Almond Sandwiches.—Prepare the almonds at home by blanching—that is, boiling in water two minutes then drop in cold water and remove the brown skins. Dry well and cook until brown in a little olive oil; salt well and chop fine. Mix with either mayonnaise dressing or whipped cream, seasoned with paprika. Spread on water-like slices of white bread which has been buttered. Maple sugar grated and mixed with cream and chopped almonds makes another delicious filling for sandwiches.

Small Charlottes.—For these take three-quarters of a package of gelatin, one cup of powdered sugar, two quarts and a half of thick cream, two tablespoonsful of vanilla, one-third of a cup of orange juice and three dozen lady fingers. Split the lady fingers and cut each piece in lengths to fit around the sides of paper cases or molds. Put a piece in the bottom of each mold. Have ready chopped nuts and candied cherries or fresh strawberries for garnishing. Soak the gelatin in cold water and whip the cream; add the sugar to the cream, strain in the dissolved gelatin and stir until it begins to thicken, then add vanilla and orange juice. When very thick, fill cases.

Before serving, sprinkle with chopped pistachio nuts and garnish with cherries or strawberries. These forms will hold their shape when turned out on the serving plate, and will serve 25 people.

Ways of Serving Cod.

Codfish, when it is fresh, is a fish not to be despised, and if it were less common, which it is in a fair way to be, it would be held in as high esteem as salmon. The salt variety takes the place fairly well of many varieties of higher priced fish. If the fresh fish is obtainable, take a small one and add with three quarts of boiling water, a tablespoonful of salt, a tablespoonful of vinegar, a small carrot and onion chopped fine, a few sprigs of parsley and a bay leaf or two. Let the fish come to the boiling point, then simmer gently so that the water just moves, for 30 minutes. Lift out, take off the skin, place on a hot platter, and surround with the vegetables and sauce prepared from the broth of the fish. Garnish with sprigs of parsley and quarters of lemon and serve.

Fresh Cod Chowder.—Put three slices of fat salt pork into a kettle and try out until brown. Have two pounds or less of cod cut in square pieces. Remove the pork scraps and put in alternate layers of potatoes, fish and onions, using two onions to half a dozen sliced potatoes. Season with salt and pepper, cover with water and cook until the vegetables are tender. Add a quart of fresh milk, a tablespoonful or two of butter, a half dozen milk crackers which have been scalded in boiling water, and serve at once. Such a dish is hard to beat for a cold, raw night.

Codfish, Cuban Style.—Pick in pieces a cup of freshened salt cod. Fry an onion thin in a tablespoonful of butter, add the fish with boiling water to cover. Then add half a can of tomatoes; season with a green pepper chopped, and simmer gently for an hour. If there is much juice in the tomato less water need be added. Turn the mixture on squares of buttered toast and serve very hot.

"Cases alter circumstances."

Minding the Doctor.

"It isn't strange that Bob Hilliard should have won the heart and hand of a girl with three millions, for Bob, despite his years, is the handsomest and most elegant creature going."

The speaker, a dramatic critic of Chicago, smiled and continued: "The last time Bob acted here, I met him one morning premonading. And he was superb—top hat, stick, black morning coat, spats fitting without a wrinkle, and one of those cigarette tubes that had just come out, a tube of gold and amber, a foot long, possibly sixteen inches."

"As we chatted, and as he smoked his Egyptian cigarette through this extraordinary tube, I said to him:

"Why on earth, Bob, do you use such a long cigarette tube as that?"

"My doctor has ordered me," he replied 'to keep away from tobacco.'"

No More.

Mrs. Nelson O'Shaughnessy's da.ing presence at the wedding of Huerta's son is only another proof of a brave woman's pluck.

Mrs. O'Shaughnessy, at the Colony club in New York, decried one day that idea that woman was weak, or cowardly, or that she need ever play a limited part in the world's affairs.

"Well," said a lady of the old school, "I know one thing a woman can't do. She can't reform a man after marriage."

"No?" said Mrs. O'Shaughnessy. "No? And yet I know many a married man who in his bachelor days smoked twenty-five cent cigars."

Sniffers,

Miss Elsie De Wolfe said on the Imperator, en route for a summer in Versailles and Venice:

"New York is the most democratic city in the world. In New York talent, real talent, will admit one anywhere. There is nothing snuffy about New York."

"No, we're not like the duchess whose little daughter, Lady Ann, said:

"Mother, why do people have noses?"

"Common people, dear Ann," the duchess answered, 'have noses to smell with; but high-born people like us have noses wherewith to express contempt for common people.'"

News from Mexico

El Paso, Texas, June 17.—General Carranza and General Villa failed to deny today that their relations had reached a breaking point. Neither did agents of either the constitutionalist leader or his northern commander attempt to explain reasons for the forceful ousting late yesterday of all Carranza appointees in the offices at Juarez by the Villa military.

The employees of the Juarez customs house, telegraph office and treasury department, sent south early today on a special train, will be sent to Saltillo, according to announcement tonight by Roberto V. Pesqueira, Carranza's confidential agent here. Other reports said they had been placed in the state penitentiary at Chihuahua City. The reported sending of the prisoners to Carranza's headquarters was received by agents of both factions here as a sarcastic action by the Villa adherents. It was not denied from any source that Villa's soldiers had taken over the entire fabric of civil government heretofore manipulated by Carranza's cabinet officers.

The employees of the Juarez customs house, telegraph office and treasury department, sent south early today on a special train were reported as having been placed by Villa's officers in the state penitentiary at Chihuahua City. H. Perez Abreu, who was in charge of the constitutionalist information bureau, disappeared with the rest. Alberto Pani, Carranza's agent in charge of the treasury department at Juarez, escaped to this side, although all of his employees were arrested.

Villa's officials took possession today of the offices formerly under control of Carranza's appointees. Colonel Tomas Ornelas, Villa's garrison commander, declined to discuss the orders or reasons for his raid yesterday on the federal offices and the subsequent arrest of the Carranza men. The Confiscation and closing of the information bureau and the change in the telegraph office prevented any news arriving from the south, either regarding the conditions about Zacatecas or telling if similar changes as at Juarez had occurred in other cities in the territory controlled by Villa. It was asserted by those in official touch with the situation, however, that all Carranza men had been thrust out of office throughout Chihuahua and western Coahuila.

Religious Flooring.

"Would you like the floors in mosaic?" asked the architect. The Springfield man looked dubious.

"Would you like the floors in mosaic patterns?"

"I don't know much about that," he finally said. "I ain't got any prejudice against Moses as a man, and maybe he knew a lot about the law. As regards laying floors, though, I kinder think I'd rather have them unsectarian."—Harper's Weekly.
