This law program in Guanajuato, Mexico has been sponsored by UNM for more than 25 years. The goal is to allow students to learn the Mexican legal system through contact with the legislature, judges, and local lawyers and professors. Students will also be interacting with local Mexican DAs about the American legal system that Mexico is working to adopt. Students will meet with Mexican law students to learn from one another. As part of the program students visit courts, legislative buildings, and meet with local legal officials, as well as travel around the region to learn about history and how it has affected Mexico's legal system.

Basic Description of the Appropriation Request:

The Sociology Graduate Student Association (SGSA), in conjunction with the Political Science GSA and the Public Administration GSA would like to host an event to foster more communication and collaboration among the three departments, as well as other departments on campus. While many students across campus conduct research and work in related areas, there are few opportunities for graduate student interactions outside of their own department. To this end, we would like to host a trivia night at a local restaurant, open to all graduate and professional students. The goal of the event is to serve as an informal social event in which graduate students from all departments can meet and network, and to potentially be continued as an annual event. RECOMMENDATIONS FROM LSC FOR NEXT YEAR:

Develop a conflict of interest policy. Test in the standing rules until a system works. One suggestion was:
"II. 5. GPSA members acting in an official capacity for GPSA, when as a result of their previous, current, or expected future other responsibilities, should disclose this information as a potential conflict of interest. shall disclose the existence of a Conflict of Interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the Decision Making Body considering the proposed transaction or arrangement."
a. When a Conflict of Interest arises, a person the individual may announce recusal or abstain from actions that have a direct effect on the receiving body.

b. Representatives should try to avoid casting votes on issues that present a Conflict of Interest with their role(s) in GPSA.

Look at VII. Finance Code in relation to new Finance article in Constitution.

Look at Timelines in V. 7. and V. 11. Constitution requirement could be reviewed; if shortened, it may provide more access and timeliness for legislative submissions.
Meeting

The LSC met on Monday, April 16 at 6:30 p.m. in SUB Santa Ana A & B. At 10:07, the meeting relocated to the GPSA Office due to the SUB needing to prepare Santa Ana.

4/16: The LSC reviewed the GPSA Bylaws, especially the comments from the Constitution and Bylaws Working Group and UNM Counsel. Two lists of changes were submitted for Council consideration, substantive and nonsubstantive.

Announcements

David Medrano resigned from the LSC after the April meeting.

The LSC meeting for the May Council meeting occurred on 4/23, but a separate report will be submitted for that meeting.

Public Comment: no one

Chair Update
- Casarez mentioned annual report and asked for contributions. Kidder suggested making it part of the next LSC agenda.

BYLAWS:
Bylaws Working Group Report (Jee Hwang, WG Lead)
- Working Group recommends that Chief Justice assign tasks as needed, no Court Clerk position recommended. Attorney General position recommended for slow, detailed review, probably next year.
- Recommended careful deliberation regarding conflict of interest policy, in order to avoid vagueness but also to avoid unnecessary restrictions. Recommended using self-reporting and reprimands for checking conflicts of interest, disruptive members, and those abusing power.
- GPSA can move to electronic records for efficiency; archive should be secure. (Rush questioned the security and conduciveness to transitions. Rush also mentioned procedural concerns about submitting Council legislation to external recipients in relation to the veto timeline.)
- Hwang commended the working group members for their helpfulness, respect for one another, and insight.
- Lee asked about the reprimands for conflicts of interest. Hwang said that it was his thought, not explicitly the working group's recommendation. He felt the dynamics of the working group made it difficult to suggest responses to this type of situation.

UNM Counsel Items
-Counsel rejected 5 items and questioned 11 items in their December report.

Previously submitted Bylaws items included in the WG report.

Constitution approved in March Council meeting was adopted by membership in general election. Bylaws need to match Constitutional changes.

Timelines for legislation submission and processing may be reconsidered for more access by members.

Committee discussed Bylaws article by article and addressed major items. Votes occurred for items that did not reach consensus, and a vote at the end approved substantive and nonsubstantive change lists.
-Birky motioned to approve restriction of standing committee voting positions for any individual to 4, second. 2-1-1
-LSC debated alternatives for conflict of interest policies and decided against putting anything determinate in the Bylaws at this time. Council could test-run policy through the standing rules next year.
-LSC decided it was important to have a hard copy go to the President to ensure receipt of all legislation. The Bylaws do not require that it be the Council Chair who submits the hard copy, but the Council Chair is responsible for making sure it happens.
-Casarez raised issue of open call for Chief of Staff, especially if it is not a paid position. Rush announced a conflict of interest, since he is applying for Chief of Staff for next year. LSC decided not to pursue the issue at this time since there is no clearly defined position in the Constitution or Bylaws.
-LSC decided not to change “shall” to “may” about committee members being removed due to violation of standing rules, since it leaves too much to the discretion of Council Chair and Committee Chairs, and because removed representatives have the right to appeal.
-LSC recommends shorter timelines to allow more time for submissions to legislative committees, but with the current Constitutional requirement of posting Council agendas five days before Council, changing the timeline is not feasible. Next year Council should examine the Constitutional requirement and these timelines.
-New Finance article in Constitution requires that the Bylaws article be reviewed, but LSC did not have time to do this. The Finance Bylaws have been reviewed three times this year already, so the LSC recommends this Bylaws article be reviewed next year.

Meeting relocated to GPSA Office SUB 1021 at 10:08 p.m. Meeting reconvened at 10:17 p.m.

Committee continued reviewing the Bylaws.
-Birky motioned to approved lists of substantive and nonsubstantive changes to Council, seconded. 4-0-0

Constitution & Bylaws Working Group
Final Report
April 11, 2012

Prepared by Jee Hwang, Working Group Lead

Contributing Members: Talal Saint-Lôt (Public Administration), Katie Richardson (Physics & Astronomy), Carlyn Pinkins (History), Meg Edwards (Political Science), Daniel Shattuck (Anthropology), Heather Berghmans (Public Administration), Matthew Rush (Nanoscience & Microsystems), and Jee Hwang (Economics).

Comments in Brown are the most recent recommendations

******************************************************************************
Constitution IV Sec1.C.– insert commas between “Duties” and “Powers”, and “, and” between “Powers” and “Responsibilities”

Comments from Judicial consultant
Suggestion: Court Clerk
The Court Clerk takes on several of the roles that the Chief Justice was previously responsible for:
1. Receiving complaints and answer
2. Receiving advisory opinion requests
3. Ensuring the Court is supplied with the necessary documents and information for a proceeding.
4. Scheduling functions of the court monthly meetings.
5. Communicating deadlines, and appearances to parties.
6. Maintaining the record and creating the annual written report.

This change could occur within the Bylaws, the duties are already required by the constitution, but the duty is not assigned to a particular person. The purpose would be to allow the court to act as an intermediary to preserve the independence and decorum of the court. All contact regarding the judicial capacity would be filtered through the Clerk.

The working group felt the duty assignments should be allocated at the discretion of the Chief Justice and that the Associate Justices should aid the CJ when possible instead of creating a clerk position. This is not to understate the importance of other court duties and the dedication of the members of the Court of Review. The group members simply ask that the Court work out some arrangement amongst the Justices to accomplish the above tasks, and to try working within the system to develop or augment existing protocols that will allow them to preserve independence.

Constitution IV S2 B 2
Number of justices: There is no maximum number of justices, nor an expectation of an odd or even number. The number is flexible, but it would seem more prudent to require a static number, with stipulation that a minimum number are required to decide on a complaint or respond to an advisory opinion.

Recommend maximum of five (5) total justices (1 Chief Justice, 4 Associate Justices).

Constitution IV S2 A 1-2

Term of office: Chief Justice begins last day of the semester, lasting two years. Associate justices begin after appointment and last one year. The Chief Justice office begins during the start of the summer session during which there are no associate justices. This means the Chief Justice is serving his term while there is effectively no Court. It also means that the Chief Justice must be appointed a year in advance (IV S2 A 3, first Council meeting).

The proposed changes to the constitution at Council on 3/31/12 essentially say that there will not be a Court of Review during the summer months. LSC proposals seem to have kept this section relatively unchanged from the original version.

Bylaws – create the opportunity for a member of the Judicial Branch to serve as advisor for interpreting GPSA law who does not have to hear complaints as part of Court of Review; remove the conflict of interest of a justice providing opinions prior to a case and then having to rule in a hearing

This(Attorney General proposal) was deferred to a later date by Council on 3/31/12

Bylaws (V.Section1.B.1.) – switch verb phrases around, “serve… and may assist…”

Recommend deleting the words “as a link between” so that it reads: “…and serve their RDSAs, students, and chartered…” The original wording was a bit vague.

UNM Counsel:

- not approved (invalid):
  1) Definitions: “Concurrent Interest,” “Conflict of Interest,” and “Interested Person”

Below is Section 5 from the old Bylaws doc with recommended changes. The entire section was initially rejected by UNM Counsel. Included are some notes compiled from conversations with several GPSA members about this section and conflicts of interest in Council. A definition of “Conflict of Interest” is proposed as well for the LSC’s consideration.

Section 5. Conflict of Interest

A. Purpose: The interests of those who are represented by an individual who has a Concurrent Interest should be protected when GPSA is contemplating action.

B. Procedures

1. Duty to Disclose: An interested person GPSA members acting in an official capacity shall disclose the existence of a Conflict of Interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the Decision Making Body considering the proposed transaction or arrangement.

   a. When a Conflict of Interest arises, the individual may announce recusal or abstain from actions that have a direct effect on the receiving body.

   b. Representatives should not avoid casting votes on issues that present a Conflict of Interest with their role(s) in GPSA.
Therefore, Executive Standing Committee Chair of checks and balance to gaps so that GPSA can continue to function. In situations certainly, th actions capacity dual appointments GPSA members were more concerned with the uncertainty of whether representatives with dual appointments would be able to act strictly in accordance with his/her legislative capacity when casting votes in Council. And should there be accountability or disciplinary actions for offenses?

Certainly, the best case scenario is to have more member involvement so as to avoid such situations, but it seems the limited interest for participation tends to create many vacancies in important positions. Representatives have been very gracious in helping to fill these gaps so that GPSA can continue to function. At present, GPSA does have in place a system of checks and balance to help prevent problematic appointments. For instance, all Executive Standing Committee Chair appointments require Council approval (II.Sec.1.A9). Therefore, Council has the ability to block any appointment that could be problematic.
Also, the President has the power and obligation to discharge any member of the executive board whom may be violating the trust and confidence of the GPSA membership [IV.Sec.1.6 and 10], and university policy on student conduct provides an additional layer of protection.

Council Representatives however, are obliged to exercise good judgment and should be aware of the concerns raised by other members. Personally, I believe Representatives should be held accountable for engaging in wanton acts or malfeasance. Section 5 (above) with the recommended changes, however, is a compromise between strong preemptive action and mild complacency. Section 5.B3 has been crossed-out because it seems further deliberation would be needed before attempting to specify any type of sanction against a council member. I have observed many Representatives who voluntarily disclose potential conflicts of interest and cast abstentions even though there are no legal stipulations requiring them to do so. Such decisions demonstrate integrity and honor, and set a good example for inexperienced members, but again, the aforementioned concerns of GPSA members should not be dismissed. Perhaps a combination of actively encouraging good conduct and mild legal sanctions would prove more effective than any one approach.

Additional comments/recommendations from GPSA public

Bylaws Article II. Section 3. I. (insert): To aid the importance of member inclusion, investing in leadership, minimizing group think. Also assists with innate conflicts of interest with members serving in multiple positions in multiple branches.

“No individual GPSA member shall hold more than five (5) combined GPSA appointed positions and/or serve and vote on GPSA standing, ad hoc, and/or University committees. Inclusive of this rule are GPSA funding project assistantships.”

Rationale.

Recommend rejecting above amendment.

Bylaws Article II. Section 6. E. The GPSA submits to Student Activities, who then submits to University Counsel. Also, the Chair submits to the President, who then has (5) academic days to review and veto, and then the Chair needs the same time frame to resubmit veto to Council or THEN submit approved changes to University Counsel.

The working group could not obtain the information necessary to determine whether extending the time limit from three (3) academic days to five (5) academic days is warranted. With more information, it is difficult to tell whether “giving notice of the veto in accordance with TPNR” requires as much time as it would take to “review and veto”.
