Reward of $500 for Vargas' Slayer

With a reward of $500 offered for his capture by Cerrillos Vargas, brother of Antonio D. Vargas, who was killed at Ojo Caliente, Juan de Dios Archuleta is today a fugitive from justice, accompanied by his brother, Elias Archuleta, with the officers of practically every county in northern New Mexico in hot pursuit.

In view of the tempting reward offered and the great excitement caused by the homicide, it is not believed that the brothers can remain long in freedom, and their capture at any hour would cause no surprise. When last seen the two Archuletas were riding at top speed over the hills just below Madera.

The details of the tragedy which have just come to light, show that the killing grew out of the prosecution of Elias Archuleta upon the charge of carrying a deadly weapon and the attempt by the accused man to secure a continuance of the hearing before Justice of the Peace Moreno, of Rio Arriba county.

Antonio Vargas represented the prosecution in the justice's court and resisted the effort to continue the hearing. The controversy in the court room became so bitter that Justice Moreno ordered the building cleared. Immediately after leaving the court room, firing was heard, and before anything could be done to prevent bloodshed, Vargas was slain and his friend, Maximiliano Rivera, was shot through the jaw. Whether Rivera can recover from his wound is considered extremely doubtful.

Verdict at Inquest.

A coroner's inquest was held Friday afternoon, with the result that a verdict was returned finding that Vargas came to his death from gunshot wounds inflicted by Juan de Dios Archuleta. The only eye-witness to the killing, Maximiliano Rivera, could not testify orally owing to the nature of his wounds, but from signs and nods of the head he indicated that Archuleta was the slayer of Vargas.

Vargas was shot four times, once in the back of the head, once under the right shoulder blade, once in the stomach and once in the thigh. He lived only a few minutes after being wounded.

$25,000 Ranch Deal Made at Fort Sumner.

Fort Sumner, July 18.—James E. Brown has sold his cattle ranch, located five or six miles northeast of Fort Sumner, and about 350 head of cattle, to Sidney, W. F. and M. M. Pitt and C. M. Davenport, of Roswell. Mr. Brown had sold his steer herd earlier in the season.

Between 7,000 and 8,000 acres of deeded and leased land went in the deal. The price paid for the cattle and land was $25,000.

The gentlemen who made the purchase are well known Pecos Valley stock and business men and have organized a corporate stock company to be known as Pitt and Company.

Mr. Brown retained his horse herd and will undoubtedly stay in this part of the valley. As he expresses it, "I have lived in this country too long to be contented anywhere else."

Pitt Ross, of Albuquerque, was in Belen the later part of last week on business.

Wealth of State a Billion Dollars

Every time that Taos county pays one dollar to the state for the good roads fund, Santa Fe county pays four dollars, Bernalillo county seven dollars and Chaves county eight dollars, according to assessment and tax returns. The state tax for good roads actually paid amounts to six cents per person in Taos county, twenty cents per person in Santa Fe and Bernalillo counties and one dollar per person in Luna county. These and other vagaries are disclosed by the 1914 assessment rolls and the 1913 tax reports.

The valuation of New Mexico property for 1914, exceeds a quarter of a billion dollars by eighteen millions and more dollars. Taking the figures for San Miguel, Dona Ana and Eddy counties the same as last year, those three assessment rolls still being out, the total valuation is $268,095,821 and the taxable assessment $87,171,979, or just about the same as the valuation placed on the railroads, $87,077,439. Considering that the railroads pay on other property besides their track, right of way and improvements, it is realized that they pay more than one-third of all taxes collected by the state, counties, cities, towns and school district. A mere glance over the assessment rolls shows that a quarter billion dollars does not near measure the actual wealth in the state and that a billion dollars would be much nearer the truth. The totals returned by rich counties like Taos and Sandoval indicate that only a small fraction of the wealth of those portions of New Mexico is recorded on the assessment rolls.

There are ten counties with a valuation of more than $10,000,000. Colfax leading with $20,607,321; Chaves second with $20,400,940; Grant third with $20,088,236; Bernalillo fourth with $17,735,300; Dona Ana fifth with $16,507,834; San Miguel sixth with $14,945,637; Eddy with $11,795,151; Valencia with $11,678,904; Socorro with $10,983,813; Guadalupe with $10,814,274. Thirteen counties have a valuation of between $5,000,000 and $10,000,000, these being in the order named: Luna, Santa Fe, Quay, Otero, Union, McKinley, Torrance, Curry, Roosevelt, Lincoln, Mora, San Juan and Sierra. The tail enders are: Rio Arriba, Sandoval and Taos, the three having less than two-thirds of the valuation of Chaves county.

CANTALOUPE SATFT. SUMNER

Estimated Output of 160 Cars for this Season

Fort Sumner, July 18.—The estimated output of cantaloupes in the valley for this season is 52,000 crates, or from 150 to 160 cars. Orders were placed with one of the local lumber firms this week for bracing and crates for this number of cars.

The season is two weeks in advance of the last one, and all growers report a fine stand and the melons doing fine. One or two small fields were hit by hail and sand storms and had to be replanted, and will be later than the balance. It is thought that none of the fields will produce less than 200 crates to the acre and several tracts will go higher.

Every indication points to the most successful year since cantaloupe growing started in the Fort Sumner valley.

No Further Executions Without Trial

A dispatch from the City of Mexico says that according to orders issued by President Carranza to the governors of states and military chiefs, no one in the future is to be executed without proper trial. This means the re-establishment of the constitutional rights suspended by Huerta.

President Carranza has also ordered that the statue of Washington, which was dragged by the populace through the streets after the occupation of Veracruz, shall be replaced at once.

Fugitives who arrived here today from Contreras and Tisapan, villages a few miles from Mexico City, report a serious movement by the forces under Zapata. Contreras was attacked by the Zapatistas early this morning. The garrison, consisting of only seventeen federals, was driven off and the Zapatistas to the number of several thousand started pillaging and burning the houses. Tisapan is only about twelve miles from here and connects directly with the capital by an electric railway.

Many of the inhabitants of villages in the federal district are fleeing to the capital for protection. They fear outrages and an attack by the Zapata adherents in the suburbs.

Federal troops were dispatched from the capital to check the advance of the marauders.

It is reported that all the members of the diplomatic corps accredited to the Huerta government are to be recalled on the establishment of the new provisional government. The German and Russian ministers announced their intentions today of asking for leave of absence.

Pascual Orozco and Gen. Francisco Cardenas with men, began a new revolutionary movement today. Orozco is operating north of Aguas Calientes and Cardenas is preparing to invade the state of Michoacan.

The Brazilian minister, according to a current report here tonight, has sent a cablegram to the Brazilian ambassador at Washington, asking him to make representations to Secretary of State Bryan on the grave consequences likely to result from the entry of constitutionalists or revolutionists into the capital. The minister urges that the United States take prompt steps to prevent this occurrence.

Looting is feared should the Zapatistas come into the capital and much alarm has been caused by their active operations in the last twenty-four hours in the federal district.

Murder Mystery Unsolved

Galveston, Tex., July 21.—Detectives tonight were unable to solve the mystery surrounding the supposed murder of a young woman whose body was found today on the beach front near here. The woman was shot through the brain.

Imposing Funeral Ceremony

With the solemn rites of the Roman Catholic church, the funeral of the late Representative Antonio D. Vargas, who was murdered near Ojo Caliente Friday morning, took place from the Cathedral of St. Francis in Santa Fe Tuesday morning. The requiem mass was celebrated by the Rt. Rev. Monsignor Antonio Forchegu, vicar general of the archdiocese of Santa Fe.

Many of the relatives and friends of the deceased were present at the ceremony and accompanied the body to the Rosario cemetery where it was interred.

The pallbearers were District Attorney Alexander Read, Attorney B. M. Read, Mayor William G. Sargent, Gilberto Mirabal, Patrocinio Lopez and Manuel B. Baca.

The singing at the funeral service in the cathedral was by the fourteen Christian brothers, French refugees of Zacatecas, who have splendid voices and who sang the Latin psalms with unusual fervor. One of the refugees played the organ and proved himself an able musician.

The body of Mr. Vargas reached Santa Fe at about 7 o'clock Monday evening on the Denver & Rio Grande train.

County Physician David Knapp made an examination of the body and expressed the opinion that death had resulted from the bullet wound behind the ear and the bullet wound through the lung. Dr. Knapp was informed that Mr. Vargas, after receiving the three bullets in his body, seemed conscious for a second or two before he fell.

HOWARD A NEAR SPECTATOR.

George Volney Howard, the well known attorney of Santa Fe, was in Ojo Caliente at the time of the shooting of Vargas and upon the alarm being given rushed with a companion to the justice court, seizing whatever weapons were handiest; arriving after the birds had flown, finding a chance however to be of assistance in taking care of the body of Vargas. Mr. Howard described the excitement in Ojo Caliente as most intense and gave it as his opinion that Archuleta's brother fled with him for fear that he might be lynched if he remained behind.

Motion for Rehearing Overruled

The state supreme court today overruled the motion for a rehearing filed in the case of Dr. John W. Colbert against the Albuquerque Morning Journal, charging libel. The district court in Bernalillo county awarded Dr. Colbert $3000 damages for alleged libelous articles appearing in the Albuquerque morning paper, the supreme court in a decision a few weeks ago affirming the verdict. The court's action today means that the damages must be paid Dr. Colbert.

Grasshopper Exterminator

Belen, N. M., July 17, 1914. Publisher Belen News.

There are many complaints from farmers of grasshoppers making their appearance, and may become so abundant as to cause considerable damage to alfalfa and other crops. Last year our firm had many copies of the enclosed recipe printed and distributed amongst the farmers, but it seems that few have profited by same, perhaps you would give publication both in your English and Spanish papers, and do good to those who take interest.

"Grasshoppers"

Professor F. M. Webster of the Department of Agriculture recommends for killing grasshoppers the following mixture:

- 1-2 Barrel horse manure
- 1 Pound salt
- 1 Pound Paris green

If the manure is not fresh then the salt should be dissolved in water.

The grasshoppers are very fond of the above mixture, and millions can be killed with it.

Yours very truly,
JOHN BECKER.

Goat Herder Shot by Woman

Carlsbad, N. M., July 20.—The body of J. H. Reed, a goat man, was found yesterday in the home of C. L. Brown, near Queen, in the Guadalupe mountains. Mrs. Brown admits shooting him because he made improper advances. Her husband had come to Carlsbad leaving her and three children alone. She was taken to jail and will have a preliminary hearing tomorrow. Mr. Brown is a homesteader, coming here seven years ago from Missouri. They are poor but well liked.

Rehearing Granted in Important Case

Santa Fe, July 21.—The state supreme court has granted a rehearing in the case of the Board of Education of Santa Fe vs. Ida F. Astler, involving the tenancy of quarters in the old military headquarters building, the property of the school board and now in part occupied by forestry offices and the chamber of commerce. The case is an interesting one and while the amount involved is small, has been closely watched because it involved the question of notice given by landlord to tenant to vacate.

Miss Barbara Spotts is visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Cassel.

Horse Thieves Head Toward Albuquerque

Aztec, N. M., July 21.—Three men supposed to have been Paul Rowe, Jesse McCoy and Lewis Collier, stole a horse from Walter Anderson, at Elco, one from a Mexican near La Posta, and one from Ed McDonald at Riverside. The thieves traveled south into this county, and were followed by a posse consisting of Ed McDaniel, Walter and Lloyd Anderson, Bob Frazier, Pete Finch and Perle Bond. The trail led over from Cedar Hill to the San Juan river, thence up Gobernador canyon, where it was lost. The horse of McDaniel was a red roan, 4-year-old, branded TZ on left shoulder. It is supposed the thieves are headed south toward Albuquerque.

Pueblo Indians Are Held to Grand Jury

Santa Fe, July 21.—Five bottles of whiskey, one bottle of sour wine and one jug of sweet wine today decorated the desk of Federal Court Clerk Harry F. Lee. He was merely house-cleaning after an unusually busy term of court in which the greater number of exhibits happened to be intoxicating spirits.

That this is also the probability for the next term was evidenced today, when U. S. Commissioner Melvin T. Dunleavy held to the federal grand jury under $300 bond, Damasio Cato and Sotero Ortiz, both Pueblo Indians, on the charge of introducing liquor on the San Juan Pueblo grant. The men were apprehended by Special U. S. Officer Robert Conroy and both pleaded guilty.

P. A. Speckmann, an old newspaper man, not in age, but in experience, who edited and managed "The Belen News" and "El Hispano Americano" for something over a year, and also published the "Estancia News" for a period of some seven or eight years, arrived in Belen last evening overland from Estancia where he is now farming on an extensive scale. Mr. Speckmann was accompanied on his trip to Belen by Mr. W. W. Richards, an old-time settler in the Estancia Valley. Mr. Speckmann will remain here for a few days on business.

Progressives Muddled.

The progressives seem to be rather badly muddled in the campaign plans for this good year, 1914. Theodore Roosevelt does not seem to have the clear political vision of former days. He is floundering over the New York governorship, settled, however, firmly in his determination that District Attorney Whittman shall not be elected. To prevent the success of the Republican ticket he is willing to turn the state over to Tammany and Boss Murphy again.

Unless his vision has been completely darkened by his egotism, Colonel Roosevelt knows quite well that he nor any other progressive stands the slightest show of election in New York state with Glynn, a Tammany man at heart, running as the regular nominee of the Democrats, and with Whittman, who has made a record of wonderful efficiency, the candidate of the Republicans.

On the other hand, it is hardly believable that Whittman can be elected with a strong progressive candidate in the field. What would Roosevelt gain by turning the state over to Tammany? What advantage can he hope to gain from the defeat of his party?

Then, he hopes to carry enough congressional districts in the nation to give the progressives a balance of power in the lower house. That is even more absurd than the New York governorship situation. It is claimed by some that New Mexico is likely to send a Bull Moose congressman. The strongest man the bull moosers can put up in the state this year cannot possibly hope to get a thousand votes—five hundred is the more likely figure.

Colonel Roosevelt was a candidate with a strong personal following. Without him in the field there will be a tremendous slump everywhere. The people never have understood his platform. That platform contained forty-six paragraphs standing for thirty varieties of political principles.

Where tests have been made during the past two years, the bull moose vote has dwindled almost to the vanishing point, except in Massachusetts, where it held up fairly well owing to the unpopularity of the Republican candidate for governor.

Roosevelt had an opportunity to come back into the Republican fold. The errors of management in that party had been so flagrant that defection from it two years ago was regarded as a virtue rather than a desertion of principle. The Republicans generally were disposed to so regard it and to welcome the return of the colonel with a great multitude of others who either voted for Wilson or for Roosevelt in the last campaign.

But the colonel didn't see it that way. It is said that he wants to have history record him as the founder of a great political party, and that he is willing to take whatever course may be necessary to accomplish that ambition.

—Albuquerque Journal.

About Politics.

No man has a right to demand from the Republican or Democratic parties nominations for congress or corporation commissioner. That is a matter up for decision by the regularly constituted machinery of both parties. Any man who says to his party, "I will defeat you unless I am named for congress," has stamped himself unfit for nomination by that act alone, if other reasons did not exist.

No party that can be "busted up" by the ambitions of one man is worthy of success. On the other hand, there is no law against any man who likes becoming a candidate for any office within the gist of the people. This is a country where majorities rule. We have no Pancho Villas here, however much some would like to imitate that gay and festive gentleman.

Furthermore, this is not a state where bosses thrive any more. The party boss has had his day and been retired to the scrap heap. The same scrap heap waits any man who tries to take on the job.—Ex.

"Sticking" to the Farm

The Minneapolis Journal has just published the story of Henry Whittan, who came to Minneapolis and took up a homestead seventeen years ago. He owed sixty dollars and had exactly four dollars and ten cents in cash, a rather meager start for a farmer.

But he stuck to it, got the patent to his land, now has horses and cattle and hogs, chickens and turkeys, a good farm house with hot and cold water in it and an electric lighting plant of his own. He has big barns for his crops, because he has bought other lands in the neighborhood until he has six quarter sections, owns an automobile and bank stock and all the latest farm machinery. He doesn't owe a dollar.

He made every dollar he owns on that farm, never having speculated as a trader in anything. What he bought he has kept. When recently asked what he would take for his farm he replied to the real estate man in a letter from which the following is extracted:

"It is worth more than anything else on earth. It is not for sale. It is the home of my wife and children, the place that has made me independent and where I have spent the happiest days of my life."

When Mr. Whittan was asked if he could do as well now were he compelled to start all over again, he unhesitatingly said, "yes." He said he knew farmers starting now with nothing, some of them worse in debt than he was when he took up his quarter section, who are making more money than he was able to make when he began seventeen years ago. He says the value of a postage stamp is in sticking till it "gets there," and that success on a farm is attained by the same sticking quality.

Roosevelt and the Democrats

With all due respect we would refer Mr. Roosevelt to a certain Virginian of the old school, one George Washington by name, who gathered during his life several bouquets of asphodel, and who had above all, a kind of intuitive instinct that warned him when he was through. And Mr. Washington of Mount Vernon has been numbered among the world's really great men.

Mr. Roosevelt has had about all that this country has to give him; he has filled many positions of high trust, from a seat in the legislature of New York up, or down, to the presidency of the United States; like the centurion of old, he has said unto many a man Do! and he did it. All of which has been right and proper, because Mr. Roosevelt is fashioned out of different clay from most men; but—ah but!—how much it would add to his ultimate fame if he could only bring himself to lay down the cudgel and bask forever in the light of his past performances.

All this recent explosion of the volcano of Sagamore Hill seems to be a most pitiful stultification of a near-great man. It smacks of charlatanism. That the man who has been permitted by the great mass of enfranchised voters to lead them by the snouts for years would seem to be enough glory for even an extraordinary man; that he should now seek an alliance with his old political enemies in a hopeless endeavor to bolster up the crumbling substructure of his personal edifice, is not only poor politics but rather assanine.

If Roosevelt must have Democratic support it might be well for him to see a man by the name of Murphy, Hon. Charles F. Murphy to be explicit, of Fourteenth street, New York, who holds Tammany hall in the hollow of his hand. Tammany has some 200,000 votes to dispose of, and Mr. Murphy can be relied on, even by Mr. Roosevelt, to do the business without being buncoed.

EASILY SEEN BY ENGINEER

Illuminated Semaphore Signals Tried and Approved by German Railroads.

Illuminated semaphore signals, equally efficient by day as well as by night, have been proposed many times and have been the subject of several patents. The idea has been tried in this country, says the Engineering News, and a signal of this class has been in use for about two and a half years in the classification yard of the Prussian state railways at Tempelhof, near Berlin. It is said that it has given good results in ordinary weather and also during fogs, and that the operating costs are small.

The signal has a long blade or arm pivoted at the middle and bent to a parabolic curve. The blade consists of a long narrow mirror, while a smaller mirror curved in the opposite direction gives the back or reverse indication. In each case, a lamp placed in the focus of the parabola furnishes the illumination. A platform at the top of the signal mast serves for maintenance of mirror and lamp. The large mirror has a focal length of four feet, and other dimensions found to be the best by experiment. The reflecting face is coated with aluminum-bronze paint but the surface is not polished, as a diffusing action is thought best. A small parabolic reflector behind the lens serves to throw all the light upon the signal arm.

The signal is lighted with acetylene gas, fed from a steel tank at the foot of the mast, but any other form of lighting could be used.

LEAD IN POINT OF HEALTH

Statistics Show That Railroad Men, as a Class, Are Remarkably Free From Disease.

Railroad men are more healthful than are men engaged in almost any other calling, according to statistics compiled by the United States census bureau, and compared with showings from other countries by the bureau of railway news and statistics.

Figures show that in the twenty-seven industries included in the investigation by the census bureau, there is an average yearly death rate of fifteen out of every 1,000 men employed. The report shows that among railroad men the death rate is but ten yearly for every 1,000 men employed.

Most significant in the showing made by railroad men is the scarcity of deaths due to bodily infirmities, for, while deaths due to accidents are higher in number than in almost any other employment, mortality due to tuberculosis, pneumonia, heart disease and diseases of the nervous system is remarkably low.

Russian Railroads.

From 1908, the beginning of renewed activity in Russian railroad building, to September 1, 1913, bonds were issued for 19 new companies and for the improvement and extension of existing lines, to the amount of $435,250,000, or an annual average of $72,541,667. During this period government expenditures for improvement and construction amounted to $465,628,750, of which $255,500,000 was for construction.

World's Shortest Railroad.

What is said to be the shortest municipal street railroad system in the world—measuring 391 feet, the length of a city block—has been put into operation at Oakland, Cal. The line was built by the city to connect the two ends of a street railroad system and give cross-town service.

Set New Track Record.

The Nickel Plate road has set a new record for a single track line by moving 25 trains west from its yards in Conneaut, Ohio, in 24 hours. This is an average of a train every 50 minutes, and for a single track road is considered remarkable.

Curing a Cold.

A doctor's prescription for a cold is to first take a quick acting laxative, then a mustard foot bath, which will relieve most of the cold in the head. If preferred take a general hot bath, remaining in the water twenty minutes with a cold wet cloth tied on the head. But when this whole bath is taken a blanket must be wrapped round the body, or, better yet, a soft bath robe slipped on. Take hot lemonade or laxative tea.

One Way to Decrease Jags.

In Copenhagen the police have decreased the number of drunkards by a novel plan of "tit-for-tat." If a man is found drunk in the streets he is escorted home in a cab by a police officer, and the cab fare is charged to the publican who served the man with liquor. Needless to say, publicans take very good care that none shall drink too much on their premises, in case they should be called upon to pay the cab bill.

Significance of the Ring.

The signet ring and seals were used in Bible times as pledges of different kinds from owner to owner in business transactions. The "Gimmel," or wedding ring, also of Bible times, was a cunningly devised affair in two sections, and at the ceremony one was given to the bride and the other to the groom. This ring has been reproduced at several weddings in recent years as an odd fancy.

Will Save His Money.

"We must try to keep business out of politics," said the patriotic citizen. "Yes," replied Mr. Dustin Stax, "and I'm going to help you. I'm not going to have any more candidates afraid to speak to me on the street simply because I subscribed to their campaign funds."—Washington Star.

In One Way She Resembles Mother.

A young man on the South Side, newly married, was asked if his wife could make pie like his mother used to make. "Well, I don't know about that," he said, "but she can make about the same 'holler' when I track mud into the house."—Kansas City Star.

Lions Made Excitement.

Three lions broke loose and attacked a mule harnessed to a cart during a cinematograph rehearsal, recently at Lurin, Germany. They killed and devoured the animal, after which two of the animals were captured. The third escaped into the country.

Think It Over.

Our colleague at the adjacent desk has just cogitated this: If a man has nothing, he must do something to have anything. But if a man has something, he needn't do anything to have nothing in a very short time.—Boston Transcript.

Safer Way.

"Dat ol' man o' yobs is a purty good provider." "He shows his sense," replied Aunt Chloe. "He wants to keep me busy occupyin' dishere skillet as a utensil instid of a weapon."—Washington Star.

The Hard Knocks.

"This old world at best is only an anvil and life a sort of Plutonian blacksmith that, with varying blows strikes us into form. The blow that hurts us most may shape us best."—Exchange.

How It Happened.

Ethel—"Did you know Josie had thrown Frank over?" Mabel—"Goodness, no! Why?" Ethel—"Oh, the wretch stopped calling and writing, and all that, I understand."—Judge.

Move to Supply Pure Candy.

Charitable persons of New York City are endeavoring to supply pure candy to the children of the slums in place of the poor material which has heretofore been in their reach.

Varying Effects of Diet.

The heart of the vegetarian is said to beat on an average of 58 beats to the minute, while that of the meat eater averages 72, a difference of 20,000 beats in 24 hours.

Success.

Binks—"How's Dobson making out raising chickens?" Jinks—"Very well. He's pretty near got to the point where he can afford to eat one himself."

Mrs. Blunderby.

Mrs. Kowler—"Is it true that your cousin, Mr. Perkins, is married?" Mrs. Blunderby—"Yes. Robert has joined the benedictines."

Advertising Effect Lost.

Advertising is difficult in Central and South America because so large a part of the people can neither read nor write.

Rule for Life.

So live with men as if God saw you; so speak with God as if men heard you.—Seneca.

Domestic Servants in Britain.

Domestic servants are employed in more than 800,000 homes in England and Wales.

Training Animals.

The psychology of animals is curiously like that of young children. Interest must be won; it cannot be forced. No appeal, save a direct one to instinct, is admissible. Penalties are quite meaningless except as obstacles in a particular path, and as such they must never arouse active fear. It will be seen therefore that the opportunities for cruelty are necessarily limited. Trainers may abuse their charges, but each time they do so they court disaster.

Neatly Countered.

The action at law came up in London. The lawyer was Scotch and the judge was English. The case in argument concerned certain water rights, and the lawyer had frequently to use the word "water," which he pronounced very broad. "Mr. Macpherson," at last interrupted the judge, "do you spell water with two t's in your country?" "Na, na, my lord," quickly retorted the lawyer, "but we spell manners w' t'wa n's!"

Pictures of Thought.

The little six-year-old daughter of a correspondent related to her brother, age seven, a dream which, evidently, she had not enjoyed. He said to her, very seriously, "Never mind, sissy; dreams are only moving pictures in your mind." This is better than some of the philosophers have done with their explanations.

Frighten Fish Into Net.

A novel way of fishing among Chinamen is with a net and clapper. The net is stretched on a light bamboo frame in the shape of a truncated pyramid. The fisherman either sits in a boat or wades in the shallows, striking the water with the wooden clapper, which frightens the fish into the net.

Must Be in the Blood.

A London cat is said to relish feeds of pastry, chocolate, blackberries, tomatoes, egg shells, and even wood as a variety on the general feline fish and meat diet. But many a landlady has credited her cat with even a more catholic taste when her lodger began to think he missed things.

Her Opportunity.

Maid—"I've come to give notice, ma'am." Mistress—"Indeed?" Maid—"And would you give me a good reference, ma'am? I'm going to Mrs. Jones, across the way." Mistress—"The best in the world, Maggie. I hate that woman."—New York Globe.

Brotherly Amenities.

"We don't have any grass growing on our streets," sneered the New Yorker. "No, I dare say not," replied the Philadelphian. "I suppose your street car horses nibble it off as they browse along."—Lippincott's Magazine.

Had Much to Learn.

First Stenog—"How do you like your new boss?" Second Stenog—"Great! He don't know no more about grammar, spellin', an' punctuation than I do; he's jest out 'er college."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Worse Than Quoted.

"I don't see," said Mrs. Pozzale, "why it is said of a homely woman that her face would 'stop a clock.' I know women whose faces would cause a clock to run itself to death from sheer fright."

Reasons and Women.

"When a woman can give a reason for disliking a man, she hasn't any if her dislike comes just because she has no reason there's generally good ground for it."—Reginald Wright Kaufman.

Danger in "Scorching."

An eminent doctor says he has found a cyclist's pulse to beat as high as 250 times a minute immediately after making a fast mile. This illustrates the danger of "scorching."

Surprised Explorer.

An African explorer found a very modern American sewing machine being operated by a woman in a native village in the heart of the dark continent.

Thackeray's Unique Distinction. Thackeray stands alone, according to a gatherer of unconsidered trifles, in that he is about the only man of genius who possessed yellow hair.

Good Position.

"What does your father do for a living?" asked one little girl. "Why," replied the other, "he takes up the col-lections in church."

Biblical Hunger Strike.

And there was set before him meat to eat; but he said I will not eat until I have accomplished my word.—Genesis xxiv., 33.

Origin Not to Be Traced.

Outside of Ulster the Irish are mainly of Celtic stock, but their origin is lost in antiquity.

Pointer for Poets.

If trading stamps were given with the works of the poets more women would buy them.

B. C. Becker spent Wednesday in Albuquerque, returning that night.

Miss Villa O'Brien has been unable to work the past two days on account of a severe cold.

Miss Sarah Maher left Sunday for Albuquerque, where she will visit with friends for a few days.

Quite a crowd of young people surprised Mrs. H. E. Byers Tuesday evening in celebration of her birthday.

The small son of M. L. Moore fell from his horse Tuesday afternoon and broke his arm. The injury is not serious, however.

Mrs. A. C. Bradley, and two children arrived last night from Lawrence, Kas., to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Becker, for a month.

J. D. Stephens, formerly of Belen, was among those of the National Guard who spent several weeks in Deming and returned to their homes via Belen Wednesday.

The members of the Lutheran Ladies Aid Society will go on a picnic near the river today. The grove has had some attention lately and makes a nice place for such occasions.

"Farmer" John D. Hughes, architect, who has been a resident of Belen for the past six months, returned Sunday after a week's visit with relatives and friends in Albuquerque.

Dr. Ziegler left Tuesday evening for a few weeks vacation at Valley Ranch, N. M. He will be joined there by Miss Ruth Ziegler, who has been attending the Normal University at Las Vegas.

Mr. Arnold Pohl left Sunday morning for New Orleans, from where he will go on to Salvador, Central America, to join his sister, Miss Lillian Pohl. Mr. Richard Pohl, Sr., returned from there last week and reports everything in good condition.

Mr. Guy Burford, formerly cashier in the local Harvey house and one of the old stars on the Belen ball team, but who has been absent from here for some time is again with us, renewing acquaintances and shaking hands with his many old-time friends.

Jake Brito, the efficient pipe-fitter in the local shops, who went up to Las Vegas Saturday, returned Sunday morning, accompanied by his family. Mr. Brito and family expect to make Belen their permanent home. They will occupy a nice little place about three blocks from the roundhouse, where Mr. Brito has a quarter of an acre planted in nice garden truck, which is in a flourishing condition.

Mr. Victor Sais, of Albuquerque, was in Belen Monday for the purpose of replenishing his stock of provisions for his ranch in Casa Colorado and securing farm hands as help in harvesting season (especially this year) is hard to be found. Mr. Sais says crops this year will prove to be something phenomenal. He is one of the most extensive and prosperous cattle and sheep owners of this part of the "New State" and is on his way from Albuquerque (traveling overland) to his extensive interests in this locality. In regards to garden stuffs, Mr. Sais says the opportunities have never been equalled, as the abundant rain of the past week or ten days have done miraculous things for this class of vegetation.

De Baca and Walton Named as Candidates

Santa Fe, July 20.—Surprise was caused among democrats here by the demand of the Clayton Citizen that Lieutenant Governor E. C. de Baca make the race for congress on the democratic ticket. It is pointed out that he need not resign the lieutenant governorship to make the race and even if he is elected, not until March 4 next, by which time his duties as presiding officer of the state senate will be almost terminated. Much talk is caused by a conference of State Senator W. B. Walton and Charles F. Easley, who resigned as democratic committeeman from Santa Fe county. There is a movement on foot to nominate Walton for congress, an honor for which he had been considered two years ago and even in territorial days.

On the republican side, State Senator E. C. Crampton is being mentioned as the dark horse who would be sprung by Colfax and San Miguel counties, but Senator Crampton, while here last week, is quoted as saying that he would not permit his name to be used as a candidate.

But for a similar refusal of Col. R. E. Twitchell to make the race, he too, would come to the convention with a large following of delegates, as would State Senator B. F. Pankey of Galisteo.

Election Proclamation

A petition signed by more than one-fifth of the electors of the county of Valencia, including women qualified as provided in Section 1, Article VII of State Constitution, having petitioned the Board of County Commissioners for a high school election, in conformity with Chapter 57 of the Laws of 1912, as amended by Chapter 20 of the Laws of 1913, for the establishment of a high school in the district of Belen.

Be it Resolved, That an election is hereby called for Monday, July 27th, 1914, as provided by Chapter 105 of the Laws of 1909.

Be it furthermore resolved, that the clerk of this board is hereby instructed to give written notice to the county chairmen of each political party of the day when such board will meet for the purpose of appointing the judges of election, and the county chairman of each of the two dominant political parties shall be requested to file with the clerk of said board, three days before the meeting of such board, a list of the names of such election judges as they may desire appointed in each precinct within the county, in conformity with section 2 of the above mentioned chapter.

Be it furthermore resolved, that the board of county commissioners will at its next regular session July 6, 1914, appoint judges of election and designate the holding places for the above called election.

STATE OF NEW MEXICO. State Corporation Commission of New Mexico.

Certificate of Filing. United States of America, ss

States of New Mexico )

It is Hereby Certified, that there was filed for record in the office of the State Corporation Commission of the State of New Mexico on the 27th day of June, A. D. 1914, at 9 o'clock a. m.

A duly authenticated record of the proceedings for the voluntary dissolution of Bibb Brothers, Incorporated, a corporation of this state, whose principal office is at Grants, New Mexico, and Simon Bibb is the agent in charge thereof, upon whom process may be served, has complied with the requirements of Chapter 79 of the Acts of the 36th Legislative Assembly of the Territory of New Mexico, entitled "An Act to regulate the formation and government of corporations for mining, manufacturing, industrial and other pursuits."

Now, Therefore, It is further certified that the said corporation did on the 27th day of June, A. D. 1914, file in this office a duly executed and attested consent in writing to the dissolution of said corporation, executed by more than two-thirds of the stockholders thereof.

Wherefore, by reason of the premises, it is considered that the said Bibb Brothers, Incorporated, should be dissolved, and that this its certificate of dissolution should forthwith issue for publication. In Testimony Whereof, the Chairman and Clerk of said Commission have hereunto set their hands and affixed the seal of said Commission, at the City of Santa, on this twenty-seventh day of June, A. D. 1914.
