A Good Man Gone

Hon. Melquiades Chavez, Ex-Member of Legislature for Bernalillo County Died Last Tuesday

Hon. Melquiades Chavez, well known throughout the state, died at his home in Old Albuquerque last Tuesday morning at four o'clock after a brief illness; although the venerable orator had been in failing health for more than a year. He is survived by a son, Elias Chavez, and one brother, Carlos Chavez, an attorney. The funeral arrangements have not been decided on and probably will not be announced before tomorrow, according to Undertaker Fred Crollott, who has charge of the arrangements.

Mr. Chavez served two terms as sheriff of Bernalillo county in the early days when being sheriff of this county was not the soft snap it is today. In his later years he served in the house of representatives, having been elected the last time on the reform wave which swept this county in 1906-08. Up to a couple of years he was in constant demand in public and political meetings. His command of the Spanish language was wonderful and he was one of the most fluent and effective orators in the state in his mother tongue. Even those who could not understand his words often were swayed by the old man's eloquence, and although short of stature, his flowing white beard and impressive delivery made him a commanding figure on the platform.

Prof. Gunter Resigns

Prof. J. B. Gunter, superintendent of the Belen public schools during the past two years, resigned at a meeting of the board of trustees Tuesday afternoon of this week. He resigned to accept the principalship of the academic department of the School of Mines located at Socorro.

His many friends will regret that he has severed his connection with our schools just at the time when our educational prospects are so bright, but this change is a decided promotion, paying a better salary with splendid opportunities for advancement. We should feel proud of the fact that one of the state schools should select one of our teachers for a professorship.

Prof. Gunter will leave for his new location about September 15. He expects to maintain his home here for the present, returning to Belen during his vacation. He will retain his interest in the Apiaries of Gunter Bros., near town, which will remain here permanently.

Stole $2,000,000

A dispatch from Mexico says: "As the result of the investigation ordered by President Carranza into the finances of the country during the administration of General Victoriano Huerta, it is reported that a warrant was issued today for the arrest of Eugenio Paredes, former general treasurer of the republic. Paredes is charged in the indictment with misappropriation of more than 2,000,000 pesos of government money. He is reported to be now at Puerto Mexico."

Live Delegation Is That from Belen

The Santa Fe New Mexican of the 23rd contains the following complimentary notice about some of our townsmen:

"The delegation from Belen is strictly a live one. It includes besides Mr. Spicer, F. W. Campbell, John W. Craig, Louis C. Becker, B. Jacobson and George Hoffmann, representing the Progressive party, the Belen Commercial Club and the people of Belen. 'We have a suitable hall to offer,' said Mr. Campbell today, 'have a most central location, most accessible by railroads, with two trains daily each way, have a hospitable community and plenty of accommodations.'"

Belen Defeats the O. R. E. in 2nd Game

After defeating the much mooted Newton, Kans., team, the O. R. E. nine lost to Belen in the second game of the double-header Sunday afternoon at Traction park. The score of the second game was 9 to 7.

The O. R. E. club apparently cinched a victory over Belen in the first inning when they piled up a 4-run lead, partly due to ill-luck on the part of the visitors. From then until the last half of the fourth the game was scoreless. Belen sent seven players over the plate in that period, and Albuquerque was unable to forge ahead, although fighting hard.

The entire O. R. E. line-up appeared to be trying for an altitude record in the final half of the fourth, possibly unstrung by a threatened melee when Hartline, playing right field, questioned the umpire's decision on a strike. Hartline advanced toward the umpire, who hails from Belen, with his bat. Gutierrez shot two balls over the plate as he came on and the umpire called Hartline out. The players gathered about the arbiter and a tiresome argument followed, in the course of which part of the attendance of 500 persons departed.

The locals scored one run in the fifth, another in the sixth and one in the ninth.

Armijo started pitching for the O. R. E., but yielded so many hits that Ayze, the Indian twirler, was sent in. Ayze held the visitors hitless. Gutierrez went the entire distance in the box for the visitors. Gutierrez struck out ten, Armijo two and Ayze seven. Chavez, Hartline, Coen and Hill got into the extra-base hit column, each walloping the ball for two bases.—Albuquerque Morning Journal.

Carranza Changes Policy

Not Disposed to Make Formal Agreement in Advance of Actual Assumption of Power

Washington, July 26.—Advice to the effect that General Carranza is not disposed to make a formal agreement granting amnesty in advance of his actual assumption of power in Mexico City reached Washington today from the headquarters of the constitutional chief.

This is not in line with what the American government had previously understood to be Carranza's position and if insisted upon may disrupt that proposed peace conference in Mexico at its very beginning.

THE ELECTION FOR THE HIGH SCHOOL AT BELEN IS WON BY AN OVERWHELMING MAJORITY

According to Statements Received From Reliable Authority it Has Been Carried by a Vote of Four to One

According to unofficial returns which have been received here up to today, of the election held on the 27th of this month for the purpose of deciding whether or not a High School would be had in Belen, has been won by an overwhelming majority.

Belen took the lead with 524 votes in favor and not a single one against, which proves that the people of this place are very enthusiastic and will promptly turn out in matters which concern the welfare and prosperity of their town.

The returns which have been received so far are as follows:

Precinct	In favor	Against
Belen	527	0
Jarales	115	0
Los Chavez	90	0
Bosque	48	0
Adelina	70	0
Casa Colorada	73	0
Grants	1	38
El Cerro	0	41
Peralta	1	57
Valencia	0	27
Los Lunas	1	13

The High School will be held for the present year in connection with the public school, but it is believed that steps will be taken in the near future for the construction of a proper building.

It is calculated that the High School will have, about eighteen students who are ready and who will take up high school work the coming season.

Mrs. Nora Brumback, who has been attending summer school at Los Lunas, will take charge of the school here. Mrs. Brumback is a well known teacher of wide reputation who has had charge of this school before and is very highly esteemed, having given great satisfaction wherever she has taught and may be classed amongst the best educators of the state.

Several applications have been received for an appointment to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Professor Gunter, who will depart about the 15th of September for Socorro where he has accepted the principalship in the academic department of the School of Mines.

Progressives to Meet in this City

The state central committee of the progressive party met in Santa Fe on the 23rd of this month and selected this city to hold their convention on Thursday, September 3, ten days after the Republican and seventeen days after the Democratic conventions. Former Governor Miguel A. Otero presided; former Postmaster E. C. Burke was at the secretary's desk, and former Attorney General George W. Prichard made the motion fixing the convention date. The following apportionment of delegates was announced:

Bernalillo, 27; Chavez, 8; Colfax, 14; Curry, 9; Dona Ana, 7; Eddy, 8; Grant, 11; Guadalupe, 7; Lincoln, 6; Luna, 8; McKinley, 8; Mora, 1; Otero, 7; Quay, 8; Rio Arriba, 7; Roosevelt, 9; Sandoval, 19; San Juan, 8; Socorro, 9; Taos, 10; Torrance, 8; Union, 14; Valencia, 6, being at the ratio of one delegate for every fifty votes or major fraction cast at the last general election for the progressive candidate for congress and five delegates at large for each county, making a total of 248.

The committeemen present at the meeting were:

J. A. Whited, of Raton; M. C. de Baca, of Bernalillo; M. A. Otero and George W. Prichard, of Santa Fe, and a number of proxies including a delegation from Belen, M. C. Spicer, George Hoffmann, F. W. Campbell, T. B. Jacobson, John W. Craig and L. C. Becker, who presented Belen's invitation for the convention to meet in the metropolis of Valencia county. A number of others were present with proxies.

Slayer of Vargas in Colorado, Belief

Colonel Venceslao Jaramillo, from El Rito, Rio Arriba county, who visited Santa Fe last Thursday denies that Juan de Dios Archuleta the alleged slayer of Antonio D. Vargas, has been seen or apprehended near the mining camp of Tusas. He believes that Archuleta is safe in Colorado by this time, where the Archuleta family has many branches and would give him safe refuge. He also declared that Macedonio Rivera, who was wounded in the jaw at the time Vargas was killed, is on his way to recovery and that the report of his death from his wound is unfounded.

Libel Suit Against Roosevelt

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 23.—The obligation to appear in court and defend himself against a $50,000 libel suit begun by William Barnes, Jr., chairman of the Republican state committee, was imposed on Colonel Roosevelt tonight with the serving on him of the papers in the case. A copy of the complaint was handed to the former president by James S. Y. Ivins, of the law firm which is acting for Mr. Barnes. According to Mr. Ivins, it rests with Colonel Roosevelt whether the suit shall be tried before election or delayed perhaps two years.

Mr. Ivins, after meeting Mr. Barnes in the Republican club in New York, and receiving the papers, motored to Oyster Bay in a downpour of rain. When he reached Sagamore Hill he was met at the door by Colonel Roosevelt's son, Archie. The colonel was at dinner. He had learned that the lawyer was on his way from New York and hastened to meet him. Without awaiting Mr. Ivins' explanation of his visit, he held out his hand and greeted him cordially.

"I'm very sorry," Mr. Ivins began, "to disturb you in a matter of this kind," but Colonel Roosevelt would listen to no expressions of regret.

"That's all right," he said. He invited Mr. Ivins into his library. Then he brought out a box of cigars, explaining that as he never smoked he could not guarantee them. Mr. Ivins declined. He held out the papers he had brought with him. Colonel Roosevelt took them without a word. The men talked for a few minutes and Mr. Ivins left.

Mr. Ivins said Mr. Barnes, when he was looking over the papers in New York, remarked:

"Mr. Roosevelt last year did the very unusual thing of suing for libel a Michigan editor who called him a drunkard. I am simply following the precedent he said."

The only comment made by the colonel was when he was informed of the suit in the afternoon. He had just returned from a walk through the woods.

When the suit was mentioned his face grew stern for an instant. Then he laughed. "Let Mr. Barnes go on," he said slowly, choosing his words with care, "I have never said anything that I could not prove."

It is not the sin a man commits that counts against him, but his persistence in sin. "Go and sin no more," is the word for us no less than for the women who was taken in the act.

Senators are Told to Hurry Home

Members of Congress Hearing from Constituents; Trust Legislation Not to Be Delayed

Washington, July 26.—Members of congress are hearing from their constituents, urging them to get through with their legislation as soon as possible and come home to look after their political fences.

This applies to more than thirty of the senators as well as to the representatives, for this fall comes the first general election for United States senators under the seventeenth constitutional amendment.

Many Republican senators have signified their intention not to delay trust legislation, most of them explaining publicly that congress is tired and that statesmen are not in condition to do their best work.

"We need a rest," is the declaration of the Republicans; likewise it is the slogan of some of the Democrats. It is an open secret, however, that behind the desire for rest, is a desire on the part of Republican senators as well as the Democrats, to doff the toga for campaign togs.

Such Republican leaders as Senators Smoot, Gallinger and Cummins, all of them vitally interested in trust legislation, are also interested in their own campaigns. Popular election of senators is a new thing for them and they believe that it will be well to get on the home ground early. Hence they intend to prevent filibustering against trust legislation and Republicans generally believe that the debate will be a straightforward one from now until the three bills are passed.

Discussion of the interstate trade commission bill will be resumed tomorrow. Democratic leaders hope that it may be passed within the next ten days. Such a rate they believe, would be progressing well toward completion of the legislation program early in September. That is the time that most administration leaders now are setting for adjournment.

The coming week also probably will see some decisive steps taken to fill the federal reserve board. President Wilson is expected to name a western or middle western man in place of Thomas D. Jones of Chicago, and the uncertainty regarding Paul M. Warburg, of New York, also will be cleared up. Most administration senators believe that Mr. Warburg will eliminate himself, and that the president is already considering a man to name in his place. Seth Low and A. Barton Hepburn, the latter the president of the Chase National bank, New York are said to be under consideration.

Delegation to Good Roads Convention

Messrs. John Becker, Sr., John Becker, Jr., and F. A. Delgado, members of the New Mexico Good Roads association, left here yesterday, each with an automobile and party, en route to Santa Fe, where they will attend the Good Roads Convention, which will be held in that city from July 30th to August 1st. In all it is a live delegation, and it is expected that it will be a great factor in obtaining the most promising results.

Will Retire from Politics

Major William H. H. Llewellyn will retire from New Mexico politics, according to an announcement made in the Las Cruces Republican, which says the major is going to take a well-earned rest. The announcement continues:

"Major Llewellyn has served Dona Ana county in one public capacity or another for many years and feels that he has done enough, and no more should be expected of him. He has gone to Santa Fe time after time, and at a great loss to his law practice, and he has decided he will yield to no pressure brought to bear upon him this time. The major has always served the public willingly and now the time has arrived when he wishes to remain inactive and take a rest from the activities of political life."

The Son of a Gun

A son of A. Gunn, a farmer in northeastern Kansas was married recently, and a Kansas exchange says:

"An editor up in the northeastern part of the state is in bad on account of the write up of a wedding. The bridegroom was named Gunn, son of Abram Gunn. The girl's name was Smith. The editor turned in his copy to the office boy the latest thing before going to press, then hurried to the train to be gone two days. When the paper was printed the article was headed 'Gun-Smith,' and went on to say that the bride was arrayed in a dress of 'white mule,' instead of white mull, and she carried a large 'nose.' The editor wrote that the groom was the well liked son of A. Gunn, the boy set it up: 'The groom is a wall-eyed son of a gun.' The editor has never been able to square it with the Gunns and Smiths, and all of them quit taking the paper."

Rift in the Mexican Clouds

That the resignation and departure of President Huerta from the republic of Mexico marks the beginning of the long prayed for return of peace and prosperity, is the opinion of those who have been keeping an eye on the Mexican situation since the outbreak of the Madero revolution and the abdication and flight of General Porfirio Diaz.

The resignation and departure of Gen. Huerta certainly marks the passing of the effort to foist a military despotism upon the people of Mexico, and doubtless means that in the new order of affairs to be born out of existing conditions, the military system in Mexico is to be made wholly subservient to the civil authority, and upon the wreck and ruin of the Huerta despotism there is to arise a free and representative government, founded upon the constitution and laws of the Mexican nation.

The assumption of the presidency by Senor Francisco Carbajal as the successor of Huerta is but temporary and will only last until the reins of government can be transferred to the hands of the victorious constitutionalists, which event ought to be accomplished within a very short time. And with constitutional government restored in Mexico and the military despotism whipped to a frazzle, there is no reason why peace and prosperity should not immediately be restored in the war-torn republic.

It is not reasonable to suppose there will be any more fighting in Mexico, unless it should be necessary to round up a few bandits who may seek to continue the privilege of killing and looting. So far as the Huerta army is concerned, it has been whipped to such a completeness that with Huerta gone there is nothing for it to fight for any more. Former Huerta followers will doubtless employ all their time in arranging the best terms possible with the victors, and the smoke of battle will immediately clear from all Mexico.

That the peace now in prospect will be both speedy and permanent is the hope and prayer not only of the people of Mexico, but of their friends and sympathizers on the American side of the international line.

The call now is for builders who will quickly restore the greatness and glory of the Mexican nation.

Rate Decision In October

Commerce Commission to
Finally Pass Upon Complaint From New Mexico

Santa Fe, N. M. July 27—Mathews S. Groves, chairman of the New Mexico corporation commission, today received a letter from Judson Clements of the interstate commerce commission in which a decision in the New Mexico rate case is promised in October. The decision will be announced immediately upon the adjustment of rates under the supreme court decision in the intermountain rate case, which covers many points involved in the New Mexico case. The New Mexico complaint, which was brought by the state corporation commission, attacks practically every railroad freight rate in effect in the state. Roughly the rate in effect to El Paso on westbound traffic and those to Colorado common points on eastbound traffic, are demanded by the New Mexico commission. Exhaustive hearings have been held and a mass of evidence compiled. The interests of New Mexico are being looked after by Samuel H. Cowan of Fort Worth, Texas, one of the most successful attorneys practicing before the interstate commerce commission.

A Knocker's Plea

Lord, please don't let this town grow. All the time I have lived here I have fought all public improvements. I have knocked every body and everything; no firm or individual has started a business here that I have not tried to kill. I have done all the injury I could. I have said the soil is no good. I have cut every chance that I saw budding.

I have done all that I could to keep the town from growing, and now, oh, Lord! that it has prospered a little is not my fault. I have never spoken a good word for it. I have made my bread and butter in it, but I have always complained of the yeast and said that the cream tasted of garlic. It pains me to see that in spite of all I have been giving grace to say, the town is growing. Oh, Lord! cut it off in its pride; close its stores, dry up its fields, lay waste its pleasant places, blister the feet of those that walk its streets, and may those that have to sell die among their wares. Justify me! give me absolute power over them that come, that I may turn them away again to better places where someone else is in the priestly office I so faithfully performed here!

Lord, I have done my staunt well. Never once have I let one chance escape of doing a l the harm I could. Now I crave my reward. Make me the chief of all the noble Priesthood of Knockers, and when my time shall come, may it be granted me, that I shall ride through the streets of the city I have damned as Balazm did Jerusalem, on a thing that brys. Amen.—Ex.

Proceedings of Board of County Commissioners of Valencia County, N. M.

A petition signed by more than one-fifth of the electors of the county of Valencia, including women qualified as provided in Section 1, Article VII of State Constitution, having petitioned the Board of County Commissioners for a high school election, in conformity with Chapter 57 of the Laws of 1912, as amended by Chapter 20 of the Laws of 1913, for the establishment of a high school in the district of Belen,

Be it Resolved, That an election is hereby called for Monday, July 27th, 1914, as provided by Chapter 105 of the Laws of 1909.

Be it furthermore resolved, that the clerk of this board is hereby instructed to give written notice to the county chairmen of each political party of the day when such board will meet for the purpose of appointing the judges of election, and the county chairman of each of the two dominant political parties shall be requested to file with the clerk of said board, three days before the meeting of such board, a list of the names of such election judges as they may desire appointed in each precinct within the county, in conformity with section 2 of the above mentioned chapter.

Be it furthermore resolved, that the board of county commissioners will at its next regular session July 6, 1914, appoint judges of election and designate the holding places for the above called election.

It's a beautiful world to see, Or it's dismal in every zone. The thing it must be in your gloom or your glee, Depends on yourself alone. —S. E. Kiser.

CHILDREN'S LUNCHES.

I wonder how many teachers and parents realize that often the dull pupil is either under-nourished or really ill.

The child, to do good work in school, should be started out in the morning with a wholesome, nutritious breakfast, one which will "stay by" until noon.

Lack of appetite in the morning is more often the result of sleeping in poorly ventilated rooms or too late hours. The bad taste in the mouth in the morning should not be thought unworthy of attention.

A "grown up" may miss a meal without evil effects, or in fact with good results, but a child who uses all its energy in building tissue cannot well omit a meal. Children are hungry more often than adults, because their digestive processes are very active. It is for this reason that lunches are necessary for the child between meals. The continuous lunching, is much worse than none at all, so that discretion should be used to see that the lunch is served not too near a meal.

The food for growing children should be simple and easy of digestion. Tea and coffee are not children's beverages; milk, cocoa and water will be found a sufficient variety.

All highly seasoned foods, which tend to unduly excite the digestive juices, should be used only by those who have lost the appetite of childhood and need a whip to stimulate the digestive functions. Their continued use has been the cause of the craving for strong stimulants.

A luncheon for the child should be put up in such a way that it is attractive and will be appetizing.

Learn to pack a box or basket neatly. Have plenty of cheap paper napkins, a package of paraffin paper, some rubber bands, all very inexpensive, and a supply lasting a year will cost but little. A dinner taken from a tin pall packed carelessly, and in many cases frozen on the way, is not the kind of food which will produce good blood and clear brain work. Variety is another thing which should be studied, for children like surprises better than "grown ups." A fix or a date or two, or even a bit of candy hidden in the lunch, is a source of keen delight to the youngster. Let us never grow too old to forget our own youth and youth's desires.

The KITCHEN CABINET

THE man who spends all of his time grumbling, is a self-confessed failure. If things are always wrong with you it is your fault. Don't waste time and energy in proclaiming the facts. Put them right.

DISHES FOR THE DAY.

The following dishes are some that will be acceptable for various occasions, to give variety to the diet:

Clam Soup.—Take two tablespoons of butter and two of flour; when the butter is bubbling hot, add the flour, stir slowly until well blended, then add a quart of rich milk, and when smooth season with celery salt, salt and a few dashes of red pepper; then add a cupful of finely minced clams with the juice. Let boil up once and serve.

Crosby Pie.—Chop fine two medium sized apples; after peeling and coring, add the juice and rind of a lemon, one cupful of sugar, one egg well beaten and one tablespoonful of melted butter. Mix well and bake in two crusts.

Chopped Canton ginger stirred into whipped cream makes a delicious sauce for ice cream or in fact any kind of steamed pudding which would use the cream as a sauce.

Chicken Souffle.—Make two cupfuls of cream sauce, using thin cream and a tablespoonful of butter to four of flour, add onion juice and chopped parsley for seasoning, then add two cupfuls of finely minced chicken; add the beaten yolks of three eggs and cool, then fold in the beaten whites and season well with salt, a dash or two of red pepper and put into a buttered dish to bake. Bake until the eggs are set.

Banana Pie.—Pass enough peeled bananas through a vegetable ricer to fill a cup. To this add a half cup of sugar, two tablespoons of molasses or the rind and juice of half a lemon, half a teaspoonful of salt, one beaten egg, a dash of cinnamon, a half cup of milk and a third of a cup of cream. Mix all together and bake in one crust. Cover with whipped cream and serve.

Villa Recalls Wealth Producing Concessions

It is understood that the rich concessions of the state of Chihuahua which had been given by General Francisco Villa several months ago to many of his friends have been rescinded during the present week and in future the income from these instead of going to private individuals will be turned into the general treasury of the division of the north for the maintenance of the army. The commander made an investigation of conditions surrounding these concessions during his recent visit to Juarez, and when he returned to Chihuahua last Saturday issued the order which has done away with the spoils system in the state of Chihuahua. Among the concessions taken from private individuals, it is said, are the cattle concessions, bullion, cotton, and many other rich concessions.

During the secret sessions of the Carranza delegates made complaint to the Villa delegation against many of the concessionaires as being partially to blame for the differences between Carranza and Villa which resulted in a provision being inserted in the secret protocol which passed between Carranza and Villa that these men should be removed from any position and in turn Carranza should get rid of a few petty officials surrounding him. The names of these people have not been made public.

Buried Treasure

Aladdin's lamp was the fabled key to unknown treasure buried underground

Its owner, by a single rub, could summon genii, and have access to the hidden wealth of kings.

You, too, have buried treasure at your command, and Electricity, more powerful than mythical genii, to do your bidding.

Instead of rubbing a lamp, you take off your telephone receiver and immediately a wealth of treasure is at your service.

A tiny spark flashes over the wires overhead and underground and carries the sound of your voice wherever you wish.

Over three and a half million dollars lie buried under the streets of this mountain region in cables, wires and conduits, ready for your use every minute of the day and night.
