SOLEMN RITES FOR THE POPE

Body Taken to Chapel of the Blessed Sacrament in St. Peter's for Absolution.

Rome, Aug. 21.—Borne by her uniformed members of the Sedia-li, who, when he was alive, carried him in the sedan gestatorial chair, the body of Pope Pius X, dressed in pontifical robes and mitre and with the other emblems of his sacred office lying beside it, was taken today to the chapel of the Blessed Sacrament in St. Peter's, where the solemn rites of absolution were performed.

Thousands of persons previously had visited the throne room, where the body lay, to look upon the face of the dead pontiff, and many of them wove themselves into the great procession from the throne room to the chapel. The procession was headed by the bearers of the massive silver pontifical cross and twenty cardinals and patriarchs, archbishops, priests and papal and court chamberlain and members of the Swiss Noble and Palatine guards in their multi-colored uniforms. The scene was an impressive one. Under the flare of the candles in the chapel could be seen the tear-dimmed eyes of prelate, priest, layman and papal guard. Especially affected were the bearers of the body of the pope.

Burial Will Be Private.

The burial of Pope Pius will be private. This was decided upon today.

The body was embalmed prior to its removal to the chapel for the ceremony of absolution. Instead of the antiquated method of removing the viscera and preserving it in a vase in the Church of St. Vincent, near the Quirinal, a fluid, which, it is claimed, will preserve the body perfectly was injected into the arteries.

The late pope's only brother, Angelo Sarto, arrived in Rome today. From a handsome elderly person, grief has changed him to a broken old man.

The contents of the will of Pope Pius became known today. The testament is dated 1911, but has codicils made in successive years. To the members of his immediate family he leaves twenty thousand dollars, which was presented to him some years ago, and $2,400 to his nephews. Both bequests are made subject to the approval of his successor. In the will is the following phrase:

"I was born poor and lived poor and I wish to die poor."

Prince Chigi, the hereditary marshal of the conclave, because of his advanced years, today requested Cardinal Della Volpe to obtain a substitute for him. The cardinal chose Prince Ludovico. The marshal of the conclave is entrusted with the protection of the cardinals during the conclave.

Can Elect Pope.

The Marquis Di San Giuliano, the Italian foreign minister, has ordered the representatives of Italy abroad to state that though nearly the whole of Europe is engaged in warfare, the Catholics can elect a new pope in peaceful Italy.

Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Gilbert are the proud parents of a beautiful and robust baby boy, who came into this great world of ours last Monday evening. Both the mother and child are in the best of health.

Nine Labor Unions in Favor of Parade During Fair

Representatives of nine labor unions of Albuquerque met with Secretary Tom Binkert, of the state fair association, last night and expressed themselves as favoring a plan whereby the unions of the city will postpone their usual Labor day parade and participate on a still larger scale in the industrial parade to be held here during fair week. Represented at the conference last night were the following unions: Carpenters, bricklayers, masons, plasterers, painters, cigar-makers, brewery workers, blacksmiths and electricians. A committee was appointed to call upon the plumbers, barbers, grocery clerks and bootblacks. An effort will also be made to have the trainmen become interested in the proposed union labor display during fair week. It is believed that the plan will work out in an entirely successful manner, because of the interest shown by the union men, but especially in view of the fact that the State Federation of Labor will hold its annual meeting in Albuquerque during fair week.—Albuquerque Journal.

RESIGNS AS POSTMASTER

John Becker, Sr., After Forty Years of Faithful Service to the Public, Hands in His Resignation.

Mr. John Becker, one of our most influential and highly respected citizens, who has done more for Belen and this section of Valencia county than any other known citizen, and who has been postmaster here for the past forty years or ever since 1874, with the exception of about six months, during which time Mr. Gabino Gilbert officiated in that capacity, has handed in his resignation to the Postoffice Department, the same to take effect September 1.

Mr. Becker's principal reasons for resigning were simply that he did not feel that he could longer do justice to the public and properly care for the vast enterprises which he controls in Belen and surrounding country, and which are fast assuming proportions beyond the comprehension of the dear public; besides Mr. Becker feels that he has held the position long enough for one man and is willing to give someone else a whack at it.

It has always been Mr. Becker's desire to please and accommodate the public, in which he has succeeded admirably. His assistants have always been courteous and accommodating and the office under his supervision could always be found in an orderly and ship-shape condition, but business connections in which he is interested will henceforth demand his undivided attention.

Mr. Jose R. Rivera, of Albuquerque, was a business visitor in this place. Mr. Rivera, who is traveling for El Monitor, arrived here last Sunday and departed for his home last Tuesday after having made and renewed a number of acquaintances.

Labor Day Proclamation

The custom of annually setting aside a day known as Labor Day has been established by a desire on the part of the people of the United States to emphasize the dignity and importance of all labor. As good citizens we should recognize that it is to labor, both of the hand and the brain, that we owe our marvelous industrial development and our wholesome prosperity as a nation. Toil of the hand and toil of the brain are complements, one to the other, and one is as important as the other in attaining and preserving a people's welfare. Properly directed labor and thrift are the greatest moral and material assets a community or state can have; while idleness and extravagance lead to ruin and moral degradation. Those who know what it is to "eat bread in the sweat of thy face" make our best citizens.

Now, therefore, for the purpose of honoring the forces of labor, of which all worthy Americans form a part, I, William C. McDonald, Governor of the State of New Mexico, do hereby proclaim Monday, the 7th Day of September, 1914, as

LABOR DAY

and a legal holiday in the State of New Mexico. I recommend that it be universally observed by the people as a real holiday; that business be suspended so far as practicable; that the children in our schools be instructed as to the honor and value of labor, and the dangers of idleness to the end that the efforts of each may be more beneficial to all.

Done at the Executive Office this, the 22nd day of August, 1914. Witness my hand and the Great Seal of the State of New Mexico.

(Seal) WILLIAM C. McDONALD,
Attested: ANTONIO LUCERO,
Secretary of State.

Well Known Young Couple Wedded in Los Angeles.

Following is an item taken from the Albuquerque Journal which will prove of local interest:

Mr. and Mrs. Flavio Sandoval, of 223 North Fourteenth street, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Flora, to Mr. Leopold Mazon, of San Rafael, Valencia county. The wedding took place in the cathedral of the Roman Catholic church in Los Angeles on August 1. Reverend Father Hartnett officiating. Present during the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Sandoval, parents of the bride, and Mrs. Mazon, mother of the bridegroom. Following the church services, a wedding breakfast was served at one of the big downtown hotels, after which the newlyweds left on a honeymoon, traveling first to San Francisco, in the northern part of California, and then to Los Angeles, Catalina Island and other points of interest in the southern part of the state. Mr. and Mrs. Mazon, with their relatives, returned to Albuquerque Sunday and will make their home here. Mrs. Mazon, the bride, is a charming and decidedly pretty girl. Her father is a prominent commission broker and sheep owner. Mr. Mazon is a son of the late Leopold Mazon, of San Rafael, and inherits large livestock and land interests from his father. A host of friends in this section of New Mexico will be much interested in the marriage of the young people and will hasten to extend sincere congratulations.

Business Resuming the Normal

In his weekly review of business conditions Henry Clews, the great New York financial expert, says:

"The country is rapidly settling down to a war basis. The initial shock to business has been safely passed without grave disaster on this side, and as a people we are now gradually resuming such activities as can and must be carried on in spite of the war. The strong efforts to steady the general situation emanating from leaders in the business world are having their beneficent effect. Courage, consideration and co-operation are working wonders in restoring or readjusting trade movements. The most important relief thus far obtained is the announcement that Great Britain has been able to reopen transatlantic communication, with the prospects that other avenues of sea transport may soon be reasonably safe for commerce. We will shortly be able to ship our surplus wheat and cotton, for which we need the proceeds quite as much as Europe will need the products. There has also been considerable relief in the foreign exchange situation, although that branch of commerce is still badly demoralized. The establishment of the moratorium abroad leaves international transactions in a state of deplorable confusion; but these are the exigencies of war and must be faced as best they can for some time to come. Financial London has partially recovered its equilibrium and the reduction of the Bank of England rate is decidedly reassuring.

"The present is particularly a favorable opportunity for intending investors. The United States is the only great country with great possibilities that is free of the curse and demoralization of war. There are, especially now, no securities as a class safer and more promising than American; and those who buy outright in these times of present low prices for permanent investments, and hold on without regard to shocks or setbacks will in due season reap handsome profits."

The fall term of the University of New Mexico has opened at Albuquerque. Because of the advance made in the opening date many students failed to arrive and it will be several days before the enrollment is complete. But there is a large increase in the number of students both from Albuquerque and other New Mexico points, and the indications are that the attendance for this session will be the largest in the history of that institution. The University of New Mexico is doing a great work for its state, and is taking a front rank as an educational institution.

Mora, N. M., recently opened bids for the construction of four bridges to be built by the county, subject to the approval of the state engineer. The lowest bid in each case was by the Missouri Valley Bridge and Iron company, the bid for the bridge across the Sapello at Watrous being $11,900, for the bridge at Weber's crossing $1,090, at Colmer $700, and at Lucero $480. The other two bidders were the Pueblo and Midland companies.

Board Advises Personal View of Property Taxed.

Santa Fe, August 23.—Before adjourning yesterday, the conference of the state board of equalization with county assessors, tax collectors and district attorneys adopted the following resolutions:

"Resolved, that we favor a change in the law so as to extend the assessing period from sixty to ninety days:

Resolved, that we recommend that no reduction of assessment be made for any taxpayer after the tax roll is turned over to the collector, unless he appear in open court with his witnesses so that they may be cross-examined, unless the court shall find that the amount involved is so small that such personal appearance and production of witnesses would impose an unjustifiably large expense.

Resolved, that we favor a law requiring assessment of property only upon personal inspection by the assessor of the property to be assessed unless he already has personal knowledge of the same; and also requiring, so far as practicable, a personal call upon each taxpayer at his residence or place of business for the purpose of making such assessments."

Italian Cardinal to Be Elected Pope

The Mensagero, commenting upon the coming conclave for the election of a successor to Pope Pius X, says that probably the Italian cardinals will join the French, English and American groups in the choice of a candidate, while the Spanish cardinals, headed by Cardinal Merry del Val, will adhere to the Austro-German compact. This would result in the choice of an Italian candidate.

The paper says that the most probable candidates among the Italians are Cardinal Ferrata, who is considered to be favorably disposed toward the French; Cardinal Maffi, who has German tendencies, and Cardinal Le Lai, who is supported by a small intransigent group which is favorable to the continuance in even a great measure the policy of Pius X.

Cardinal Agliardi is considered too old, the Mensagero says, although he is still energetic and active mentally and a competent statesman. Cardinal Farrari does not wish to leave Milan and will advise his supporters to vote for Cardinal Maffi.

The paper continues that the formation of three other groups is foreseen. The first desires that the direction of the church shall not contract too much with the modern world and its aspirations. The leading figures in this group are Cardinals Maffi, Ferrata, Agliardi, Gaspari and Pompili.

The second group desires a continuance of the policy of Pope Pius X and is represented by Cardinal De Lai, supported by Cardinal Merry del Val.

HERNANDEZ AND WILLIAMS CHOSEN

After Two Days' Session, Most of Which Is Devoted to Settling Andrews-Baca Wrangle.

Santa Fe, Aug. 25.—Benigno C. Hernandez, of Rio Arriba county, for congress. Hugh H. Williams, of Luna county, for corporation commissioner.

Thesenominations were made, lengthy resolutions were adopted and a new state central committee named this evening by the republican state convention in about as many minutes as it has taken hours the past two days to patch up a truce between the Bernalillo county factions.

At the final showdown on the first ballot William H. Andrews, of Bernalillo county, drew forty-six votes—those of Bernalillo, Curry and Eddy counties, with five votes from San Juan and four from Grant; but before the vote could be announced Judge Edmond A. Mann, of Bernalillo county, moved to make the nomination unanimous, and the motion carried with a hurrah.

The nomination of Hugh H. Williams was put over in even much quicker time, and was unanimous from the start.

The convention ratified the nomination by each county of its members for the state central committee, which met this morning for ratification.

Spanish Tea

One of the most delightful affairs of the season was the Spanish tea given at the attractive home of the Misses Manderfield on College street Friday afternoon. It was tendered to the members of the New Mexico institute of science and education and their friends. The patio and the spacious porches of the Manderfield home were beautifully decorated with flowers and potted plants. Spanish beauties in native costume made the guests welcome and guided them through the gardens of the estate, where thousands of flowers bloom and where ranks and ranks of orchard trees stand heavy with their wealth of fruit. Mrs. McDonald and Mrs. Mauette assisted the Misses Manderfield in receiving the hundreds of guests who called during the afternoon. In the dining room Mesdames Pope, Bergero, Lucero and Thornton served refreshments, assisted by Mesdames Renehan, Walter, Seligman, Wagner and the Misses Lucero and Berchtold. On the veranda Mrs. Diaz and Mrs. von Nyvenheim served punch, assisted by the Misses Delgado. Little Jane Abbott, daughter of Judge and Mrs. E. C. Abbott, was at the entrance to the patio and received the names of the guests as they passed out from one of the most enjoyable and unique entertainments given in Santa Fe for a long time.—Santa Fe New Mexican.

Mrs. A. C. Bradley and children left Friday evening for their home in Iowa City, Iowa. They were accompanied as far as Albuquerque by Miss Lucie Becker.

The Man on Time.

The man invaluable everywhere is the one who can always be relied upon as being on the job.

Close upon the fault of coming late treads the blemish of procrastination, and that habit once firmly fixed in the character prevents financial or any other sort of worthy success.

Looseness in the matter of being late, "doing" your employer out of time, which is money, is really robbery of your employer.

The excuse for coming late demands an explanation, and often requires deception. A straight forward business man is always afraid of the man with excuses, and when the chance for promotion comes the late Mr.
Blank is likely to be forgotten
and the punctual man has the call.

Beware of the man who is always behind time. Start soon enough. Take the tide at the flood by being in time. Be ready by promptness to open the door
when fate knocks. Caesar's delay to read a message cost him
his life when he reached the senate house.

Colonel Rahl, the Hessian commander, was too busy at the card table to attend to a message bearing a letter which stated that Washington was crossing the Delaware. When the game was finished and the letter read his enemy had gained the vantage ground, and the colonel fell, while his men were taken prisoners.

Napoleon laid great stress on the "supreme moment," and became an adept in taking advantage of the "nick of time" which comes in every battle. He said he beat the Austrians because they did not know the value of time. Grouchy, upon whom Napoleon depended, failed to come in time at Waterloo,
and the delay was fatal to Napoleon—It sent him to Helena.

Don't stand shivering on the brink. Jump in. Don't be perpetually calculating chances and adjusting balances. When you have anything to do, do it. Be on time. Promptness is the mother of confidence. Own a

a reliable watch.—Memphis
News-Selmitar.

And the man who is really
and effectively on the job is always on time. He knows the value of time and if he holds a responsible position he knows how much depends upon his being on time. He has his work and his hours carefully system-atized and when the hour comes that a certain thing must be done it is always up to the mark
and finished according to schedule time.

To the man always and really
on the job time cuts no figure save to mark the period during which there must be achievement. Hours melt into days and days fade into weeks without a break into his schedule.
Always there is before him the things which are to be done, and they are done with cheerfulness and alacrity. He studies no interest save that of the business with which he is connected and work has no terror for him. Cool-headed and charged with dynamic energy, he pushes it along and never loses his head
or his temper.

Such men are invaluable in every business, and while in some instances merit may not be quickly recognized, the man who is always and really on the job
seldom fails in the end to win
the recognition to which he is entitled.

Sit Tight! Don't Rock the Boat!

Sit tight! Don't rock the boat! That's the watchword today. That's the duty of every American at this moment. That's what this country needs to keep it straight and safe and true to its course—absolutely all it needs, says the Chicago Herald.

Business conditions are sound.
We have one of the greatest grain crops in history. Its value has already greatly advanced.
We have a sound financial system, backed by the greatest store of gold in the world. Our banks are solid, safe. There is nothing the matter with the United States.

War will mean an unprecedented demand for supplies. Experts declare American business will feel a great impetus. While other nations destroy, this country will produce. While other nations are armed camps, this country will be a farm, a factory, a forge. Trade extension is predicted in all directions. The immediate future is plain.

The national administration is acting wisely, promptly. The sum of $500,000,000 is available, under the Aldrich-Vreeland act, for an emergency. The organization of the reserve board will soon be complete. This will enable us to deal more effectively with the outflow of gold.
Plans are perfecting to permit
American registry of foreign vessels. This will protect and develop our commerce.

We are preparing to maintain strict neutrality. Questions may arise with foreign nations as to what constitutes contraband.
Such questions can not conceivably involve us in difficulties. They will be settled by the ordinary processes. The general principles of neutrality
and neutral commerce are plain.
The United States will adhere rigorously to them. Friendly intercourse, as far as circumstances permit, will be its rule and procedure.

Stock exchanges have closed
—a wise precaution. This country can not be the dumping ground of the whole body of securities that war-mad Europe is anxious to convert into money.
The closing is temporary. Elsewhere there is no prospect of interference with the ordinary processes of American business.
Stable conditions are here. All we have to do is to keep them stable.

The administration has decided to appeal officially to the public to help maintain existing satisfactory conditions. The public can not fail to respond.
The only danger is one which it may create itself. Its course is simple. All it has to do is to sit tight, to do nothing to disrupt the fortunate condition in which this country happily finds itself.

Don't rock the boat—that's the central idea! The swell from the great battleship "Europe" will be felt. But it will not hurt us. It need not even break over the sides. There is nothing the matter with the boat that we are in. Straight and strong, well-seamed, well-baulked, well-timbered, with reasonable guidance it will bear us safely and prosperously through.

Sit tight! Don't rock the boat!
Keep its head well up against the sea! Don't let it get into the trough of the waves! Let every man realize that at this moment calm confidence and calm thankfulness are the first duty. They are absolutely justified by the favorable situation
in which we find ourselves.
They are the certain guarantee of a continuance of those conditions.

Carranza Money Being Unloaded

Arrivals from Chihuahua report that Carranza currency is becoming a drug on the market at the state capital, Villa money being the recognized medium of exchange. The repudiation of the Carranza issue in northern Mexico has brought about a rise in Villa money. Yesterday both the Carranza and Villa currency was quoted on the El Paso market at 23 cents gold on the peso.

The only effect of the occupation of Mexico City on the money market thus far has been to depress the price of federal currency, without any corresponding increase in the value of the constitutional issues. The European war, according to local money brokers, has had a depressing effect on the Mexican money market.

Reports from Chihuahua are to the effect that General Villa is still at the state capital, but was expected to leave for the south within a few days. The general, it is said, may visit the border before leaving for Torreon, where he proposes to establish his headquarters.

General Villa, so far as is known, has as yet given no intimation as to his attitude toward the new Carranza government at Mexico City.

Columbus.
Christopher Columbus was not, from all accounts, a Jew. Columbus was an Italian. Among the officers and sailors there was a Jew named Luis de Torres, an Irishman named William Harris, and an Englishman of the name of Arthur Laws, or Larkins. The rank and file of the men were Portuguese, Spaniards and Italians.

Polka Originally Bohemian.
The polka came originally from Bohemia, where it has been danced by the peasants from time immemorial. Its introduction into fashionable society was due to Josef Neruda, who saw a girl dancing it one Sunday afternoon in the market place of Elbeletitz, and noted down the melody and steps.

Removing Paint From Glass.
Take acetic acid and dilute it one-half in hot water, then apply to the paint spots while it is warm. Re-heat if it gets too chilled. The hot acid will not hurt the hands, fabrics or the glass, but it must be kept from children who live mostly from hand to mouth.

Spain's Peculiar River.
Extraordinary qualities are possessed by the River Tinto in Spain. It hardens and petrifies the sand of its bed, and if a stone falls in the stream and alights upon another, in a few months the two join and become one stone. Fish cannot live in its waters.

Arizona cities and towns are very much interested by a bill that has been introduced in congress permitting the sale of irrigation water to cities and towns from reclamation projects at reasonable rates. The passage of such a bill would be a great boon to Phoenix, Glendale, Mesa and Tempe, all incorporated cities of the Salt River valley, and Yuma is also vitally interested in the proposition.

The present rainy season has proved none of the best ever known in the history of the Rio Grande valley and the farmers of this section are blessed with bountiful crops. Splendid crops are being grown this year throughout the district and the agricultural proposition is taking on a considerable impetus in this section.

The Ports of Peace

Now what care I what woe may be
So long as dreams remain?
The days of youth that used to be
In dreams come back again.
The voices that I used to hear
In hours now long gone by Re-echo through those visions clear
As bird notes in the sky.

The high hopes of the days of youth
Now shattered past repair—
A sorry wreck are they, in truth,
All buried deep in care—
In dreams—ah, they are realized
In measure running o'er,
And I, the failure, the despised,
Hold close to them once more!

And then the love my heart doth hold
A secret sweet from all!
Ungrateful forever, cold,
Gone ever past recall.
When stars are whispering above
My cot, stark and alone,
I dream, and dreaming find my love
Hath come to be mine own!

Ah, blessed dreams! God's kindly gifts
To ease the heart and soul!
Mid clouds of disappointment, rifts
That open to the goal!
Oases they in desert hopes;
Sweet harbors of release
Where for the lost the gateway opens
Into the ports of peace!

—John Kendrick Bangs.

TEACHES LESSON OF LOVE

Christmas the Season of All Others
Where Its Beauties May Be Learned Anew.

LOVE is the keynote of the Christmas season. The greatest mystery of life is love. Who has not sought to sound its unspeakable depths? Who has not felt its all-compelling power? Who has not surrendered to its irresistible force?

Romances are built about it. Wars have been fought for it and religions based upon it.

Love is the dream of the poet, the puzzle of the philosopher, the theme of the novelist and the song of the minstrel.

Love links all the human race. Its note of victory is heard in the royal court and in the peasant's cottage. The song of love is on the lips of the proudest queen and of her humblest subject.

It is the stimulus of parental affection in the home and of patriotism in the nation. Brave men die for it and noble women perish that they may bear its sweet incense with them to the grave.

How sweet and tender is this splendid attribute of mankind! In its smiling presence, anger, bitterness and strife melt away. How much more has the world to hope for from love than from envy, malice and hatred!

In this period of world-wide distrust, of resentment against economic conditions, of protest against authority, human and divine, and widespread defiance of law, can we not turn aside at this Christmas season for a moment and learn anew the lesson of love?

When we shall have learned that lesson, we shall also know the better and fuller meaning of obedience, contentment and peace.

A YEAR OF PLENTY.

The Christmas trees nod in the breeze;
The candy from them drops.
And folks declare they'll surely bear
The heaviest of crops.
—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Christmas-Tide.

"The twelve days of Christmas," embracing the period between Christmas eve, December 24, and Epiphany, of Twelfth Night, January 6, is unknown as Christmastide. Great as the feast of Christmas is, nothing can be definitely traced as to its origin, nobody knows who first celebrated it, or when or where, or how. We find that various communities of Christians kept the day on different dates until about the middle of the fourth century, when Pope Julius established the festival at Rome, on December 25. The holidays of the year are the red letter days of its calendar. Among them all, Christmas is unique, inasmuch as it brings universal joy and good will. Let the nations, therefore, rejoice and be glad in the gift of the world's greatest life.—Jennie Day Haines.

The La Union school district in Dona Ana county, New Mexico, has notified the department of education at Santa Fe of its intention to install a full high school course, and it is the first rural school district in the state of New Mexico to take such action. Another room will be added to the present school building in order to provide adequate facilities and M. J. Garrett will serve as principal.

SMOKE ON TOY LOCOMOTIVE

Inventor Has Made an Imitation by Covering of Cotton, Suitably Colored,
Over Piece of Wire.

The toy locomotives made for nursery use are so cleverly constructed that, with one accord, we are all prompted to say, as we see them running over the floor, "It only needs a little smoke to make it look like the real thing." So, taking the suggestion, the inventor has made an imitation of smoke, which is to be seen bursting with startling realism from the smoke stack of the miniature engine. The imitation is made by a covering of cotton, suitably colored, over a piece of wire, and when this is properly placed in the smoke stack of the engine the effect is astonishing.—Chicago Tribune.

In the Class.

"Tommy, stand up and tell the class who was Atlas."
"He was the biggest thief that ever got away with the goods."
"Tommy Smith, what do you mean by talking such nonsense?"

Miss Amelia Raff, of Los Lunas, who underwent an operation at St. Joseph's sanitarium in Albuquerque last week, is a sister of our popular local blacksmith, Fred Raff, who visited her at the Albuquerque institution last Sunday. Mr. Raff says that the operation was performed successfully and that he expected his sister would be as well as ever in a short time.

Miss Florela Salazar, daughter of the well-known officer, Jose I. Salazar, of Albuquerque, left here last Sunday night for her home in the Duke City. Miss Salazar had been in Belen for the last two weeks visiting her sister and friends.

Voice of Napoleon

A hundred and some odd years ago Napoleon Bonaparte, the second Julius Caesar, a Corsican by birth and a nobody by ancestry, forced his rule upon France, willingly bowing her neck to his sovereignty, welcome because full of military glory to her, but no less welcome because it was a relief from the despotic tyranny of her own Bourbons.

But when Napoleon usurped the sovereignty of Naples and put first his brother Joseph upon its throne and then his sister Caroline and Murat, when Joseph was made king of Spain and Luis King of Holland, the sovereigns of Europe, among them the great powers of Europe, Austria, England and Prussia, all felt their thrones tottering beneath them, and with mighty armies combined they crushed him.

Looking back upon the ruins of his once overwhelming splendid dominion and seeing his enemies returned once more to their absolute rule, Bonaparte yet had the vision of the seer in looking into the future, and he said:

"In a hundred years Europe will be either all Cossack or all republican."

Is that day dawning upon us, now that the span of a hundred years has passed?

The people of the fair United States, dwelling in peace and security under the folds of a flag of constitutional independence unsullied by the "divine right of kings," strain aghast eyes across the seas where their brothers, endowed by the same God of Love with immortal souls panting for liberty and the right to pursue happiness, are being driven by the millions to the brink and over the precipice of that war which is hell—the hell of barbaric savagery, of fury and madness, of battle and slaughter—the hell of militarism, autocracy and the "divine right of kings."

But in the spectacle of things so ferocious that our minds can not imagine them, and so full of woes that our hearts cannot count them, can we not see the cataclysm of the struggling forces of a new hope, the pangs of travail in the birth of a new government which shall be for men and not for kings?—New York World.

Joel Peterson, of Yuma, Ariz., has just finished marketing the second crop of figs off of 18 bearing fig trees this year. The first crop was ripened in May and sold in San Francisco at 20 cents per pound. The second crop was shipped to El Paso and the mining towns of Arizona and averaged 7 cents per pound. The net revenue from the 18 trees so far is nearly $300, and it is believed another crop of figs will ripen before frost.

A small boy was having tea away from home. He was asked to have another piece of cake, but refused.

The hostess said, "Are you troubled with a poor appetite?" The boy answered, "No; but I'm troubled with politeness."

NOEICE.

Certificate of Filing.
United States of America, ) States of New Mexico ) ss
It is Hereby Certified, that there was filed for record in the office of the State Corporation Commission of the State of New Mexico on the 27th day of June, A. D. 1914, at 9 o'clock a. m.

A duly authenticated record of the proceedings for the voluntary dissolution of Bibb Brothers, Incorporated, a corporation of this state, whose principal office is at Grants, New Mexico, and Simon Bibb is the agent in charge thereof, upon whom process may be served, has complied with the requirements of Chapter 79 of the Acts of the 36th Legislative Assembly of the Territory of New Mexico, entitled "An Act to regulate the formation and government of corporations for mining, manufacturing, industrial and other pursuits."

Now, Therefore, It is further certified that the said corporation did on the 27th day of June, A. D. 1914, file in this office a duly executed and attested consent in writing to the dissolution of said corporation, executed by more than two-thirds of the stockholders thereof.

Wherefore, by reason of the premises, it is considered that the said Bibb Brothers, Incorporated, should be dissolved, and that this its certificate of dissolution should forthwith issue for publication. In Testimony Whereof, the Chairman and Clerk of said Commission have hereunto set their hands and affixed the seal of said Commission, at the City of Santa, on this twenty-seventh day of June, A. ### Buyers to Share in Profits Lower Prices on Ford Cars

Effective from August 1, 1914, to August 1, 1915, and guaranteed against any reduction during that time:

Touring Car	$565.00
Runabout	515.00

F. O. B. Belen, all cars fully equipped.

Further, we will be able to obtain the maximum efficiency in our factory production, and the minimum cost in our purchasing and sales departments if we can reach an output of 300,000 cars between the above dates.

And should we reach this production, we agree to pay as the buyer's share from $40 to $60 per car (on or about August, 1915) to every retail buyer who purchases a new Ford car between August, 9 4, and August, 1915.
