Thief Robs Carrizozo Woman

Carrizozo, N. M., Oct. 5.—Someone entered the private office of Mrs. Julia Gurney, proprietor of the Carrizozo eating house, last Saturday evening, and took her diamond ear-rings and a diamond ring and about $600 in cash. No trace of the thief has been found.

Preparatory to closing up her business for the day—checking out her day clerk and checking in her night clerk—Mrs. Gurney entered her private office for the purpose of putting away the receipts of the day. It was very quickly ascertained that the theft had been committed. The officers were informed and immediately took what measures were at hand to locate the perpetrator. An investigation at the hotel proved that the day porter was missing. He had been seen to enter the private office about 5:30 o'clock for the purpose of lighting the gasoline lamps, and had, about 5:50, called Frank Wenster, the night clerk. However, at 8 o'clock, he could not be found, nor has he been apprehended at this time. This man had been in the employ of Mrs. Gurney for about a month. Officer Hyde, of the Southwestern system, declares he is a professional hobo, who had been through Carrizozo several times within the past few years, but had never attempted to find employment before. It was ascertained yesterday that he had received mail here in three names, but the officers would not disclose any of his alleged names.

Wagon Mound Solves Problem

In view of the complaint of certain people of Cuervo that the teachers sent to teach in the public schools at that place have given so little satisfaction that a private school has been established, the officials of the department of public instruction are much interested, as well as amused, as a new solution of this problem which has just come to the attention of the board.

The solution appears to have been discovered in Wagon Mound, a wide-awake community in Mora county. According to the Wagon Mound Pantagraph, the public school system in Wagon Mound has become a "smooth working machine" under the guiding hand of Professor Champion. The Pantagraph adds: "The selection has been made in a manner to please all patrons, one extra having been added to conciliate opposing factions. The management will probably be able to arrange that those who are dissatisfied with any certain teacher in the primary grades may have their

Will Serve a Day for Every Dollar He Appropriated.

For every dollar he stole from Uncle Sam, Allen T. Myers, of Des Moines, Union county, N. M., will pay back a day in the federal jail.

Myers was the first person to be indicted by the present U. S. grand jury in Santa Fe, which charged him with embezzling $99.19 of postal funds about August 1. The indictment was brought in late Monday afternoon.

When arraigned before U. S. District Judge William H. Pope in the federal court, Myers entered a plea of guilty. Judge Pope then sentenced him to a term of 100 days in the U. S. jail at the state penitentiary, with the costs. Myers had already paid back to the postoffice the funds he withdrew.

children transferred to another room and placed under direct tutelage of another teacher. What more equitable arrangement could be made?"

The officials of the department of public instruction appear to take the view that if this system of switching around teachers to meet the whims of parents and pupils is acceptable to Wagon Mound residents, the department will not interfere. Such an arrangement appears new to the state superintendent, Mr. White, who will perhaps mention it when he writes the Cuarvaites concerning their school difficulties.

An Enjoyable Husking Bee

A large number of Belen and Los Lunas people found out last Thursday when the Shutz's and the Roscoe's, of the Southwestern ranch, near Los Lunas, entertained, that a husking-bee is the finest kind of a thing. The guests went out in autos and buggies, the ride alone being a treat on account of the splendid evening. The house was decorated in greens and pretty colored flowers of which there were a great abundance.

The amusements started with a grand march, the route being outside as well as in and finally ending where a large heap of corn lay ready to be husked. Mrs. John Becker, Jr., was the lucky person in finding the red ear, for which she received, contrary to tradition, a lovely cake.

The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing and card-playing, the orchestra being composed of a guitar and accordion, which was most suitable to the occasion. A feature of the evening was a waxed canvas outside which made an excellent dancing floor in the moonlight.

Very dainty refreshments were served at a late hour and every one went home heartily endorsing the sentiment that they had never had a better time.

No Patent on This.

An Iowa farmer has devised a rat trap upon which he claims no patent but which any one troubled with rats can use. He purchased a big galvanized iron bucket—or garbage pail—and placed it in the barn. He filled it two-thirds full of water and on top of the water a layer of chaffy oats and inch deep. The next morning he emptied out mixture of water, oats and drowned rats. He rebaited his trap and the next morning he figured results and found that he aimlessly but with malice aforethought, gotten rid of eighty-nine rats. He declares it will rid a barn in a short time.

Allied Forces North of the Oise.

Late war news from the Morning Journal of yesterday:

Paris, Oct. 6.—The French official announcement issued tonight, says that a violent battle continues on the left wing north of the Oise.

London, Oct. 7.—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph from Antwerp gives the following communication issued at 10 o'clock last (Tuesday) night:

"The military governor has informed the burgomaster that a bombardment of Antwerp is imminent and people who wish to flee from the town are requested to leave.

"The bombardment will have no influence on the town's resistance, which will be pushed to the extreme limit."

The Exchange Telegraph company adds that the foregoing message has been passed by the British censor for publication.

London, Oct. 7, (1:34 a. m.)—A Reuter dispatch from Paris gives the French official communication issued last night at 11 o'clock as follows:

"The characteristics of the situation remain the same. On our left wing to the north of the Oise the action is more and more violent.

"In the center comparative calm prevails.

"A little ground has been gained in the northern part of the heights of the Meuse."

The People and "Fool" Laws

The people always find some way of getting around a fool law. In one small country town in Wisconsin there have been "solemnized" no less than eight common-law marriages since the so-called eugenic marriage law was declared constitutional in that state. The common-law marriage consists in little more than the agreement on the part of the man and woman, in the presence of witnesses, to accept each other as husband and wife and to assume the responsibilities and privileges ordinarily attached to such a union. The contracting parties were persons who had refused to submit to the "medical examination" required before a marriage license may be issued.

In the rest of the state the same proportion will doubtless hold. In other words, the citizens of Wisconsin are dodging the law, as the citizens of all states dodge all freak and fanatical laws. There is no limit to the distance to which some of those law-inventors will go. That was well illustrated in Chicago, recently, during the National Convention of Alienists, in the La Salle Hotel. The discussion that day had been upon the rather "advanced" topic of the desexing of defectives. After the meeting a newspaper reporter interviewed one of the prominent physicians in the lobby. The eminent medical man was asked if he really advocated such ideas as were discussed at the meeting. "Yes," he replied,

Bridge Parties Liable to Be Pinched.

Beware! Beware! Ye ladies who play Five Hundred or Auction Bridge for prizes.

Attorney General Frank W. Clancy, Monday, handed down another opinion that playing for prizes, even at the Auction Bridge club meeting or in honor of some distinguished guest or for sweet charity's sake, is a violation of the New Mexico statute. The opinion is in reply to a letter from Mrs. A. Hortenstein, of Springer, who writes that several ladies in Springer have organized a card club, which meets every two weeks at the home of some member to play Five Hundred, the prize to be furnished by the hostess, and that there have been threats of criminal complaints against those participating in the games.

"and I would go further. Do you see that beautiful specimen of womanhood over yonder, the lady in the sable furs who is holding the poodle dog in her arms? Well, if I had my way, I would compel that woman, by law, to have a baby in her arms. And do you see the fine young man speaking to her? He is probably a young man about town, a bachelor with no responsibilities, no family cares, no home except a bachelor's apartment, I would compel that man to marry such a woman as the one to whom he is speaking, and I would compel them by law to have children."

If this doctor had his way he would provide for the propagation of the species under police supervision—for his plan would mean nothing less. And yet his plan is not a whit more foolish nor absurd than dozens of others which go into the legislative hoppers every year. Some of them die in the committee rooms, but others emerge, full-fledged and appeal-proof laws, to stand, stumbling blocks, in the path of the real progress.

Messrs. Thomas Gunter and brother, W. J., brothers of Prof. J. B. Gunter, who was recently appointed a principal in one of the departments of the Socorro School of Mines, departed on Thursday of last week for Oklahoma. The former will pay an extensive visit to his sister in Oklahoma City before returning to Belen and resuming the management of the Gunter Brothers extensive apiary located here, while the latter will make his residence indefinitely in Anadark, Oklahoma.

Hoodlums at Work in Belen.

When the residents of this town awoke yesterday morning, their gaze came in contact with one of the most beautiful pieces of artistic handiwork that they had ever set their eyes upon, the job having been performed the night before. It is evident that some young men, as the work could hardly be attributed to young ladies, and with whom it is very likely to go hard if they are found out, not finding any more profitable occupation for their busy hands, and instead of staying home and studying something in order to better their intellect, in which they have proved to be sorely lacking in every respect, in both moral culture and refinement, got busy with paint and brush and decorated three or four of Belen's business establishments with a beautiful carmine and some of the most vulgar phrases capable only of the lowest mind and of those persons utterly shorn of christian teachings and morals. We hope that the young hoodlums will soon be caught and taught a lesson they will not soon forget.

Belen Girl Now Principal at Melrose.

Miss Virginia Simmons, well known in Belen, who is a graduate of the Albuquerque Business College, has been elected to head the business department of the Melrose, N. M., high school.

Miss Simmons was in the employ of the Pacific Mutual Insurance Co., of Albuquerque, for several months after completing her course in the business college and has a host of friends in this city who wish her well in her new work.

Miss Simmons left Belen, her home, where her father is prominently connected with the Becker Mercantile Co., Sunday, and will begin her work at once. Because of her excellent preparation and her valuable business experience, Miss Simmons is especially well qualified for her new duties. Her selection by the Melrose school board was a compliment, both to Miss Simmons and to the Albuquerque Business College.

Latest Society Fad.

The latest fad in society is the tub cure. In this the patient arises just as the crisp air of the morning is mellowed by the first sunbeam. An ordinary washtub is then filled with hot water and soap suds, into which various articles of linen are thrown. After they are thoroughly saturated the patient takes them up one at a time and rubs them briskly up and down on a washboard placed in the tub. This is kept up until the hands, arms and face are glowing pink. The patient then goes into the open air and hangs all the linen articles on a line stretched for that purpose. The one completing the task first announces the time to the others over the telephone, and is entitled to a prize. It is exciting sport and also invigorating exercise.

Miss Velma Pederson is visiting friends here.

None of the European nations want to assume the responsibility for the present war, and notwithstanding that they all deplore the fact, they all keep stubbornly hammering at each other.

The man who measures his acts by what the law allows him to do is not so good a neighbor as the one who measures his acts by "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you." The law is made for the first, the second does not need it.

"It is hard to tell the distance frogs may jump from where they sit," this Mr. Bronson Cutting did not know, but Mr. Ely told him to take it from him and landed him with an answer for every one of his questions, so his little puzzle did not work so smoothly after all.

The crowds who turned out to hear Mr. Hernandez last Sunday were very favorably impressed and are confident that he is the man who will represent this state and its people if he is elected to Congress, which is not only a possibility but a very great probability.

It is very evident from what we have been able to notice during the present campaign, and the stand some newspapers have taken in regard to candidates, that those newspaper whenever a certain candidate does not allow them to run their hands through his pockets, are ever ready to take a pessimistic view of the situation.

The Journal, which on several occasions has denounced Mr. Fergusson, now seems to think that the aforesaid gentleman is the only one entitled or who has any qualifications to represent the state of New Mexico in the national congress.
It is queer nevertheless a matter of fact how quick things may change and how often and how very little it takes some men to vary of opinion.

When the editor of a country paper starts in on Monday morning to get up something for his paper in the way of local news and finds, after nosing around, that nothing has happened in the town or community that he can write up, and nobody gives in any personals or local news, and every fellow he talks to says, "I don't know a thing," and his liver is not working just right and he feels as though he would just as soon loop the loop with Lincoln Bea-chey as to go to work—that's the time when he would like to turn the job over to the "Smart Aleck" who thinks he could get up a better paper than the editor and not half try.

Overstraining Virtue.

The Young Men's Christian association of Chicago has put the ban on tobacco. Henceforward a man who smokes and is unwilling to give up this indulgence, or lie about it, will not be welcome in any of its hotels. In making this announcement a Y.
M. C. A. official says that there will be no trouble in filling the rooms of the various buildings with non-smokers. There is little doubt about that. Excellent men who do not smoke will no doubt be found in numbers in the Y. M. C. A. establishments in the future, as in the past. Nevertheless, this official attempt at prescribing a man's personal conduct to such an extent will be keenly resented by many young men of good character. Rather than have their habits thus censored, they will seek shelter elsewhere. An institution designed to help the young men of the country to better living should hesitate before it overemphasizes the minor vices. There are many clergymen of high character who keep a box of cigars in their study, and who are consistent enough, when smoking themselves, to offer a cigar to their neighbor or caller. According to the new rules of the Y.

M. C. A., these clergymen would not be welcome in any of its dormitories. Too many restrictions defeat their own ends.
To set up a standard of impe-cability will not serve the ends for which the Y. M. C. A. is supported. And, by the way, how many of its supporters are non-smokers?

Ownership of Valencia Coun- ty Homes.

The United States Census Department at Washington has just issued a bulletin dealing with the ownership of Valencia county homes. The important facts contained in the bulletin relative to this county are as follows:

There are 3081 homes in Valencia county.

Farm Homes.

Of this number 1266 are farm homes.

1178 of the farm homes are owned by their occupants and are free of mortgaged incumbrance.

The mortgaged farm homes number 12.

Renters occupy 67 farm homes in this county.

Urban Homes.

Out of a total of 3081 homes in the county 1815 are urban homes.

There are 968 urban home owners in the county.

Of this number 9 are mortgaged.

930 of the urban owned homes are free of incumbrance.

There are 745 rented urban homes in the county.

The census enumerators were unable to secure data pertaining to the ownership of a small percentage of both the rural and urban homes in this county.

Farm Facts.

He who plows can produce anything, including health and happiness.

The magic influence of the plow will make a desert bloom and blossom.

The problems of farming are as serious as the multiplication tables.

Successful farming and marketing are the basis of all human progress.

Farming is successful only when the crops have been profitably marketed.

Good roads broaden our sympathy, lessen distance and increase our usefulness.

It's the man who really counts in farming. Fertile land is necessary, but a master mind must solve the problem of production and marketing.

Hoboes Denounce War.

However the rest of the world may feel concerning the European war, New York's hoboes are unalterably opposed to it. At a gathering of this shifting population announced to take the form of an anti-war demonstration, the sentiment of those attending it was almost universal that war was bad for them since it made people stingy.

While there have been other denunciations of the war this last one, because of its novel attitude even if it is not effective, is likely to be remembered. As a matter of fact, the hobo anti war demonstration threatened a small war in itself. There were members of so many different nationalities present that trouble was looked for at any moment.

But aside from denouncing the effect of the war in making people stingy and in denominating the crown heads of Europe as "bone heads," the meeting passed off without trouble.

Makeup Man in Bad Mixup.

In handling the slugs which make up the lines in a newspaper, and in separating the various items, the makeup man sometimes gets the lines mixed up and they naturally read rather queer. As an illustration of what can happen, we cite the mixup of the Bangor (Pa.) News a few days ago when the printer got a wedding and an auction sale mixed up with the following results:

"William Smith, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Smith, and Miss Lucy Anderson were disposed of at public auction at my farm one mile east, in the presence of seventy guests, including 2 mules and 7 head of cattle.

"Rev. Jackson tied the nuptial knot for the parties, averaging 1,250 pounds on hoof. The beautiful home of the bride was decorated with one sulky rake, one feed grinder and two sets of work harness, nearly new, and just before the ceremony was pronounced the Mendel and Sons wedding march was rendered by one milch cow and one sheep, who carrying a bunch of bride's roses in her hand, was very beautiful. She wore one light spring wagon, two crates of apples, three racks of hay, one grindstone of mouseline de soie and trimmings with about one hundred bushels of spuds. The bridal couple left yesterday on an extended trip. Terms, spot cash."

The Farm Boy's Creed

"I believe that the country which God made is more beautiful than the city which man made; that life out of doors and in touch with the earth is the natural life of man. I believe that work with nature is more inspiring than work with the most intricate machinery. I believe that the dignity of labor depends not on what you do, but how you do it; that opportunity comes to a boy on the farm as often as to the boy in the city; that life is larger and freer and happier on the farm than in the town; that my success depends not upon my location, but upon myself; not upon my wages, but upon what I actually do; not upon luck, but upon pluck. I believe in working when you work, and in playing when you play, and in giving and demanding a square deal in every act of life."

Parcel Post Selling.

The greatest hindrance to marketing adaptable farm products by parcel post is the lack of information on current prices. As has frequently been observed, the only basis upon which such trade can be developed is one of mutual benefit by producer and consumer, or by buyer and seller. The present margin of profit extracted by the various agencies entering into the transportation and handling of farm produce from the farm to the city home must be somewhat equally divided by the two parties transacting such business by mail. Just how to arrive at such division, or how to establish prices that will be just to both parties when market prices are fluctuating rapidly, is yet unsolved. Left to natural tendencies, the city man will buy as cheaply as possible, and the country man will demand as high a price as possible. City papers have published accounts of farmers demanding as much and more for produce shipped by parcel post as the city retail stores were charging. We know of city purchasers who complain because farmers ask a little more for parcel post goods than they could get in their home market. It is the same old element in human nature which has stood in the way of successful co-operation these many years; the selfish tendency which destroys the possibility of future benefit by stubborn insistency upon present gain. Human nature can not be changed by legislation, and human greed will not be curbed by system. But a basis of trade can be established by reliable information on market conditions and current prices.

Some system of determining prices and disseminating information on market conditions seems necessary for the success of the movement.

Two Panatelas.

Little girl, you look so small, Don't you wear no clothes at all? Don't you wear no shimmy skirt, Don't you wear no petty shirt, Just your corset and your hose, Are these all your underclothes?

Little girl, when on the street, You appear to be all feet, With your dress so very tight Surely, you're an awful sight Nothing on to keep you warm— Crazy, just to show your form.

Little girl, you won't live long, Just because you dress all wrong. Can't you wear more underclothes Than your corset and your hose? After while I do believe You will dress like Mother Eve.

You've a very narrow skirt, Little girl, Are you sure it does'nt hurt, Little girl? That's a mincing little stride, Where the street is wild and wide, Are you sure there's room inside, Little girl?

What would happen if you slip, Little girl? Are'nt you afraid 'twill rip, Little girl? You had better take a sack So if anything should crack, It would serve you coming back, Little girl. Let the bottom out a bit, Little girl, It is much too tight a fit, Little girl. As the matter sadly stands, You'll be walking on your hands, And in that event—MY LANDS!! Little girl.
