Open Access Week Events at UNM

by Robyn Gleasner on October 14th, 2022 | o Comments

International Open Access Week is October 24-30, 2022.

International Open Access Week is a global event that provides an opportunity to discuss and bring awareness to our communities about open access. The theme this year is “Open for Climate Justice”.

UNM Librarians from the University Libraries, Law Library, and Health Sciences Library & Informatics Center collaborated to promote Open Access Week and create access to lectures, panels, workshops, and other events related to Open Access and Open Educational Resources. See UNM Open Access Week 2022 Events for the full list and description of events. Below are some of the highlights:

Monday, October 24th, noon - 1:00 p.m. Mountain time

Open for Climate Justice: To Solve the World's Biggest Problems, We Need Open Knowledge

Monday, October 24, 2022 from 2:00pm – 4:00pm Mountain time and in-person
@ Zimmerman Library

Tuesday, October 25th, 10:00-11:00 a.m. Mountain time

Think Global: Act Local - Ensuring an Equitable Transition to Open Science

Wednesday, October 26th, 12:00-1:00 p.m. Mountain time

Indigenous Data Sovereignty and the Open Access Movement

Friday, October 28th @ 1 p.m. Mountain time
