BASEBALL ENTHUSIASTS HOLD A MEETING.

Will Give Big Dance "April Fool's"
Night at the New Hall.

In the spring the ball fan's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of bats, balls, mitts, etc. The towns north, south and east have already gotten busy and have arranged ball teams. Last Monday night a meeting of those interested in the national game assembled in the railroad company's club rooms and started the ball rolling by organizing a team, electing officers, etc. Quite a number of last year's players were present, although some of the best have moved to other points. Nevertheless, there is considerable material of unknown quality here, and all that is needed is a few practice games to try them out and assign them to positions on the diamond, that they can fill to the best advantage.

The following officers were elected:

Dr. E. B. Walker, president; Harry Dawson, secretary-treasurer; W. J. James, manager; Tom Davis, asst. manager, and Phoebe Guthrie, captain pro tem.

The following were elected as a finance committee:

W. J. James, chairman; Oscar Bamberger, sec'y-treas; Ed Kelly and Vincent Reel.

The newly organized association has decided to profit by the mistakes of last year's team, which was conceded to be a lively one, but with too much ego in its cosmos. With very little practice, they challenged the El Paso White Sox to a double game in the pass city, the result of which took the heart out of the team, and they gradually went to pieces before the season was half over. Now right there is a point which the boys should always keep in mind that practice makes perfect and without team work, and lots of it, there is no hope of success.

The team will have a practice game next Sunday, and hold a meeting the following evening, when the players will be assigned positions. Neighboring teams will have first call, and when the boys feel good enough, they may decide to tackle the White Sox, and expect to accomplish what last year's team failed to do. Manager James is an old league player, and knows a ball player when he sees one.

After the meeting, a kid's team was organized with Roy Grumble as captain and it will be under the management of the regular association, who will supply them with uniforms.

On the evening of April 1st, the association, under the management of Oscar Bamberger, will give a big dance at Reel's opera house, the tickets for which are now on sale at the Carrizozo Eating House and also by some of the boys. So "dig" to the extent of one dollar and help to make the undertaking a success. The fact that you don't dance does not bar you from buying a ticket.

Mining Outlook in White Oaks Good.

Jim Woodland returned from the White Oaks mining district Tuesday, where he has been for the past several months, repairing and overhauling part of the machinery on the Old Abe and North Homestake properties. He stated that there is more activity in mining in that district at present than for twelve years. Large bodies of high grade ore have been encountered in several of the properties. Last week a large body of rich ore, was opened on the North Homestake, and on Saturday, in the Old Abe, at the 1,500 foot level, a body of ore, calculated to run several hundred dollars to the ton, was encountered.

Nobody familiar with the district ever questioned its productiveness, and now that the machinery on both these properties is running full blast, much is expected the coming year.

The machinery consists of two 20 stamp crushers, with cyanide plants in connection. The tanks for the latter process are of steel, instead of wood. The accumulated tailings on the North Homestake amount to eight or ten thousand tons, which will be treated by the cyanide process. Besides these two famous properties, there are many others of known value, the owners of which are preparing to work them.

There is a great deal of development work going on in this district, and the indications are strong that the camp is on the eve of a boom. Several properties were patented in the district last year.

A Serious Accident.

W. D. Gray met with a serious accident Wednesday afternoon, while working on the Baptist church building. The scaffold on which he was standing gave way and he fell to the ground, a distance of about fourteen feet. Both ankles were dislocated by the fall, and some of the small bones shattered. It will probably be five or six months before he will be able to be around.

Ex-Governor George Curry has opened an office in El Paso, and will engage in the real estate business, making a specialty of ranches and farm lands. The ex-governor owns a ranch close to Tularosa, where he will make his home.

Married in Milwaukee.

A letter received here this week contains the announcement of the marriage of an old friend, who was until recently one of the leading business men of White Oaks—S. C. Wiener. The marriage took place on the 10th inst., at Milwaukee. The bride was a Miss Carrie Frohman of that city. The couple will be "at home" at the Vendome hotel, in Chicago, after the 25th. All of Sol's friends in this county, where he resided for so many years, and is so well known, will be pleased to learn of his marriage. He expects to make a trip here this summer with his bride, as he still owns considerable interests in this county, and if conditions warrant may again become a citizen of Lincoln county.

Married at Tucumcari.

Walker W. Hicks and Mrs. Rae Hurt were married at Tucumcari last Wednesday. Only a few relatives and friends of the contracting parties were present to witness the ceremonies. The groom is a linotype operator on the Tucumcari News and has been a citizen of Tucumcari for the past five years, previous to which he lived in White Oaks, this county.

MORE SPUNK NEEDED.

We need here in the United States a little more of that good old English bluntness on the part of modest men and women who know their own worth, when men and women of the arrogant sort get in the way or try to be patronizing, says New York Independent. Our observation is that nowhere in the world are men and women of exceptional intellectual attainments so lacking in self-assertion as they are in the United States. This phenomenon is a comparatively new one in American life. Wherever one opens the documents of American history before the civil war he is sure to discover interesting incidents proving the sense of dignity and real self-respect of the American farmer, mechanic, merchant, teacher, physician or clergyman. It was something in man himself that in those days was regarded as worth while and worthy of respect. It takes a certain amount of courage for an individual, face to face with a person politically or financially prominent, to tell him to stay on his own reservation and mind his own business. Americans have been inclined to regard the Englishman's habitual manifestation of this particular kind of courage as a disagreeable quality. Perhaps it is. But we are convinced that it is a necessary quality, and that its cultivation is an essential part of that eternal vigilance which is the price of liberty.

Many crimes diminish. Defalcations, in spite of a popular impression to the contrary, are far less in amount than they were. Wealth has grown and fiduciary responsibilities swell, but the total amount of defalcations annually are below those of a few years ago, says Philadelphia Press. Skilled bank burglaries are less numerous. The safe, electric light and electric alarms have got the better of the bank burglar. Counterfeiting notes does not compare with the amount, number and risk, under the old bank note system, half a century ago, or in the first 20 years of the national note system, bank or treasury, from 1863 to 1883. Every bank had to watch once for counterfeiters, as it does not now. Today counterfeiting is on a petty scale. Post office thefts by officials have almost disappeared. Instead of hunting for them, as its members once did, the postal secret service or force of inspectors is principally dealing with the use of mails for swindles.

New Jersey is about to commemorate properly the most stirring and dramatic episode of the revolution occurring within the borders of that state. A commission appointed by the governor is preparing to create a park at the point where Washington and his troops crossed the Delaware on that wild winter night and, with soldiers many of whom left marks in the snow from their ill-protected and bleeding feet, struck a blow which amazed an enemy too self-confident to be alert. The battle of Trenton was one of the few famous victories in a war for independence abounding in hardships and reverses, and New Jersey, now a rich and happy state, does well thus to set apart the scene.

Some finicky person is trying to drive the word "galore" out of the language. He will encounter the determined opposition of the poets. They need it in their business.

NATIONAL CAPITAL AFFAIRS

Secretary Dickinson Is a Merry Wag

WASHINGTON.—Do the onerous duties of the job of secretary of war put cobwebs on the brain of Jacob M. Dickinson of Tennessee and Chicago? They do not, chorus all the members of the Tennessee society of New York, who sat in front of their crumpled napkins at the end of the annual dinner of their organization at the Waldorf recently and listened to some new ones that were uncorked to pop and sizzle by the genial Tennesseean and Chicagoan who holds down the portfolio of war in the Taft cabinet.

"When I heard that this was a representative body of Tennesseans," said the secretary after he had arisen from his place at the speakers' table and cast his eyes around on the feminine products of that heralded state where the bluegrass grows in fiction and song, "when I heard this I could not believe it."

Here there was a slight gasp of anticipation and doubt from the fair ones.

"Because," the secretary hurried to add, with a touch of gallantry, "I said to myself, 'If any state turns out all this galaxy of fair women there can't be enough left within its borders to make it a real state.'"

That set Jacob M. Dickinson solid with about one-half the 300 Tennesseans gathered about the tables.

Orders a Lunch at the Stamp Window

A WASHINGTONIAN decided he would cut it out. He went to a doctor and told him all about it. The doctor looked him over.

"Oom hoom," the doctor said a couple of times. Then he asked: "Got any relatives in town?"

"Nope. All live up north."

"Do you write to them?"

"Nope. Never write letters."

"How's your appetite? Eat much?"

"Nope. Haven't any appetite."

"Well," said the doctor, "you do three things. Stop dissipating. Eat regularly. Get into touch with your relatives. That's all the mental and physical recipes you need."

Charley Mann Discovers a Taxpayer

A NEWSPAPER man, recently come to Washington and new to the senate press gallery, hustles into the outer room.

"What—what?" asked Charley Mann, superintendent of the gallery.

"Oh, I'm on the Blank News," said the correspondent.

Mann looked him over very carefully. He'll know him next time, just as he knows all the correspondents. A stranger came bustling into Mann's room one day.

"What—what?" said Mann.

"Oh, I guess I can stay here," said the stranger. "I'm a taxpayer. I want to see what my representative is doing."

Mann at first was for having him put out. Then he changed his mind.

"You say you're a taxpayer?" he asked.

"Yes, I'm a taxpayer."

"Well, you come with me," said Mann. "You're a dodo bird—or almost. Your kind is pretty nearly extinct."

"I may be drunk," the member said. "If I am, that's a temporary condition. But you're a damn fool, and that's a permanent condition."

The man gave the doctor two dollars and went away.

That night he toiled painfully up the stone steps of the post office. He had resolved, though he had disobeyed injunction No. 1 that day, he would at least keep two and three. He presently found himself in front of a square, open window. Behind the window stood a man—several, mayhap.

"Well?" the man asked.

The would-be purchaser braced himself with hands. He wanted to remember just what two and three were and which was which.

"Well?" the man asked, his tone a little sharper.

The situation was becoming somewhat embarrassing. Why couldn't he remember? What—what—his mind groped back through his visit to the doctor. Quit—eat—write home. His face brightened. He beamed upon the man back of the window.

"Ah, yes," he murmured. "Sof! boil eggs, toast an' coffee."

THE SHADOW OF DEATH

Remarkable Recovery of a Washington Woman.

Mrs. Elmos Shearer, Yew and Washington Sta., Centralia, Wash., with one kidney gone, the other badly diseased, and five doctors in consultation, was thought to be in a hopeless state. The story of Mrs. Shearer's awful sufferings, and her wonderful cure through using Doan's Kidney Pills, is a long one, but will interest any sufferer with backache or kidney trouble, and Mrs. Shearer will tell it to any one who writes her, enclosing a stamp. "I am well and active, though 65 years old, and give all the credit to Doan's Kidney Pills," says Mrs. Shearer.

The Fight Against Tuberculosis.

Interest in the anti-tuberculosis campaign now being waged throughout the United States is evidenced by the fact that in the year 1909 163 new anti-tuberculosis associations were formed, 133 tuberculosis sanatoria and hospitals were established, and 91 tuberculosis dispensaries were opened. Compared with previous years, this is the best record thus far made in the fight against consumption in this country.

During the year 1909, 43 more associations for the prevention of tuberculosis were formed than during the previous 12 months, and 62 more hospitals and sanatoria were established. On January 1, 1910, there were in the United States 394 anti-tuberculosis associations, 386 hospitals and tuberculosis sanatoria and 265 special tuberculosis dispensaries.

Who Are the Elect?

Two modern statements of the doctrine of "election," neither of which would quite satisfy John Calvin or Jonathan Edwards, are given in the Congregationalist.

One was Henry Ward Beecher's epigrammatic and convincing phrase: "The elect are whosoever will; the non-elect are whosoever won't."

Good as this is, there is another explanation that is a star of equal magnitude. It was made by a colored divine, who said:

"Brethren, it is this way: The Lord, he is always voting for a man; and the devil, he is always voting against him. Then the man himself votes, and that breaks the tie!"

A girl is never satisfied until she has hypnotized some young man into telling her how handsome she is.

KIDNEY TROUBLE

Suffered Ten Years—Relieved in Three Months Thanks to PE-RU-NA.

AROUND THE HOUSE

CHAT ABOUT MATTERS OF MINOR IMPORTANCE.

Best Trimming for Child's Skirt— Good Combination Coat Hanger— Excellent Recipe for Scalloped Apple Pudding.

The only trimming used on a child's skirt is a row of feather stitching with heavy embroidery silk at the top of the hem or tucks. The waist is usually made in three pieces with only side and shoulder seams and gathers at the center, back and front, and also at the top and bottom, or it may have a pointed or round yoke set on and finished with a circular bertha edged with feather stitching, velvet ribbon, or narrow lace applique. The collar band, made of the material, should be an inch and a quarter wide when finished. The belt is usually of the same material as the dress, is fitted to the child loosely, and sewed on with or without a cord, as one prefers. It should be an inch and a half wide when finished.

Deep Hems a Saving.—Deep hems are recommended as being convenient for the making over that comes in most cases. The waists should be made long and have large seams that may be let out. As the child grows taller, a wider belt, a yoke, and deep cuffs may be added.

Combination Coat Hanger.—A coat hanger may be used to support a boy's trousers as well as his coat in this way: Tie a string from one end of the hanger to the other, fold the trousers and lay them over the string; then the coat or blouse may be placed on the hanger in the ordinary manner.

Scalloped Apple Pudding.—Cut one small stale baker's loaf in halves, remove all soft part, and crumb by rubbing through a colander. Melt one-fourth of a cupful of butter, and add to bread crumbs, stirring lightly with a fork. Cover bottom of buttered pudding dish with buttered crumbs, and add two cupfuls of sliced apples. Sprinkle with one-eighth of a cupful of sugar mixed with one-eighth of a teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, three-fourths of a tablespoonful of juice, and a few gratings from the rinds of a lemon. Repeat, cover with remaining crumbs, and bake 40 minutes in a moderate oven. Cover at first to prevent crumbs from browning too quickly. Serve with sugar and cream.

Candied Orange Peel.—Carefully remove all of the peel from four thin skinned oranges in quarters. Cover with cold water, bring gradually to the boiling point, and let simmer until soft. Drain and remove all white portion by scraping with a spoon. Cut yellow portion in thin strips, using the scissors. Boil one cupful of sugar and one-half of a cupful of water, until syrup will thread when dropped from tip of spoon. Cook strips in syrup five minutes, drain and roll in fine granulated sugar.

Potato Balls.—Prepare the desired quantity of well seasoned mashed potatoes, add from 1½ to two teaspoons finely chopped chives or onion, beat with a fork and let cool; then shape in balls the size of a lemon and dredge with flour. Twenty minutes before the roast beef is done, lay the potato balls in the dripping pan and brown delicately, turning occasionally. Drain on brown paper and arrange around roast on a hot platter. These potato balls are a nice accessory to roast pork or goose.

Chocolate Sponge Cake.

Cream one-half cup of butter with one cup of sugar mixed with one-quarter cup of cocoa, and a level teaspoon of cinnamon. Add the beaten yolks of three eggs and one-half cup of cold water. Add last the beaten whites of three eggs; alternately with one cup of bread flour sifted with three level teaspoons of baking powder. Bake in patty pans and cover with white icing.

BOY'S WELL-MEANT WARNING

Nautical Call Somewhat Out of Place When Saying Grace Was in Order.

There is a Trenton boy who spends his summers with an uncle, who is an enthusiastic sailor. Last summer the lad was particularly impressed by his uncle's manner of singing out "Hard-a-lee!" as a signal for all hands to put their heads down whenever, in tacking or coming about, such proceeding was necessary to dodge the boom.

Shortly after his return from his uncle's place on the coast, the boy was taken by his parents to visit his grandfather in the south of the state.

Now it appears that the grandfather is a devout churchman, never failing to say grace at meals. It being the lad's first visit, he gazed upon the unusual preliminary with some wonder; and accordingly, after leaving the table, was rebuked for not having bowed his head like the others.

The next morning the boy showed the effects of his rebuke. When all were seated at table and his grandfather inclined his head preparatory to asking the blessing, the youngster caused the utmost consternation by piping out in a shrill voice:

"Hard-a-lee, everybody!" — Sunday Magazine of the Pittsburgh Dispatch.

Nursing Mothers and Over-burdened Women

In all stations of life, whose vigor and vitality may have been undermined and broken-down by over-work, exacting social duties, the too frequent bearing of children, or other causes, will find in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription the most potent, invigorating restorative strength-giver ever devised for their special benefit. Nursing mothers will find it especially valuable in sustaining their strength and promoting an abundant nourishment for the child. Expectant mothers too will find it a priceless boon to prepare the system for baby's coming and rendering the ordeal comparatively painless. It can do no harm in any state, or condition of the female system.

Delicate, nervous, weak women, who suffer from frequent headache, backache, dragging-down distress or from painful irregularities, gnawing or distressed sensation in stomach, dizzy or faint spells, see imaginary specks or spots floating before eyes, have disagreeable, catarrhal drain, prolapsus, anteversion or retroversion or other displacements of womanly organs from weakness of parts will, whether they experience many or only a few of the above symptoms, find relief and a permanent cure by using faithfully and fairly persistently Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

This world-famed specific for woman's weaknesses and peculiar ailments is a pure glyceric extract of the choicest native medicinal roots without a drop of alcohol in its make-up. All its ingredients printed in plain English on its bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. Dr. Pierce thus invites the fullest investigation of his formula knowing that it will be found to contain only the best agents known to the most advanced medical science of all the different schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments.

If you want to know more about the composition and professional endorsement of the "Favorite Prescription," send postal card request to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for his free booklet treating of same or, better still, send 31 one-cent stamps for cloth-bound copy of Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, new, revised up-to-date Edition, 1008 pages.

You can't afford to accept as a substitute for this remedy of known composition a secret nostrum of unknown composition. Don't do it. It is not only foolish but often dangerous to do so.

JNO. A. HALEY, Editor.

"Whisky" or "no whisky" will be the great question to be settled by the people of Roswell at the spring election. Both sides are lined up for a battle royal at the polls.

Just one year ago, when the senate took a vote on the statehood bill, 47 republicans voted against it and 2 for it. And this, mind you, only about ten days after Delegate Andrews had announced that he held the votes of 82 senators in the palm of his hand.

It is more than thirteen years since the democratic party was in power, and yet the republicans will blame that party if a hitch occurs in the statehood bill, but will claim all the credit if it goes through—a plain case of "heads we win, tails you lose."

Clovis, the town of phenomenal growth, had another serious fire last week, in which three frame buildings, one of which was occupied by the Clovis News, were totally destroyed. Clovis has had more than its share of fires, but it is replacing the frame structures with brick ones.

The big village of Tucumcari set out 2,000 cottonwood trees last week. The town council supplied the trees and the people did the planting. Tucumcari is a good town with an enterprising population. Carrizozo should set out at least half a thousand this spring—it is yet early.

The House Naval Committee is not composed of Missourians, but it wants to be "shown" in the matter of the Peary rush for the North Pole. Cook, after failing to make good, took for the tall timber; Peary refuses to submit proof that he "got there" and until he does, he must be satisfied to remain in the Dr. Cook class.

Weston, the pedestrian, who is walking from ocean to ocean, celebrated his seventy-second birthday on the 15th by walking 72 miles through Kansas, just to prove that a man is as young as he feels. Forty years ago, when in his prime, and when pedestrianism was the fad, he took part in all the great six-day walking matches in this country and in Europe.

When it comes to putting the saddle on the wrong horse, the republican party of New Mexico is there with the goods. They now say that if congress fails to pass an enabling act at this session it will be because the democratic party sent a committee to Washington to ask that the apportionment of delegates to the constitutional convention be based on actual population, and that the people be allowed to adopt a constitution without outside interference.

Rounding 'em Up.

Eugenio Garcia, charged with disposing of mortgaged property, had a hearing in the justice court at Corona, Saturday. He was bound over to await the action of the grand jury.

A half breed Indian named Antonio Lente, took on an extra jag of fire-water at Corona Tuesday, and while under the effects proceeded to beat his wife and child with the empty bottle. Deputy Sheriff Baird was notified, and broke open the door and arrested the "brave." The woman was bleeding from several wounds inflicted with the bottle. Justice of the Peace Jones the following day fined him $100.00 and costs and sent him to jail for ninety days.

Monday night, about nine miles north of White Oaks, a Mexican named Eusebio Chavez, broke open the stable of Delfino Zernora and stole a horse. On Tuesday night Deputy Sheriff Baird of Corona, took up the trail, followed it to Torrance county and captured his man. At his preliminary hearing last Wednesday morning at Corona, he waived examination and was bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $1,500, in lieu of which he was taken to the county jail.

St. Patrick's Day.

"Ould Ireland's Day" was duly observed here yesterday by the "Wearing of the Green." The stores were gaily decked in the soft color of the "Ould Sod," and Ziegler Bros. and the Carrizozo Trading Co. particularly had a neat display of neckwear with an emerald hue. Besides these, they also had a lot of artificial shamrocks, made of silk, trimmed with gold, which they presented to their customers.

It was green, nothing but the green, even the trees, stimulated by the mild weather, were doing their very best to show the green; and the cactus plants were raising their fuzzy heads above the somber prairie in honor of the occasion and to be en rapport with the day. Nor was the wearing of the green confined to the Patlanders, for William Kahler wore a sprig of green, stating that it was merely an accident of birth that he first saw the light of day on the historic Rhine rather than on the banks of the placid Shannon. He asserts that his ancestors' names were Kelley, which is the Irish for Kahler, and were, of course, originally from the "land of Bryan Boru."

Then there were the Lacey, the Caseys, the Harveys, the Reileys, the Pattons, the Connors, the Padens—"names with the smell of the turf to them"—not to mention

Heanigan, Flannagan, Milligan, Gilligan, Duffy, McGuffey, Muldooney, Malone, Rafferty, Tafferty, Connolly, Donnelly, Dooley, O'Hagan, O'Houlihan, Flynn, Shanahan, Lannahan, Fogarty, Hogarty, Kelly, O'Skelly, McGinnis, O'Quinn.

Where can yez bate them, anyhow?

In the evening two dances were given, one in Reel's opera house and the other in Humphrey Bros.' hall, and in the wee sma' hours voices could be heard, apparently as the merry-makers were wending their way home, singing:

"The timbers were rotten,
And the bridge fell in;
'We'll go home by wather,'
Says Bryan O'Lynn."

An exciting man chase took place near Lincoln Tuesday of this week. Deputy Wm. Brady had a number of prisoners from the county jail at work on the road. Cleve Hibler, who figured in a cutting scrape at Corona in January, was out with the other prisoners, and quietly left the work and at once made tracks for the divide south of Lincoln. He was soon missed and the alarm given. About sundown of the same day he was apprehended at a sheep camp and taken back to prison. His liberty, though of short duration, afforded good exercise for him, and his pursuers as well.

Mrs. Ed Tompkins, of Tucumcari, is visiting relatives here this week. Ed is now running an engine on the Dawson line out of Tucumcari.

St. Patrick's Day Reception.

Mrs. John Bell's pretty home was the scene of a delightful reception Thursday afternoon. The home was prettily and appropriately decorated with green streamers of crepe paper, and a bowl of fruit blossoms sent by Mrs. Wetmore from Tularosa. From 2 until 5 the hostess, assisted by the ladies of the Home Mission, were kept busy serving delicious cake and coffee to the steady stream of visitors—each one of whom wore a bit of green, not a particle of orange being visible. A distinctive feature of the affair was the placing of the admission fee in a tiny green sock attached to the invitation cards. The cards were printed in green, and contained the following lines:

This stocking that we give you is not for you to wear.
Please multiply your size by two, and place therein with care,
In pennies or in nickels, just twice the size you want.
We hope it is immense!
So if you want a No. Ten you owe us Twenty.
Now? Which dropped within the Stocking will fill our hearts with gloe.
'Tis all we ask. It isn't much, and hardly any trouble!
But if you have a single foot we'll have to charge you double.
Now, if you have a friend quite dear, you'd like to bring with you?
Or if you know someone who'd come, we'll gladly give you two.
So don't forget the place and date, we'll answer when you'll knock.
Or if you can't come, don't forget to send the little sock.

Mrs. H. B. Tompkins returned yesterday from Lincoln, where she had been visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. M. Penfield. She was accompanied by Mrs. Ed Tompkins and children, who have also been visiting Mrs. Penfield.

Don Scipio Salazar of Lincoln, was a visitor in Carrizozo Wednesday.

H. S. Campbell made a trip to Capitan, via Nogal, Wednesday, on business.

Engineer Blunt, of El Paso, is now running east out of Carrizozo.

Fireman Gunn has been assigned to a regular run on the east end.

Night yardmaster Van Swearingen returned Monday from El Paso, after a week's rest up.

W. D. Perkins, Joe Wilson and M. H. Price, of Ancho, were attending court here this week.

Miss Mary Meek, of Tularosa, is spending a few days on a visit with friends here this week.

Mrs. Henry Lacey, wife of the telephone manager, left yesterday on a two week's visit with relatives in Alpine, Texas.

A. H. Norton has a 235 foot tunnel on a quartz lead carrying free gold at a depth beneath the surface of 175 feet.

The Home Mission will meet Thursday, the 24th inst., with Mrs. Revely. Conveyances will be provided for all who can attend.

A party comprising Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Jones, Misses Mabel and Merle Franklin, W. A. Alexander, and Frank Eschwig left on the mid-day train Wednesday to attend the B. of L. F. & E. dance at Tucumcari on the 17th.

Among the visitors from Jicarilla this week we noticed J. D. Brotherton, Frank Marsh, Sabino Gonzales, W. L. Bruce, Phillip Reasoner, and A. H. Norton.

J. M. Rice and daughter, Irene, came down from Parsons Saturday, and were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kimbell of this place several days this week.

A bridge gang are now working on the Capitan branch replacing the bridge that burned out last Friday. It is believed the line will be open for traffic by the end of the week.

W. C. McDonald left Saturday for Ft. Worth, Texas, to be present at the live stock show and Cattle Raisers Convention, which was to open Tuesday and last three days.

Engineer Aubury has returned from a visit to Peru, Chile, and other South American republics. He stated he had a fine trip, but glad to get back to the land of sunshine.

A little "tempest in a teapot" from the Jicarillas was aired in the justice court here Tuesday on a charge of venue. The parties involved waived examination, and gave bonds to appear before the grand jury.

R. E. Stidham and family expect to leave about the end of this week on a visit to Quay Mas Mexico. Mr. Stidham is car inspector at this point, and believes a thirty-day vacation will relieve the monotony of the duties of a railroader.

The rush of business on the east end has caused several engineers to be transferred from the El Paso division to Carrizozo to handle the increased business. Two extra freight trains were put in service on the east end this week.

For best Easter Hats, do not overlook Ziegler Bros.

Jicarilla is known principally as a placer mining camp, but it is more; Ed Fox has started work on the Honey Bee, a copper prospect on the outskirts of the camp. The work done on the property so far consists of a 225 foot slope, on which there is about 200 feet of drifting.

A full line of millinery goods just received at Ziegler Bros.

Melvin Paden left last Friday for Louisville, Kentucky, where he will re-enter a medical college at that place and resume his studies. When he next returns to Carrizozo, he hopes to be a full fledged disciple of Esculapius. His brother, Brent, will remain here some time yet with his father.

Oxford Shoes are swell. Get them at Ziegler Bros.

Chas. McMasters returned Saturday from a month's outing in the mountains west of the Rio Grande, and is looking as fresh as a daisy. He was accompanied on the trip by George Spence, Jr., who states the farthest point reached was just west of the Continental Divide. Both claim to have spent an enjoyable time.

LEG A MASS OF HUMOR

"About seven years ago a small abrasion appeared on my right leg just above my ankle. It irritated me so that I began to scratch it and it began to spread until my leg from my ankle to the knee was one solid scale like a scab. The irritation was always worse at night and would not allow me to sleep, or my wife either, and it was completely undermining our health. I lost fifty pounds in weight and was almost out of my mind with pain and chagrin as no matter where the irritation came, at work, on the street or in the presence of company, I would have to scratch it until I had the blood running down into my shoe. I simply cannot describe my suffering during those seven years. The pain, mortification, loss of sleep, both to myself and wife is simply indescribable on paper and one has to experience it to know what it is.

"I tried all kinds of doctors and remedies but I might as well have thrown my money down a sewer. They would dry up for a little while and fill me with hope only to break out again just as bad if not worse. I had given up hope of ever being cured when I was induced by my wife to give the Cuticura Remedies a trial. After taking the Cuticura Remedies for a little while I began to see a change, and after taking a dozen bottles of Cuticura Resolvent, in conjunction with the Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment, the trouble had entirely disappeared and my leg was as fine as the day I was born. Now after a lapse of six months with no signs of a recurrence I feel perfectly safe in extending to you my heartfelt thanks for the good the Cuticura Remedies have done for me. I shall always recommend them to my friends. W. H. White, 312 E. Cabot St., Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 4 and Apr. 13, 1909."

CHINA SHOULD BE POLISHED

Only with the Proper Care Can it Be Certain Always to Look Its Best.

Polish as applied to china sounds unfamiliar to the ears of the rushing 'type of housekeeper who "polishes" silver and "scours" tin, but who washes and "wipes" her china, and that in the quickest possible way she can.

Beautiful china requires as much care as beautiful anything else. There are some matrons who never allow their rare pieces to go to the kitchen, but who have brought to them a tray and two pans of water in the dining-room, where they themselves mop and then rinse, dry and polish to the point of shining all of their daintiest wares, which they then place in the closet under lock and key.

There are, again, others who turn over these delicate bits to the tender ministrations of a trusted servant, who keeps them in the dining-room or near-by pantry.

Now, this recital is but to convey the polishing idea. All china will look its full value only when highly polished, and the dubious tea towel will not contribute to success along these lines. Plenty of towels, perfectly dry, perfectly fresh and clean, must be on hand after each meal. Their quality, too, has much to do with the final result, as has the clear, hot rinsing water and the method of rinsing.

Rinsing can really be a laughable operation when the dishes are turned top downward and scalded only on their backs. Why not on the upper side, where one demands cleanliness? Draining isn't rinsing, but it would seem as if at one time, or perchance, one place (and that some dense country not yet penetrated by a civilization), draining was resorted to by way of drying.

We are, however, learning, and the modern housewife is hygienic to a degree, for which let thanks be tendered.

The Home.

Honey should be kept in the dark or it will granulate.

Japanned trays should be cleaned with a little sweet oil and then polished with a soft cloth.

Thin brown bread and butter sandwiches are the most appetizing accompaniment for fish salad of any sort.

A spoonful of oxgall to a gallon of water will set the colors of almost any goods soaked in it previous to washing.

To clean old glass pour strong ammonia on it, scrub well with a brush and rinse in clean water. Dry and polish and it will then appear as new.

Ink stains may be soaked out in some milk. If any trace of the stain should still be left, rinse the garments in a weak solution of chloride of lime, always supposing that the garment is white, for the lime is a bleaching agent.

Ginger Snaps.

Boil two cups of molasses, and when partly cool add one-half cup each of butter and lard, one-half level teaspoonful of salt, one level tablespoonful of ginger and flour enough to make a dough that can barely be rolled out without sticking. The better way is to put teaspoonfuls of the dough on the baking pan and press out one-quarter inch thick. Bake carefully.

Cingered Figs.

Wash one pound of dried figs and remove the stems. Add cold water to cover, then add the juice and rind of one lemon and a large piece of ginger root. Stew until the figs are soft. Then remove them to a dish. Measure the syrup and add one-half as much sugar. Simmer until thick. Serve with whipped cream.

SCANDAL IN BIRDLAND.

Worth Keeping.

"John, do you recognize this hat?"

"No, I can't say that I do. It looks rather dilapidated."

"Yes. I have been keeping it as a dear memento. I was wearing it when you and I first met. That was 11 years ago."

"I hope you'll keep it always. It ought to convince you that you must have been mighty good looking once, seeing that even with that thing on your head you caused me to fall in love with you."

CARE OF VALUABLE CHINA

Sudden Changes of Temperature to Be Guarded Against—Arrangement of Shelves.

The heaviest cut glass cracks under a change of temperature, writes a correspondent of the Chicago Tribune. I once saw an ice cream dish of this costly ware split in half while the mold of ice cream was being helped. Inquiry at the factory disclosed the fact that the sudden fall of temperature, combined with the pressure in cutting the ice cream, had caused the accident. Had the dish been set in the refrigerator a little while before the ice cream had been served it would never have split in half. In washing cut glass, therefore, place it in warm water first before putting it in the hot soap suds.

When cleansing delicate and costly china, strong soaps and soap powders should be avoided. They will surely eat into the gliding and decorations. Either ammonia or borax is safer.

In arranging handsome china on the shelves, soft mats should be placed between the plates to avoid scratches and nicks. The cups should be hung by their handles from hooks. This is much safer than piling them up on the shelves. Platters should rest lengthwise in a groove on the back of the shelf.

In washing handsome glass and china there should always be an exceedingly soft cloth to be used for a polisher after the piece has been dried with the usual dish cloth.

In washing ordinary china it will be found that the hotter the water the easier the pieces are to dry and the shinier they will be.

If a housekeeper can persuade her maid to rinse off all dishes before putting them into the first dishwasher she has indeed achieved a triumph, and the maid will learn at once that such systematic dishwashing makes the work a hundred times easier than to dump greasy dishes into a pan of lukewarm soap suds.

The general rule for washing dishes is first the glasses, then the teacups, then the silver and then the plates. While waiting for their turn to come the silver should be piled into a large crock or earthenware bowl full of hot water, with a little powder or ammonia. They will be entirely free from grease by the time you are ready to wash them.

The cook who scatters food around the sink and pours greasy water down the pipe should be taught one good lesson by her mistress, but the cook whose sink is as clean and shining as a new tin pan is an abiding joy.

Dainty Plum Pudding.

One and one-half cupfuls of granulated sugar, one-half cupful of soft butter, cream together and add one-half cupful of sweet milk, two and one-fourth cupfuls of pastry flour, one teaspoonful of baking powder, a pinch of salt and one teaspoonful of vanilla and almond mixed. Lastly fold in the stiff whites of five eggs. Have ready one cupful each of currants, choice seeded raisins, thinly sliced citron and chopped pecan nuts. Mix with the dough and pour into a buttered mold and steam three hours. Serve in slices with a generous helping of honey sauce, made as follows:

Whip one pint of cream stiff and flavor with almond; then whip into it one pound of white comb honey cut into tiny bits. Make several hours before using so it will be cold and hard. A tablespoonful of granulated gelatine should be added to the cream. A square loaf cake pan is the best for steaming the pudding in, as it can then be cut in nice slices.

Leaves.

Beat one-half pound of butter and one-half pound of sugar to a cream; add three eggs, one tablespoonful of rose water, and half a nutmeg grated, then three-quarters of a pound of flour. Roll the paste thin, and cut in leaves. Bake a light brown. Ice with a green icing, and when dry add delicate veins with a white icing.

A Holiday Sermon.

"In takin' up de collections fer de holiday heathens," said Brother Dickey, "don't fergit dat dey's 'cross de water. My advice is ter save all de warm kiver fer de home heathens—sich ez blankets, an' ol' overcoats. Put a Shirt on Greeley.

The excellent cut of Horace Greeley's birthplace at Amherst, N. H., in the Sunday Herald of recent date suggests this anecdote which may be of interest:

The room in which he was born is now occupied as a sitting room. A visitor some years ago asked a lady living near by if she remembered ever seeing Horace Greeley, and she replied: "Well, yes; I have a very early remembrance of him. I put the first shirt on him."—Boston Herald.

Reflections.

The beautiful home was crowded with people assembled to honor the distinguished guest.

But the explorer soon tired of the attentions, and as he leaned his arm against a pillar, he allowed himself to be transported back to the scene of his triumph.

"Such a waste," he mumbled, audibly, staring into space, "such a waste, such a waste."

Why so many stout ladies left the house in indignation, the hostess was unable to learn.—Sunday Magazine of the Pittsburg Dispatch.

CLEAR-HEADED

Head Bookkeeper Must be Reliable.

The chief bookkeeper in a large business house in one of our great Western cities speaks of the harm coffee did for him:

"My wife and I drank our first cup of Postum a little over two years ago, and we have used it ever since, to the entire exclusion of tea and coffee. It happened in this way:

"About three and a half years ago I had an attack of pneumonia, which left a memento in the shape of dyspepsia, or rather, to speak more correctly, neuralgia of the stomach. My 'cup of cheer' had always been coffee or tea, but I became convinced, after a time, that they aggravated my stomach trouble. I happened to mention the matter to my grocer one day and he suggested that I give Postum a trial.

"Next day it came, but the cook made the mistake of not boiling it sufficiently, and we did not like it much. This was, however, soon remedied, and now we like it so much that we will never change back. Postum, being a food beverage instead of a drug, has been the means of curing my stomach trouble, I verily believe, for I am a well man today and have used no other remedy.

"My work as chief bookkeeper in our Co.'s branch house here is of a very confining nature. During my coffee-drinking days I was subject to nervousness and 'the blues' in addition to my sick spells. These have left me since I began using Postum and I can conscientiously recommend it to those whose work confines them to long hours of severe mental exertion."

"There's a Reason."

Good Pun on Carnegie.

A belated pun, with Andrew Carnegie as the victim, is being circulated at Washington. The ironmaster was on board a ferryboat at Norfolk on the day the president visited that port. Something went wrong with the compass. The captain appealed to the mate.

The mate examined the compass and said: "I guess it must be attracted by that steel magnate over there."—Troy Times.

Embarrassing.

"Dear me, Tommy," remarked the young man who had been calling five years, "this is a fine thick rug in front of the sofa."

"Yes, pa gave it to sis," confided Tommy.

"Very nice of him, I am sure."

"Yes; he did it on your account, though."

"My account?"

"I should say so. Pa said he was afraid you were getting cold feet and—"

But just then a small boy was grabbed by a blushing young lady and locked in the basement.

Sizing Them Up.

"I notice all the patrons call you by a different name," remarked the ob-serving guest.

"Yeas, monsieur," responded the French waiter, "it is in zat way I tell ze tips I may expect."

"How so?"

"Why, if zey shout 'Hey, you!' I get one nickel. If zey call me 'Boy' I get a dime, and if zey say 'Garcon,' with one Parisian accent, I get a quarter."

Mrs. Elizabeth Byfield.

Another home made sad; the dread news "Mother is gone" were carried over the wires.

After a lingering illness, death came to the relief of the Mother, on the evening of March 10, at 8:00 o'clock, and the spirit took its flight to the God who gave it. All that loving hands could do to give relief and comfort was done to save the life a few more years.

Mrs. Byfield was born in Springfield, Ill., Nov. 27, 1839. When quite small her parents moved to Missouri, then later to Colorado county, Texas, where she was married to James Byfield. They then moved to Indian territory, where her husband passed away. After her husband's death Mrs. Byfield came to New Mexico to be with her son, and has been here since 1898. A member of the church, she lived a faithful Christian, a devoted mother, and a good neighbor. She was the mother of four children, two of these dying in infancy. Mrs. Emmet Barton, of Crowley, Arizona, and C. H. Byfield, of Nogal, are the surviving children, and although they both have families, they will miss "Mother." The family has the sympathy of all.

A FRIEND.

Prof. Leon, the hypnotist, who appeared here some few months ago, was sued in the Roswell courts by C. H. Rasmussen for the return of $50.00, which he gave Leon for a course of lessons in hypnotism. He claimed hypnotism was a fake and demanded the return of his money. Leon demonstrated to the court that it is not a fake by hypnotising several of the court attaches. The court decided in favor of Leon, and assessed the costs against the plaintiff.
