EIGHTEENTH YEAR

CARLSBAD NEW MEXICO, FRIDAY, MAY, 20, 1910.

NUMBER 27

HIGH SCHOOL EXERCISES

WILL BE THE BEST IN THE HISTORY OF THE SCHOOL.

COMMENCE THIS EVENING CLOSE MONDAY EVENING.

A Class of Nine Graduates to Take Part in the Play, Pygmalion and Galatea.

The commencement exercises of the Carlsbad High School will be held in the High School Auditorium. The building is being decorated for the occasion and everything put in readiness for occasion. The exercises this year will be more elaborate and on a grander scale than they have ever been heretofore. The new high school building and the large commodious auditorium well arranged for occasions of this kind lend an incentive to the pupils as well as the teachers in the preparation of the final exercises.

The opening feature of the closing exercises for this season will be held this evening at eight o'clock. They will be the graduating exercises of the eighth grade, at which time the members will receive a diploma for the work which they have done in the grades below and they will now be passed on entering the high school, proper. Musical numbers and addresses will constitute the features of the program. The principal address to the members of the grade and the presentation of the diplomas will be made by Rev. Wallace R. Evans, pastor of the Methodist Church.

Saturday evening the annual prize contest in oratory will be held. There are some six or eight contestants and a number of promising orators to vie with each other for honors. The prizes are now on exhibition in the show case of the Star Pharmacy.

Sunday morning the Baccalaureate sermon will be delivered by Rev. Mr. Mythen, of the Episcopal church. Union services of all of the other churches of the city will be held in the auditorium. A special trained choir will furnish the music.

Monday evening the graduating exercises of the class of 1910 will be held. Deviating from the usual custom of each member of the class delivering an oration a novel and unique change has been introduced by Supt. Griffin, this season, by having the class present the drama of Pygmalion and Galatea. The play is cast with the entire membership of the class and as they have been putting in some hard work practicing the presentation of the play promises to be especially interesting and entertaining.

The salutatory address will be delivered by Miss Josephine Dannelley and the valedictory address will be delivered by Miss Deatron Campbell.

Tuesday evening the Alumni Association will hold their regular meeting and accept the new graduates into its ranks. An elaborate banquet will be served and a program consisting of addresses, music and toasts will be rendered. I. S. Osborne will act as toast master.

Fred Gordy Banqueted.

A number of the friends of Fred Gordy tendered to him a very delightful farewell party at the Legal Tender Restaurant, last Monday evening prior to his departure for a visit to his home in Georgia, Tuesday. The guests were all members of the Elk lodge, of which he is an enthusiastic member. Farewell speeches were made by those present. One especially interesting was delivered by Capt. Chas. A. Reynolds, of the Department of the Interior and ex-governor of one of the provinces of the Philippine Islands. He gave a most entertaining recital of the ways and customs of the natives of the island in the far east and also of the work which is being done by the Elks on the island. The lodge of which he is a member is No. 761 and has a membership of over seven hundred, composed largely of the army officers and men stationed there. The banquet was served at half past eight o'clock and it was close to the midnight hour when the final farewell was bid the departing guest and the kind solicitations regarding his visit and return to the Pecos Valley was conveyed. The supper consisted of five courses and was served in up-to-date style in every particular. Those present were Messrs. Jones, Osborne, Doepf, Stewart, Webb, Workman, Linn, Church, Swain, Richards and Finlay.

J. B. Roberts Retires From Active Merchant Business in Carlsbad.

H. I. BRADEN, OF COLORADO, INVESTS IN CARLSBAD

The entire stock, fixtures and good will of the Star Pharmacy owned by J. B. Roberts was this week, purchased by H. I. Braden formerly of Rocky Ford, Colo. The consideration in the deal was fixed upon invoice figures which at the time of this writing has not been ascertained as the inventory has not been completed but it will probably run between ten and twelve thousand dollars. Mr. Roberts came to Carlsbad about a year ago and has built up a prosperous business second to none in the valley. Mr. Braden is a graduate of one of the best pharmaceutical institutions in the country and has had many years experience as proprietor of a store in Colorado. Mr. George Roberts will remain in his employ, and J. B. Roberts will make the store his headquarters for an indefinite time. Mr. Braden will be joined in this city by his wife within the next few days and they will make Carlsbad their future home.

Carlsbad Current established November 15, 1892. New Mexico Sun established May 12, 1906. The two papers consolidated October 11, 1907.

Official Paper of Eddy County.

The farmers and alfalfa growers of the lower valley held a meeting at the Otis school house last Wednesday evening and perfected the organization of an association.

The association will be known as The Alfalfa Growers Association and is for the purpose of protecting and advancing the interests of the farmers of the lower valley and not only in alfalfa alone but in all of their various farm products. The association elected W. W. Slocum president and W. W. Galton acted as secretary.

The subject of alfalfa in all of its various phases was discussed from the proper manner of preparing the ground and planting the seed to harvesting and marketing the crop. The acreage in this part of the valley has been practically doubled within the past two years and each season sees it materially increased. It seems to be the plans and intention of each farmer in the valley to constantly increase his acreage in fruit and alfalfa. These are recognized to be the standard crops of the valley and as fast as time and money will permit, they are being planted.

Those at the meeting were all practical alfalfa growers and are especially interested in a uniform standard price for their product and this feature was thoroughly discussed. While there is no disposition on the part of the hay makers to advance the price over and above the usual price, it is their intention to have every grower of alfalfa become a member of the association and co-operate in the work undertaken by the association in maintaining a uniform price and a standard of the product produced. As it is any person who has a hay field, be it Johnson grass or sand burrs or what not, he demands and gets the same price as the farmer who grows first class alfalfa. On the open market it is all "fine alfalfa hay." The association will place a grade up on the product produced and protect both the buyer and seller.

Whether you are a farmer or not "boost" for the association and thus protect yourself against the "bunco" game of the false seller. The meeting adjourned to meet again May 25, at which time everybody in the valley who is interested, whether they are actual alfalfa growers or if only interested in their welfare is requested to be present, at the Otis school house.

The following were elected as a board of directors: T. W. Wyman, Dr. F. L. Dieffendorf, W. H. Carter, J. C. Keith, W. W. Martin, W. W. Slocum and W. W. Galton.

The Knowles News is out for a new county to be cut off from the east side of Eddy and Chavez counties. The News claims to represent the will of the people of the plains and also of many in the Pecos Valley. People are commencing to see that it costs considerable to maintain the east end because it is so far from the valley.

A new exchange, The Rock Island Tribune found its way to this office Monday. Rock Island is on the state line between Texas and New Mexico, and on the Rock Island railway that has recently been completed. The Tribune is a newsy sheet and deserves liberal patronage.

The funeral of King Edward VII will be held tomorrow, just

GOOD EARTH ROADS.

Cheaper Than Other Highways and Easy to Build.

GOOD DRAINAGE A NECESSITY

It is One of the Principal Points in Making a Good Dirt Roadway—They Are Preferred in Many Sections of the United States.

Long ago I became convinced that if we were to have good roads in our day and generation we must seek some other methods of doing the work and some other material than macadam. For while stone roads have and perhaps always will have an adaptation for certain districts on account of the lack of facilities for good drainage, which is one of the principal points in the construction of earth roads, or where the character of the soil is such that good earth roads cannot be made or for thoroughfares where the travel is great and the valuation high enough to stand the taxation, the expense is far too great to make them practicable for even a small proportion of all the roads.

It must be remembered that no matter how good a stone road is constructed there is a certain amount of wear and tear each day and month and year.

From Good Roads Magazine, New York. A TYPICAL RURAL EARTH ROAD.

The amount of this wear has been found by experience to be from one-fourth to one-half inch a year.

Others have figured it at only two-thirds of a cubic yard per year. We also have the experience of city street making. With all of their great valuation to tax cities have found it burdensome to keep up good paved or macadamized streets.

Mind, I am not speaking against macadamized roads. They are, so far as our knowledge of roadmaking now goes, the one thing for thoroughfares or other places where the valuation will afford them without burdening taxation. And many of such places throughout the United States prefer the well built dirt road. What we want is good roads now, and the question is how to make them with what money is available, and I think it is the wrong policy for a township that has only from $2,000 to $30,000 a year to spend on roads to lay it all out on a mile or two of stone road when by the right methods good earth roads could be kept up over the whole township with the same money or less.

The solution of this, I am convinced, is in learning how to make earth roads. I believe that by proper methods of roadmaking the earth roads, especially in places where the nature of the soil and the facilities for good drainage are favorable, can be made and kept as good as or better on the average than the stone road and at but a fraction of the cost.

The nature of the soil and the facilities for drainage are so varied that it is impossible to lay down any one rule or method of roadmaking. At some places nothing but macadam will do, but there are many, many other places where the earth roads can be made equally good. In fact, in places where the soil is just right—that is, porous enough to let the water through and yet tenacious enough to pack and not become dusty—and the drainage naturally good the earth road is the very best that can be made. And most soils will in a large degree take on the qualities necessary for good roadmaking after good drainage is effected.—J. G. Homsher in Good Roads Advocate.

Secretary Knox For Good Roads.

Secretary Knox believes that the congestion of population in great cities is caused in large part by the lack of good roads in this country. He told the house committee on foreign affairs that the reason France is the richest agricultural country in the world is because she has had good roads so long. He said: "The agricultural population of France does not have to spend its money in repairing vehicles and their harness every winter. I think it has improved the attractiveness of rural life. I think it has caused the population to remain on the soil more than in any other country. You do not find that tendency to urban population in France and England that you do in this country."

MEMORIAL DAY

A PROCLAMATION

By the Governor.

It is a beautiful custom which has grown up through the length and breadth of this broad land, that one day in each year be set apart in which we, who are living, may pay a tribute to the memory of the brave soldiers and sailors, and to our dear ones who have passed away, and have been judged by our Creator each according to his real merit. As we think of those who are gone, the day cannot, but be a sorrowful one, and yet as we recall our fathers, mothers, brothers, sisters and friends, and the many good and noble qualities which they possessed, and think of the love which they bore us when alive, our characters are softened and we look upon the cold, hard world with tender longing, and often through tears with which our eyes are dimmed.

In order that proper respect may be shown to the soldiers and sailors of the Republic, who died while in the service of our common country from wounds received in the heat of battle in defense of the flag, or from sickness incurred during service, and also to our deceased relatives and friends:

Now Therefore, I, William J. Mills, Governor of the Territory of New Mexico, do hereby designate and appoint, Monday, May 30th, 1910, as Memorial Day, and do hereby request that on said day all business of a secular nature be suspended so far as possible; that in the schools patriotic exercises be held, and the youth of the territory be instructed in love of our country and its flag; that churches and other places of religious worship be opened, so that prayers may be said for those who are dead, and that the people generally join with the diminishing numbers of the Grand Army of the Republic in strewing with flowers the last resting places of the brave soldiers and sailors who died fighting for what they believed to be right under the flag carried either by the blue or the gray, as well as the graves of our relatives and friends, who have passed away, so that their kindly deeds and good acts may ever remain fresh in our memories.

Done at the executive office this 16th day of May, A. D. 1910.

Witness my hand and the great seal of the Territory of New Mexico.

William J. Mills.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will make you a different individual. It will set your lazy liver to work. It will set things right in your stomach, and your appetite will come back. It will purify your blood. If there is any tendency in your family toward consumption, it will keep that dread destroyer away. It is a remedy prepared by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., whose advice is given free to all who wish to write him. His great success has come from his wide experience and varied practice.
