Cover Artist:
Angelina Frances Medina, Ph.D.

Angelina Frances Medina is a member of the Acoma, Zia, and Zuni Tribes of New Mexico. She has been a secretary, a teacher, a principal, a lecturer, a demonstrator, a published author, a poet, a storyteller, an aerobics instructor, a healing facilitator, and an artist. In 2016, she earned a Ph.D. in Language, Literacy, and Sociocultural Studies at the University of New Mexico.

Angelina seeks to convey history, culture, and spiritual ways of being through her art. She is presently making a “comeback” to art because, as she states, art places her in the “Center of the Universe of harmony and peace. My clay sculptures are lovingly shaped by my hands to express my personal healing and spiritual fulfillment as they are my connections to all that is the Creator.”
