Government Issues Patent
Only to Surface Rights—Restraints Also Placed Upon Bodies of Water.

SECRETARY OF INTERIOR MAY MAKE SPECIAL RULES

An act to provide for stock raising homesteads, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled:

That from and after the passage of this act it shall be lawful for any person qualified to make entry under the homestead laws of the United States to make a stock-raising homestead entry for not exceeding 640 acres of unappropriated unreserved public land in reasonably compact form. Provided, however, That the land so entered shall theretofore have been designated by the secretary of the interior as "stock-raising lands."

Sec. 2 That the secretary of the interior is hereby authorized, on application or otherwise, to designate as stock-raising lands subject to entry under this act lands the surface of which is, in his opinion, chiefly valuable for grazing and raising forage crops, do not contain merchantable timber, are not susceptible of irrigation from any known source of water supply, and are of such character that 640 acres are reasonably required for the support of a family: Provided That where any person qualified to make original or additional entry under the provisions of this act shall make application to entry any unappropriated public land which has not been designated as subject to entry (provided said application is accompanied and supported by properly corroborated affidavit of the applicant, in duplicate, showing prima facie that the land applied for is of the character contemplated by this act,) such application, together with the regular fees and commissions, shall be received by the register and receiver of land district in which said land is located and suspended until it shall have been determined by the secretary of the interior whether said land is actually of that character. That during such suspension the land described in the application shall not be disposed of; and if the said land shall be designated under this act, then such application shall be allowed; otherwise it shall be rejected, subject, to appeal; but no right to occupy such lands, be acquired by reason of said application until lands have been designated as stock raising lands.

Sec. 3. That any qualified homestead laws of lands so designated by the secretary of the interior, according to legal subdivisions, in areas not exceeding 640 acres, and in compact form so far as may be subject to the provisions of this act, and secure title thereto by compliance with the terms of the homestead laws:

Provided, That a former homestead entry of land of the character described in section two hereof shall not be a bar to entry of a tract within a radius of 20 miles from such former entry under the provisions of this act, subject to the requirements of law as to residence and improvements, which, together with the entry shall not exceed 640 acres: Provided further, That the entryman shall be required to enter all contiguous areas of the character herein described open to entry prior to the entry of any noncontiguous land: Provided further, That instead of cultivation as required by the homestead laws the entryman shall be required to make permanent improvements upon the land entered before final proof is submitted tending to increase the value of the same for stock-raising purposes, of the value of not less than $1.25 per acre, and at least one-half of such improvements shall be placed upon the land within three years after the date of entry thereof.

Sec. 4. That any homestead entryman of lands of the character herein described, who has not submitted final proof upon his existing entry, shall have the right to enter, subject to the provisions of this act, such amount of contiguous lands designated for entry under the provisions of this act, as shall not, together with the amount embraced in his original entry, exceed 640 acres, and residence upon the original entry shall be credited on both entries, but improvements must be made on the additional entry equal to $1.25 for each acre thereof.

Sec. 5. That persons who have submitted final proof upon, or received patent for, lands of the character herein described under the homestead laws, and who own and reside upon the land so acquired may, subject to the provisions of this act, make additional entry for and obtain patent to contiguous land so acquired, may, subject to the provisions of this act, make additional entry for and obtain patent to contiguous lands designated for entry under the provisions of this act, which, together with the area theretofore acquired under the homestead law, shall not exceed 640 acres, on proof of the expenditure required by this act on account of permanent improvements upon the additional entry.

Sec. 6. That any person who is the head of a family, or who has arrived at the age of 21 years and is a citizen of the United States, who has entered or acquired under the homestead laws prior to the passage of this act, lands of the character described in this act, the area of which is less than 640 acres, and who is

NEW REPRESENTATIVE IS MAKING GOOD

Carrizozo Man Readily Achieving Prominence in New Mexico Legislative Circles at Santa Fe.

SECURES IMPORTANT COM- MITTEE APPOINTMENTS

Ira O. Wetmore, republican representative from Lincoln county, before the end of the sixty-day session of the legislature will be one of the most widely known members in New Mexico's law making body.

Such is the opinion of not only his friends and admirers back home, but of many others as well. Rarely, indeed, does it occur to any member in his first term to be so recognized and chosen on the large number of standing committees upon which Mr. Wetmore has been announced, among other things bespeaking Lincoln county's representative's popularity and fitness, in addition further equipping him with a force and prestige which will be of great use to him when Mr. Wetmore desires to make things move at the state capitol.

According to announcement of Speaker Llewellyn at the convening of the legislature, Mr. Wetmore was appointed on the following very important standing house committees: Finance, Railroads, Rules, Public Lands, Banks and Banking, Insurance, Constitutional Amendments and Corporations.

There is no question about Lincoln county obtaining further prominence through her chosen representative and Lincoln citizens and constituents of Mr. Wetmore should justly feel proud of the excellent showing he is bound to make in the legislature, proving himself beyond doubt the right man in the right place.

1ST NATIONAL PEOPLE TO BUILD A T ONCE

Officers of New Institution Announced Following Initial Meeting of Stockholders Here Saturday.

BUILDING WILL BE OF BRICK; DIMENSIONS 25x60 FEET

The stockholders of the new First National bank which it was announced last week would open up here for business in the very near future met in Carrizozo Saturday and completed their organization, the following officers and directors being announced:

H. B. Jones, president
Paul Mayer, vice-president
E. M. Brickley, cashier
Directors—H. B. Jones, David T. Beals, Paul Mayer, Dr. J. W. Laws, O. Z. Finley.

At the close of the meeting the directors of the bank purchased the corner lot across the street opposite Ziegler Bros.' store, from P. G. Peters, its owner. On this lot, it is stated will soon begin the erection of a substantial brick building, the dimensions of which are to be 25x60 feet, with ornamental front, tile floor, with interior finishings to match the marble fixtures which have been purchased for the bank. The building is to be modern in every respect and will house the latest and most up-to-date bank equipment obtainable.

It is planned to rush to completion a temporary wood structure on the adjoining lot which will enable the bank to open up shortly. The bank will be conducted in its temporary quarters until the main building can be finished, after which the wood structure will be disposed of and removed.

Gordon Champ Pine.

The funeral services of Gordon Pine, the fifteen-year-old son of Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Pine, who died in El Paso last Friday afternoon after undergoing an operation for peritonitis at the Hotel Dieu, was held at the Baptist church Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. M. Gardner assisted by Rev. Arthur Marston. Gordon Pine was born February 22, 1901, and died January 12, 1917, following injuries received in the auto accident just east of town a week before in which his father and little brother were also injured. Gordon was a member of the Baptist Sunday school, was studious, faithful and a favorite among his many friends. Interment was made in the local cemetery. Despite the bitter cold and stormy weather Sunday, about 23 auto loads of friends and relatives accompanied the remains to their last resting place.

Ice Injures Foot.

While assisting in the unloading of a car of ice in the local railroad yards last week, Station Agent H. M. Henson received a painfully bruised foot when a large block of the solid mass fell upon him. The injuries were looked after by Dr. Paden who had Mr. Henson back on duty next day.

Old Man Winter Returns.

Old Man Winter returned to Carrizozo last Saturday night and many were genuinely surprised Sunday morning when they awoke to gaze out upon the heavy blanket of snow which he left in his path. The snow was the heaviest of the season and remained on until Tuesday when Old Sol succeeded in chasing most of it into the gutter. Mercury in the thermometers tried to find the bottom and did succeed in hiding all but about 21 degrees of itself. Monday, with its wind bristling with iciness, was about the coldest and most disagreeable day experienced so far this winter.

THIRD STATE BANK RECEIVES CHARTER

Prominent Local Citizens are Incorporators of Fourth Banking Institution for Town of Carrizozo.

FORMER COUNTY TREASURER IS NAMED VICE-PRESIDENT

The third state bank for Carrizozo and in fact the city's fourth bank, the First National being third in the order of issuance of characters, was incorporated Monday of this week. This institution is to be known as the Stockmens State Bank of Carrizozo and has an authorized capital stock of $50,000. This bank, as is the Lincoln State bank, is particularly interesting to the people of this section as the majority of its officers and directors are composed of local, well-known citizens and are worthy of the confidence of the people.

Officers named for the new institution are:

R. E. P. Warden, president T. W. Watson, vice-president
R. B. Spruill, cashier.

Its incorporators are—R. E. P. Warden, Ira O. Wetmore, R. B. Spruill, Guy Warden, Dr. T. W. Watson, M. B. May and Gallagher Brothers.

Carrizozo now has four banking concerns, the Exchange Bank which was established in 1892 and one of the most conservatively managed and strongest financial institutions in this section of the state, the Lincoln State bank, the First National Bank and the Stockmens State Bank.

To Lecture at Lincoln.

Announcement is made that Rev. J. M. Gardner will deliver a lecture at Lincoln Tuesday, January 23rd, using 70 slides to illustrate the talk on mission work among immigrants, Cubans, Indians, Mexicans and in the Canal Zone.

Establishes Up-Town Office.

The Western Union Telegraph Company has established an up-town office in the old postoffice building for the convenience of its patrons in Carrizozo. The work of remodeling the interior of the building and installation of instruments was completed this week.

Entertains Bridge Club.

Mrs. R. T. Lucas was the charming hostess to the auction bridge club at her home on Alamo Avenue Thursday afternoon. Luncheon of lobster salad, coffee and cherry pie a la mode was served.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our heartfelt thanks to all those of our friends who so kindly gave us their assistance and sympathy in our sad bereavement, the illness and death of our beloved son and brother. We also wish to thank them for the beautiful floral offering.—DR. PINE and Family.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

ABOUT RAISING THE GRAZING FEES.

Growers of cattle and sheep in New Mexico and Arizona are very properly aroused over an announcement by the United States forest service that charges for grazing livestock in the national forests are to be doubled in order to wipe out the deficit under which the forest service has been laboring and give it a balance on the credit side. Efforts will be made at the convention of the National Wool Growers' Association and at the meeting of the American National Livestock Association in Cheyenne, to convince Secretary of Agriculture Houston of the un-wisdom of saddling this deficit upon the stock growers. The secretary will be present at the latter meeting when the matter will be discussed.

The position of the secretary of agriculture is that there is a deficit of $2,500,000 in the forest service funds; that congress is continually asking why the service cannot be made self supporting and that the department of agriculture, stung by the criticism, has determined to find some means of removing the deficit, and has turned to the grazing permits as the source of income most available for an increase.

The opposition of the stock growers to an increase is based on the contention that the rates are already as high as they can afford to pay; that it is unfair to load the deficit upon them when there are 82 activities upon which the forest service spends money, many of which have no connection, however remote, with the livestock industry; and that when many of the grazing districts are already self supporting, it is most unfair to increase the grazing rates of stock growers in those districts any further.

This is a sound contention.
The forest service should first survey its expenditures to see if they may not be reduced. If not, and the great timber tracts of the Pacific coast which have been withdrawn from entry in order to protect the watersheds, and the southern forests withdrawn in order to protect the turpentine industries cannot be made self supporting, then the expense of their administration should be borne by the federal government as a measure of general public benefit. At the same time it might be fair to raise the rates somewhat in those grazing districts which are not self supporting. But a doubling of the rates on all grazers, however situated, in order to make them bear the burden of the forest service's activities, is not fair and the stockmen are right in fighting the proposal.

According to a Kansas philosopher, the reason boys leave the farm is that Willie's calf too often grows up to be pa's cow.

Snow comes down in the winter and ice goes up in the which circle of the season you're in you have to hop to it or starve.

"Freedom of the Press" demanded by the American people doesn't mean that the country newspaper should be taken for two or three years without being paid for.

President Wilson is planning a trip west through New Mexico, Arizona, Nevada and other states early in the spring. Carrizozo is a fine rest-on-the-way place.
Stop over with us, Woodrow;

After reading the testimonial of some Virginia woman concerning the virtues of a patent medicine, in the course of which she states that she is the mother of eighteen children, we again rejoice with exceeding great joy this beautiful Friday morning that that brand of patent medicine never broke into our family.

If we were able to secure the consent of the Government, the Outlook would have a bright scheme to make money. It's simply this: If the postmasters throughout the country would not cancel the stamps on the letters we are receiving every day from various firms, individuals and corporations, who are trying to "mooch" free advertising, we would surely accumulate much wealth before the dawn of another new year.

A Western Texas paper boasts of having a local character named "Appletree Smith" who got his cognomen because of his propensity to hang around apple trees most of his life. We know some New Mexico candidates, by-the-way, who could have "Plumtree" appropriately attached to their names, because they have been hanging around the political fruit tree most of their lives waiting for something to fall.

Under the provisions of this act respecting the new entry and with all the provisions of existing homestead laws except as modified herein. Sec. 7. That the commutation provisions of the homestead laws shall not apply to any entries made under this act. Sec. 8. That any homestead entryman or patentee who shall be entitled to additional entry under this act shall have for 90 days after the designation of land subject to entry under the provisions of this act and continue to those entered or owned and accompanied by him, the preferential right to make additional entry as provided in this act. Sec. 9. That where such lands continue to the lands of two or more entrymen or patentees entitled to additional entries under this section are not sufficient in number to make such entryman to secure by additional entry the maximum amounts to which they are entitled, the Secretary of the Interior is authorized to make an equitable division of the lands among the several entrymen or patentees, applying to exercise preferential rights, such division to be in tracts of not less than 40 acres, or other legal subdivision and so made as to equalize as nearly as possible the area which such entrymen and patentees will acquire by making the tracts embraced in additional entries to the lands originally held or owned by them; Provided further, That where but one such tract of vacant land may suffice, the lands of two or more entrymen or patentees entitled to exercise preferential rights hereunder, the tract in question may be entered by the person who first submits to the local land office his application to exercise said preferential right.

FARM STOCK

GIVE BOAR GOOD ATTENTION

As He Matures, Litters Will Be Stronger and Larger—Keep Him Separated From the Sows.

It is not best to let the boar run with the rest of the herd. It is too common a practice to sell the boar when the season is over. This is largely the cause of so many small litters and weakboned pigs. It is best to get a good boar, and keep him for a few years, and as he matures his pigs will be stronger and litters larger.

Have a small yard of grass if possible, hog-tight and away from the sows, so he will not be worried. A quarter of an acre will afford plenty of exercise in the open air. When grass is not available, give him cut clover or any other good green feed that he will eat.

Feed sparingly of fattening feeds but give him feed that will keep him growing if he is not fully developed. Mill stuff, skim milk, clover, alfalfa or anything that furnishes protein is advisable. At all times keep a supply of ashes, salt and charcoal where he can obtain it at will. It will do much toward keeping him in good health.

RAISE RAPE FOR PASTURAGE

Splendid Feed for Sheep and Hogs—Good Use Can Be Made of the Temporary Fences.

Rape is a splendid feed for sheep and hogs as well. It is usually pastured, but when the acreage is small and one wishes to get the most from the crop, it is cut and fed to the stock and then when it grows up again, is pastured.

Rape is generally broadcasted in the early spring on well prepared ground at the rate of five pounds of seed per acre. When the plants are about eight inches high turn the sheep into the field. Most pasturage can be obtained if temporary fences are used to allow only a part of the field to be pastured at a time.

Best Not to Copy Too Closely.

"After the general change of the political situation in the middle ages that took away the city-planning activities from the princes, and either annihilated them or put them in the hands of the citizens, those citizens in very many cases turned out to be very ordinary, short-sighted, and uneducated bourgeois." Therefore, concludes Dr. Werner Hegemann, German expert, it behooves city planners of today not to take too seriously the work of city planners of yesterday. Beauty is all very well, but there are other things to be considered.

A Wide Range.

A young woman with an aspiration to shine in the chorus applied to Andreas Dippel, who has managed opera singers all his life, for a position in his company. "To sing in a chorus of mine," said Mr. Dippel, "you must have a good voice." "Oh, but I have one," replied the girl. Mr. Dippel led her to the piano and asked her to demonstrate her vocal powers. Sitting at the instrument and then swinging around, she smiled sweetly and asked: "Shall I sing 'The Chairs in the Parlor All Miss You,' or something light?"

American Surgeons in the War.
The satisfactory work done at American hospitals in two German cities has induced the German government to ask for more American surgeons of whose skill their German fellow surgeons "speak in terms of the highest appreciation." That is praise from a high source, and it is matched by the recognition given the work of American surgeons in French hospitals.

"Eyes of the World" to be Shown at Crystal Theater

To the thousands of book readers who know the tense dramatic interest and deep emotional thrill of Harold Bell Wright's famous story of love and adventure, "The Eyes of the World," it will be welcome news that a magnificent motion picture production of the romance is in the making, which W. H. Clune, the maker of "Ramona", and part producer of "The Clansman" ("The Birth of a Nation") has just completed, will be seen here at the Crystal Theatre Wednesday, February 14th.

The book, as is well known, has enjoyed an enormous popularity, having been read, according to the publishers, by more than 4,000,000 people, but the film and musical spectacle created from it is declared to surpass the written version in every way.

The Clune company has to its credit many notable achievements in these lines. Working differently from any other producers, it concentrates the entire energies of its forces on one thing at a time, sparing no expense or labor in the execution of a finished work. Clune's "Ramona", which is now being presented by many companies throughout the United States, has been hailed everywhere as the most beautiful and artistic thing ever evolved out of the new art of photo-drama.

The fight on the cliff, in "The Eyes of the World" between King and Rutledge, which is the major climax of the story, is said to be one of the most thrilling things ever shown in a theater. A musical score has been prepared for "The Eyes of the World," which is said to be the second with every mood of the unfolding tale, and is said to be a symphonic drama in itself.

"The Eyes of the World" was filmed with the active personal assistance of the author, who not only amplified the story for the screen and prepared the working scenario but also took part in the day-by-day work of interpreting his characters for the production. Extensive motion picture views of Harold Bell Wright at his literary workshop on his great ranch at Oracle, Arizona, are shown preceding the filmed story.
